37 Pints Blood Donated; Stamp Honors Red Cross

The Boone County Chapter, American Red Cross, wishes to thank all who participated in any way when the Bloodmobile visited Walton, just before Christmas. Thirty-seven pints of blood were taken and it is interesting to note that of his number, 35 were "repeaters," people who had given when the Bloodmobile visited Walton and Boone county on other visits. Those donating were:

Veve Webster, Bodie Brannon, Nell Campbell, Eugene Graham, Georgia Stephenson, Emma Cluser, William Cluser, John M. Taylor, F. S. Jones, Ruth Hall, R. M. Hall, Robert H. Stephenson, Elizabeth English, Wallace Grubbs, Claude Kendall, Amanda Yealey, Henry Lipscomb, Mrs. Henry Lipscomb, E. L. Steinhauser, Kyle Nicholson, Raymond Nicholson, Charles W. Holder, Queenie Webster, Joe Landerbach, James Smith, Bryan Rector, Clayton Jones, Rev. Chas. Vaughn, Rev. W. G. Burkett, Marion Isbell, Sam Beagle, Finley Jacobs, Al Fred Hall, C. O. Carlisle, Mary Howard, Catherine Simpson, Nathan Roberts.

Henry H. Fowler, Director of Office of Defense Mobilization, says, "Not all our organization genius and industrial skill can produce one weapon essential to our national defense—human blood. Blood cannot be mined, manufactured or fabricated. It must come from the veins of healthy men and women."

Right now blood is saving lives at the front in Korea and in hospitals far behind the combat lines. That's why your blood donation is needed now, and when you give, of this you can be sure: Wherever it goes, this priceless, priceless gift will come day save an American life.

Red Cross Stamp

The United States Government has put out a new stamp honoring the International Red Cross and Mrs. Alan H. Gaines, Walton, Chairman of the Boone County Chapter, American Red Cross, has been selected to receive the stamp in Boone County on its first day of issue, with the following citation:

"Dear Mrs. Gaines. In recognition of the world-wide significance of the International Red Cross, the United States government has issued today, a special postage stamp honoring this great humanitarian movement. Because of your leadership in the American Red Cross—an integral part of the International organization, which now embraces societies in 71 nations—it is my pleasure to send you this first day cover of the new stamp. As the design signifies, the Red Cross is indeed a symbol of hope and compassion in a troubled world. Under this symbol let us continue our efforts to make common cause with all men and women whose willing hands and warm hearts are dedicated to the service of humanity."

Amateur Show At Burlington, January 19th

An amateur show will be held in conjunction with the annual Boone County Farm Bureau meeting, January 19, at 8:00 p. m., in the Burlington High School auditorium. Everyone will want to see Boone County's talent, and there will be fun for everyone—young and old.

Paul Grubbs of the State Farm Bureau office will be the principal speaker, it was announced by James B. Jones. Rules for the Talent Contest: 1—Must be a resident of Boone Co. 2—Contestants may be any age. 3—May be individual or group acts. 4—Contestants must be amateurs. 5—Acts may consist of singing, music, reading, dancing, imitations, etc. 6—Each act should be not longer than ten minutes. 7—All entries must be in by January 12, 1953, to John Crigler, Burlington. Entries must have: Name, address, and name of act. 8—Prizes will be: First, $15.00; second, $10.00; third, $5.00.

License Tags On Sale Jan. 2

George A. Damon, clerk at the Independence Court House, announces that the sale of auto licenses will begin January 2, and he urges immediate purchase to avoid the last-minute rush. This year, car owners will be issued the regular plates and not stickers.

Better Start Checking

Readers of the Advertiser are asked to check their expiration date on their paper, and be advised that on the first day of February, the list must be in a paid-in-advance state, due to a Postal ruling. This will give everyone about 30 days in which to get to town and take care of this matter—where could you get year-round enjoyment like the Advertiser for only four cents a week—so, come in or mail your subscription to this office.

Independence Fire Call

The Independence Fire Department was called to the William Works home on Old Horsebranch Road, Tuesday morning, where the roof on his house was on fire. The cause was due to a defective flue and was extinguished soon after arrival. Fire Chief T. Mershon estimated the damage at $100.00.

Farmers Now Own Credit Cooperative

It was in February, 1934, when farmers in Grant, Boone, Campbell, Carroll, Gallatin, Kenton, Owen and Pendleton counties met in Independence to organize a credit cooperative through which they could obtain loans to finance crop and livestock production on their farms. Seven directors were elected and The Northern Kentucky Production Credit Association was duly chartered as an Agricultural Credit Cooperative under provisions of the Farm Credit Act of 1933.

In providing for a nation-wide system of these Credit Cooperatives, Congress made available funds to help capitalize their Association. Farmers could build up their own investment in them to the point where the Government capital was no longer needed.

This was accomplished in The Northern Kentucky Association, December 31, 1952. Now the members own all the capital stock, which is $117,785, as of November 30. None of the Government provided capital was loaned but used as investment capital. It has all been returned without one cent loss to the Government.

Since organization, the Association has made loans totaling close to ten million dollars with losses totaling only four one-hundredths of one percent. The reserves and capital now owned by members totals $204,248, as of November 30.

The present Board of Directors are: A. Threlkeld, president, Grant county; W. H. Parker, vice president, Carroll county; Roscoe Jump, Grant county; F. G. Marquette, Pendleton county, and Charles L. Hemphill, Boone county. The secretary-treasurer and manager is Russell H. Lawrence, Williamstown.

The Association maintains a central office in Williamstown, with field offices in Owenton, Burlington and Falmouth, as well as contact points in other counties.

NOTICE—WATER USERS

City water in Walton will be shut off, according to John E. Stephenson, from 9:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon, on Tuesday, January 6, for the purpose of cleaning the storage tank.

"WHO's WHO" in this Vicinity . . .

Herold Lusby
Mr. Lusby is employed as a salesman for the Stratton & Testagrose hardware firm of Louisville, with territory in Indiana. He and Mrs. Lusby and their three children live on Alta Vista Drive.

Simon Kenton Senior Heads Future Retailers

James Whitaker, 17-year-old Simon Kenton High School senior, has been elected president of the Kentucky Future Retailers Association. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Whitaker of Walton, Route 1.

W. Maurice Baker, University of Kentucky faculty member and state adviser of the organization, said that election was by mail ballot. More than 50 nominations were made by members from all areas of the state.

Other officers named were: Milton Nichols, Lafayette High School, Lexington, first vice president; Silas Peace, Corbin, second vice president; Arno Mitchell, Technical High School, Owensboro, third vice president; Mabel Scott, Ahrens Trade High, Louisville, secretary; Charles Cook, Dixie Heights High School, Edgewood, reporter, and Robert Young, Central City, treasurer.

The association, which has a membership of more than 400, is composed of high school students enrolled in vocational training programs in retailing. Under this plan of education, students receive practical training in retailing while completing their regular high school work. In addition to classroom work, each member spends an average of 15 hours a week working in retail establishments in his community.

First task of the new officers will be to make arrangements for the annual state convention of the organization to be held in Lexington, next spring.

Kenton Utopia Club Meets

The Kenton Utopia Club held its regular monthly meeting for December at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Barnes on Madison Pike. Roll call was answered by 18 members, and the meeting was called to order by John Carlisle, vice president.

A committee was named to get things ready for the District Banquet, to be held in March. The Kenton Club and the Crescent Springs Utopia Club will be hosts to Boone, Campbell, Gallatin, and Owen county clubs at the district banquet. No definite time and place has been decided upon as yet. A committee has been appointed to find a place. It was suggested to see if Ollie James could be obtained as a speaker.

Members present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Carlisle, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Works, Mr. and Mrs. John Hetterman, Mr. and Mrs. George Wolcott, Mr. and Mrs. William Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Solisbury, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Finnell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Blau. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Billy Rich and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Groper.

After the meeting was adjourned, a Christmas party and games were enjoyed by all. A delicious lunch was served.

The January meeting will be held on the 14th with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Blau as hosts.

Accident At Sandfordtown

Last Tuesday morning, the Independence bus, making a stop at Sandfordtown, headed for Covington, was run into by a fellow driving a new Oldsmobile. The driver was unable to stop, due to ice on the highway, as the bus slowed down to pick up passengers. No one was injured.

Three Robberies In Walton Just Before Christmas; No Clues

JANIE CLINKENBEARD

Mrs. Janie Clinkenbeard, of Elmore, died December 22 at her home. She was 80 years old, and was a member of the Goshen Christian Church at Piner.

Mrs. Clinkenbeard is survived by three sons, Russell of Atwood, Roy of Independence, and Frank Clinkenbeard of Ft. Mitchell; a brother, Judas Thomas Crouch of Lebanon, Ind.; a sister, Mrs. Rose Finkbeak of LaGrange, Ky., and 12 grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m., Wednesday, Dec. 24, at the Chambers and Grubbs Funeral Home, Walton. Burial was in Independence Cemetery.

Services for Elmer Leroy McCubbin, Walton, were held at 2:00 p. m., Wednesday, at the Walton Baptist Church, with the pastor, Rev. William G. Burkett, officiating. Burial was in Hillcrest Cemetery, Dry Ridge.

Mr. McCubbin, who died Monday at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington, was 25 years old. He was employed as a handyman at the Grote Manufacturing Co., Bellevue. A veteran of World War II, he served in the Army of Occupation in Korea.

Surviving him are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy McCubbin, Walton; two brothers, James, Walton, and Eugene, with the Air Force in Arizona, and two sisters, Mrs. Henry Fornash of Walton, and Miss Faye McCubbin, at home.

Christian Church Now Free Of Indebtedness

The Chairman of the Board, V. D. James, announced Sunday morning that all indebtedness had been paid on the building debt incurred after the fire. The members have worked and looked forward to the day the church could be free of indebtedness. This provides an opportunity for the church to plan for repair and expansion, as the Bible school has been growing the past year, and the church membership is increasing steadily.

Sunday night at 7:30, the Bible school in cooperation with the young people, will present a dynamic and challenging film entitled, "And Now I See." Dan Roberts will serve as projectionist. Plans are under consideration for including a regular Department of Visual Education for the church, beginning January 8, from 10 to 11:30 a. m. Claude Adams, treasurer of the church, assisted by the Finance Department, is anxious for all members to complete their pledges by Sunday morning or night.

Rev. Vaughn will speak Sunday morning on the subject, "An Ideal Program for the Local Congregation." Special music will be presented by the Music Department.—Pub. Chm.

Santa Gets Big Welcome

The children of this community gave Santa a big welcome at the Walton Fire Department, Saturday, December 20, when the volunteer firemen sponsored a Santa, treat, and most of all, a ride on one of the Department's engines. Approximately 200 children had a ride on the supervised trips about town that afternoon. This certainly was a wonderful good-will gesture on the part of the firemen.

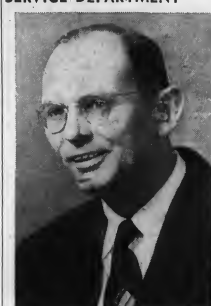

On Tuesday of this week the local Fire Department was called to the Artistic Dry Cleaning plant and extinguished a fire that had started in the room where the cleaning machinery is located. The loss was held to a minimum, including some clothing.

Birthday Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Stephenson entertained in their home recently in honor of the birthdays of Mr. Stephenson and son, Jack.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Stephenson and sons of Erlanger, Mr. and Mrs. Lebus Stephenson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Stephenson and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. James McCubbin and son, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Sparks and Charles Sparks, Mrs. Emma Flynn, Mrs. Ella Stamper, Mrs. Ann Dugden, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Allen and children, and Mrs. and Mrs. James McCubbin and son. Mr. Stephenson and Jack many more happy and prosperous years.

HEADS DIXIE CHEVROLET SERVICE DEPARTMENT

Gilbert "Gill" Duwell

Dixie Chevrolet Sales, Walton, under the management of E. L. "Wimp" Steinhauer and R. C. Durr, announce the addition to their service department of one of the most experienced specialists in the field today. "Gill" Duwell, who has had 20 years specialized work with Auto & Aero Supply, Sun Electric Corp., and Tri-State Ignition, where he was doing all types of tune-up, ignition and general repair, came to Walton, as one of the best trained mechanics in the business.

Staffordsburg Homemakers

The Staffordsburg Homemakers held their Christmas party at the Staffordsburg Methodist Church. Mrs. Ralph Howard presided over a short business meeting. Donations of cup cakes and oranges were collected, to be taken to the Kenton Infirmary.

After partaking of a turkey dinner, members exchanged gifts and sang several Christmas carols. Mrs. Mabel Vandingham read an interesting Christmas story, entitled, "The Gifts of the Wise Men," by Harvey N. Chinn.

The next meeting will be moved up one week, to January 13, in order for the leaders to take the lesson January 7. Members are asked to bring their old Christmas cards to this meeting.

Those attending were: Mesdames Roy Payne, Emil Stein, L. J. Faulkner, Stella Richardson, L. J. Rapp, George Klein, J. Beall, J. J. Barnett, Hollie Carr, Mabel Vandingham, L. M. Deuser, Denver Birder, Clinton Henry, Edith Ware, John Shaw, Howard Barnett, Blanche Rich, Floyd Smith, Shirley Halderman, Chester Hill, J. A. Keeney, Ralph Howard, Ernest Ryle, William Binder, John McClure, members, and Miss Minnie Rapp, Mrs. Fay Johnson and children, Becky, Sherry and Jimmie, guests.

NAVY RECRUITER HERE

W. F. Garrigus, Chief Tarapodoman's Mate, U. S. Navy Recruiter, will be in the Walton Post Office every Thursday, beginning January 8, from 10 to 11:30 a. m., to accept applications for enlistments in the Navy and Waves.

MRS. W. A. GLASSER

Mrs. A. W. Glasser of Bethel, Ohio, the former Marie Allen of Walton, passed away December 16 at her home in Bethel, at the age of 58 years.

Besides her husband, she is survived by her mother, Mrs. James B. Allen of Florence; a brother, James R. Allen of Saudi, Arabia, and a niece, Mollie Allen of Walton.

Independence Homemakers

Independence Homemakers met at the home of Mrs. Foster Armstrong, Covington, for their annual Christmas party. Members were greeted at the door by a life-size Santa and a huge basket of gifts, which were distributed later.

On the door, "Merry Christmas" was written in eight different languages. Mrs. Nienhouse read a passage of scripture for a reading program. Eleven books and 33 magazines were reported read. Mrs. Charles Davis gave "Christmas in Other Lands" for the afternoon program.

A lovely turkey dinner was served by Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. John Leslie, co-hostesses, to the following: Mrs. J. C. Reynolds, Mrs. G. H. Houston, John Wayman, Mrs. F. Cox, Mrs. W. Moser and David, Mrs. Chas. Davis, Mrs. A. Nienhouse, Mrs. C. Snelson, Mr. Folton, Mrs. Garner, Mrs. Albert Berra, and Mrs. Donald Adams.

Ballard, Kacaba, Blackburn's Losers

T. O. Ballard, one of Walton's barbers, was held up and robbed in his shop on December 19, by two men who came in late to get work done.

The two men entered the shop just before he closed and, as had been his practice, he pulled the shades, then after he had worked on one of the men, he was given a five-dollar bill and, as he started to give him change, they pulled a gun on him and demanded all his money. Mr. Ballard estimates they took about $30.00.

After robbing him, they then gagged him and tied him in his barber shop, where he had to remain for about two hours, until he could work himself free. No trace of the men has been found.

Two other robberies followed within the next few days: Miss Lena Kacaba, who lives at the Waltonian Hotel was robbed of all her Christmas gifts from her room while she was visiting.

The other robbery was at Blackburn's Grocery where about $100 worth of cigarettes and other small items were taken. Vandals who broke in.

Honored On Birthday

The Dorcas class of the Walton Baptist Church met recently to celebrate the 90th birthday of their teacher, Mrs. Susan Norman. She received many lovely gifts in appreciation of her faithful service for the past 48 years.

Those who were present were Mrs. Norman, Mrs. Virgil Fisher, Mrs. Grace Fisher, Mrs. Sara Slett, Mrs. Bess Cannon, Mrs. Blanche Franks, Mrs. Lorena Myers, Mrs. Gertrude Daniels, Mrs. Hattie Cook, Mrs. Anna Johnson, Mrs. Rhelda Jewers, Mrs. Erma Stockman, Mrs. Pot Sturdivant, Mrs. Beulah Stephenson, and Mrs. Julia Pennington.

NEW BANK PRESIDENT

At a call meeting of the Board of Directors of the Dixie State Bank, December 27, 1952, Mrs. Ruth C. Baker was elected a director to fill the vacancy caused by the death of her husband, Geo. W. Baker.

Alan H. Gaines was, at the same time, elected president by a unanimous vote of all directors present, to fill the office left vacant by the passing of Mr. Baker. Mr. Baker was one of the original organizers of the Dixie State Bank in 1927, and was elected president in 1933. Mr. Gaines has served on the Board of the bank since 1936.

Auto Plunges Through Guard Rail on Bridge

An auto plunged through a railing of the bridge, just North of Walton, on Walton-Nicholson Highway, shortly before midnight last Friday, and dropped nearly 50 feet onto the Southern Railroad tracks below. The vehicle overturned and was demolished, but its three occupants escaped serious injury. State Police reported.

Sgt. William Campbell and Cpl. Harold Kinman, after viewing the wreckage, said it was "amazing" that the occupants weren't killed.

The car was driven by Lowell Fooks, 21, Elmore, a soldier home on furlough. Passengers were Edith Powers, 16, Covington, and Leonard Wiggins, 17, of Erlanger.

State troopers said the car failed to make the curve at the approach to the bridge and tore through the railing. The three occupants suffered cuts, bruises, and shock. They were given first aid by Sgt. Campbell and Cpl. Kinman, then taken home.

ANNA BELLE CHAPMAN

Miss Anna Belle Chapman, a native of Grant county, died December 25 at the home of a nephew, Rev. J. E. Chapman, Cincinnati, at the age of 77 years.

Besides Rev. Chapman, she is survived by six other nephews and three nieces. Services were held at 2 p. m., Sunday at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church, with burial following in the church cemetery. Chambers & Grubbs Funeral Home, Walton, completed arrangements.

The ambulance made a run to Louis P. Lee's where Mrs. Lee's brother, Mr. Veach, was taken to the hospital. He was in a critical condition.

Marriage License

A marriage license was issued to Floyd D. Fennell, 21, and Sonia Homey, 18, both of Morning View. They were married December 17.

Firemen's Get-Together

The firemen, their wives and their families topped off the holiday season by having a family-get-together at the fire house last Sunday, Dec. 28. The group ate a wonderful dinner, composed of covered dishes brought by the wives, and was complete even to two tasty fruit cakes. Coffee was served during and after the meal and a wonderful time was had by all.

Fire Department's Thanks

The Fire Department wishes to thank each and every merchant and the Town Board for the wonderful help they received from them for giving away the candy, nuts, fruit, etc., to the children Christmas Eve. The Christmas tree was wonderful and was donated by a friend. The surplus bags of sandy, etc., were taken to the Orphans' Home, where happy, smiling faces of the children showed their appreciation.

Visit of Income Tax Man

Direct orof Internal Revenue, W. M. Gray, announces that an agent from his office will visit Covington, January 2, 5 through 9, 12 through 16, 19 through 23, and 26 through 30, 1953, for the purpose of assisting those individuals who are required to file either amended declaration or final returns by January 15 and January 31.

BREED WELL AND FEED WELL FOR PRODUCTION

Returns are best in dairying when cows are well bred and then well fed, says a statement from the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics.

Having high-producing cows not only makes it possible to get better results from all feeds but makes it easier to produce large amounts of milk from fewer cows, it was added. It also makes for more profitable farming and more efficient use of farm labor.

Figures in the statement show that Kentucky cows giving 5,000 pounds of milk a year provide an average income of $129 over feed cost. Those giving 7,000 pounds of milk return $181 over feed cost; 9,000-pound cows, $228; 11,000-pound cows, $282, and 13,000-pound cows, $338.

Farm organizations cooperated in distributing 900 pounds of rat poison in Nicholas county.

He is medium sized, largely white in color, and of definitely good conformation. He is the 150th Gold Medal Proved Sire of the Holstein-Friesian Association. His daughters are with one exception a very uniform group, and somewhat refined. Particularly noticeable is the quality of their udders. The ABS is represented locally by the Northern Kentucky Proved Sire Service.

farm facts

FOR KENTUCKY FOLKS

by Wm. C. Johnstone
AGRICULTURAL REPRESENTATIVE
KENTUCKY BANKERS ASSOCIATION

PROFIT FACTS—Farm profit is the difference between the price farmers get for their products and the cost of producing them. In 1953 the cost of production is expected to be up and farm prices DOWN. Even though there is little the farmer can do to increase the price for his products, there are many things that he can do to hold down the production costs. As a rule, the higher the acre yield the lower the unit cost. The Kentucky farmer that produces just average yields in 1953 will find the "goink tough." So, throughout the year, this column will touch on facts that tend to increase yields and lower costs. Most important of these are fertility, varieties and "doing the right thing at the right time."

FERTILIZER FACTS—Supplies of fertilizers in 1953 are expected to be about 10% more plentiful than in 1952, which is fortunate because about 20% of our present day production is the result of added plant food.

The Kentucky Experiment Station says that lime, phosphate and potash, used in addition to manure on experimental fields outside the Blue Grass, increased corn yields 35 bushels, wheat 16 bushels and hay almost 1½ ton. At the present prices of fertilizer and crops, each dollar invested in fertilizer returned $7 in products. Higher yields and greater net returns would probably have been obtained from larger fertilizer applications and the use of nitrogen. The dollar returns from fertilizer on tobacco is usually at the rate of 10 to 1.

In 1952 Kentucky farmers used 55,000 tons of fertilizer. In 1951 they used 557,000 tons.

VARIETY FACTS—For early seeded crops here are the recommended varieties: Oats, Andrews and Columbia; Burley tobacco, Ky. 16, 26, 35, 41A or 57; Red Clover, Kenland.

CENSUS FACTS—For the past 30 years the number of farms in Kentucky have been declining at the rate of 2,000 per year. During the past decade 78 Kentucky counties lost population, the greatest reduction taking place in Lyon, Trigg, Wolfe and Livingston counties.

The number of farm workers declined at the rate of 10,000 per year during the past 15 years. In spite of this, Kentucky farmers are producing more than ever—a big factor being the increase in tractors—from 12,000 in 1940 to 59,000 in 1950.

LIVESTOCK FACTS—Kentucky's 3.9 million head of livestock (exclusive of products) are valued at one-third billion dollars. But, Kentucky farmers are doing little to aggressively promote the improvement of livestock. Only 14 counties have organized Livestock Improvement Associations. Such local associations can do much to improve livestock quality and production methods. How about your county? If you do not have such an association, why don't you help organize one?

Voice of Truth

C. N. "Doc" Taylor

"IT IS FINISHED" (John 19:30)

How terribly have these blessed words of Christ's been misunderstood, misappropriated and misapplied! How many seem to think that on the Cross the Lord Jesus accomplished a work which rendered it unnecessary for the beneficiaries of it to live holy lives on earth. So many have been deluded into thinking that so far as reaching Heaven is concerned, it matters not how they walk provided they are "resting on the finished work of Christ." They may be unfruitful, untruthful, disobedient, let (though they may possibly miss some "millennial crown") so long as they repudiate all righteousness of their own and have faith in Christ, they imagine they are "eternally secure."

All around us are people who are worldly-minded, money-lovers, pleasure-seekers, Sabbath-breakers, yet who think all is well with them because they have "accepted Christ as their personal Saviour." In their aspiration, conversation, and recreation there is practically nothing to differentiate them from those who make no profession at all. Neither in their home-life nor social-life, is there anything save empty pretensions to distinguish them from others. The fear of God is not upon them, the commands of God have no authority over them, the holiness of God has no attraction for them.

"It is Finished." How solemn to realize that these words of Christ's have been used to lull thousands into a false peace. Yet, such is the case. We have come into close contact with many who have no private prayer-life, who are selfish, covetous, dishonest, but who suppose that a merciful God will overlook all such things provided they once put their trust in the Lord Jesus. What a horrible perversion of the truth! What a turning of God's grace "into lasciviousness." (Jude 4) Yes, those who now live the most self-seeking and flesh-plesing lives, talk about their faith in the blood of the Lamb, and suppose they are safe. How the Devil has deceived them!

"It is Finished." Do those blessed words signify that Christ so satisfied the requirements of God's holiness that holiness no longer has any real and pressing claims upon us? Perish the thought. Even the redeemed, God says, "Be ye holy, for I am holy" (1 Pet. 1:16). Did Christ "magically the law and make it honorable" (Isa. 42:21) that we might be lawless? Did He "fulfill all righteousness" (Matt. 3:15) to purchase for us an immunity from loving God with all our hearts and serving Him with all our faculties? Did Christ die in order to secure a Divine indulgence that we might live to please self? Many seem to think so. No, the Lord Jesus has left His people an example that they should "follow (not ignore) His steps."

"It is Finished." What was "finished?" The need for sinners to repent? No, indeed. The need for turning to God from idols? No, indeed. The need for mortifying my members which are upon earth? No, indeed. Christ died not to make you sorrow for, hatred of, and striving against sin, useless. Christ died not to absolve me from the full discharge of my responsibilities unto God. Christ died not so that I might go on retaining the friendship and fellowship of the world. How passing strange that any should think that He did. Yet the actions of many show that this is their idea.

"It is Finished." What was finished? The sacrificial types were accomplished, the prophecies of His sufferings were fulfilled, the work given Him by the Father had been perfectly done, a sure foundation had been laid on which a righteous God could pardon the vilest transgressor of the law who lived down the weapons of his warfare against Him. Christ had now performed all that was necessary in order for the Holy Spirit to come and work in the hearts of His people; convincing them of their rebellion, slaying their enmity against God, and producing in the man loving and obedient heart.

O, dear reader, make no mistake on this point. The "finished work of Christ" avails you nothing if your heart has never been broken through an agonizing consciousness of your sinfulness. The "finished work of Christ" avails you nothing unless you have been saved from the power and pollution of sin. (Matt. 1:21). It avails you nothing if you still love the world (1 John 2:15). It avails you nothing unless you are a "new creature" in Him (1 Cor. 5:17). If you value your soul, search the Scriptures and see for yourself; take no man's word for it. (adv.)

CIRCULARS DISCUSS RENTING OF FARMS

About this time of year many farmers and tenants and fathers and sons are thinking about the problems of renting farms.

It is well to give this problem much consideration, says H. M. Young, Jr., field agent in farm management for the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, University of Kentucky. "Poor renting and poor business arrangements can limit profits of both landlord and tenant, or both father and son," he said. The university has several publications that may contain helpful suggestions. Among them are "Farm Lease," "Guide to Father-Son Farming Arrangements," "Family Farm-Operating Agreements," "Family Farm-Transfer Arrangements," and "Legal Aspects of Farm Tenancy in Kentucky." Any of these publications may be had at offices of county agents or by writing to the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, Lexington.

The Rowan County 4-H Club Council has purchased 100 metal 4-H club signs. Don Spivy and Lannie Harrison, Laurel county 4-H club boys, gave a demonstration in producing clain milk.

Ballard county corn treated to control rootworms yielded eight bushels more an acre than untreated corn.

Members of the Utopia club in Gallatin county pooled orders for strawberry plants, grapes and fruit trees.

Bird's-eye view of a NEW KIND of Railroadings!

THERE'S GOOD REASON why the Southern Railway System today probably has more new and modernized yards and terminals than any other railroad in the country.

Our modern Diesel locomotives—we soon will be 100% Dieselized—have been doing a record-breaking job of hauling our freight cars between terminals. But that wasn't enough. A new kind of railroading was needed in terminals, too—so that time gained out on the line wouldn't be lost by cars "loafing" in old-fashioned yards.

That's why the Southern has been building new, ultra modern "push-button" yards like the $10 million yard shown above—modernizing existing yards—improving freight handling methods all along the line.

From this new kind of railroading is coming faster, better-than-ever service to the growing Southland we serve.

Living From Heart

Lesson for January 4, 1953

WHEN YOU are studying a foreign language for the first time, one of the big "humps" is learning the vocabulary. It's dull but necessary. You can know the rules of grammar down to the last footnote; you can pronounce the words "like a native"; but if you don't know what the words mean, you are sunk. All this is just as true in trying to understand the Bible as it is in understanding anything else.

"Heart" Means Many Things

The Bible word "heart" is one of those that can be easily misunderstood. It speaks often of the heart. "Out of it are the issues of life," says the Prophet (Prov. 4:23). "These people honor me with their lips, but their heart is far from me," says the prophet Isaiah. What is it that makes him so sure that it is the heart that makes him so sure? He is talking about the heart. What, exactly, does "heart" mean, in the Bible? It could mean a number of things that it does not mean.

It is seldom used, in the Bible, in the literal sense of the physical organ that pushes the blood around. No ancient peoples knew the true physiology of the heart. Also, the Bible writers seldom, if ever, use the word in our common figurative sense of emotion, or the emotional life. If we today say that a certain person's heart rules his head, we mean by that that his intellect is not as strong as his feelings. A smart and unscrupulous lawyer, in addressing a jury, will (as he might say) "go for their hearts, not for their heads." That is, he expects them to be swayed by prejudice and emotion, not by the facts in the case. But this too is not the Bible meaning of "heart." Certainly it is never balanced off against the mind or the intellect.

Bible Meaning of "Heart"

Even in modern times, with all our passion for scientifically accurate terms, there is no one word which means just what this word "heart" means in the Bible. There the heart stands for the center of the personality as a whole. If we used such words as "core" or "root" or "mainpring" of life, we should be getting at the idea. It is not emotional, though it affects the emotions. It is not intellectual, though it lies back of thinking. It does not quite mean character, rather it means the taproot of character.

Let us try to illustrate it. Tell the same piece of news to several people—say the report of some accident or disaster, and see how they react. One will be quite indifferent, one will burst into tears, another will laugh, another will say, "Can't we do something to help?" Now what makes the difference? All have heard the same words, but the words have different effects. In Bible language, the reason is that they have different hearts. The inner makeup is something deeper than what the eyes see or the ears hear. It is deeper than the brain, it lies at the bottom of the feelings. When the Bible speaks of a person's heart, it is not speaking of the way he acts or talks or feels or thinks; it means the way the man is.

God Sees Through Paint

If there was one person for whom Jesus had no use whatever, it was a hypocrite. A hypocrite is a person who has learned the fatal trick of short-circuiting his heart from his outward actions. The hypocrite turns a smile on and off as he would turn a water faucet, not because he feels like smiling or frowning, but because he thinks a smile is called for; he will say one thing and think another. His apparent emotions, language, actions, have no more relation to his real inner self than the actions of a clown in a circus. A clown can act very funny with his painted smile, though inwardly full of bitterness or grief. He acts comical because he is paid for it, not necessarily because he feels gay.

Jesus liked people who live from within, who have no short-circuit between what they are on the outside and what they are on the inside. He did not care much for a fig-tree which was really nothing but figs stuck on a thorn bush. That is why the Bible has so much to say about the heart. If God has a man's heart, he has the man.

A BETTER WORLD?

There's plenty of room for improvement in this old world of ours.

Of course, it is just about perfect from a structural standpoint. It spins through space with such mathematical precision that man can count days and months and years—and even print them on calendars without fear of error.

But where life and people are concerned... even a child can see that things are pretty badly muddled.

What of 1953? Will it bring a better world? Will there be more happiness and less sorrow... more love and less hatred... more good, less evil?

Our world will always be what we are. Only as the lives of men change, can the life of the world improve.

The Church is dedicated to building better lives. By religious education, by worship, by preaching the highest moral and spiritual standards, the Church can make a better you and a better me. There is no other way to a better world. The Church is the salvation of mankind.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor for on earth for the building of a character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should join the Church. They are: (1) children's souls. (2) For his own soul. (3) For his family and community. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to Bible daily.

The Christmas season is over and we hope everyone had a very Merry Christmas and we wish all a Happy New Year. We are very glad to learn those on our sick list are improving.

Mrs. Dawson Losey has been quite ill the past week in the hospital but is expected to get home soon.

The many friends of Bill Miller of the Dixie Highway, near Walton, regret to learn of his sudden death, which occurred at his home recently. We extend sympathy to his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Keeney and Miss Hope Keeney returned to their homes in Chicago, Sunday, after spending the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney.

Miss Margaret Damon spent Sunday with her uncle, Paul Damon, and family.

Wayne Riley spent a couple weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Riley, and other relatives during his furlough. Wayne is now stationed in Georgia and his time expires February 5.

The Christmas entertainment which was given Sunday night before Christmas by the Staffordsburg Sunday School was quite a success.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barnett are spending several days with Mrs. Barnett's family of Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Wynford Riley and daughter are expecting Mrs. Riley's parents from Florida for a couple of weeks.

Ervin Walking is spending a couple weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Walking.

Mr. and Mrs. George Folmer and son, Randall, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Daisy Richardson, and Helen.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hanna were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to our many friends who were so kind to us during the illness and death of our loved one.

SEEDING, RENOVATION NEEDED FOR PASTURES

Due to drought, many Kentucky farmers may be short of pasture next year unless seeding and renovation are done early in 1953. It is pointed out at the University of Kentucky.

So far as grass and legume seeds are concerned, Ky. 31 fescue, orchard grass, red clover, alfalfa, ladino, white clover and sweet clover are all abundant, it is stated. Out of this list it is still possible to produce pasture in 1953.

The university croppers say the first thing to do is to have the soil tested and get fertilizer. Twenty-five to 35 pounds of nitrogen on acre usually should be used.

Land that is weedy can be plowed if weather permits, but most land can be prepared by disking. The seed can be drilled or broadcast and allowed to freeze in. It is considered a safety precaution to divide the seeding, sowing half of it quite early and the rest in three to four weeks.

Seed mixtures should include grasses at about 8 to 12 pounds an acre, and legumes at about the same rate, except that ladino should not be sown at more than a pound an acre.

Kentland red clover is preferable if it can be obtained. However, there is much commercial red clover seed of no particular variety that can be used to good advantage in pasture seeding, the university statement added.

Home-grown alfalfa seed should be used where it can be obtained. It should be Atlantic, Buffalo or Ranger, is possible.

The Kentucky Board of Agriculture recommends that all calves be vaccinated against Bang's Disease between their fourth and eighth months.

There are over 200 species of fish in Kentucky's lakes and streams.

Since the state program for calfhood vaccination has been in effect, over 33,000 calves have been vaccinated officially.

The geographic center of Kentucky is near Lebanon, in Martin county.

An auction sale of donated articles helped to raise money to finance 4-H club work in Hopkins county.

Eleven of 23 artificially-bred heifers consigned to a sale in Harrison county failed to sell.

IT'S HERE! First Showing of the

NEW FORD TRACTOR

Golden Jubilee MODEL

- ★ MOST ADVANCED Hydraulic System in any Tractor!
- ★ EXTRA POWER with New Overhead Valve Engine!

Yes, it's on display right now, waiting to show you what a really modern tractor can and should be. It's waiting with extra power, extra size, extra weight. It's ready to demonstrate new handling ease, comfort and convenience.

It's eagerly waiting to introduce you to the most advanced hydraulic system in any tractor. We call it Live-Action Hydraulic Control. That means split-second hydraulic response any time the tractor engine is running. Then there's a choice of hydraulic speed - you want even faster action. It's called Hy-Trol.

This new tractor is waiting with its great new overhead valve Ford "Red Tiger" engine. With its greatly reduced piston travel, lessened friction and other advanced design features, this engine develops ample reserve power with new economy of gas and oil. But it would take a full hour to tell you of all the features and advantages of this new engine - let alone the rest of the tractor.

Most important of all, Ford's Golden Jubilee Model is waiting to show you what it can do - what this great combination of modern advancements and every time-proved Ford Tractor advantage means in more and better work, done more easily and more profitably.

Please don't keep it waiting long! Come in and get all the good news, firsthand. Why not make it today?

YOU'VE NEVER SEEN A TRACTOR TO MATCH THIS!

Built-in Live-Action Hydraulic System, with Constant Draft Control, Implement Position Control and Manual Touch Control • Provision for complete range of remote hydraulic cylinder* applications • Hy-Trol, for extra fast hydraulic response • New lightning-fast governor • New weatherproofed ignition • New rotating exhaust valves • New live PTO* • 3-Point implement hitch • New streamlined, row-vision hood • New extra-size differential, and rear axle gearing • Selec-Trol* for hydraulic control of front and rear mounted implements • A lot more!

SEE IT NOW!

See What the New Ford Tractor Means to You in More Work Done Faster and Easier - At Less Cost!

Attach mounted implements! Fast! Most Dearborn implements can be attached to the new Ford Tractor in 60 seconds or less. No wrenches, no lifting, no tugging! Time saved in attaching-detaching is equal several days per year.

Control implements like never before! Touch the hydraulic control lever and you get split-second response. Lift, lower or adjust implements whenever tractor engine is running. Turn the Hy-Trol knob for even faster hydraulic action.

Stop up performance of power take-off driven machines... with new LIVE POWER TAKE-OFF*. Stop and start tractor while PTO operation stays under full power. Less slow-down, less clogging, less gear shifting. Increases safety, too.

SO LOW IN PRICE, TOO! Convenient terms available.

City Ordinance 220

An Ordinance consolidating the offices of City Clerk and City Treasurer, pursuant to Section 87.175, Kentucky Revised Statutes; fixing the term of said office; providing for removal, and setting the bond required to be executed. Whereas, Section 87.175 of Kentucky Revised Statutes provides that the City Council may consolidate the offices of City Clerk and City Treasurer, and Whereas, the City Council has considered the consolidation of the office of Clerk and Treasurer of the City of Walton, Kentucky, now, therefore, THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF WALTON, KENTUCKY, DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. That beginning with the month of January, 1953, the office of City Clerk and of City Treasurer be and they are consolidated and that the officer holding said office hereafter shall be known as Clerk-Treasurer of the City of Walton, a city of the fifth class, in the State of Kentucky.

Section 2. That the City Council shall have the right to appoint a Clerk-Treasurer for a term of two (2) years, beginning with the month of January, 1953.

Section 3. That the Council may, at their pleasure, for any reason, remove the Clerk-Treasurer from office and appoint another.

Section 4. That the Clerk-Treasurer be and he is required to give a bond in the sum of $5,000.00, which bond is to be approved by the City Council at Walton, and filed with the Mayor of said city.

Passed by the City Council of the City of Walton, in a meeting of Council held on the 29th day of December, 1952, by a vote of 4 members of Council.

R. M. HALL, Mayor,
City of Walton, Ky.
C. W. HOFFMAN, Clerk,
City of Walton, Ky.

During the so-called "reconstruction years" following the Civil War, Kentucky made much progress, noting such landmarks as the adoption of the present State Constitution, the opening of the first telephone exchange, in Louisville, and the running of the first Kentucky Derby.

This year will bring a lot of changes in our community and country—we don't know what, but just be ready for whatever happens. The new President could make things better or worse, but with the men he has selected to help him, everything looks for the best. He has selected business men mostly and not politicians, who should be a help to him. I believe the country, as a whole, is backing like more than any other President. We are at a place where a lot of changes have to be made, and the people think he can do the job.

This is the hardest time to write this ad—we have a lot of customers, they buy very nice articles, but they are gifts for other people, so I can't say a thing about who bought what. Howe Hood and wife were up, and bought a wood heater—Howe sold his tobacco and was well satisfied. Owen Stephenson just came in, paid his account—he must have sold some tobacco—I didn't get to talk to him, but he always settles up when he sells something—he is one of those good customers I told you about last week—they never let me down.

Goyne Flynn was buying all kinds of lamp parts to electrify some old oil lamps. Cynthia Powers was down today and bought a very nice present for a friend of hers, but I can't tell what. Mrs. Sam Murphy was getting a load of Christmas gifts. Brewster sold some ladies a truck load of hardware who were from up on Bagby Road—I didn't learn their names, as I was quite busy. Howard Miller and wife were in and I asked Mrs. Miller what she wanted for Christmas and she said a Deep Fryer—all I had to do was show a Sunbeam to Howard, and he bought it.

Sunbeam is a wonderful trademark, because when you show a customer an electric appliance and tell them it is Sunbeam, they know it is the best. The old and the young know that name Sunbeam. I showed Danny Chapman a Sunbeam electric razor and he said it must be a good one, as all Sunbeam products are tops. When I sell merchandise like Sunbeam, Perfection, Maytag, Dayton, Black & Decker, Diston, Stanley, Miller Falls, Temp Temper, Kelly, Armstrong, Warm Morning, Jamaway, Enterprise, Arvin, General Electric, Mirromatic, Presto, Case, Roys-Vac and lots of other top brands of merchandise, you nearly always get the best.

Burt Powell was in to see me today—he sold his tobacco, said it was the worst crop he ever raised. Ralph Sparks was loafing today—he has been serving on the jury this week. L. R. Barlow was buying Christmas for his children and grandchildren. Jim Ellison and wife were also buying Christmas. Cecil and Edna Dickerson were buying Christmas and some fluorescent lights for stripping tobacco. Marion Collins, Jr., got a rubber tired farm wagon—I only have one left at the old price.

It looks now like tools will be 10% higher next year. I have one tobacco setter to fit a Ford or Ferguson tractor left at the old price. Mrs. Robert Daniels was in today—she brings me eggs every Saturday—we gave her new calendar and she said she kept all her records on the back of each page—these calendars are very useful and I hope lots of you do use them. Bernard Stephenson and Tevis Thomas were in today paying their accounts—they never let them get very large and always come in and pay up when they make a sale.

Mrs. Paul Ford bought enough Armstrong linoleum for her bathroom—she selected that splatter pattern—it is very nice and easy to keep. My old friend, Joe Collins, and wife were down today from Crittendon. Joe says come to Conrad for anything you want in the hardware line and I'll nearly always have it. Well, Christmas is over and we can pack up and put most all of the toys away—we don't have enough space to display toys all the year. We had a very nice trade the last three days—people never buy Christmas out here until the last week, but they all want them out a month ahead to look at.

We had a lot of toys stolen and several broken or destroyed—of course the ones who took or destroyed never buy anything—that is the reason I swear off handing toys every year, but when the season comes, somehow I get back into it again. New we are taking inventory and it is a fine job, but it is like the toys, we get into it every year because Uncle Sam says so. Ed Hamilton was in today for some land cans and paid for that Perfection gas range I delivered to his wife.

I got so many Christmas Cards from people away from here inviting us to visit them, I'll have to do some more traveling. Lon Wilson just came in and paid for a lot of fence Brewster delivered last week. Russell and Kate Sparks were in paying their account. But Russ don't let it get very large. Omer Dudgeon and Nell took off for Pennsylvania to see Peguette, their granddaughter, for Christmas. Had a Christmas Card from Hugh and India Arnold, also from Kenneth Johnson, Sr., and from Harold Conrad and wife.

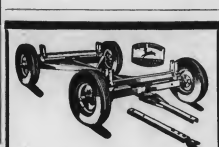

Mark Meadows was telling me he had a letter from Maynard, who is in Korea—said they had pulled his company back off the front line and replaced them with Korean soldiers. Lawrence Farrell and Helen were in today looking at a coal range—it's stoves or hardware, we have plenty of all—come and look before you buy.

Hebron Wins County School Tourney at NH

The Hebron High School Cardinals won the sixth annual Boone County School News basketball tournament by defeating the Knights of Florence High School, 73-56, Saturday night in the finals at New Haven.

The Burlington Eagles won the consolation honors by defeating New Haven 58-54, in the first game.

Hebron's triumph marked its second title in the six-year-old tournament. The Cards won the first tourney in 1948, Burlington, which lost in the first round to Florence, had won the championship for the past four years, with Hebron taking the runny-up honors three years.

Hebron, with high-scoring John Crigler supplying the spark, never was seriously threatened after five minutes had been played in the first quarter. Crigler scored nine points as the Cards took over 22-14 as the period ended.

Markesbery scored six for Florence in the opening period. Hebron held a 19-16 advantage in the second period with Crigler supplying seven of the markers. The half ended 41-30.

Florence succeeded in bottling up Crigler in the third period as it limited the winners to eight points. Hudson got eight points as Florence held a 14-8 margin in the period. The third period ended 49-44. In the final period, the winners, with Crigler coming back to score nine points, outscored the faltering Knights, 24-22.

Crigler totaled 27 points for the game. Anderson added 16, Henderson 13, and Brautigan 11. High for Florence was Hudson, with 18 points. Markesbery had 12 and Utz 10.

Burlington awoke from its scoring lethargy in the second half to down a scrappy New Haven team, 58-54. It marked the sixth win in nine starts for Burlington, and the tenth straight for New Haven this season. Burlington trailed by five points at the quarter and by eight at the half.

New Haven, with Crume leading the way, raced out into a 16-11 lead in the first quarter. Crume scored six points. J. Ryle had four for Burlington. The winners were outscored 9-6 in the second period, to trail 25-17 at halftime.

J. Ryle began to find the nets in the third period and scored six points as Burlington outscored the home team 19-10, to lead 36-33. In the final period, Burlington held a 22-19 edge as Ryle again scored eight points.

J. Ryle had 20 points for Burlington, while Crume led the New Haven attack with 16 tallies.

Early Closing of Burley Markets Is Prediction

A steady market that may find most of the burley tobacco crop sold by mid-January is in prospect as auctions resumed Monday.

Tobacco men foresee no obstacles to cause a sharp change in the belt's pre-Christmas average of $51.37 a hundred. Auction takers sold 370,751,817 gross pounds before the Christmas recess or 58% of the 603,823,000-pound crop forecast by the U. S. Crop Reporting Board. Industry sources said that if sales continue the next two weeks at the rate of the pre-holiday auctions, the bulk of the crop would be marketed by Jan. 16. Some markets closed Jan. 11, last year. Recent damp weather that put tobacco in case, suitable for stripping, may serve to keep floors filled for at least a week.

Pre-Christmas sales were almost 44 million pounds below those for the first half of 1951. This difference was attributed partly to four fewer selling days this year, slower stripping and marketing influenced by dry weather early in the normal stripping season.

The $51.37 average is $1.43 below the $52.80 per hundred average at this date last year.

Lower quality tobacco often is marketed toward the end of a season and brings a price reduction, though it does not necessarily reflect a weaker market.

Only three times in the last 16 years has the post-holiday average exceeded the price prior to Christmas.

Receipts for associations administering the government loan program represent nearly 16% of deliveries.

George Hovace Lorimer, for many years editor of the Saturday Evening Post, was born in Louisville.

WILLIAM A. CAIN

William A. (Willie) Cain, a Kenton county farmer widely known in the independence vicinity, died Monday in Booth Hospital, Covington. He was 65 years old, and lived on Walton, Route 1. He was a member of Hickory Grove Baptist Church, near Nicholson.

Mr. Cain is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Chester Milloy of Covington, Mrs. Catherine Belloma of Miami, Fla., and Mrs. Mildred Beneshowitz of Cincinnati; two sisters, Mrs. J. C. Bishop of Chattanooga, Tenn., and Mrs. Amanda Keamey of Covington; two brothers, Eric Cain of Newark, N. J., and Corbet Cain of Covington; eight grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

Bearcats to Play Hebron, Friday On Home Court

By Marie Martin

The Walton-Verona Bearcats will play Hebron, Friday, January 9, on the home floor. The 'Cats will have to play their best in order to win over the Hebron Cardinals. Hebron's two top players are Crigler and Anderson. Crigler's average is in the high 20's and he has been hitting in the high 30's several times this season.

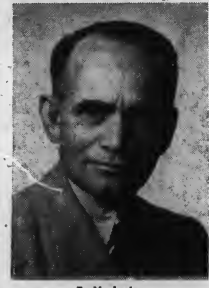

Coch Durham thinks that Walton is out of their losing slump and believes that Smith's ankle is sufficiently healed for him to be in top form again. However, he thinks Hebron is the best team Walton has faced this year and will make no predictions about the outcome, except to say: "It should be a real ball game for the fans, since the two top centers in Northern Kentucky will be working against each other."

INDEPENDENCE FIRE

The four-room frame home of Walter Reece, Richardson Road, 2 miles North of Independence, was destroyed by fire of undetermined origin, Wednesday, with loss estimated at $4,200.

Seven volunteers from the Independence Fire Department saved most of the Reece furniture, and prevented the spread of flames to the nearby home of Earl Gabbard.

She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Cora Richards, Verona, Mrs. Ethel Webster, Verona, Mrs. Alice Worthington, Walton, and Mrs. Collie Brewster, Walton; eight grandchildren, and seven great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m., Saturday, January 3, at the Hamilton Funeral Home, Verona, with Rev. Kelly Kennedy officiating. Burial was in the New Bethel Cemetery, Verona.

New State Youth Authority Started The Past Week

Kentucky's new Youth Authority, which was created as the result of action by the General Assembly last winter, came officially into being January 1.

The authority, which was set up to determine the needs of neglected and delinquent children, operates a reception center at the Kentucky Children's Home at Lyndon, Jefferson County. William H. Pyne, former superintendent of the Kentucky Houses of Reformation at Greendale, is director.

The authority is charged with making psychological and social studies of children that are referred to it by county courts and other agencies. After a suitable period of study at the center by doctors, social workers and psychologists they will be sent to the state institution that can best care for them, sent to other suitable agencies or returned to their home communities under supervision. Children formerly sent to the Houses of Reform will be sent to the youth center as will those who formerly were sent directly to the Kentucky Children's Home.

LARGEST SALE MONDAY

The Covington Independent Tobacco Warehouse, Erlanger, turned in the largest sale of the local burley season Monday, when a total of 441,898 pounds were sold as the market reopened following the holiday layoff.

Boyd Elliott, president, said the tobacco brought $221,715.71, for an average price of $50.17. High basket sold for $69 and the low was $8.

The burley sold Monday, in general, light and of good quality, Mr. Elliott said.

Beechgrove Homemakers

The December meeting and Christmas party of the Beechgrove Homemakers was held in the home of Mrs. William P. Meyer, with Mrs. Louis P. Lee, acting as co-hostess.

Roll call was answered with "A Christmas event I remember." Mrs. George Schader, reading chairman, read a passage from the Bible. Mrs. Roger Robinson, program chairman, was decorated as a human Christmas tree, with gifts and toys, later given to the children attending. "Jingle Bells" was sung and presents were exchanged by the Secret Pals.

A beautiful centerpiece, made by the hostess' daughter, was placed in the center of the luncheon table. Each member received a beautiful Christmas corsage, used as place cards, made by the hostess. All members were present, including one guest, Mrs. Edward A. Sterling. The Christmas party for members and their husbands was held at the Cabana, with a guest, James Endres, who has arrived home from the European Theater. A grab bag gift was exchanged, and the wives and husbands bowed against one another. A very enjoyable time was had by all.

When only 25 years old, Gideon Shryock won the competitive architectural contests which earned him the right to design Kentucky's Old State Capitol Building.

Cynthiana Man Killed Here by Train, Sunday

The chair of the Independence Baptist Church presented a candlelight service on Christmas Eve, at the church, under the direction of Bro. Kirtley Jolly, the pastor.

After the singing of Carols, Bro. Jolly gave a Christmas message, "No Room in the Inn." The service was climaxed by each one in the congregation lighting a candle and singing "Silent Night."

INDEPENDENCE W.M.S.

The W. M. S. of the Independence Baptist Church met recently in the home of Mrs. Kirtley Jolly for a Christmas party. After an hour of entertainment in the basement, refreshments were served and the group went to the living room to exchange gifts.

Those attending were: Mrs. H. Prince, Mrs. B. Bowling, Mrs. C. Millbough, Mrs. T. Burns, Mrs. W. Moser, Mrs. Thos. Cain, Mrs. Roy Dickson, Mrs. A. Blythe, Mrs. F. Cox, Mrs. Ed Swinford, Mrs. C. E. McGraw, Mrs. J. C. Armstrong, Mrs. K. Jolly and Mrs. Geo. Raley.

SOCIAL SECURITY TAXES

Most persons who work at their own trades or business must pay social security taxes on their net self-employment income before March 15.

When you pay self-employment social security taxes, you receive credit on the books of the Social Security Administration just as if you were paid wages. If you were in business all of 1951 and 1952 and in many cases an even shorter time, you will be entitled to monthly retirement benefits if you are 65 years of age and no longer substantially engaged in business. If you die, your young children, widow, and in some cases dependent parents and widower may receive important benefits.

For further information about social security, visit, write or telephone the Social Security office for Northern Kentucky located in the Post Office Building at Seventh and Scott Streets, Covington, telephone HElock 5274.

APPOINTMENTS OPEN

In order to afford opportunity to the young men in Kentucky interested in appointment to the United States Military Academy or the United States Naval Academy, Senator Earl C. Clements will conduct a preliminary examination under the auspices of the U. S. Civil Service Commission, on Monday, January 12, 1953, for the purpose of selecting qualified candidates to fill the 1953 vacancies over which he will have jurisdiction at Annapolis and West Point.

Applicants must be citizens of the United States, between 17 and 22 years old, single, of good moral character, sound physically, and bona fide residents of Kentucky.

Arrangements will be made for eligible Kentuckians now serving in the Armed Forces of the U. S. to participate in this preliminary examination.

All interested Kentucky boys, eligible for admittance to the Service Academies should immediately write to Senator Earl C. Clements, Senate Office Building, Washington, D. C., for detailed information regarding scope, character, and exact time and place of the West Point-Annapolis preliminary examination.

Kentucky's nine institutional farms operated by the Departments of Welfare and Mental Health produced food valued at $1,077,502 during the first 11 months of 1952.

A report issued this week by Charles M. Stagner, director of the Division of Agriculture Production in the Department of Welfare, the agency that supervises the farms, shows that the State Reformatory farm at LaGrange topped production with $249,878 worth of wood, and Western State Hospital, Hopkinsville, was next with $166,017.

The production includes vegetables, milk and meat.

HELPING TRAIN VETS

More than 12,700 veterans of World War II and the Korean conflict are receiving training under supervision of the State Division of Education for Veterans, an arm of the State Department of Education's Vocational Education, is announced today by James L. Patton, director of the Vocational Education Division, Frankfort.

"We expect a still greater number when the second semester begins at the various schools, and as larger numbers come home from Korea, Mr. Patton said.

Victim Sitting On Rail, Engineer Says

A 30-year-old Cynthiana man was killed when struck by the southbound Hummingbird, crack Louisville & Nashville passenger train, Sunday night, near the crossing on the Walton-Nicholson Highway. The victim was identified as Floyd Lanter, from a hunting license found in a pocket.

R. E. Brugh, Boone county coroner, who gave a verdict of accidental death, said the accident occurred in the rear of the service station operated by Guy E. St. Clair.

Mr. Brugh said the Hummingbird engineer, M. C. Gordon, told him he saw Lanter sitting on one of the rails as the train approached. The impact knocked the Cynthiana man between the rails and the train ran over him.

The accident caused a delay of more than 30 minutes to the Hummingbird, as well as to the northbound Pan American passenger train.

The body, badly mangled, was removed to the Chambers & Grubbs Funeral Home, Walton.

Mr. Lanter was a Marine veteran of World War II, and for the past year had worked on the farm of Arthur Walters, near Cynthiana.

Mr. Brugh said the victim probably was on his way to visit his mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. William Dills, of South Main Street.

Lanter also leaves his widow, Virginia Lanter, and two daughters, Margie and Brenda, who live in New York, and two sons, Rufus of Boone county, and E. L. Lanter of Harrison county.

Services were held at the Smith-Rees funeral home, Cynthiana, Wednesday at 10:30 a. m., with burial in Battle Grove Cemetery.

Christian Church Names Officers For This Year

The Official Board of the First Christian Church, Walton, held its regular monthly meeting, Sunday. In addition to the regular business session, election of officers was conducted. V. D. James was named chairman of the Board, the highest office in the local church; G. H. Moore was elected vice chairman; Cloud Adams, treasurer; Charles Ransler, Jr., church clerk, and Jack Rouse, secretary of the Board. Ben Dean had served in this capacity for several years and had requested to be relieved.

A called meeting of the Board will be held January 13, for the purpose of considering changing from the present form of committees to Seven Church Departments, as outlined by the postar last Sunday morning.

The program last Sunday evening of Visual Education was well attended. The challenging picture, "Now I See," brought out the need of cooperation and wise planning for a successful church. The young people were in charge of the service.

Rev. Charles A. Vaughn will preach Sunday morning on the subject, "Quo Vadis," and Sunday night on the subject, "Pagans Have No Hope."

Mrs. Vaughn will deliver the Woman's Day address at the Christian Church in Elizabethtown.

Election of Bible School officers will be conducted Sunday morning at the Bible School hour. The Christian Church looks forward to a most wonderful program of Advance and Community Service in 1953, according to the pastor.

39 MEN TO BE DRAFTED

Thirty-nine Kenton county men will report for pre-induction physical examinations in January, according to the Kenton County Selective Service Board. Seventeen will report for examination January 12, 17 and 19, January 19, and five will report January 26.

B.M.C. MEETS TONIGHT

The B. W. C. of the Walton Baptist Church will meet tonight (Thursday) in the church room of the church at 7:30. All members are urged to be present.

In 1840, there were 210,981 slaves in Kentucky.

To the Readers:Items of interest, this time of year, are hard to find and it is necessary that Independence have an entry every week.
So, if you readers know of anything that you would like to have passed along to others, just write it down and send it to P. O. Box 587, Independence, Ky. It seems that the most interesting articles people are anxious to read is personal and social items.You members of various organizations are ones who can give some good reading material for this column. Give the people a chance to read of your work and your aims for 1953.Independence HomemakersThe Independence Homemakers will meet at the home of Mrs. Charley Davis of McMillan Drive, January 8 for the regular business meeting.Roll call will be answered with a New Year's suggestion. All members are urged to attend and bring their discarded glasses. The lesson will be, "Looking Ahead in 1953."Just A Thought: When you invite trouble, you can be sure that it will accept.VisitorsMr. and Mrs. L. B. Humphrey of Apco, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph West of Der Park, Ohio, visited Mr. and Mrs.
R. X. West, December 31 and Jan. 1.Tree-Ripened FruitOrders for tree-ripened fruit from Florida are still being received by members of the Independence Fire Department. Many members of this club have received their bushels of fruit and have rejoiced, so they might keep their children and family free from catching the much-dreaded colds that always are around this time of year. If you are interested in a bushel or half-bushel of oranges, grapefruit, tangerines, etc., or want to obtain information on prices, just write to the Independence Fire Department, P. O. Box 587, and said information will be sent to you.Moon Bros. Post, 275Moon Bros. Post, 275, American Legion, will hold its regular meeting Thursday, January 8, at Nick's Grove on Taylor Mill Road, Route 16. The meeting will begin at 8 p. m. This is a good chance for ex-G. I.'s to join a good organization and for the members of the Legion to pay their dues for 1953.Baptist ChurchPlans for the remodeling and addition for the Independence Baptist Church have been completed.O. E. S. Chapter, 493The Eastern Star Chapter, 493, of Independence will hold its next regular meeting Tuesday, January 13, at the Independence Bank Bldg. The presiding officers will be Dorothy Finney, Worthy Matron, and Robert West, Worthy Patron. All members are invited to attend.BirthdaysJoyce Lower, Main St., December 25; Carroll Lower, now serving overseas with the Armed Forces, January 1; Agnes Dorsey, Main St., January 3.Boy ScoutsThe Independence Boy Scout Troop,
No. 8, is preparing for its annual supper to provide funds for the remainder of this year. The annual spaghetti supper was voted out at a recent meeting of the parents and Scoutmaster and in its place will be a chicken dinner. The date will be the 7th of February, which is National Boy Scout Week. The Scouts are now taking donations and, baked chicken, pies and cakes are the most wanted articles, so, when the Boy Scouts knock on your door, make your donation one of the essential articles he has on his list, and you will make this chicken dinner a great success for him.Holidays OverThis week started out with a bang, with our Christmas snow arriving two weeks late, but with New Year's celebrations and the la. eatore drivers coming home from parties, it is best we are having our snow now.The many people I have seen doing their Christmas shopping last month, approximately 90% were walking around with slips of paper on which were written many items that must be gotten or done before Christmas. Now those slips have been put away for another twelve months, and living is slowly struggling back to normal.Now the housewives will begin their housecleaning by taking down the Christmas tree, storing away the ornaments, replacing the old calendars with new,
and in general, getting rid of all items that accumulate during the three weeks of holiday season. Hubby struggles off to work, knowing that the sooner this week is over the quicker he will be back to normal for another year. In the evenings, between glancing at a farorn checkbook and the many window envelopes, he knows why he has to ask the boss for that raise! The kids have settled down more than any member of the family, for the month of December is their worst month, but for Christmas day.
They have lost sleep and have seen Santa Claus, who promised that all they hope for will be placed under the Christmas tree and in their stockings. Well most of their wishes were fulfilled and now they have settled down, wanting to ride their new bikes during a blizzard or play a game of baseball so they can use their new ball glove. All in all, every member of the family enjoyed their holidays and wouldn't exchange a minute of it for any amount, even though they know that the rest of the week their meals will be planned around the left-overs from the big dinners they have enjoyed with relatives and friends.Of Interest to Ex-G.I'sThe Supreme Court of the United States handed down decisions on November 17 in two NSLI cases of importance to every vet. policyholder. The court ruled in the two cases that GI Insurance policies may be paid only to living persons—not to the estates of intended beneficiaries. Cases heard were in suits brought where the beneficiaries died before making claim for insurance of dead servicemen, whose deaths occurred before July 31, 1946. However, on this date, the NSLI Act was amended, permittinginsured servicemen and veterans to designate anyone, including estate of the insured, as beneficiaries, therefore, no deaths after July 31, 1946 are affected by this decision.STAFFORDSBURGMrs. W. E. Hanna, who has been ill for several days, is improving, but still not able to be out.Rev. and Mrs. Fay Johnson and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney, and Donald Keeney were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett.Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Deuser enjoyed a visit from Mrs. Deuser's sister, Mrs. Flo
Smith of Russell, Ky., who came on New Year's day.Elwood Binder suffered a painful accident when using whitewash recently on the farm of E. B. Rich, getting the lime in both eyes. The eyes are healing and we hope will have no permanent injury.
Mrs. Joe Sweeney has also been on the sick list.Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barnett had as guests New Year's day, Mr. and Mrs.
J. J. Barnett and Rev. and Mrs. Roy Martin and son, Richard.The watch-night service though not largely attended, was much enjoyed by all present. We had visiting minister, Rev. Bradley from Florence, who delivered a fitting message. A delicious lunch and some interesting contests in the dining room added to the occasion. The evening was fittingly brought to a close by observance of the Lord's Supper, as the first act of the new year.The community was saddened by the death of Edward Bilz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Val Bilz of Whites Tower. He was accidently shot while several boys were tinkering with a gun at the home of his grandparents. Our sympathy is with the mourning family and friends.We regret the passing of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Tillett of GRASS SEEDINGS ARE STILL OKAY

Gross seed sowed in September will not be injured by winter freezes, even though it has not sprouted due to lack of moisture. So stated N. R. Elliott, horticulturist at the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics. The seed may sprout and the new grass grow under snow, he said.

If seed was not sowed in September, Mr. Elliott advised waiting until February to sow the new crop.

On a statewide basis, cotton is no longer a major farm product in Kentucky, but in Hickman and Fulton counties it still is a million-dollar crop.

Confess—Follow

Lesson for January 11, 1953

ANOTHER of those Bible words which are easy to misunderstand, is the word "confess." Ordinarily we connect this word in our minds with a court of law, or with some wrong that has been done. When we say the prisoner signed a confession, we mean he admitted he was guilty. When Catholics go to confession, they are expected to tell the priest all about their sins. In the English Bible the word sometimes has this meaning, as when John says that if we confess our sins, God will forgive (1 John 1:9).

Where Do You Stand?

But there is another meaning of these words "confess" and "confession," which is quite different. It does not always mean to admit. Sometimes it means to declare, to announce publicly and proudly, as plainly as possible. For instance, Paul tells Timothy (1 Tim. 6:13) that Jesus, before Pilate, made a "good confession." Paul is not saying for a minute that Jesus admitted the charges against him were true. What he means is that Jesus stood up for God and his duty, he did not let down his flag. He stood out for the truth.

The expression is often used, referring to Peter's saying to Christ, "You are the Christ," and it has come to be known as "Peter's confession." This does not mean that Peter admitted something; on the contrary he affirmed something. He was declaring his belief, he was letting it be known where he stood. The Christian church has made much use of this word, but it might be clearer if we used some other words sometimes. All churches will tell young people and new converts how important it is to "confess" Christ. We could just as well say "standing up for" him; voting for him and having one's vote put on record. When Christ asks: Are you with me? Confessing means simply saying openly: Yes!

Christ Never Outranked

There is something else tied up in this idea of "confessing" Christ. It includes saying something about Christ. Peter's confession, according to Matthew, was "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Luke reports that he said, "You are the Christ of God." Mark reports simply: "You are the Christ." All agree that Peter declared Jesus to be the Christ. To us, "Christ" is a name; to Peter it was a title, the highest title he knew. When a first-century Jew used the word "Christ" he meant there was no one else in his class. He meant God's chosen beginner of a new age. There was no higher word that Peter could have chosen than "Christ." So to this day when we say that a Christian confesses Christ, we ought to mean that he puts Christ above all others, that he knows no one can outrank Christ. We mean what the old hymn says, "All hail the power of Jesus' name, let angels prostrate fall."

More than Mouth-Christians

But there is still another word the church has always used, because Jesus used it: Follow. Confession alone is not enough. It may take courage to confess Christ. It takes sincerity and also stick-to-it-iveness to follow him. Confession can be done in a burst of enthusiasm; following takes the long pull. Confessing Christ means saying he comes first in your life. But does he? Who or what is really first? There are a great many—too many—church members today who have been as much of a Christian as they can possibly be—with their mouths. They have confessed Christ as Son of God, Lord and Saviour. They have said, in effect, that they wish to be counted on his side. But when they "joined the church" or were "confirmed," that is about as far as it went. They hardly even warm a pew nowadays. What is needed is something more than mouth-Christians, voice-Christians, word-Christians, shouting Christians. What is needed is following-Christians.

It is noticeable that almost immediately after Jesus had praised Peter for his confession, he called him Satan, the very devil. For it was plain that Peter was thinking along lines quite different from Jesus. Following Christ means thinking more and more as he would think.

11:00 SUNDAY MORNING, ANYTOWN, U.S.A.

Mom's busy getting Sunday dinner. Pop's knee-deep in the papers. And Johnny's fed up—nothing to do, no place to go, and always a promise, "maybe next week we'll go some place." But they never do together.

If Mom and Pop would only remember—"Nothing too good for that boy," they used to say, gazing deep into the soul shining from his baby eyes. But they became too busy, too tired, and too worried to bother with Johnny. They gave him bread, milk, meat, and vegetables, but they forgot his soul. It's not a stomach-ache but an ache in his spirit that ails him now. He wants to be somebody—to do something.

If you'd invite the Johnny in your neighborhood to Sunday school and church, they'd find something to do. They'd learn how to be somebody. And their souls would grow along with healthy bodies into stalwart men with a purpose in life.

Ask these Johnny's—today!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of a character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

New 1953 Chevrolet Goes On Display Friday, Jan. 9

Four-Door Sedan in New Chevrolet Bel Air Series

The Bel Air four-door sedan is one of four body types with which Chevrolet pioneers a completely new series of passenger cars for 1953. Richness in exterior and interior appointments gives the series a distinction never previously achieved in the Chevrolet market. Increased performance, comfort and convenience are common to the Bel Air and the "One-Fifty" and "Two-Ten" series.

Many New Features Are Incorporated

Expanded to include a third series of cars, and boasting more significant advances than ever incorporated in a model in the low-price field, the widely discussed new Chevrolets make their first public appearance at dealer showrooms tomorrow (January 9).

For the 1953 market bodies have been completely re-designed. All cars have increased power, with special emphasis on a new power train that includes a new engine and improved automatic transmission. In performance, in economy, in driving and riding qualities, exterior and interior appointments, the latest Chevrolet models contribute importantly to automotive progress.

Features of the new cars range throughout the bodies and chassis. Of major interest:

1—The entirely new series, to be known as the Bel Air and credited with being the most luxurious models in Chevrolet history. To be produced as two- and four-door sedans, a convertible and sport coupe, the Bel Airs are included in the choice of 16 Fisher body types.

Other passenger car series are designated as the "Two-Ten" and "One-Fifty."

2—A new 115-horsepower "Blue Flame" engine and a refined Powerglide automatic transmission re-engineered for greater operating economy and faster pickup. The so-called "standard" engine also moves up to 108 horsepower, a gain of 17.4 per cent over 1952.

3—Two Chevrolet "firsts" in the low-price automatic bracket are registered in optional equipment available on all cars. Power steering, which reduces manual effort yet maintains traditional steering safety, makes its debut. The second innovation is the Autronic Eye, an electronic mechanism that automatically lowers headlamp beams for passing.

4—Roomier and stronger bodies with greatly expanded visibility. All have curved, one-piece windshields from which the center divider has been eliminated. Other body construction highspots include front swingout door hinges to provide easier entrance; fold-away front seat backs in two-doors, and wrap-around rear windows.

5—Operating advances cover the automatic choke on all cars, softer, smoother brake action, easier steering, even more reliable starting in damp weather, static-free ignition, softer front and rear springs for improved ride, and higher capacity generator.

6—Unusual developments in the station wagon field. Three station wagons, one known as the Townsman (eight-passenger in the "Two-Ten" series) and two as the Handyman (six-passenger in the "Two-Ten" and "One-Fifty" series). The latter contain three-passenger rear seats that can be folded into the floor.

7—An array of convenience items including key-turn starting, crank-type front door ventipane controls and almost one-fourth more luggage space. Trunk lid openings have been enlarged and deepened. The sill is now at virtually trunk floor level as on old-to luggage loading.

8—A lavish choice of colors marked by brilliant new greens and blues are offered in 13 solids and 10 two-tone combinations. Two-tone interiors harmonize with the selection of exterior colors in many of the cars.

In appearance the latest Chevrolets combine the smooth flow of the streamlined with utilitarian design. Over-all, the cars are lower, but with an increase in headroom and legroom. The top of the bodies has been broadened to provide additional width while hood and trunk lines are more pronounced. Fender shapes, both front and rear, make the cars appear larger although over-all they are actually two inches shorter than last year largely due to a repositioning of the bumper. The new length is a concession to parking ease with the more compact bumper design reducing the "overhang" from axles. Wheelbase remains the same.

A fresh grille treatment enhances the effect of ruggedness in the new models. Three vertical "prop bars" decorate the center element while the outer rim of the grille encircles smart parking lamps. Headlamps are embedded in the front fenders with the crown being extended into a speedline along the side of the body. Rear fenders are longer, higher and narrower at the rear. Along the trailing edge are mounted lenses for turning, braking, backup and tail lights.

For 1953 Chevrolet will offer 16 passenger car bodies in its three distinct series. The Bel Air series includes two- and four-door sedans, sport coupes and convertibles. The "Two-Ten" comes in two- and four-door sedans, club and sport coupes, convertible and Townsman and Handyman station wagons. Available in the "One-Fifty" series are two- and four-door sedans, business and sport coupes and the Handyman station wagon. Series are differentiated by styling, both inside and out; by ornamentation, appointments for motoring convenience and the luxury of cushioning and trim.

Designed to conform to a varied price range, the three series might be classified as "Standard" (One-Fifty), "De Luxe" (Two-Ten) and "Super De Luxe" (Bel Air). The Two-Ten and Bel Air series offer a choice of two-tone interiors, wrap-around rear windows on closed bodies, and appointments such as clocks, glove compartment lights, two sun visors and cigarette lighters. The entirely new Bel Air series has several added distinctions. In exteriors, the bright metal body moulding has been broadened over the rear fender as a base for the series name. Rear wheel panels and wheel discs are standard equipment. Three additional luxury fabrics in passenger compartments, plus full floor carpets, are other evidences of richness in the Bel Airs. The generous variety in choice is further exemplified by four convertible top colors, each harmonizing with a different exterior color.

The new Chevrolet high compression engine that will be installed in all Powerglide equipped models has a displacement of 235 cubic inches. In addition to an impressive increase in horsepower over any previous Chevrolet engine, the new power plant is more economical. The combustion chamber has been revised for higher compression. Full pressure lubrication has been adopted and pistons are of aluminum. Hydraulic valve lifters are continued.

The principal difference in the improved Powerglide is the inclusion of a new automatic operation that will add appreciably to economy and acceleration. With the new version, the car starts in the former low range, then moves automatically into the cruising range. To take advantage of the now range for passing in traffic, the driver merely depresses the accelerator pedal. The return to the cruising range is subsequently automatic. The torque converter itself is bigger and more efficient.

More power, increased acceleration and greater economy as well are present in the standard engine that powers all 1953 Chevrolets other than Powerglide. A revised ignition system contains a new distributor, new spark plugs, and spark plug caps that are moisture-resistant. Capacity of the generator has been stepped up to provide added reserve for accessories. An automatic-choke assures correct fuel mixture for temperature changes without manual adjustment. Neither engine requires premium gasoline.

Driving ease has been additionally improved by larger, more comfortable steering wheel and the substitution of needle bearings for bronze bushings on the Pitman shaft. Women drivers particularly will appreciate the reduction in required brake pedal pressure. Brake and clutch pedal pads have been re-designed for comfort. The parking brake lever has a "T" handle. Better ventilation in the driver's compartment results from enlarged air ducts. Instruments are directly in front of the driver. The speedometer is enclosed in a circular section with other dials grouped in an oblong frame. Another feature is the in-built plastic arrows on the panel to show the use of the turn indicator.

BACK TO WORK

Lots of people had a long holiday during Christmas and New Year's, as did all the school children, but now everyone is back on the job, ready for a long day until Decoration Day, the next holiday for most of us. We, here at the store, did not have a vacation, we took inventory and set up everything for this new year—now we are cleaning house and is that a job—it is worse than inventory, but it has to be done—clean out the shelves, the bins and tables and it sure looks better, even to us.

When you take out every article and clean it, also clean the bin, then put it back in order, it sure is slow work, but the laborers and the customers break the grind once in a while. This cold weather will try out some of those old heaters you have been trying to get by with—now don't take chances on fires and pipes freezing, buy you a new Perfection oil heater or a Warm Morning coal heater. If you need a cheap oil or coal heater to help out, we have some good ones, cheap.

January is here with a new year, 1953 starting, but looklike we may get action—the news reporter said we lost 2,000 planes over Korea in 1952 and the Reds only lost 750—that kind of news will cause action of some kind—we will see. We will start a new year in the store Friday morning—our 1952 year was so close to 1951 in sales, just a little better, but I thought very good for an election year, but we had a good Christmas—like most Americans, only some families were not complete, but we hope they will all be home next Christmas.

We sure had a crowd today—customers and loafers. Henry Penick and Charley Rector were in from Richmond, Jay Webster and Robert Behmyer were over from Verona and Zion Station; Walter Han and Manford Craft from Neapoleon and Concord neighborhood were also in. Scott Jack came after his hunting license; Ross Altha had Brewster put in several handles for him, and Mrs. Russell Robinson bought a cast iron top and bottom wood heater. I have said before, we average in the fall and winter, a stove a day, because we sell so many different kinds—wood, coal, oil, gas and electric, in both heaters and cookers, also in most sizes: When you need a stove, let us solve your problem.

William Ross and wife took home a 9x12 Armstrong rug; Scott Jack wanted some paint stencils to mark his lambs, but I didn't have them; Mrs. Florence from Verona came after pump tubing; Walter Han bought a door roller; Bob Moore bought meat socks for his hams. I have two tobacco setters, one for Ford or Ferguson tractor, and other with tractor hitch to pull behind tractor—better get these early, as metal may get scarce, since it is not too plentiful now.

I was able right at Christmas time to get a lot of galvanized pipe—we have a good stock while it lasts. We sold more Dayton water systems last year than in all five previous years—buy a Dayton, with a 12-gal. tank for only $84.50 and have water at your barn, milk house and home. Brewster sold another Warm Morning coal heater and Chick sold a two-burner oil heater. Mrs. Emma Flynn was in getting her electric iron repaired and paying her account—she came up with Mrs. Lorena Myers, who bought a stove pad.

J. C. Benton was in paying his account—I believe he is about ready to go to Hot Springs for a few weeks. Walter King bought two heavy galvanized water buckets. Howard and Alice Feldhus were in getting bulbs and batteries. Mrs. Cora Bethel sent up for eight plastic window shades and a clothes drying rack—those new embossed plastic shades are very nice and we sell lots of them—they come in green, tan and white—very easy to clean and look like cloth.

We sold another coal heater today, also a small gas heater. Mrs. R. C. Durr came over for an Arvin electric heater to use in her office. Brewster delivered a new chain pump to Miss Mary Collins at Bracht. I set up some 5-ft. poultry feeders, on legs, today, also some Jamesway 8-gal. electric heated water fountains—give those old hens plenty of feed and lots of warm water, then watch them roll out the eggs. These electric water fountains keep the water at 55 degrees and a hundred hens will drink 8 gallons per day and lay 10 more eggs.

We received our shipment of sleds today, we were to have for Christmas—these were just in time for the snow—they are very cheap, from $3.95 to $6.95—get one while they last. I have a few extra good bicycles left over from Christmas and I priced them very cheap. Compare these prices with anyone—they are bargains. Mrs. Emma Wolfe was in today and I asked her how that new Perfection oil heater was doing and that was what she wanted to talk to me about—it gets so hot she was afraid of setting the wallpaper on fire.

Don't tell me an oil heater won't heat—ask anyone who is using a New Perfection, and if their stove isn't heating, they have a bad chimney and no draft. Jess Hopperton came in for a gallon of aluminum paint and a gallon of Bolce Interior Glass to paint up Stephens Restaurant, inside. We are going to try to keep up our good name and record in 1953. If the others don't have it, COME to CONRAD—this may be a little harder to do, but we will do our very best to serve all of you the best we can. I'll do my best to see that you get the best merchandise, best price and best service we have ever put out. If you don't, let me know.

Homemakers Attend Home Management Class

Representatives from 23 Kenton County Homemakers' Clubs attended the Home Management class given by Miss Ida C. Hogman, Extension Specialist in Home Management from the University of Kentucky, on Wednesday, January 7 at the Covington YMCA. The meeting was in the nature of an outlook conference and dealt with situations and outlook for supplies and prices of consumer goods and services for 1953.

Miss Hogman advised homemakers to set up a program of the things they wish to attain in 1953. She said to be sure that the goals are reasonable and possible to attain. She also stated that a spending plan, cannot save, and spend your money for you; it can't work miracles; it can't change very much the basic family realities of income and outgo. But a plan can help you guide the way you spend and save money.

Goals set by Kenton County Homemakers for 1953 are: To have a family financial plan, keep organized records of some kind, and improve buying practices.

Leaders attending were: Mesdames W. F. Hickey, Jos. C. Schwallier, William Glaser, M. A. Iula, R. K. Ruddy, Charles Yeagle, Jos. Kunkel, Geo. Beard, John T. Leslie, Foster Armstrong, Frank Herms, Joseph Toohy, Willis Ruh, Alfred Byrner, Chester Hill, Joseph Plogeman, William Berling, Edward Blau, Louis Reidel, Ralph Thornton, Carl Kettler, Betty Solfeld, Robert Heileman, James T. Owens, James E. Crowell, Herbert Angel, Eva Sears, James Viox, Jr., Oscar Smith, Henry Free, Vincent Koenig, Milton Huffer, Glenn Cartwright, Harold Wheeler, Claude Taylor, Miss Hogman and Miss Zelma E. Byerly, Kenton County Home Demonstration Agent.

WALTON HOMEMAKERS

The Walton Homemakers met Friday, January 9, in the home of Mrs. Florence Newton, with Mary Stephenson as co-hostess.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Forest Thompson. The members answered roll call with suggestions for the new year.

Mrs. Nancy Aylor gave the lesson on, "Arranging Furniture for a Purpose." A delicious meal was enjoyed at noon. Mrs. Thompson read the club collect and gave an interesting talk on thoughts we should have for happiness in the new year. Mary Stephenson conducted games. An auction sale was planned for the next meeting.

Those present were: Pearl Bedinger, Anna Mae Bush, Ory Fra, Anna Ferguson, Lillian Gohs, Florence Newton, Marie Penick, Carrie Rouse, Helen Rouse, Anna Lancaster, Mary Stephenson, Elizabeth Thompson, Bonnie Woods, Queenie Webster, members, and Mrs. Lotta Powers and Mrs. William House, visitors.

Good Citizenship Award Sponsored D. A. R. Chapter

A most interesting program is being conducted for the senior girls of Boone County High Schools, by the Daughters of the American Revolution, for the Good Citizenship award. Three girls are selected by popular vote by members of the senior class. From this group one girl is chosen by the faculty of each school who possesses the following four qualities to an outstanding degree:

- 1—Dependability; 2—Service and Cooperation; 3—Leadership and Personality; and 4—Patriotism.

The good citizen from each school is entitled to a certificate to be presented by the State Chairman at the Pilgrimage which will be held in Frankfort in the Spring. There they will visit points of historical interest and the Governor's Mansion for a reception and two.

The Good Citizen in each school is eligible to receive the Good Citizen pin, which the DAR plans to present to them at the meeting February 4.

In 1953, the State winner will receive a $100 U. S. Savings and The State Pilgrim will again be selected by competitive method. Each Pilgrim will be required to submit an essay, the subject of which will be, "To Me, A Good Citizen Means," not to exceed fifty words.

There has been wonderful cooperation from principals, teachers and students of all Boone county schools.

JOHN T. BRADBURN

John Thomas Bradburn, 67, Petersburg, died Sunday at the Veterans Hospital, Ft. Thomas, where he had been a patient for some time. He was a veteran of World War I, and served as an engineer in the Navy. He was a retired employee of the Schenley Corp.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Rebecca Bradburn; a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Rogers, U. S. Dam 38; two sons, William of Covington, and Ralph of Saylor Park, Ohio; five grandchildren, and three sisters, Mrs. Mary White of Newport, Mrs. Sarah Hakes and Mrs. Frank Mason, both of Toledo, Ohio.

Services were held at the residence Wednesday at 2:00 p. m., with burial in the Petersburg Cemetery.

Chambers & Grubbs Funeral Home, Florence, had charge of arrangements.

BAKE SALE SATURDAY

The senior class of Walton-Vernon High School will hold a bake sale on Saturday, January 17, starting at 10 a. m., in the Phoenix Restaurant. Your patronage will be appreciated.

Sunday School Leaders to Be Installed Sun.

At the regular Sunday School session at the Christian Church, last Sunday morning, the following officers were elected: Chester Edwards, Superintendent; Frank Penick, Assistant Superintendent; Miss Coretta Rice, Secretary; Mrs. Audrey Spencer, Assistant Secretary; Miss Libbie Ingram, Treasurer; and J. W. Spencer, Assistant Treasurer.

At the morning worship service, L. M. Gabriel was elected elder, and Mark Roney and Finley Jacobs, Jr., were named deacons.

This Sunday morning, Rev. Vaughn will speak on the topic, "Duties, Qualifications, and Responsibilities of Bible School Teachers and Officers." The entire Bible School department will be publicly installed at the morning worship service, where the entire Bible School has been requested to be present.

Miss Libb Ingram will receive special honors and recognition for serving 25 years as treasurer of the Bible School. Her members are given a special invitation to be present and to participate in the service.

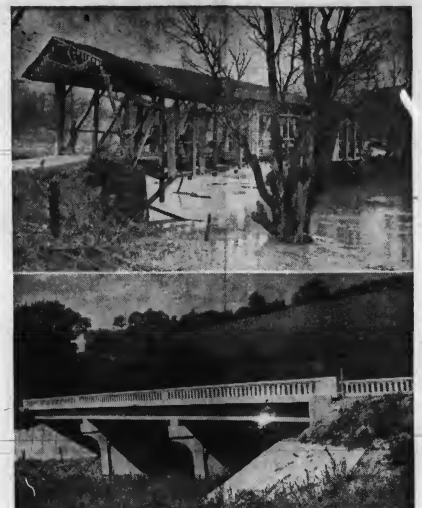

BENJAMIN J. KENNEDY

Funeral services were held Sunday at 2:00 p. m., at the Chambers & Grubbs Funeral Home, Walton, for Benjamin Jackson Kennedy, 87, who died last Friday at Booth Hospital, Covington. Burial was in New Bethel Cemetery, Verona.

Mr. Kennedy, who lived in Kenton County, near Crittenden, was born at Mason, Ky., Aug. 12, 1856. On Jan. 8, 1905, he married Bertha May Lindsay of Gallatin county, and she passed away Dec. 26, 1943.

Surviving are five sons, William, of Constance, Frank, of Cincinnati, Joseph, of near Bracht, Alfred, of Covington, and Benjamin Kennedy, of Crescent Springs, and ten grandchildren.

Nineteen families have enrolled in the fourth annual Farm and Home Development program in Christian county.

The progress being made by Kentucky's Rural Highway Department is shown in the contrast of this new concrete span built at a cost of $50,000 replacing the old covered bridge over Hinkston Creek on Convent Pike at the Bourbon-Nicholas County line. This work is typical of that being carried on by the Highway Department throughout the state. Since January 1, the Rural Highway Department has let contracts for $5,000,000 worth of roads in 100 counties in Kentucky.

Boone County D. A. R. Chapter Holds January Meeting In Florence

The January meeting of the Boone County Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was held at the Southern Trails Inn, Florence.

Mrs. Margaret Goodridge read the American Creed and led in pledge to the flag, followed with the Lord's prayer, at the opening of the session.

Mrs. Roy Nestor, presiding officer, conducted the business meeting. Yearly reports were given by the committee chairman. Mrs. Ashlin Logan, postponed the regular program until a future date, on account of the icy roads.

Miss Jeanette Grubbs read the President's general message from the D. A. R. magazine.

The chapter now has 29 members and several papers pending. This chapter is less than a year old, and the organization is proud of the interest shown by each member and the progress made during this first year.

The hostesses, Mrs. Clarence Wolfe and Mrs. Garnett Tain, extended hospitalities to Mesdames Louis Braun, Roy Nestor, Francis Berkshire, Dean Caton, Charles Goodridge, Ashlin Logan, B. F. Bedinger, Jocelyn Rice, Davis Gaines, Harold Conner, Sam Denham, Sr., and Misses Jeanette Grubbs, Evelyn Tanner, Margaret Goodridge. Guests were Mrs. Frank Kelly, Burlington; Miss Dorothy Caldwell, Burlington, Virginia Nestor.

BURLEY TAKES DIVE

The state-wide average price for burley tobacco fell below $50 a hundredweight Tuesday for the first time this season as prices took a nose dive at most Kentucky markets.

The Lexington market, which was largely responsible for holding prices firm, recorded a drop of $2.83 as the average fell to $53.57. This tied the low for the season at the world's largest burley center.

Tuesday's average of $49.68 on sales at 25 markets was a drop of $2.32 a hundredweight. The Monday average was $52.

The Tuesday average at Carrollton, was $50.16, and at Covington, $42.01.

FLORENCE LION OFFICERS

The Florence Lions Club, organized in December, held election of officers at Southern Trails Restaurant, on Monday evening.

Elected were: G. R. Scott, president; Elbert M. Bohn, first vice president; B. W. Russell, second vice president; E. C. Ely, third vice president; Al Becker, secretary-treasurer; Frank Refitt, lion tamer; F. L. Tanner, tall twister, and Dr. C. C. Schilling, Ralph Stith, C. W. Benson and L. H. Snow, directors.

K. C. Caperton, Louisville, conducted the election.

Members voted to meet the second and fourth Thursdays of the month. They also decided to keep the charter open until "Charter Night," February 11.

POLICE COURT FINES

Police Judge Charles Worthington reports the following cases tried in the local court this month:

January 9, Ronald Lipscomb, Weirton, W. Va., was arrested for improper passing and fined $19.50.

January 12, Lawrence Stewart of Verona, was arrested for reckless driving and fined $24.50. On the same day, George Schorn, Walton, was arrested for being drunk in a public place and was fined $19.50.

All arrests were made by State Trooper Ralph Cline.

ACCIDENTS KILL 754 IN KENTUCKY IN 1952

Traffic accidents in Kentucky caused 754 deaths in 1952, according to the Kentucky State Police. During 1951, 742 persons lost their lives on state highways.

During the first week of 1953, 18 persons were killed in auto accidents in the state.

The police report revealed that 17 motorists were fatally injured over the Christmas weekend and 10 persons lost their lives on the highways over the New Year's weekend.

Bearcats Win Over Hebron And Ludlow

KIRTLEY STEPHENSON

Funeral services for B. Kirtley Stephenson, 63, Altamont Road, West Covington, widely known Northern Kentucky handbook operator, who died early Saturday in St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington, were being completed Tuesday by Allison & Rose Funeral Home, Ludlow.

A life resident of Northern Kentucky, Stephenson leaves a son, William, at home; a brother, Victor, Ludlow; two sisters, Miss Mary Stephenson of Lexington, and Miss Eva Stephenson of Cincinnati, and a grandchild.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Boone County Historical Society will meet in the Florence Town Hall on Friday, January 16, at 8 p. m. William Fitzgerald will present a paper on "The First German Colonies of Virginia." Many of these colonies came to Northern Kentucky and settled in Boone county.

All members of the Aylor, Barlow, Blankenbaker, Coker, Cuyler, Clore, Carpenter, Cook, Kirker, Rouse, Snyder, Tanner, Utz, Wilhoit, Whitely, Wayland, Weaver, Youell, Yager, and Zimmerman families and members of any other German families coming from Virginia, are invited to attend and to take part in the discussion. Anyone interested is invited to the meetings of the society.

New Representative For Jansen Hardware Company

To give better service during the new year, Clarence Jansen, head of the Jansen Hardware Co., 108-112 Pike Street, Covington, announces that Woodrow is now associated with his company.

Mr. Grizzell, widely experienced as a tractor and implement salesman, has sold John Deere implements for many years. He will call on Boone county farmers in behalf of the Jansen organization, for both sales and service, maintaining the same high standards of the past and improving them when possible.

If a farmer is interested in information about any farm implement and has no time to visit the store, Mr. Grizzell will gladly call at the farm with complete information.

Jansen Hardware is under the management of Clarence Jansen, who is assisted by his son, Richard Jansen.

TEMPERANCE SPEECH

Rev. Walter C. House, Executive Superintendent of The Temperance League of Kentucky, will speak Sunday at 11 p. m. in the Independence Baptist Church. He will bring some startling facts concerning the liquor traffic, and everyone is invited to attend.

Livestock Raising To Be Featured At Convention

The raising of livestock will be featured in the programs of two days at the 41st annual Farm and Home Convention at the University of Kentucky, Lexington, February 3-4, according to Joe Closon, County Agent in Boone county.

Cattlemen will hear about the prospects for 1953 and about breeding and feeding for best results. Speakers will include Dr. E. J. Warwick of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Prof. Rex Benford of Iowa State College, and several Kentucky authorities.

Breeding for greater lamb production will be the subject of Prof. D. S. Bell of the Ohio Experiment Station, while dairy farmers will hear talks by Dr. R. E. Hodgson of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and Dr. N. S. Lindquist of Purdue University.

Hog raisers will have as speakers, Dr. F. Wilson of Ohio State University, and several prominent Kentucky farmers. There will be sessions for both chicken and turkey raisers.

Other sectional meetings will deal with feed production, soil management, fruit and vegetable growing, the Rural Community and Church and agricultural engineering.

Reports will be made of research work at the University of Kentucky Experiment Station in problems confronting stockmen.

The entire program, the last day, will be devoted to tobacco production.

The convention will open with a general program, sectional meetings for farmers the following two days, and special sessions for women three days.

Two More Contests Booked For This Week

—By Marie Martin—

The Bearcats played their best game of the basketball season on Friday, Jan. 9. The Cats feared the Cardinals, but stayed in the lead all the way. Smith was never in better form than Friday. The entire team had excellent team work, and never tired all the way. Mosley and Roberts were outstanding in their forward positions, getting 15 and 10 points, respectively. The team's shooting average was 34%, however, they only made nine out of 29 foul attempts.

Period scores were: 1st quarter, 21-15; Walton; half, 40-33; Walton; 3rd quarter, 58-48, Walton, and the final score was 75-65, Walton.

Points for the Bearcats were: Smith 30; Mosley 15; Vest 15; Roberts 10, and Grubbs 5.

The Cats played a very good game against the Ludlow Panthers, Tuesday, January 13. The Bearcats again were leading all the way. At the first quarter the score was tied 20-20, at the half the Cats had only a 4-point lead to make the score 31-27. During the third period the Bearcats had gained 23 tallies while Ludlow gained 16. During the last quarter, the Cats really took the lead by scoring 22 points against 6 for Ludlow, to make the final score 76-49, Walton.

Points for the Cats were: Smith 25; Grubbs 15; Roberts 13; Mosley 9; Vest 6; Muddman 6, and Courtney 2.

The second team lost their game, 43 to 39, at Ludlow.

NEW HAVEN HERE FRIDAY

Two more games are on tap for the Bearcats during the coming week. Friday night, at this week, they meet the New Haven Tigers on the Walton floor, and on Tuesday, of next week, they go to Bellevue.

HOLIDAYS AT HOME

Donald B. Stephenson, who has been in Oxford, England, spent the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Stephenson and family of Florence. He is with the 149th Bomb. Sqdn., 2nd Bomb. Wing, on the B-50, as a first class gunner. His rating is Corporal, and he has returned to Hunter's A.F.B., Savannah, Ga.

His brother, Roland, who has been serving in Korean waters on the Bonhoeffer Richard as a radarman, is due in the States soon. Roland is a Petty Officer, 3rd Class.

FELLOWSHIP DINNER

On Sunday, January 18, following the morning worship period, a Fellowship dinner will be held at the Richmond Presbyterian Church. In the afternoon, a sound color film, "In Fertile Fields," will be shown, after which there will be a business meeting of officers of the church.

PINER W.M.S. MEETS

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Piner Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. Ruby Linder on December 3, for a special Little Moon meeting. The offering was $43.05.

The regular monthly meeting was held December 29, in the basement of the church. The program, "Where Jesus Walked," was enjoyed by 11 members, who all took part in a general discussion.

Community Missions committee reported that six members met at the church for community visitation, and after prayer, ten visits were made by the group. A Christmas contribution of $3.00 was sent to the "Good Will Center." Fruit, flowers and a Christmas box valued at $25 was sent to the ill and needy in the community. Six ladies of the society visited Booth Hospital this month. The group sent 63 cards and made 78 visits to the sick. The collection was $10.50.

After the day's meeting was adjourned, the society sponsored a miscellaneous household shower for Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Wood. They received several useful gifts. Mr. Wood is a ministerial student, licensed to preach by the Piner Baptist Church. He and Mrs. Wood are students at Mars Hill College, Mars Hill, North Carolina. Our prayers and good wishes are always with them.

THE WRONG DAY

In last week's paper we had the wrong day on a cattle sale to be held at the Walton Stock Yards, of the Clarence Coyte estate. This event will be held on Tuesday, January 20.

Sunday Accident

Early last Sunday morning, a car driven by Claude Roberts of Pershing St., Covington, jumped the curb in front of Dowson Bagby's home and crashed into the front of Gordon Riley's grocery store.
The estimated overall damage to Mr.
Riley's store was $500, plus much added work in placing the merchandise back on the shelves. The car was a complete loss and the driver was taken to St.
Elizabeth Hospital for first aid and observation.

Neighborhood Get-Together

The old and new neighbors of Happy Hollow, near Pilehouse Isle, had a get-together party last Saturday evening at Pleasure Isle Country Club. At 8 p. m., the old friends and neighbors came from all directions, even as far as Louisville and Indianapolis, to join in the community singing, dancing and a wonderful lunch. This neighborhood get-together was the first of its kind held and was enjoyed by approximately 100 persons.
Another such gathering will be planned for the latter part of March and a larger crowd is expected.

DON'T OVERLIME TOBACCO GROUND

Warning about overliming land for tobacco is given in a University of Kentucky circular on fertilizing burley. When tobacco is grown in rotation, no more lime should be used than is necessary for the legumes in the rotation, it is stated. This probably means one to two tons an acre every 10 to 12 years, and should follow the tobacco crop.

Land in continuous tobacco should be moderately acid and should be limed as necessary to keep it from becoming strongly acid. This usually means a half-ton to a ton every six to eight years. The circular, which is 490, contains complete information on fertilizing burley tobacco. Ask at a county agent's office or write to the college at Lexington for a copy.

Local Dealer Featuring Famous Geneva Products

The Dixie Linoleum Co., of Walton, owned and operated by O. J. Struve, has for some time handled one of the most famous lines of kitchen cabinets and equipment.

Mr. Struve spent several weeks recently at the factory, where he learned the latest in installation and planning. He states that the famous Geneva stainless steel kitchen equipment is the finest in the country with lifetime service built in. The magic of stainless steel combines beauty, utility and enduring permanence, giving you a sink that will be a life-long cherished possession. Geneva's unexcelled clusive Geneva feature giving you extra protection at the point where rust normally forms—inside the doors and drawer fronts. Sound insulating material adds strength, eliminates rattles. All Geneva handles are of die formed chrome plated steel. Back of them a plastic cup allows more room for fingers and protects the finish from wear which is exceedingly hard around handle area.

Mr. Struve suggests that everyone should investigate the possibility of installing continuous counter tops, which will give your kitchen that tailored look. Practically any color of the rainbow is construction provides great strength. There are no seams or joints to collect germs, no hiding places for food deposits or odors. Fats and sordidities do not affect this surface for it's stainless steel through. A swish of a damp cloth leaves it gleaming. Here is truly the finest sink money can buy. Installed, it adds many times its cost to the value of a home.

Stainless steel sinks are made in 36", 54", 60", 66", 72", 84" and 96" sizes. In listing some of the features of the Geneva products, Mr. Struve pointed out that the drawers are supported on heavy leadcoated steel channels and feature roller type interlocking slides. Rollers are made of indestructible nylon. The slightest nudge will gently close Geneva's drawers. Should an accident cause a drawer front to be damaged, there's no need to buy a whole new drawer. Simply remove the front and replace it. No special tools are required to make the change. Inside painting is also an ex-available in Geneva's wide range of counter top materials and patterns. You can select a color to harmonize with any color scheme. Custom-built counter tops are used over batteries of base cabinets to eliminate unsightly joints and make neater, more sanitary installations. Tops are available in exciting Formica, durable linoleum, colorful vinyl, tough hardwood maple or stainless steel. Any size or shape is possible to make as the sketches indicate. Inserts of maple or stainless steel are often used in the section of the top nearest the range for cutting, chopping or sliding hot pans onto. Look for the Geneva trademark on your tops.

Dixie Linoleum Company has a complete planning service for everyone's needs and also has installed a complete Geneva kitchen in its show room, and will be glad to show any interested person the many features of this world famous line.

Walton, Ky.

Sorry to hear that Mark has left us

Hope he's safely Over There.

Where there'll be no sign of sadness

But 'twill all be bright and fair.

As we travel on life's journey

There's one thing I'd have you know,

We are preparing for hell or heaven

When it's time for us to go.

Soon we'll all be called to leave here

Let's be prepared to cross that Tide,

If the Saviour is our Captain

We will anchor safe inside.

Should we fail to trust our Captain

While we journey here below,

Then "Old Jordan" will be stormy

When it's time for us to go.

But if we will only trust Him

He will take our lay hand,

For we know He's on the ocean

Just the same as on the land.

Just the moment that we trust Him

We can feel His presence near.

And we know we'll anchor safely

When the morn is shining clear.

If we will place our trust in Jesus

While we journey here below,

Then "Old Jordan" will be easy

When it's time for us to go.

Your old pal and neighbor,

EWES MAY NEED EXTRA ATTENTION

Due to the general feed situation, pregnant ewes may need extra care this season. Otherwise the lamb crop may suffer.

Specialists at the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics note that ewes sometimes do not get enough feed in a normal year. This is especially true of ewes carrying twins or triplets. Sometimes the neglect is so great that pregnancy disease appears in the flock.

The last month before the lambs arrive is considered the most critical time. Be sure ewes have plenty of good hay and grain, water and salt.

When Neighbors WORK TOGETHER ... They Find the BEST ANSWERS

Before farmers began working together in their national farm loan associations they were at the mercy of the money lenders. Interest rates were high, renewals were expensive if available at all, commissions were expensive, loans were made for short terms—everything was in favor of the lender.

Then, in 1917, farmers began working together cooperatively through their national farm loan associations and Federal Land Banks to get the BEST in farm loan service. In the years since the Federal Land Bank system was established there have been more improvements in the farm loan service available to farm families than in all the history of the United States up to that time.

It is generally recognized that every major improvement in farm mortgage loans during the past 35 years has been pioneered by the Federal Land Banks and national farm loan associations.

One of these improvements is our low 4% interest rate. Many lenders have raised their interest rates but the Federal Land Bank of Louisville still maintains its rate at the same low 4% that has been in effect since 1935. And the long-term without renewals, the privilege to prepay any amount at any time without penalty, no application fees, no appraisal fees, the future payment fund program, loans based on normal agricultural values—are other improvements.

Working together gives them an opportunity to continue pioneering in making "THE BEST farm loan in America" an even better loan.

Voice of Truth

C. N. "Doc" Taylor

"REPEAT OR PERISH"

"EXCEPT YE REPENT, YE SHALL ALL LIKEWISE PERISH." (Luke 13:3). These were the words of the Incarnate Son of God. They have never been cancelled, nor will they be as long as this world lasts. Repentance is absolutely necessary if the sinner is to "take peace with God," (Isa. 27:5), for repentance is the throwing down the weapons of rebellion against Him. Repentance does not save, yet no sinner ever was or ever will be saved without it. None but Christ saves, but an impenitent heart cannot receive Him. A sinner cannot truly believe until he repents. This is clear from the words of Christ concerning His forerunner, "Repent not afterward that ye might believe him," (Matt. 21:32). It is also evident from His clarion call in Mark 1:15, "Repent ye, and believe the gospel." This is why the apostle Paul testified, "Repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ," (Acts 20:21). Make no mistake on this point dear reader, God "now commandeth all men everywhere to repent," (Acts 17:30).

In requiring repentance from us, God is pressing His righteous claims upon us. He is infinitely worthy of universal obedience. This we have wickedly denied Him. Both an acknowledgement and amendment of this is required from us. Our disaffection for Him and our rebellion against Him are to be owned and made an end of. Thus, repentance is a heartfelt realization of how dreadfully I have failed, all through my life, to give God His rightful place in my heart and daily work.

The righteousness of God's demand for my repentance is evident if we consider the heinous nature of sin. Sin is a renouncing of Him who made me. It is refusing Him His right to govern me. It is the determination to please myself; thus, it is rebellion against the Almighty. Sin is spiritual lawlessness, on utter disregard for God's authority. It is saying in my heart, I care not what God requires, I am going to have MY OWN WAY. I care not what be God's claim upon me, I am going to be lord over myself. Reader, do you realize that THIS is how YOU have lived?

Now true repentance issue from a realization in the heart, wrought therein by the Holy Spirit, of the exceeding sinfulness of sin, of the awfulness of ignoring the claims of Him who made me, of defying His authority. It is therefore a holy hatred and horror of sin, a deep sorrow for it, an acknowledgement of it before God, and a complete heart-forsaking of it. Not until this is done will God pardon us. "He that covereth his sins shall not prosper; but whoso CONFESSETH and FORSAKETH them shall have mercy," (Prov. 28:13).

In true repentance the heart turns to God and acknowledges: my heart has been set upon a vain world, which could not meet the needs of my soul; I forsook Thee, the Fountain of living waters, and turned unto broken cisterns which held none. I now own and bewail my folly. But more, it says: I have been a disloyal and rebellious creature, but I will be no longer. I now desire and determine with all my might to serve and obey Thee, O my Lord. I betake myself to Thee as my present and everlasting Portion.

Reader, be you a professing Christian or not, it is REPENT or PERISH. For every one of us, church members or otherwise, it is either TURN or BURN—turn from your course of self-will and self-pleasing; turn in brokenness of heart unto God, seeking His mercy in Christ; turn with full purpose of heart to please and serve Him; or, be tormented day and night, forever and ever, in the Lake of Fire. Which shall it be? O get down on your knees right now and beg God to give you the spirit of true repentance. (Adv.)

BIBLE SPEAKS

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Mountain; Valley

Lesson for January 18, 1953

GENERAL Braxton Bragg was a hard-working brainy officer; but there was one thing he would not do. He would not climb a mountain to look for himself. One of the generals in his command, Nathan Bedford Forrest, had been up. From the summit of Lookout Mountain, Forrest could see with his own eyes what was going on. He could see the enemy's movements and what it would take to stop them. He pleaded with General Bragg to come and look too; but in vain. General Bragg was too busy; and so he missed an opportunity that never came again.

The Rhythm of Life

A Sunday school superintendent used to boast that he had never missed a single Sunday in close to 40 years. An observer remarked that it might have been a good idea for him to miss a few Sundays, to take some time off to visit other schools and see how they did it. It is possible to keep your nose so close to the grindstone that you can't really see what you are doing. It is possible "not to see the forest for the trees."

To put it in another way: Life has a rhythm of mountain and valley. In life we have to do two things: get up now and again on a mountain where we can see high and far; and also to walk in the valley where we cannot see beyond the next bend in the dusty road. To put it in still plainer words: Most of our life consists of everyday duties, of ordinary days, with their problems, discouragements, weariness and difficulties. But in rare moments we "get a lift" as we say, when we can rise above the petty round of the usual routine and somehow see life, its meaning and direction, as we never did before. The mountain-top experience we may call the best of life; but the valley is the most of life. The good life will have both mountain and valley.

Vision and Service

These high moments are rare but important. We read of one of the most memorable of these in the familiar story of the Transfiguration, and what followed it. There was the great vision on Mt. Hermon's snows; and there was the tough situation down in the valley. Tough situations were common; that vision came only once. It is the way of life always. Paul's vision on the Damascus road did not last long, yet it controlled and inspired his whole life afterward. Moses saw but one burning bush; yet that day's vision drove him through many a year of toil and trouble. It is the high moments that give power to the low days.

Life cannot be all vision, yet it should not be all service. Or as we should rather say, the vision is for the sake of the service, and the service translates the vision into action. Vision illumines service; service obeys vision. High moments come to us in various ways. We have our high moments of faith when doubt drops away and we rise to a certainty that never quite leaves us again. We have high moments of hope, when the distant dream comes over the horizon toward us and we see the "alabaster cities gleam" as it were across the street; and high moments of love, so certain, so profound, that ever after, under all the trivial and troubling currents of everyday necessity the deeper love flows steady, ever sure.

Trust Your Best Moods

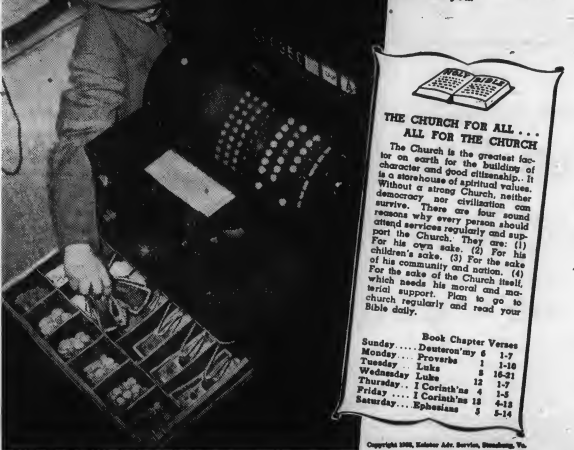

Life has two temptations here. One is to make the mountain's vision last without ceasing. We do not lose the glory to vanish in the cloud. But this is a temptation. Not even heaven is like that. There will be vision in heaven, more glorious than any here; but there will be service too, and more faithful than any here. If there are any beings whom God has destined for vision only, and not for service, they are angels, not men.

This appetite for looking up to stick at our work, never looking up to see the stars; plodding in the valley, too busy to climb the hills. Suppose the disciples had been too busy to go up to the mountain top with Jesus? Trust your best moods. They do not deceive you, if they come in his company. Down in the valley, in the tough situation, they may seem to have been only dreams; but they are not.

THIEF ROBS STORE WHILE PROPRIETOR'S BACK TURNED

"Automatic candid camera snaps thief in action. Police have clues to identity." "Small-time crook playing for peanuts," someone says, tossing aside the newspaper. But small-time crooks often become big-time. And even "peanuts" are important. Have been growing up. Too many times somebody has overlooked petty offenses, remarking, "Boys will be boys." Too many times these little misdemeanors have mushroomed into serious crimes.

A young person who learns through home and church "to love the Lord thy God . . . and thy neighbor . . ." will not even want to commit such deeds against his neighbors. If his mind and heart are filled with the goodness of God, he will want to show that goodness and kindness to others. Don't turn your back on youngsters. But turn your feet and heart toward the Church, and take these young folk with you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to the Church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Woodward entertained at dinner New Year's day for their son, Robert, and wife.

Sympathy of the community is extended Judge C. L. Cropper in the passing of his brother, John Kirtley Cropper.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schram were hosts at a dinner party at their home on Girard St., Saturday of last week. Guests enjoying the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Osburn and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Luchte.

Mrs. Buddy Arnold is improving following an illness.

Mrs. Walter Kirkpatrick (nee Gwendolyn Arnold) is confined in Jewish Hospital due to surgery. Her friends wish her the best.

Dr. T. C. Crume has recently returned from the Kentucky-Tennessee mountains, where he spent a few days collecting small evergreens to be used in his greenhouse for grafting purposes.

Dr. Gladys L. Rouse is confined in St. Elizabeth Hospital due to surgery. The best of luck to her.

Billy R. Markesbery, Billy McKibben and Alan Utz, Jr., all students at U. K., enjoyed the weekend with homefolks here.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Claxton of Locust St., who are the proud parents of a baby son, born during the past week at St. Elizabeth Hospital. Mr. Claxton is county agricultural agent.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Arnold were pleasant callers on Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Markesbery, Sunday evening of the last week.

Sorry to report Mrs. Hal Highhouse of Ludlow, as being confined to St. Elizabeth Hospital, due to an attack of pneumonia. Prior to the holidays, Mrs. Highhouse suffered a knee fracture in a fall in front of her home. She is improving however and her friends are hoping she will soon have regained her usual health. Her sister, Mrs. Eva Osborn, is attending her.

Stevie, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wilmoth of Lloyd Ave., was confined to St. Elizabeth Hospital a few days last week due to an attack of pneumonia, and his older brother, Roy, is confined to his home with mumps.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Richard of Elsmere, are being congratulated over the arrival of a daughter, Cindy Jane, born December 29 at Bethesda Maternity Hospital, Cincinnati.

The twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Art Centner, who have been confined in Jewish Hospital since birth, are now improved and are at home with their parents in Erlanger.

Sympathy is extended the family of Chester L. Stephens, 65, who succumbed Thursday at Booth Hospital, following an extended illness. Mr. Stephens was a former dairy expert with the Berling Dairy Co., Cincinnati. Last rites were from the Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Florence, Sunday, with Dr. Savage, Methodist minister of Louisville, officiating, assisted by Rev. C. N. Ogg and Rev. Valis Hill of Hughes Chapel, with interment in Hughes Chapel cemetery. The deceased leaves his widow, Mrs. Jane Jones Stephens; two brothers, William of Plant City, Fla., and Albert Stephens of Savannah, Ga. Siler and Williams, funeral directors of Aurora, Ind., relatives of the family, were in charge of arrangements.

BEAVER LICK

Don't forget Sunday, January 18—we are going to surprise our pastor, Rev. Melvin Riley and wife with a pound party —that is his first anniversary as pastor of our church. Each member and friends of our church are asked to bring a can of food or a pound of something to help celebrate this occasion. It will be greatly appreciated—bring yaud donation to the church January 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Black and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith are both enjoying new television sets.

We are sorry Mrs. Rosa Isaacs fell and broke a rib; also Mrs. Bea Kite breaking an arm. We wish both a speedy recovery.

Henry Black was in Covington, Saturday consulting a specialist about his health.

We are sorry Lawrence Jones is not so well. We pray for him to be restored to health.

We extend our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Jane Stephens in the death of her husband, Chester Stephens, who was buried at Hughes Chapel, Sunday.

INDEPENDENCE R. 1

Those on the sick list are Mrs. J. J. Barnett and Mrs. W. E. Hanna. Both are improving but not able to be out yet.

The farmers in this community are all about through their tobacco stripping.

Rev. and Mrs. Ray Martin and little son spent Saturday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett.

Mrs. Chester Rapp and children spent Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan, on Ryland Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Wynford Riley and little daughter, Beverly, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kelley and children left the latter part of the week on a two weeks vacation in Florida.

Rev. Fay Johnson has returned to Wilmore, to resume his school duties, after being home during the vacation term.

Our Sunday School attendance at Stofardsburg fell off some Sunday due to sickness and also the snowy morning. Hope all will be able to show next Sunday.

Many of the school teachers from Simon Kanton, Independence and Visalia schools attended the funeral of Mrs. Caywood at Crescent Springs Presbyterian Church, Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Manroe Shirley and son, Eddie, of Williamstown, spent a day recently with Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Riley.

Mrs. Clyde Richardson and son of near Georgetown, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Richardson the past week.

Miss Birdie Reddick, who is a patient of the Rest Home, Riverside Drive, spent a couple of days with Rev. and Mrs. Johnson and children, recently.

Fix-It-Shop

This must be a fix-it-shop instead of a hardware store, for every day we do so many small repair jobs. Check up in two handles; Brewster repaired two irons and repaired two irons, repaired a clothes dryer, then cleaned out and adjusted an oil heater; Chick patched a bicycle tube and put on a new tire; Brewster sharpened some scissors and butcher knives; Chick put new blade in a butcher saw; Brewster rewired a table lamp; Chick cut a lot of iron bars and drilled holes in them. They bring us all kinds of small jobs and we nearly always get them fixed.

We can't do big jobs because we don't have time, but small jobs you can't get anyone to fix, bring to CONRAD and we will fix them. There are a lot of things lying around the place that you could use if it were repaired or had a new handle, or maybe a bolt, rivet or screw put in. A fellow brought in five pitchforks and two axes to be handled—in no time we had him all fixed up and saved him a lot of money and we got to sell the handles, plus a lot of putting them in.

Well, the year of 1953 has started; and the salesmen are out after business. I have from two to five every day. Some get an order and leave, others stick around and shoot the bull all day, but after all these years, I have learned how to get rid of those birds. We are not selling too much as the weather is so bad and no one in town, but Roy and Chick are cleaning house—they are finding things that we did not even know were here. But when they get through our stock will be clean and straight, then I will fill up the vacant spots.

They all come to town today—very bad, rainy and foggy, but the roads were better. Hotdog came over and paid his account and wanted a wood heater. Ed Elmore also paid his account and his wife bought a few small articles—Ed drives the school bus and he has had some rough times on these slick roads. Ruth Vest came in to pay Peggy's bill and Grace White, from Illinois, was with her—she wanted a calendar but I was out. She looks the same; said Frank was getting older and madder every year.

Rod Hughes and Marie left for Florida, today, and it sure was foggy. Gayle McElroy is home from the hospital and doing fine. The Perfektion stove man was here today and they have the most beautiful line of stoves for 1953 you ever looked at. Of course I had to buy some, as I have a lot of Perfektion electric ranges, oil heaters and portable oil heaters. If every company made quality merchandise like Perfektion, we would not run Brewster to death keeping all the different pieces of merchandise working.

Maytag washers are another quality piece of merchandise, but we do have some service calls on them as they have a few more working parts than a stove. I love to sell my customers good quality merchandise. We just received a shipment of Maytag washers—they come in very slow—buy your wife a new Maytag out of that tobacco check—look at the hours she put in helping raise that crop; she needs a new Maytag to wash those dirty clothes you and the kids have every week. Make the work easier for your wife, you have a new tractor to make your work easier.

Mrs. Emma Flynn was in today for some glue. Uncle Bill Lancaster bought a new blade for one of his horses—this was Uncle Bill's birthday—he is 81 years old, and still raising tobacco. John L. Vest came in and when he left, Uncle Bill said they were about the same age—he could remember when John L. ran a threshing machine and he took the wheat away—now that was several years ago, at least 60. Neuman Armstrong and wife came over for a Perfektion 2-burner oil cook stove and 20 ham bags—they are a fine couple.

We just received a shipment of Breneman plastic window shades—they are very nice. This year they are embossed and do not have that slick finish as they did have. We unloaded nine Bemis tobacco setters, horse drawn, tractor hitch and hydraulic lift type—get one of these early. They have rubber tires and a lot better made this year. Saturday, a very bad rainy day, not too many people in town, but we had a lot of customers and loaders. Ralph Sparks bought a horse collar and tried to trade radios with me, but we couldn't get together.

Bill Howe from Crittenden, came over on an axe and had Chick put a new handle in an old axe. Chick and Roy are sure cleaning and straightening up this store, and does it look better; a very fine job—we hope you will think so. Harry Vest, Geo. Fisher, Omer Dudgeon, J. C. Benton and Frank Rouse were the main loaders for the day. Stanley Fooks was in getting repairs for his electric water pump. Bill McCormick and Chick had a stove trade. Joe Woods, one of my good customers, was in, paid his account, and right back home he went.

Geo. Arnold, who operates Ellis Farm, is here several times every day—he buys a little of most everything. Stan Daugheter and Chos. Watson were getting some rope when they came. Rosie and bought a Mirromatic pressure cooker. Allen St. Clair called for some rag rugs, a pyrex casserole, a Mirromatic gasket and pot scratchers. Wm. Brown from Piner brought some new harness, so did Ralph Sparks. We have a very nice stock of harness.

"Mothers' March On Polio" Set For Jan. 29

Organization of the Mothers' March on Polio, scheduled for Thursday evening, January 29, between the hours of 7:00 and 8:00, as the climax to the 1953 March of Dimes, will be headed by members of the Wa-Na Club, prominent volunteer community workers, according to Mrs. Charles Holder, chairman of the Mothers' March.

The town has been divided into sections, with a captain in charge of each section.

It is hoped that a Wa-Na Club member will be able to call on each home whose porch light is lit on the evening of January 29, to accept a contribution to the March of Dimes, Mrs. Holder said.

The March will extend north on Walton-Nicholson Road to the Kenton county line and on U. S. 25 to Richmond, and up the Old Lexington Pike to the white bridge; Verona Road to the residence of O. F. Young, and on Beaver Road to the residence of George Brooks. The town limits of Verona will be included in the March.

Fire Chief Russell Groger said he would blow the fire siren at 7:00 on the night of the March, so everyone will be sure and turn their porch lights on.

WORKERS NEEDED

A competitive examination to obtain social workers for the Division of Public Assistance of the State Department of Economic Security will be given at Holmes High School, Covington, on Saturday, January 31, at 8 a. m.

Workers chosen through the examination will fill present and future vacancies in Boone, Kenton, Campbell, Carroll, Grant, Gallatin and Pendleton counties. Robert L. Vezzey, Merit System supervisor for the State, said in announcing the exam. Starting pay for the jobs is $210 a month plus travel expenses.

Persons wishing to take the examination may obtain application blanks at their local State Employment Service Office, Public Assistance Office, School Superintendent's Office or at the examination center at the time the test is given.

Applicants must be high school graduates and must have completed two years of college or two years of paid employment in a job requiring intimate contact with the public or a two-year combination of both.

Veterans will receive a five-point preference on the examination and veterans with a disability will get a ten-point preference. Qualifying applicants will get preference for vacancies in their home counties. Workers are required to travel and must have the use of an automobile.

TAX MAN COMING

Director of Internal Revenue, William M. Gray, announces that an Agent from his office will visit Walton on February 11 and 12, and Burlington, February 18 and 19, 1953, for the purpose of assisting taxpayers in filing their final 1952 returns and their estimated returns for the year 1953. Their returns should be filed by March 15, 1953.

The Director of Internal Revenue urges that taxpayers desiring the above service list and total items relating to their income and their deductions, including allowable expenses, so that information necessary in the preparation of a return be on hand when availing themselves of this service which is absolutely free.

ATTENDING COLLEGE

Dorothy Hoffman, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Hoffman, Walton, has just registered for the Winter Quarter at Asbury College, Wilmore, Ky.

A graduate of Walton High School in 1951, Dorothy is a sophomore at Asbury College, where she is studying for the teaching profession. She is one of nearly 900 students enrolled in the school.

CHALLENGES ROTARIANS TO A BASKETBALL GAME

"We, the Walton Lions Club, do hereby challenge the Walton Rotary Club to a game named basketball on the night of February 5, 1953 at 8 p. m. We make this challenge without reservation on any basis acceptable to the challenged, and for the purpose of promoting the interest of both civic organizations to the fullest extent for the welfare and benefit of our community.

"We, the Lions, shall expect your reply to be transmitted next week via this newspaper."

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

Miss Lucy Barberick

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barberick, Walton, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lucy, to Private Robert W. Cooper, who will leave soon for service in Korea. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cooper, also of Walton.

New Tobacco Curing Process To Be Discussed

A report on automatically controlled tobacco curing will be made at the annual Farm and Home Convention at the University of Kentucky, Lexington, on February 3-6. Visitors also will see the curing barn in which the system is being used.

Irrigation of tobacco and other crops will be given special attention at the farmers' meetings. The University has reports on irrigation in 36 counties. Irrigation of tobacco proved exceptionally profitable the past season.

Tobacco growing, insect and disease control, curing, grading and marketing will make up the entire program for farmers the last day of the convention."

Other sectional meetings at the convention will deal with soils and crops; the raising of cattle, sheep and hogs; dairying; poultry raising; seed production; the use of machinery on farms; fruit and vegetable growing; the business side of farming, and the rural community and church.

A general program for all men and women will be given the first day, in Memorial Coliseum. Then, for three days, homemakers will have sessions to themselves, while farmers will divide into sectional meetings.

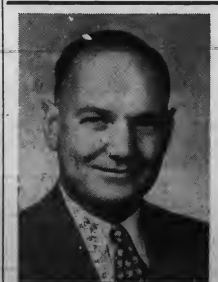

Organizations to meet during the convention include the Kentucky Seed Improvement Association, Kentucky Federation of Homemakers, dairy cattle clubs, Kentucky Milk Goat Association, poultry and turkey association, 4-H club association, and the Bluegrass State Sheep Association.

For further information, see your County Agent—Joe Claxton.

MASONS MET TONIGHT

Walton Lodge, No. 719, F. & A. M. will hold its regular meeting tonight (Thursday) at 7:30 p. m. in their hall over the drug store.

"WHO's WHO" in this Vicinity . . .

Mark M. Meadows

Mr. Meadows purchased the Walton Advertiser from Mrs. Martha R. Wallace in April, 1944. He is a Mason and a member of the Scottish Rite, a Rotarian, and an active member of the Walton Baptist Church. Mr. and Mrs. Meadows reside on Alta Vista Drive.

January Meeting Of Literary Club Well Attended

Members of the Walton Woman's Literary Club were entertained for the January meeting at Stephens' Restaurant with Mrs. A. P. Stephens as hostess and with the president, Mrs. Julia A. Rouse, in charge.

The meeting was opened with the pledge to the flag, followed by the club collect.

Mrs. J. C. Bedinger gave an inspiring spiritual guidance, closing with prayer. Quotation from a book recently read furnished the response to roll call. Mrs. Wendell W. Rouse gave a report on goals for the Public Welfare Department for 1952-53.

Mrs. Alan H. Gaines gave a most interesting and much enjoyed review of Pearl Buck's new novel, "The Hidden Flower." This is the absorbing story of the love of a Japanese girl for an American boy, common to thousands of marriages between American boys and the girls they met abroad. The author was born of Missionary parents, spent her early life in China, was educated at Randolph-Macon College in Virginia, and returned to China to teach in native schools and colleges. Later she spent a year in Japan, where she obtained the understanding of the Japanese, which is evident in her book.

Following adjournment, the hostess served a delightful social course. Members in attendance were Mrs. W. O. Rouse, Mrs. Julia A. Rouse, Mrs. G. C. Ransom, Mrs. James Powers, Mrs. John Meyers, Mrs. James Webster, Mrs. A. R. Conner, Mrs. D. H. Vest, Mrs. Forest Thompson, Mrs. W. D. Scroggins, Mrs. Wendell W. Rouse, Mrs. H. F. Mann, Mrs. Alan H. Gaines, Mrs. E. Fry, Mrs. B. W. Frank, Mrs. C. C. Chambers, Mrs. C. F. Blankenbaker, Mrs. John C. Bedinger, Mrs. A. P. Stephens, and Mrs. J. R. Canard.

ROBERT L. SUTTON

Robert Lee Sutton, age 78, a resident of Verona until recently, died at the home of a son, Marvin Sutton, Erlanger, Route 4, on January 15. He was a retired farmer.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Minnie Sutton; two daughters, Mrs. George Alphin and Mrs. Mildred Moore, both of Verona; four sons, Robert G. Sutton of Latonia, William and Charles Sutton of Verona, and Marvin Sutton of Erlanger, Route 4; three brothers, Ben, Charles, and Elmer Sutton, all of Verona; eleven grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p. m., Sunday, January 18, in the Hamilton Funeral Home, Walton, with Rev. Kelly Kennedy officiating. Burial was in the Hance Cemetery, Gallatin County.

FINISHES SCHOOL

Pvt. Thomas L. Fahey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fahey, Walton, recently graduated with top scholastic honors from the Tank Mechanics course in Munich, Germany.

Assigned to the 43d Infantry Division's 143d Tank Battalion, Fahey is a maintenance and repair man for the tanks in his outfit.

Before entering the Army in April, 1951, he worked as a produce clerk with the Albers Super Markets, Cincinnati.

STATIONED AT SHEPPARD

A/3c Emery E. Cotton

Airman third class, Emery E. Cotton, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Cotton, Park Ave., Walton, who spent two weeks here with his family and friends during his basic training, has completed his basic training at Lackland A. F. B., San Antonio, Texas, and is now stationed at Sheppard Field A. F. B., Wichita Falls, Texas.

HAPPY HELPERS

The Happy Helpers class of the Walton Methodist Church held the January meeting in the church basement last Tuesday evening with a covered dish dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Simpson were hosts. Rev. George Hoffman had charge of the devotional.

The following attended: Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carlisle, Mrs. Livonia Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Fooks, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Lancaster, Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton, Mrs. Florence Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Pruett, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Simpson, Miss W. H. Weish, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wolfe, Miss Emma Jane Miller, Rev. Geo. Hoffman, and Mrs. Wm. House.

The February meeting will also be held at the church.

AUTO LICENSE VIOLATORS SUBJECT TO $100 FINES

Violators of the Kentucky automobile license law were warned by State Police today that they face fines of up to $100 if caught. Violations have been especially noted in border areas of the state where many residents often buy their auto tags in neighboring states to avoid paying Kentucky's usage and property taxes.

State Police and Department of Revenue officials said that Kentuckians who use out-of-state tags are subject to fines of from $10 to $100.

According to Kentucky statutes all residents must purchase their auto license in the state. The law also applies to out-of-state persons who move to Kentucky and to Kentuckians who buy out-of-state cars.

Departments of Police and Revenue also noted that it is illegal in Kentucky to use dealers tags on cars owned or used personally either by auto dealers or their employees.

STATE FISH AVAILABLE

According to conservation Officer Ollie Herrington, anyone having ponds or lakes and want them stocked with bass and blue gill, call him at Walton 708. Any landowner who wishes to put out bicolor speckles (a quail food) or any of the different shades the State has, including multicolor roses, call Mr. Herrington.

BOX SUPPER FEB. 12

The Missionary Guild of the Walton Christian Church is having an old fashioned box supper Thursday, February 12 at 7:00 p. m., in the church basement. Ladies, if you are tired of eating with the same men every night, pack a box supper and come to the church and eat with a different man, the publicity chairman said.

Coffee and tea will be served and a social will follow. An evening of fun is planned, so, don't forget February 12, 7 p. m. The public is invited.

ON AIRCRAFT CARRIER

Thomas W. Curley, fireman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus W. Curley of Walton, is serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Oriskany, operating off the east coast of Korea.

Recently, the Oriskany participated in the largest naval air attack on North Korean targets. The Navy pilots clothed four cities near the Manchurian border. Earlier, planes from the carrier shot down two MIGs only 35 miles away from the task force.

ORGAN DEDICATION

A new Hammond Organ will be dedicated at the Independence Christian Church, Sunday evening, January 25, with Rev. Barton A. Johnson, pastor of Modesto Avenue Christian Church, Covington, preaching the sermon. Rev. William Blackwell, pastor of Goshen Christian Church, Piner, and Rev. Roy Martin, pastor of Bulletsville Christian Church, will participate in the program. Major Siftin of Booth Memorial Hospital will render special violin numbers, and Mr. Carl Johnson, organist for Willis Music Company, will present a thirty-minute organ recital. The organ recital will begin about 7:30 p. m. Rev. Arthur Tipton is pastor of the Independence Christian Church.

Former Verona Man Married In Winchester

On New Year's day, a very pretty and impressive wedding was solemnized at Winchester, Ky., when Fern Hewson Tracy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hewson, Sr., became the bride of Eldon Wayne McClure, son of E. B. and the late Sule McClure of Verona. The wedding took place at the home of the bride, and the Rev. A. D. Leath, pastor of the First Baptist Church, performed the double ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. McClure were both graduates of the University of Kentucky. Mr. McClure is now a member of the Kentucky State Police.

February Is Proclaimed American History Month

The Daughters of the American Revolution, according to Mrs. C. Davis Gales, Chairman of the Americanism Committee, requested the Governor of our state to set aside one month of the year for American History. So, last year Governor Wetherby proclaimed February as American History Month in Kentucky.

Mrs. Gales said, "February is the most appropriate month of the year, as two of our greatest presidents were born then: George Washington, who fought to free our country and later became president, and Abraham Lincoln, whose birthplace is Kentucky, who became president and abolished slavery, and who, while in office was assassinated by John Wilkes Booth."

"We cannot stress too much," Mrs. Gales added, "the teaching of American History every year in our schools, since subversive influences are rampant in our country, and even in some of our schools." "We must impress upon our teachers and students," the Americanism Committee concluded, "the importance of the salute to the flag, the creed of our country and our American History."

Kenton-Utopia Club Meets at Visalia School

The Kenton Utopia Club held its regular monthly meeting January 14 at the Visalia school, with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Blau as hosts. Roll call was answered by twenty members.

It was decided that the District Banquet every year in our schools, since subversive influences are rampant in our country, and even in some of our schools." "We must impress upon our teachers and students," the Americanism Committee concluded, "the importance of the salute to the flag, the creed of our country and our American History."

Following the ceremony, a reception was held for members of the wedding party and relatives and friends of the families.

Immediately following, Mr. and Mrs. McClure left for a bridal trip through the South, New Orleans, La. and Miami, Fla. Mrs. McClure chose for traveling a black and white tweed suit with black accessories and carried a silver fox muff. Her corsage was of white orchids.

They will be at home to their many friends at 323 South Broadway, Lexington, after January 20.

Bearcats Play at Florence, Friday

—By Marie Martin—

The Bearcats won over New Haven's Tigers, Friday, January 16. The 'Cats were in the lead all the way and were going strong up until the final quarter, when they weakened. Although they did slow down, they won by a score of 64-54.

Period scores were: First, 12-10 Walton; half, 33-23 Walton; third, 46-38 Walton, and final, 64-54 Walton.

Points for the 'Cats were: Vest 17, Smith 14, Mosley 14, Grubbs 10, Roberts 6, Courtney 2, and Mudman 1.

The second team had a very exciting game. New Haven's second team was in the lead all the way, but during the final quarter, the 'Cats pulled up to gain the victory by only three points. Jones Howard was high point man for the winners, with 14 tallies, and Jimmy Grubbs was second, with 7.

The Bearcats won over Bellevue, on Tuesday, January 20, on the Bellevue floor. The 'Cats had a tough game, but came up with the winning score, 57-53. The score was tied many times, and Bellevue was leading 49-48 with only 3:45 minutes to play.

Walton hit 20 out of 21 foul shots for their best percentage of the year. Bellevue made only 9 out of 20 tries from the foul line. The fine shooting of co-captains Johnny Grubbs and "Monk" Vest, from the floor, payed off against Bellevue's zone defense.

Tallies for the Bearcats were: Vest 17, Smith 15, Grubbs 11, Mosley 8, Roberts 4, and Mudman 2.

The second team lost their game to Bellevue, 47-23.

Simon Kenton

The Simon Kenton basketball team will play Campbell County, next Friday, January 23, at Simon Kenton.

Boy Scout Supper

The Independence Boy Scout Troop, No. 8, is preparing for their annual supper to provide funds for the remainder of this year. The annual spaghetti supper was voted out at a recent meeting of the parents and in its place will be a chicken supper. The date set for this supper will be the 7th of February, the National Boy Scout Week. The Scouts are now taking donations of various food that will help make the cost of their supper be kept at a minimum. Baked chickens, pies and cakes are the most wanted, and for you folks who have not been contacted by a Scout, your donation would be greatly appreciated. Just call Holly 8601 and mention your name, the name of the road on which you live, and what your donations will be, or you may leave your donations at the R. W. Grass Appliance Shop, Saturday before noon, or early in the afternoon. The little that you give will be greatly appreciated by all the Scouts and scouters.

Birthday Party

A party was given by Mrs. Robert C. Carr of the LLL Highway, Pleasure Isle, for her son, Michael, in celebration of his fifth birthday. Thirteen guests were present and all enjoyed the games and refreshments that were played and served.

On Furlough

T. J. Cain of Station Road is home on a 30-day leave from Newburgh, N. Y., where he has been stationed for nearly two years with the Air Force. After his leave, he will be transferred to Greenland or Iceland. His brother, Richard, stationed at Atlanta, Ga., with the Air Force, spent last weekend at home.

St. Cecilia Ladies Society

The regular monthly social of the St. Cecilia Ladies Society will be held at St. Cecilia church basement Wednesday afternoon, January 28, from 1:30 to 4 p. m. Refreshments will be served. Everyone is welcome. Donation 50c.

Girl Scout Delegate Assembly

The second Delegate Assembly meeting of the Licking Valley Girl Scout Council will be held January 28, from 7 to 10 p. m., at the Newport Library, 4th and Monmouth Streets, Newport. This meeting is for the committee members, Scouters and officers in the Girl Scout Troops of this area, to get together for a discussion of obtaining more and better camping facilities for more girls.

O.E.S. Chapter, 493

O. E. S. Chapter, 493, held its regular meeting last Tuesday, January 13, and it was agreed to have initiation work in March. So far, three candidates are scheduled.

Just A Thought—"A rich man is one who isn't afraid to ask the clerk to show him something cheaper."

Kenton Elementary P.T.A.

Kirtley Jolly, pastor of the Independence Baptist Church, gave an interesting talk on "Teaching Children Moral and Spiritual Values," at the meeting of the Kenton Elementary School P.T.A., held recently. "Everyone wants to be just an average citizen," he said. "The home will have to stand out in our community and children will not reach a higher plane than the home wants them to." "School plays a big part today in teaching children moral and spiritual values," he further stated. "A child is made, but the spiritual value is added." Rev. William Mullins, pastor of the Oak Ridge Baptist Church, led the meeting in prayer. Mrs. Dwight Maddox gave the devotion.

A motion was made and carried that the P.T.A. purchase a sewing machine for the 4-H Club and that material be purchased to make capes for the rhythm band.

Mr. Bailey's fifth grade room was the attendance award for January.

Mrs. George Riley, Mrs. John Butler, Mrs. Wootson Ashcraft, Mrs. William Eger and Mrs. John Cain will attend the Kenton County Council P.T.A. meeting to be held at the Madison Avenue Baptist Church, on Monday.

Members who will attend the Mid-Winter Conference of the Sixth District, Kentucky Congress of Parents and Teachers, on Thursday, January 22, are as follows: Mrs. Wootson Ashcraft, Mrs. George Riley and Mrs. William Eger. Refreshments were served in the cafeteria, after the meeting, by the first grade mothers.

Simon Kenton P.T.A.

The Simon Kenton P.T.A. met recently at the school, Mrs. William Eger, presiding.

Miss Pat Stagg, Educational Director of the Walton Baptist Church, gave the devotion. Miss Stagg related her experiences as a teacher in the American School in Paris, to illustrate how fortunate Americans are to be able to worship as their heart dictates.

In a panel discussion on Relations between Home and School should work together for the good of the child. A community with a good Home-School relationship is a happy community. The benefits are a lower rate of juvenile delinquency, more tolerance and in general a higher standard of living.

Miss Mary L. Yancey's seventh grade won the attendance award.

Temperance Speaker

Rev. Walter C. House, Executive Superintendent of the Temperance League of Kentucky, brought a very challenging message to Christian people Sunday at the Independence Baptist Church. He had a large whiskey bottle, about three feet tall, and a very small church which he placed on the table to show the comparison that $9,150,000 was spent for alcoholic beverages last year and only $1,158,000 was spent for churches.

Some outstanding thoughts were brought out: In 1934 eight gallons were consumed by each person in the U. S., and the estimate for 1953 is 22 gallons. He spoke of how all the great nations who were once leaders had fallen and the remaining free nations are looking to America for leadership and what could they expect when six times as much was spent for liquor as was given to churches? A spiritual awakening has preceded every moral reform which has come. He quoted a great temperance leader of years ago, "Liquor would destroy the church if it could and the church could destroy liquor if it would."

He outlines four ways in which the liquor traffic could be solved: (1) Teaching in our schools and churches about the evils of it; (2) Eliminate the manufacture of it through legislation; (3) Christians taking part in politics by selecting men to fill our offices who have moral convictions; (4) Every church and Christian carrying on a crusade of evangelism against it.

He used Esther 4:14 as his text and concluded his sermon by bringing ten boys and girls to the front to face the congregation and showed that in the next ten years, one out of every ten boys and girls in the U. S. would be a victim of the liquor traffic, such as sex mania, drunken driving, broken homes, orphaned children and murder. He challenged Christian people with the text, "Who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

W.M.S. Speaker

Miss Pat Stagg, Educational Director at the Walton Baptist Church, will be the speaker at the monthly W. M. S. meeting in the Independence Baptist Church, Monday evening, January 26, at 7:30. Miss Stagg has had a rich experience working with people of other nations. Mrs. George Riley, program chairman, extends an invitation to all women interested in Missions. At this same hour the Brotherhood, Y.W.A., Junior and Intermediate G.A., the R.A. and Sunbeams will meet in their respective rooms for their programs.

GET FERTILIZER NOW

Boone county farmers have been advised to take immediate action if they want to be sure of having on hand the fertilizer they will need for 1953 planting operations. "Critical losses in fertilizer production, are threatened due to the slow movement of plant food from factory to farms thus far this year," reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, Chicago. "Overcrowded storage facilities are causing bottlenecks at factories."

Growing like Jack's Beanstalk!

FOR YEARS, the Southern Railway System and many other organizations and individuals in the Southland have been saying to all America—"Come South, to find spectacular new opportunities in industry, agriculture and commerce." And our voices have been heard!

In the past decade, the South's rate of economic growth has far exceeded the national average in practically every category. In new construction, now at an all-time high. In expanded manufacturing output. In farm income, which has quadrupled. In per capita income and consumer sales.

Look back—and see how far we have come. Look ahead—and see the certainty of still greater progress and growth. Because all of us in the modern Southland are determined that it will continue to grow. And all of us will benefit.

Two Hardest

Lesson for January 25, 1953

WHEN YOU see a pole-vaulter sailing like a bird over a high bar, it looks like the easiest thing in the world. When you see a watchmaker putting a hairspring into place, or a good cook whipping a cake together, it looks simple. But the simple things are seldom as easy as they look. So it is in the Christian life. It can be made to sound absolutely simple, but it never is. And it never is easy, either. Perhaps the two hardest things sound the easiest. Jesus made it plain that without them one cannot call oneself a true Christian. One is humility and the other is forgiveness. How easy they sound! But try them. They will test your spiritual muscle.

Can This Be Right?

There is another paradox about these two indispensable qualities of Christian living.

They are not only much harder to practice than they sound, but they sound worse than they are. What is the quality which all Americans advise, imitate and practice with all their might? Isn't it aggressiveness? The so-called "gettin' spirit"? Humility sounds like the opposite of that, and so we seldom hear it praised, at Rotary luncheons, in political speeches or in school textbooks. Even in church we don't hear much about it. Advising people to be humble sounds like advising them to aim for the bottom of the ladder, not the top.

As for forgiveness, this too goes against the natural grain. We can forgive people for mistakes, we can forgive them with good grace when they haven't hurt us particularly. But when other people have actually done wrong, serious wrong, and done it to me or to someone I love, how then can I forgive them? Won't I be lowering myself to their level if I forgive?

Won't it be the same as saying that what they did was quite right after all? Shant I be calling wrong, right? Isn't forgiveness turning right and wrong upside down?

Humble Like a Child

Let us look into these matters a moment. Take humility first. Jesus' illustration of humility is not some down-out-lazy person without dreams, desires or ambitions. His model is the child. What is the humility of a child? It is the quality of teachability. The child is not set in his ways. He is trustful. Even the liveliest child, even the most stubborn, will believe what he is told and has a never-satisfied curiosity about everything. You can't tell the college sophomore much; he thinks he knows enough as it is. But no child thinks he knows everything. He is not suspicious, cynical, sophisticated, superior. He can grow.

Call the roll of the world's truly great men; they all have this quality of childlikeness. Whether a greatly daring person like Scott, the explorer of the Antarctic, or a greatly wise person like Abraham Lincoln, or a greatly imaginative person like John Bunyan. All forms of greatness have in them the quality of the childlike. And the special humbleness that is essential for Christians is not only this, but humility before God. For the one sin that keeps one farthest away from God is the very opposite of childlikeness, namely pride.

Seventy Times Seven

Consider that other quality, the forgiving spirit. Does this really mean calling wrong, right? We should remember that forgiving is not the same thing as condoning. You condone a wrong when you act as if it were not a wrong at all, really. When God forgives us he does not pretend that we have done no wrong, and when we forgive others we should not confuse wrong with right. Condoning means approving; forgiving does not. You can condone without love; it takes love to forgive.

But nowhere in the Bible is it said that God forgives, or that we are expected to forgive, apart from repentance. The hard and unrepenting spirit makes forgiveness impossible. Forgiveness is not a one-sided affair. It calls for humility on both sides, for forgiveness is a restoring of fellowship, and that cannot be done in pride. But is forgiveness a sign of weakness? Wait till you have been insulted, injured or wronged, and you will learn the truth about it.

Reaching for Eternity

This man is reaching for eternity! Look, as he stretches his arms heavenward. He is searching for the secret of the Divine which can give his life direction and meaning on earth and fulfillment in eternity.

So it has always been. Man has searched for the Divine. He has made crude images of wood and stone. He has fashioned from his mind philosophies of life. He has worshipped his own reason and creations. But in all his reachings he has never found eternity.

Man reaches rather than receives. That is his mistake. In his pride, he has looked to his own mind and resources to carry him to eternity. He has tried to climb to heaven rather than accept the salvation offered by his Christ who comes to him. Like the children in Grimm's fairy tale who deserted their home and looked the world over for a treasure that was in their own backyard, man continues to seek that which God has already given.

We have only to receive the Cross. There is God stretching his arms earthward offering man life and eternity.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs the moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

"PLAGUES OF THE CHURCH"

In the midst of a world wide spiritual awakening, the church is suffering with three great "Plagues":

- (1) Unsaved members in the church—
 - a) Many churches are welcoming those who have not experienced a meeting with Calvary; have not experienced a total depravity of man and his worthlessness.
 - b) Man must be lost before he can be found—Luke 19:10.
 - c) Some churches today make each applicant fill out a four-page for giving their testimony and why they want to be a member of this particular assembly and what job or duty they desire to fulfill when accepted—in this church there is a minimum of shirkers.

d) One Baptist church in Macon, Ga., one must attend faithfully for one year, and show fruits meet for repentance before being accepted.

e) Only spiritual men can do spiritual work—Paul says in I Cor. 2:14, "The natural man receiveth not the things of the spirit of God, etc."

f) Unsaved people cannot be used of God to win souls—they do not have a burden for the lost—Rom. 8:7, "They are not subject to the law of God, neither in deed can be."

g) Even some unsaved, hold church offices—this is why our churches have become powerless.

(2) Another plague is "Backsliders:"

a) Backsliding is like cancer, it often exists long before it becomes apparent.

b) The born again man always backsliding is miserable and always ready to confess and take God's promises. In I John 1:9, the proper rendering from the Greek is, "Whosoever is born of God is not empowered to sin continuously, for his seed remaineth in him, and he cannot sin continuously for he is born of God."

c) Because some fail to confess the trumpet gives forth an uncertain sound and evil results multiply.

David said, Ps. 24:3-4, "Who shall call upon God: they that hold clean hands and a pure heart."

d) Unhappy is the pastor that inherits in a new pastorate unsaved church members and backsliding Christians.

This combination will kill any church or any pastor's ministry. The pastor's preaching must be clear, firm, honest and Scriptural. No disease can be cured without the proper diagnosis. Backsliding is an active process and if not stopped and turned back will be a deadly plague to a local assembly.

(3) Another plague is "Sin in the Body:"

a) Unreborn sin-rebeking sin is a lost are in the modern church.

b) It is true the preacher's first duty is preaching the word—Paul goes on in I Tim. 4:2, not only to suggest, but to state declaratively, "Preach the Word, be instant in season and out of season. Reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine."

c) Some preachers will not preach some bible doctrine because if they do they might lose fellowship with some of the brethren. I think of Paul rebuking Peter, concerning his sin in contributing to the confusion of Gentile Christians over the matter of circumcision. It was far more than a difference of opinion; the integrity of the Gospel was at stake.

When we stand up and preach our convictions and stand for the truth, no matter what it hurts, in a spirit of love and with an open mind, people will find the truth and less confusion will be in our ranks. We do well to read the lives of yesterday's men of God. They were preachers of the Word who did not hesitate to thunder reproof and rebuke against the sins of sinners and saints in their day and age. Today, we are guilty in a large part of a conspiracy of silence while sin in many Christian circles marches on unrebuked and unopposed with those who are bold with the boldness of sin, become bolder; young Christians become first confused then discouraged, and souls within our reach remain lost without Christ.

May God help us who preach this glorious gospel to search our own hearts and churches in the light of these fundamentals of the faith. If they are found to hold the key to revival, shall we not all rejoice. (adv.)

EMPLOYEES HONORED

Twenty-one long-time employees of the Kentucky Department of Highways were given certificates and service pins in a ceremony in Frankfort, January 2, and 202 other employees are to receive awards from the office of the highway district in which they work.

Honored in Frankfort were persons who have served the department for 25, 30 and 40 years. The other awards to be made are for service of 10, 15 and 20 years.

The department now has 104 employees with 25 or more years of service; 17 with 30 or more years; two with 35 or more years and one who has served for 40 years.

Employees from Boone county who received awards were James Utz, Burlington, 10 years, and Raymond Motz, Florence, 25 years.

Fifty-one lap tables were bought or made by Logan county homemakers in November, a result of a lesson on doing work the easier way.

A survey showed that 205 farms in Mercer county had black shank in '52.

EAT LIVER IF IN NEED OF VITAMINS

Housewives who are looking for a "gold mine" in vitamins and minerals need look no further than pork liver, according to Mrs. Anne Clemmons, assistant professor of home economics at the University of Kentucky.

Highest in food value of all protein foods—meats, eggs, poultry, cheese and milk—pork liver is the cheapest.

Eaten once a week, pork liver will help the body build up a resistance to colds and other infections through its unusual supply of Vitamin A. Due to its high vitamin B content, it helps prevent nervous and digestive disorders. Its excellent blood-building properties will aid in preventing nutritional anemia.

Popular ways of preparing pork liver include French frying narrow strips dipped in batter; making the liver into a loaf with the additions of tomatoes, onion and celery, or frying it with bacon and onions.

In Hart county, from 40 to 50 percent of fall seedling failed to grow because of the drought.

Several hundred acres of small grain and grasses in Ohio county were seeded with a pasture seeding machine demonstrated by the Illinois Central Railroad.

Commercial vegetable growing to increase cash incomes has been proposed in Edmonson county.

Kentucky's first public school system was established in 1838.

Farm Economists Call Fertilizer Good Buy Predict More Demand

MICHIGAN State College agricultural economists report that fertilizer is still one of the best buys farmers can make.

These specialists predict that fertilizer supplies will be tight again in 1953—particularly nitrogen. So they advise farmers to order their plant food early to be sure of having it on hand when they need it for seeding operations next spring. The fertilizer can be safely stored on the farm during the winter months.

The economists report that more fertilizer will be produced in 1953 than was the case in 1952. Estimates indicate that there will be 12 per cent more nitrogen, 10 per cent more phosphate and 19 per cent more potash.

But that does not mean fertilizer will be easy to get, they say. Actually, greater use of plant food by farmers will offset the increases. So the demand may be greater than the supply.

FARM BUREAU MEETING

The annual meeting of the Kenton County Farm Bureau will be held January 26, at 1:00 p. m., in the Independence Courthouse. The speaker will be Paul Grubbs, Director of Information for the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation, who will talk on the subject, "Farm Bureau Organization: Place in Our National Economy." Music will be furnished by the Simon Kenton F. F. A. There will also be a drawing for door prizes. Others on the program are John I. Gray, C. A. Wicklund and Thomas Riley. All members are urged to be present.

The number of electrified farms in Kentucky is now more than 190,000 compared with 42,288 in 1940.

Boone Gets $64,611 In Aid

Residents of Boone county drew $64,611 in public assistance payments during the past calendar year out of a total outlay of $35,187,055 provided by the state and federal governments, according to a report by the Department of Economic Security.

Payments in the county were: Old age assistance, $58,649; dependent children, $4,132, and aid to the needy blind, $1,830.

FIDELIS CLASS TO MEET

The Fidelis Class of the Walton Baptist Church will meet in the church on Thursday, January 22 at 7:30 p. m.

IN KENTUCKY

Kentucky has 22,000 stocked farm ponds.

Covington, Ky. has the largest X-ray machine company in the world.

During the last four years, Kentucky has constructed 712 bridges to meet growing traffic needs on her highways.

Over 2,642 miles of main highways were constructed or improved during the 1948-51 period in Kentucky. Estimated cost was $90,000,000.

Gasoline tax paid for construction and reconstruction of over 6,142 miles of primary and state-maintained highways during the 1948-51 period in Kentucky.

The establishment of the proper safety control devices and marking on Kentucky's highways has cost well over $3,350,000 since 1948.

Fifty thousand gallons of traffic paint are required each year for Kentucky highways.

Industry now supplies Kentuckians with more income than farming. That's a complete reversal of the picture of a decade ago. Nowadays, the population earns $75 million more a year from industry than from agriculture.

Lexington has more tobacco warehouses than any other city in the world.

When Neighbors WORK TOGETHER ... They Find the BEST ANSWERS

Before farmers began working together in their national farm loan associations they were at the mercy of the money lenders. Interest rates were high, renewals were expensive if available at all, commissions were expensive, loans were made for short terms—everything was in favor of the lender.

Then, in 1917, farmers began working together cooperatively through their national farm loan associations and Federal Land Banks to get the BEST in farm loan service. In the years since the Federal Land Bank system was established there have been more improvements in the farm loan service available to farm families than in all the history of the United States up to that time.

It is generally recognized that every major improvement in farm mortgage loans during the past 35 years has been pioneered by the Federal Land Banks and national farm loan associations.

One of these improvements is our low 4% interest rate. Many lenders have raised their interest rates but the Federal Land Bank of Louisville still maintains its rate at the same low 4% that has been in effect since 1935. And the long-term without renewals, the privilege to prepay any amount at any time without penalty, no application fees, no appraisal fees, the future payment fund program, loans based on normal agricultural values—are other improvements.

Working together gives them an opportunity to continue pioneering in making "The BEST farm loan in America" an even better loan.

High Income Farms Use More Plant Food; Get Bigger Grain, Meat and Milk Yields

Well fed pastures produce more dairy profits per acre.

IT'S NOT how much money a farmer spends on crop production but how he spends it that counts on the profit side, reports a $9,537 difference in net in the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, in summarizing a survey by J. B. Cunningham, University of Illinois farm economist. Cunningham found that low-income farms spent about as much as high-income farms on crop production, yet there was a difference of as much as $9,537 in net income between them. He based his conclusions on an accounting study of grain, beef, pork and dairy production keeping farms in central and northern Illinois. The farms were of medium size on soils of medium productivity.

Production costs on high-income farms specializing on grain and livestock were only $477 more than those on low-income farms, yet the high-income farms had a net return of $8,730, whereas the low-income farms went into the red by the $408.

Boosting Production Per Acre Is Key to Higher Farm Profits

THE road to high farm profits is via high crop yields per acre. That was the statement of Dr. Garth Volk, chairman of the Ohio State University's agronomy department.

"In farming," said Dr. Volk, "there is no substitute for efficiency. It's the unit cost of production that usually determines whether there is any profit at all and how much."

"With the exception of seed and fertilizer, most of the cost items necessary to grow and harvest a crop remain about the same regardless of the final yield. Thus anything that raises the yield at a nominal cost reduces the cost of production per unit. Fertilizers do just that."

Dr. Volk reported that fertilizers costing $15 in one Ohio test boosted the value of the crop yields by $55.20, a return of $4.02 for each dollar invested in fertilizer. In two other tests, fertilizers costing $22 and $24 boosted the value of crop yields by $61.64 and $69.06, paying back $2.80 and $2.88 respectively for each $1 invested in fertilizer.

"There's no doubt about the fact that one of the major sources of profit in farming lies in pushing up production per acre," Dr. Volk added. "In fact, one of the best ways that a farmer can make a profit when prices are low is to grow big yields and thus reduce the unit production cost."

Solving Labor Shortage

What's the best way to meet the steadily tightening farm labor shortage?

Midwestern agronomists say the answer is more efficient crop production methods that boost yields per acre. They suggest these steps: 1—Greater use of lime and commercial fertilizer which will boost yield per acre on cropped fields and pastures and increase the output of meat and milk. 2—Increased mechanization which enables workers to do more in fewer hours. 3—More plantings of higher yielding hybrid seed varieties.

CASTLEMAN'S

VERONA

Mrs. Arsolia Hayden and daughter, Carolyn, and Linda Rosenstiel were calling on relatives in Owensboro, Sunday.

The Verona Homemakers met with Mrs. Ethel Fooks Friday with 11 members present. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Lillian Stephenson.

The John Lamm family was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bill Waller one day last week. We are glad to hear that Mrs. Waller is better. She thinks she will be able to go back to teaching next week.

We extend sympathy to the wife and children of Lee Sutton, who passed away last Thursday.

Rev. Kelly Kennedy was entertained in the Ira Harris home, Sunday.

Mrs. and Mrs. Curtis Chandler of Cincinnati, were calling on his brother, Morgan Chandler, and Mrs. Chandler, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Roberts visited their children in Covington, from Thursday until Saturday.

Mrs. Mag Chapman was calling on Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hughes, Sunday.

D. R. Chapman was calling on his brother, Pete Chapman, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Stephenson and sons entertained the following relatives for dinner Saturday: Mrs. Alfred Kemper and Billy of Warsaw, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Harris and family, Mrs. Lena Harris, all of Verona. Mrs. John R. Harris and son, Wayne, of Lexington. Wayne is home from Korea, where he served 16 months with the army.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lamm were visiting his sister, Mrs. Phoebe Jump, Sunday. She still remains very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Webster of Sherman and Mrs. Vevie Webster of Verona were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Webster of Napoleon, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rouse and family entertained Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kemper and sons of Warsaw, Sunday for dinner.

We are glad to report Mrs. Joe Rouse is home and getting along nicely, following an operation at Booth Hospital, last week.

NAPOLÉON

Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy of Park Hills, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alexander.

Mrs. Kelly Kinman spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. E. W. Graves.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wood spent from Wednesday until Thursday with relatives in Cincinnati, and attended the funeral of Jennie Stratman.

Mrs. Dewey Odor spent Monday in Warsaw, with her mother, Mrs. Blanch Cayton, and Mrs. Amon Seaver.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Alfa spent Friday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Beach.

Jim Lillard called on Mr. and Mrs. Jim Griffin, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Noel had as Sunday dinner guests, Rev. and Mrs. Will Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Odor, Mrs. Chas. Alexander and Willie Sheets were in Carrollton, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Shinkle and family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wallace.

Mr. and Mrs. Kite Sutton called on Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Smith and family, Sunday.

Mrs. Pearlene Lillard and daughter spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. J. W. Lucas and Mrs. Wood.

GLENCOE

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Collins called on Mr. and Mrs. Walter Edmonson, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Reba Henderson, Mrs. Lottie Poland, Mr. and Mrs. Lill Poleman of Cincinnati, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter, Sunday afternoon.

Robert E. Snow has been very ill with a strep throat. We hope for his early recovery.

Sympathy is extended Mrs. Jennie Ell in the death of her husband, Harry Ell.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Brock spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Lara Connelly and family.

James Boaz hasn't been so well lately, and is under the care of a doctor.

San Kemper has moved to the house of Bob Snow.

Mr. and Mrs. Will K. Crouch have returned from Florida, to stay. No place like old Kentucky.

UNIVERSITY PREDICTS A GOOD YEAR FOR FARMERS

Many Kentucky farmers may have a better year in 1953 than they had in 1952, according to economists at the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics.

An outlook report setting out the situation has been issued by the college economists. Here are some points in it:

Returns from dairying and poultry and eggs will be up during the first half of the year. Not much change is expected in returns from hogs, sheep and lambs.

Total returns from the 1953 burley tobacco crop will be reduced by the 10 percent cut in acreage allotments.

Farmers should make money on cattle this year, due to lower cost of feeders. No further sharp break in prices is expected.

Strong consumer demand is expected to continue this year. This should tend to offset large farm production. Farmers, however, will have to contend with high production costs.

The report goes on the assumption that the international situation will remain about the same as in the last part of 1952, that government spending will increase, that consumer savings will be about the same as in 1952, that crops will be good, and that strikes will not be big enough to disrupt industry.

Gross returns to farmers were higher in 1952 than in 1951, the report notes. This was due to favorable prices early in the year and to large marketings of farm products.

Abraham Lincoln was once tried in Kentucky for infringement of ferry rights. The trial took place at Lewisport in 1827 and the 18-year-old Lincoln acted as his own lawyer. He was acquitted.

In Jessamine county, 21 leaders from 12 homemakers clubs reported that 189 pieces of furniture are being refinished.

In Wayne county, homemakers have woven containers of reed for their glass baking dishes.

NICHOLSON

This is a day that will long be remembered by a lot of people—some of our young people never saw this happen before—when the Republican party took charge of our government. In fact, some of them never knew what a Republican was because for several years, what few claimed to be, never said anything. So, now the Republican party had better make these next four years good or they will be a dead duck in 1956, because these young voters would never stand to go back to what we had in 1931, as well as the old voters.

But now, I believe we have a real man for President, and he has selected some very good men for his cabinet, so we should level off somewhere, where we are, not let anything get higher, keep everyone working at a good wage, and big industry operating full scale, so the government can get lots of tax money, which it takes to keep everything progressive. We have had 20 years of prosperity, as most of us will agree, and we hope to have twenty years more, and I believe we will have this to keep our great country the greatest country in the world.

Monday morning a fellow came in the store and I said good morning, what do you know, and he said I know this is the last day of the New Deal. We had politics most of the day—cussed and discussed, and we reached no decision, but we all had a lot of fun. Old Readour left for Washington, Monday night to help put life in office Tuesday, which I suppose was the greatest day in the history of the Republican party. We all wish it a lot of luck, for they are going to need plenty of it, if they correct all the mistakes they made in the Democratic years in past years.

We are having wonderful weather for a few days and everyone is busy. Ralph Sparks just came in and bought his wife a New Perfection electric range, the best one I had, and when you buy Perfection, you buy the best. My half from Flingsville, bought a lot of wire fence, 120' lawn fence, a gate and two 50-gal. empty drums—Brewster took it over to him. Carl Simpson bought one of those Roadmaster bicycles I had in last week's ad, for his granddaughter—sure was a beautiful bike. Floyd Whaley sent his wife Lind after single trees and doubletrees.

Irvin Carter came up from Zion Station after an Armstrong rug, 9x12. Mrs. Fischer, down on Bedding Ave., bought last cans of a coffee pot. Chick cut and threaded a lot of pipe for several different customers—we have a large stock of galvanized pipe and fittings. Dora Jones came in for six lard cans, six rolls freezer paper, she says sugar, six cans sausage seasoning—we loaded her up and away she went. Chick has

Boone County Banks Show Steady Growth

Total Resources Are $10,505,266.17

Perhaps the fact that Boone County is one of the leading milk-producing counties in the state, as well as a big tobacco-growing area, accounts for the total of $10,505,266.17 in resources of the eight county banks.

The annual bank statements published recently disclose that the Peoples Deposit Bank, Burlington, leads in total assets of $3,445,059.45. On November 6, 1950, the day the bank opened, its assets were $19,908.98.

Bank officials point out that growth has been similar in the other seven banks in this county. Next in total resources is the Dale State Bank, Walton, with $2,035,088.23.

Following in order are the Florence Deposit Bank with $1,922,875.86; Hebron Deposit Bank with $1,106,511.60; Union Deposit Bank with $762,178.86; Verona Bank with $504,657.61; Farmers Bank of Petersburg with $381,338.63; and Citizens Deposit Bank of Grant with $347,034.57.

Fiscal affairs of this county are also on a very solid financial footing. The only bonded indebtedness the county has is less than $20,000 in road bonds. This amount is to be paid off in the near future, it is said.

Oak Island Homemakers

Nine members attended the January meeting of the Oak Island Homemakers. Members were asked to bring old Christmas cards to meet meeting to be used as part of Citizenship program.

Mrs. Sherman Barbarek read a letter from Mrs. Frank Hayes thanking the club for sending seed rows to be used at Veterans Hospital. Miss Nell Nelhof read instructions on gardening, and the program chairman spoke at length for the month, "Happiness of Faith." Mrs. Clara Taylor gave a talk on, "What's Ahead for 1953."

Bearcats Chalk Up 2 Victories; Fierce Fight Friday

—By Marie Martin—

The Bearcats won over the Florence Knights, Friday, January 23, to make it their sixth straight win, which now makes Walton tied with Hebron for first place in the Boone County Conference.

Period scores were: First, 15-9 Florence; half, 31-29 Walton; third, 54-42 Walton; and final, 73-64 Walton. Vest scored 13 points in the third quarter to give Walton its victory.

Tallies for the 'Cats were: Vest 21, Smith 18, Roberts 13, Grubbs 7, Masley 6, Courtney 5, and Mudman 3.

The second team won their game also 44-30.

January 28, the Bearcats won over the Simon Kenton Pioneers by a score of 58-51. The 'Cats were behind up until the third quarter, when they gained the lead, but only by 2 points. Simon Kenton went ahead again with four minutes to play, but Smith and Grubbs made baskets to put Walton in front, where they remained. The defensive work of Masley and Vest was outstanding during the entire game.

Points for the 'Cats were: Masley 15, Grubbs 15, Smith 14, and Vest 14.

Period scores were: First, 18-11 Simon Kenton; half, 28-20 Walton; third quarter, 38-36 Walton-Verona; and the final, 58-51.

The second team lost this game 42 to 27.

Don't forget our next game, Friday, January 30, when Walton plays Hebron at Hebron, which should prove to be a very exciting game. Walton won over Hebron, at Walton, but might not do it again.

Tuesday, February 3, the Bearcats go to Newport for a game with Newport Catholic.

ARRESTED MONDAY

Harstell Taubie, High Street, was arrested Monday night by Police Chief Herman Simmons on a drunk and disorderly conduct charge. He was tried by Judge Charles Worthington in Police Court, Tuesday, and sentenced to ten days in jail.

ELIZABETH WALTON

Services for Miss Elizabeth C. Walton, 73, Petersburg, were held Saturday at 2:00 p. m., in the Petersburg Christian Church, with burial in the Petersburg Cemetery. She died early last Thursday in her home.

Miss Walton, one of the last survivors of a pioneer Boone County family, was a member of the Petersburg Christian Church.

She is survived by two nieces, Mrs. James A. Elam of Corydon, Ind., and Mrs. Perry Corver of Petersburg, and three nephews, John Walton of Hebron, Milton and Spencer Walton, both of Mishawaka, Ind.

Chambers & Grubbs Funeral Home of Florence, had charge of arrangements.

Renfro Valley Folks at Florence On February 5th

John Lair's Renfro Valley entertainers will hold forth at the Florence High School auditorium, Florence, February 5, with shows at 7:00 and 9:00 p. m., according to Leo J. Brophy, Jr., president of the Florence Rotary Club, sponsors of the affair.

Mr. Brophy said that the show is a prelude to the Florence Community Festival, also sponsored by the Rotarians, to be held at the Community Center, on February 6 and 7.

On Friday night a community dance will be held at the Community Center, next to the Post Office, and on Saturday night, there will be games, dancing and refreshments, at the same place. Tickets for the dance may be obtained from any of the Florence merchants. Proceeds from this three-day affair will be used to retire the indebtedness on the Community Center and Fire Department.

The Rotary Club is being assisted in this endeavor by the Florence Volunteer Fire Department and the Ladies' Auxiliary, as well as the American Legion and it's Auxiliary.

Do You Have A Cistern?

The local Fire Department, in order to build a greater department and in turn a better town, would like for the people of Walton to cooperate in the following program: Anyone who has a cistern, regardless of size, in their yard or by their back porch, are asked to drop a 2c Post Card to the Fire Department, stating where this cistern is located.

Also, anyone who knows of any cistern anywhere in town, is asked to write it. This is important if there is a big fire.

The firemen have found that even a small extra supply of water means the difference between going rapidly into a building or fighting it from the street. The department has a portable pump which can be carried to a cistern, and in return pump water into the big pump. This does not mean that the firemen do not have adequate water, but it does mean that if a larger class fire is had, they will have water available when Florence or Independence comes to the aid of Walton Firemen. Please cooperate in this matter.

"WHO's WHO" in this Vicinity . . .

Mrs. Jessie Hoffman
Mrs. Hoffman, wife of Rev. George W. Hoffman, pastor of the Methodist Church, is quite active in all church affairs.

Mrs. Katie Hankinson
Mrs. Hankinson, wife of Ed Hankinson, is employed by Pogue of Cincinnati, and is active in the Walton Baptist Church.

INDUCTED IN ARMY

Arthur A. O'Neal

Arthur A. O'Neal, age 22, of Main St., Independence, was inducted into the Armed Forces, in December, 1952, and sent to Ft. Meade, Md., where he received his physical examinations, his clothing, etc. From there he was transferred to Ft. Lee, Va., where he will be stationed during his Basic Training.

The above picture shows that Art was an active member of the Independence Fire Department, and made many improvements within the fire house. He also helped our Town Marshal, Robert Haley, during the Firemen and American Legion picnics and suppers held in Independence, to avoid traffic tie-ups, etc. He worked for the Crasley Corp., Cincinnati, from 1950 to the time he entered the Army.

Staffordsburg Homemakers

"Looking Forward in '53," was the subject of the January lesson given by Mrs. Chester Hill to the Staffordsburg Homemakers Club. "Peace, better government, health, a home, and travel are the things most wanted by the average woman," stated Mrs. Hill. "One hundred years ago, the average person had only twenty-two items to purchase, of which sixteen were necessities; today we have four hundred eighty-four wants, ninety-four necessities, and thirty-two thousand items to choose from." Mrs. Hill also suggested that each member try to have a budget for better management in 1953.

Mrs. L. J. Rapp and Mrs. Denver Binder gave a report on their Christmas visit to the Kenton County Infirmary.

Mrs. Ralph Howard presided at the meeting. Mrs. Bluch Rich read the exterior beautification leaflet, stating that in order to have beautiful sweet peas this summer, sow them on George Washington's birthday.

Mrs. L. J. Rapp was hostess to these eighteen members and four guests: Mesdames Ralph Howard, J. C. Beall, Ernest Ryle, John McClure, L. M. Deuser, Bluch Rich, John Shaw, Floyd Smith, William Binder, L. A. Keeney, Chester Hill, Denver Binder, L. Faulkner, Edith Ware, Emil Stein, Clint Henry, Howard Barnett, Stella Richardson, members, and Mrs. B. Schneider. Mrs. Chester Rapp, Mrs. Herbert Barrow and Miss Minnie Rapp, guests.

The next meeting will be held on February 10, at the home of Mrs. Bluch Rich, at which time there will be a white elephant sale.

Steps in furniture refinishing by homemakers in Nicholas county included re-moving dents and bruises, bleaching, sanding, toning colors in the wood and use of raw linseed oil and turpentine.

CIVIL SERVICE JOBS

The United States Civil Service Commission today announced an examination for the positions of Substitute Clerk and Substitute City Carrier in the Walton post office. The salaries range from $1,615 per hour.

No specific experience is required but all applicants must pass a written test. Full information including instructions on how to apply may be obtained from the Information Office of the Sixth Civil Service Regional Office on the Ninth Floor of the Federal Building, Cincinnati 2, Ohio, or at the local post office. Applications will be accepted until February 9, 1953.

Three Arrests Made by State Trooper Cline

Three persons were arrested this week by State Trooper Cline on various charges and tried in the local Police Court.

The first was John Kerstis of Saginaw, Mich., charged with improper passing, who was fined $19.50.

The second offense was a "no drivers license" charge against James E. Barlow of Elsmere, who was fined $11.50.

Passed A School Bus

The third person appearing in Police Court this week was Joseph Messing, schlager of Morning View, for passing a school bus. He was fined $19.50.

Mr. Messingschlager requested that a warning be printed to the effect that a stopped school bus, stop, and if you approach one from the rear, stop!

IN LANGUAGE SCHOOL

Sgt. James O. Dudgeon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Omer Dudgeon of North Main Street, Walton, has been reassigned to the Army Language School, Presidio of Monterey, Calif., for the purpose of pursuing a six months course in Spanish.

Upon completion of this course, he is scheduled for assignment to the Latin American School, U. S. Army Caribbean Area, and then to the Army Military Mission Group.

Mrs. Dudgeon and daughter, Connie, will travel with Sgt. Dudgeon for the next two and one-half years.

Sgt. Dudgeon has been with the R. O. C. Instructor Group at State Teachers College, Indiana, Pa. There he was made an honorary member of the Delta Gamma Tau fraternity.

A veteran of World War II, with service in Europe, he has been in the Army for a total of eight years, during which time he has attended a number of service schools and has served with units of the 101st Airborne Division, Transportation Corps, Quartermaster Corps, and Medical Corps.

Between enlistments, Sgt. and Mrs. Dudgeon resided in Covington, where he was employed at the L. E. Stevens Co., Thomas. He also attended night classes at O. M. I., Cincinnati, Ohio.

BAPTIST REVIVAL

Rev. Kirtley Jolly, pastor of the Independence Baptist Church, will be the speaker at a Weekend Revival to be held at the Walton Baptist Church, January 30 through February 1.

Services will begin each evening at 7:30, and on Sunday morning at 11:00. In addition to the speaker, there will be special music at each service.

Goals have been set at 300 in attendance for Sunday School and 100 in attendance at Training Union.

Ryland Homemakers

Two prospective members, Mrs. Allen Williams and Mrs. Howard Cobb, were welcomed to the January meeting of the Ryland Homemakers Club, held in the home of the hostess, Mrs. Oliver Gee, Belmont Ave., Lakeside Park, with Mrs. F. B. Hermes presiding. The meeting opened with the reading of the club collect. An interesting report was also given by Mrs. Hermes on the delivery of the Christmas baskets prepared by the club members.

The February 3 meeting will be held in the home of the president, Mrs. F. B. Hermes, Highway 177, Ryland Heights.

VALENTINE PARTY

There will be semi-formal Valentine party in the gymnasium of the Walton High School, Saturday evening, February 28, from 7:30 to 11:30 p. m. The admission will be 15 cents for teenagers and 25 cents for adults.

Youth representatives from the school met with the Walton Lions Club recently to work out a program for this affair, which will provide fun for everyone, as well as test the need of going forward with Youth Center plans.

The public is requested to cooperate in this program and help secure a program that will meet the needs of our young people.

ILL WITH PNEUMONIA

Rev. A. K. Johnson, well known minister in this area, has been confined to his home this week with pneumonia. His condition was serious for several days, but the latest report is that he is better. Everyone will be glad to hear that he is somewhat improved.

YOUTH WEEK OBSERVANCE AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The entire Brotherhood of Christian Churches are honoring young people this week. Sunday morning at the local Christian Church, special music will be given by the young people, and Sunday evening, the youth will share the program with the pastor, Rev. Charles A. Vaughn. The youth will have charge of most of the service, and four young people will deliver special talks on, "Why I Am A Christian." The sermonette will be on the same general theme.

Chester Edwards, new Sunday School Superintendent, is working for a goal of 200 by Easter.

LITERARY CLUB TO MEET

Mrs. Grover C. Ransom will be hostess for a meeting of the Walton Woman's Literary Club at Stephens Restaurant, on Wednesday afternoon, February 4, with Mrs. Julia A. Ransom presiding.

"Quotation from a Famous American" will be given in response to roll call. Mrs. James Webster will talk on "Famous Americans Born in February." This date will mark the thirtieth anniversary of the organization of the local club.

All members are asked to be present.

Five Girls to Receive Pins From D.A.R.

The Boone County Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, "Good Citizenship" award program has been completed. The five girls, selected by the faculty of each school in the county, are: Mary Florence Ryan, Walton; Jenny Lee Tamm, Florence; Ann Wilson, New Haven; Janice Kinnam, Burlington; and Barbara Schiwer, Hebron.

These girls were chosen for outstanding qualities in dependability, service, leadership and patriotism. They will receive a Good Citizen Pin from the D. A. R. at their meeting February 4, at the home of Mrs. Wallace K. Grubbs, Walton.

The Pilgrimage to Frankfort will be later in the year, probably May.

The essays submitted have been sent to the State Chapter of the D. A. R. Mrs. Thomas R. Thomas. One winner will be selected from the entire state and the award will be a $100 U. S. Savings Bond.

Since 1935, the National and State Daughters of the American Revolution have sponsored the "Good Citizen" program, and it will always be a yearly event.

THOMAS C. SUTTON

Thomas Clifford Sutton, of Bellevue, died last Friday at St. Francis Hospital, Cincinnati. He was 79 years old.

A retired employee of the American Railway Express, he was a 50-year member of Burlington Lodge, 264, F. & A. M., who held services Saturday.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Bertha Smith Sutton; two sisters, Mrs. Grace Brown and Mrs. Stella Scott, both of Bellevue, and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Sunday at 2 p. m., in the Chambers & Grubbs Funeral Home, Florence, with burial in the Bellevue Cemetery.

Residents Asked to Turn A Light On

Members of the Wa-No Club of Walton, announce that they will visit every home in Walton, which has a lighted porch, on Thursday night, January 29, in order to obtain funds for the fight against that dread disease—polio. They state that when you hear the fire siren at 7:00 p. m., to please turn on your porch light or a light in the window, and someone will call.

In Kenton County, Mrs. William Hickman is in charge of the event, while in Boone County, Mrs. Charles Holder of Walton, is directing the march.

Kenton County, Mrs. Hickman said, has divided into school districts with lead of all Parent-Teacher Associations in the county leading the effort. In Boone County, the Walton Wa-No Club is taking charge of the campaign in this area.

In both counties, as elsewhere in the nation, the intensive house-to-house campaign begins at 7:00 p. m., tonight, and one hour later, the two leaders reported, every home will have been visited and contributions collected.

Homemakers' Training School Held January 21

Twenty-eight clubs of the Kenton County Homemakers' Association were represented at the home furnishings training school held Wednesday, January 21 at the First Methodist Church, Covington. Mrs. Myra Button, Home Furnishings Extension Specialist from the College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky, gave an illustrated lecture on the correct method of hanging pictures in the home. She stated that "good pictures properly hung add much beauty, interest and individuality to the room."

She gave five tests for judging picture arrangements as: Do the pictures form a part of a group with the furniture? Are they hung low enough to be enjoyed by all who enter the room? Are the pictures flat against the wall? Is the color of the picture needed to beautifully complete a group? and is a jagged line avoided by hanging pictures on about the same level?

Those attending were: Mesdames Aaron Nienhaus, Clio Nelson, F. M. Powers, Gus Schader, Robert Brown, L. F. Fisk, Geo. L. Paust, E. W. Eggers, M. K. Madden, Ray Mollman, Geo. Brody, Fred Russell, M. T. Kuehling, Earl Nisneyer, Alfred Kirtan, Alf Stauffer, Howard Miller, Harold Gargiua, Vincent Martie, Everett Capron, Glenn Cartwright, Harold Wheeler, John Dickerson, El Longe, John Shaw, Paul Schröder, Charles Reid, John Butler, John Cain, Harold Halfhill, Robert Zacharias, John Leslie, Albert Simpson, Jesse Browning, Walter Linville, Geo. Egan, William A. Korkick, Edward Stevens, Mildred Jacobs, V. M. Holdarby, Wm. H. Scheitz, C. L. Norris, Harry Harlow, Paul Pickett, Ann Piper, Myra Button, Extension Specialist, University of Kentucky, and Miss Zelma E. Beryl, Kenton County Home Demonstration Agent.

A paper on "Landscaping" was read by Mrs. Frank Bresser. The lesson on "Furniture Arrangement" was given by Mrs. Homer Burns and Mrs. McGuire. Games were conducted by Mrs. Wm. Miller and rewarded with attractive prizes, which concluded the meeting.

Attending were Mesdames Homer Burns, Frank Donachuck, Charles Hemphill, Wm. Miller, Geo. Otten, Hubert Winburn, and Roger McGuire and Mrs. Frank Bresser.

Mrs. Pat Clements of Washington county has completed a braided rug, 9x12, made of wool blanket ends.

When Neighbors WORK TOGETHER ... They Find the BEST ANSWERS

Before farmers began working together in their national farm loan associations they were at the mercy of the money lenders. Interest rates were high, renewals were expensive if available at all, commissions were expensive, loans were made for short terms—everything was in favor of the lender.

Then, in 1917, farmers began working together cooperatively through their national farm loan associations and Federal Land Banks to get the BEST in farm loan service. In the years since the Federal Land Bank system was established there have been more improvements in the farm loan service available to farm families than in all the history of the United States up to that time.

It is generally recognized that every major improvement in farm mortgage loans during the past 35 years has been pioneered by the Federal Land Banks and national farm loan associations.

One of these improvements is our low 4% interest rate. Many lenders have raised their interest rates but the Federal Land Bank of Louisville still maintains its rate at the same low 4% that has been in effect since 1935. And the long-term without renewals, the privilege to prepay any amount at any time without penalty, no application fees, no appraisal fees, the future payment fund program, loans based on normal agricultural values—are other improvements.

Working together gives them an opportunity to continue pioneering in making "The BEST farm loan in America" an even better loan.

CIRCULAR DEALS WITH KENTUCKY 31 FESCUE

A new circular of the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics tells about Kentucky 31 fescue, its origin, adaptation, seeding, uses and seed production. The author is Dr. E. N. Fergus, who has been experimenting with this variety of fescue for several years.

Farmers desiring authentic information on 31 fescue should see a county agent or write to the University at Lexington for a copy of Circular 497, "Kentucky 31 Fescue—Culture and Uses."

Keep the family even-tempered...

... be sure you have an adequate size Automatic ELECTRIC Water Heater

They say it's the small annoyances in life that can make one really irritable... not enough hot water, for instance, to take care of a family's daily needs. And it's so needless to put up with such an annoyance, day after day, when all you have to do is ask your appliance dealer to help you select an automatic ELECTRIC water heater, of adequate capacity, to guarantee you ample hot water, whenever you want it.

You'll like the cleanliness and safety features of an automatic electric water heater, and the extremely small operating cost, due to your special low electric rates for water heating.

Scripture: Matthew 19
Devotional Reading: 1 Timothy 6:2-11.

Poor Rich Man

Lesson for February 1, 1953

THE MAN had everything. He was young, he was in an executive position, he was in vigorous health, he was respectable, he was very rich. And still he felt something missing. After all this, what? What was there for him over and beyond the pleasant and powerful life he was then living? He was spiritually sensitive; he could feel that all he had was still not quite the thing.

Camel and Needle

The man in the famous story (Matthew 19) never did get what he wanted, so far as we know. The reason is, he did not want it enough. The price was higher than anything he had, and his wealth was great. So he "went away sorrowful" and that is the last we see of him. What Jesus said as he watched him go has caused a great deal of discussion, both at the time and ever since.

Dr. Foreman said that it is harder for a rich man to enter God's Kingdom (that is, to have eternal life, or to be saved) than for a camel to get through a needle's eye.

All sorts of efforts have been made to show that Jesus could not possibly have meant this. The words translated "camel" and "needle's eye" could possibly mean something else, but they probably don't. We may as well face it. Jesus meant to say that the only way a camel could get through a needle's eye is by a miracle; and it is more of a miracle for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of God than for a camel to pass through a needle's eye. He did not say it was impossible; he did say it was possible only with God. This is as shocking in 20th century America as in first-century Palestine.

Riches Are Risky

Actually there are many more warnings against wealth in the Bible, than against poverty. The "haves" are in more spiritual peril than the "have-nots." Why this is, can be shortly stated. A minister who had had many contacts among the super-rich of one of America's Gold Coast remarked to the writer that wealth makes the first generation hard, the second generation soft. The man of wealth may easily trust in his possessions and not in God, in short to make a god out of his own property. He may test right and wrong by what the effect is on his holdings.

Because his friends are mostly among other rich people, he is constantly tempted to habits, diversions, recreations, customs which are not Christian. Further, the possession of wealth tends to make the owner near-sighted; like the rich young ruler who turned his back on Jesus, he can neither see clearly his own best interest nor the needs of men and women in the shadowed ways of life.

Don't Be Ruined by Riches

Now it is not true that Jesus taught that all first-class Christians must be complete paupers. It is not true that Jesus taught that the last of his best-loved disciples was John, who owned a home of his own. We can recall Lydia and Barnabas among the early Christians; we can all name Christians who have served God and their fellow-men with their money. When a doctor tells a patient he must get rid of his appendix, he is not saying that all healthy persons must do the same. But when an appendix is a danger, out it must come. Now wealth may be a danger, a source of moral infection. The one best way to keep from the dangers of possessions (and these begin as soon as we have as much as one surplus dime) is to learn to think of them, and to use them, as a trust from God.

To be Christian in the earning and acquiring of what we have; to be Christian in the using of it; to spend what we have as if Christ was spending it; to remember that of him to whom much is given, much shall be required; to regard what we own as so much opportunity for doing good, instead of so much insurance against hardship; this calls for the grace of God.

Engaged!

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values, democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should join the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) Which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to Church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The whole world loves them—because they love each other. Their happiness is contagious; everyone rejoices with them. But, as the world gets used to their being engaged, folks will begin to take them for granted. Their months of planning and preparation will pass unnoticed until the invitations go out. Quietly, the bride-and-groom-to-be will be searching for a home, buying furniture, planning their wedding and honeymoon, making scores of important decisions together. One of those decisions is likely to concern the Church they will attend. More and more today, young couples recognize the importance of building religious convictions into their marriage. The adjustments which their new life will demand, and the problems they expect to face together point the value of a mutual faith in God, and a common devotion to Christian ideals.

FLORENCE

Don't forget to attend the Ground-Hog supper to be given at the Christian church Saturday evening, January 31. A special feature will be hot biscuits and gravy and everything that goes with it. Those who attended last year will want to attend again this year and take the whole family for a treat.

Mrs. Martha Richards and son, Jerry, of Covington, were Friday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Aylor of Gunpowder.

Friends in the community will be sorry to learn that Rev. H. V. Andres and family will soon leave for Louisville, where he will now be stationed. We send with him all good wishes and good luck in his new assignment.

Robert L. Tanner was the weekend guest of his family, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Tanner of Main St.

Things to Remember: For your pleasure and entertainment, the Florence Rotary Club, aided by the Volunteer Firemen, Boone Past American Legion, along with the Rotary Ann's, the Firemen's Auxiliary, and the American Legion Auxiliary, will present for you a three-evening affair the first week in February, including a big show you have always wanted to see, "The Folks from Renfro Valley," in the hills of Old Kentucky. There will be two performances, at 7:00 and 9:00 p. m., on the evening of Thursday, February 5, at the Florence school auditorium. Then on Friday evening, February 6, a special community dance at the Fire Hall and Community Center. There will also be games, a fish fry, and plenty of refreshments. Then on Saturday evening at the Community Center, the much awaited festival, with plenty of fun and entertainment. The climax of the evening Saturday will be the raffle of three important items: A deep freeze, a large television set, and a clothes dryer. Proceeds of the affair will go toward the building fund and the maintenance of the local fire department. Everyone is extended a most cordial invitation to attend. Get your tickets early and plan to have a never-to-be-forgotten weekend.

Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Crume have as their guest her nephew, Lieut. Charles McWhorter, who is enjoying a leave prior to being transferred to Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas. Lieut. McWhorter's home is in Springfield, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Shoemaker were guests Saturday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Arnold.

Edgar Utzinger was summoned to North Bend, Ohio, due to the death of his cousin, Charles Utzinger.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Tanner were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Smith, Tuesday and viewed the inauguration and parade on Mr. Smith's television.

Dumont Walton, Cincinnati dentist, was called here by the death of a cousin, Miss Lizzie Walton, Petersburg.

Mrs. Verne Arnold and mother, Mrs. Alva Snow were guests in the home of Mrs. Rosetta Nelson of Ludlow, Tuesday evening.

Robert Woodward of the Bi-County Farm Bureau, was transacting business in Indianapolis, Ind., Thursday.

H. B. Simpson and Blayne Miller of Dayton, Ohio, have concluded a sojourn of several days in Florida, along the west coast, as part of their vacation. Enroute they visited relatives in Knoxville, Tenn. They, with Mr. Miller's mother, who had visited her daughter, Virginia, arrived home Saturday evening.

Mrs. Clyde King and two children of Miami, Fla., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Chitwood.

Guests of Mrs. Walter Kirkpatrick during the past week, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Arnold, were Mrs. R. F. Carrigan, Erlanger; Mrs. Reynolds and daughter, Roberto, Crittenden; Harold Ramey and family, Erlanger, and a neighbor, Mrs. Geo. Bradford.

Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Crume are attending the nurserymen's convention being held in Louisville, Monday through Thursday, of this week.

Mrs. Verne Arnold had as dinner guests recently her, sister-in-law, Mrs. law, Mrs. Geneva Arnold.

Guests of the R. E. Tanners during the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Chitwood and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Utzinger and daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Staten Colvin and daughter were callers of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Markesbery, Monday evening of last week. Tuesday luncheon guests were Mrs. W. R. Miller and Mrs. Dora Markesbery, and on Sunday, luncheon guests were their son, Don, and wife and their son, Jim.

A number of youth from the Florence Methodist Church have been attending the mid-winter institute being held at Highland Methodist Church, Ft. Thomas. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Arnold were recent recipients of a bushel each of delicious oranges and grapefruit, courtesy of Walter Arnold, who is sojourning in Florida.

January 30th

This is a man's birthday, whom I believe, will be written in history as the greatest president of all times. Franklin D. Roosevelt put our country on its feet and then on wheels. How many of my customers had electricity on their farm, how many had tractors, deep freezers, milking machines, electric water systems, painted and comfortable homes to live in, buildings pointed, fences built, money in the bank, credit OK, and these fellows remember that, whether Democrat or Republican, but some Republicans will not agree with me, but I remember what conditions were before he took over.

Well, this is a free country, even if we pay a lot of tax—we say about what we please and we don't all agree, but when there is a big job to do, we all pull together. Just like the outgoing president riding in the same car with the incoming president. No other country in the world does this. Look at the way Truman and Ike spoke about each other before election and then shook hands and ate together—that is U. S. A., a fine place to be, don't you think?

Kenneth Stamper just came in and paid for his water system and plumbing—he also put a new furnace in his house—these farmers are getting water systems, furnaces and also cooking with electric. Clarence Sturgeon paid his account and was asking about tobacco. Kenneth Stamper bought his tobacco canvas, so he will be ready to sow his planter. Robt. Griffin bought a foot valve and a nipple for a calf bucket. Caesar Arnett brought his new tenant over for 19 feet of 3-year wide Armstrong plow. John Conrad sold his hogs and paid for the wagon he bought last week. Well, that old saying, "I'll pay you when I sell my hog, is a joke around here."

A year or so ago, Leonard Cook came in and bought a lot of hardware and sold, put it down, "I'll pay you when I sell my hogs. I said, how many hogs do you have, Mr. Cook, and he said not a one on the farm, and sure did laugh. So from that day, it has always been a joke, but Leonard and John will pay if they don't have any hogs. Hogs sold well Tuesday at the Sales Barn. Harry Armstrong, Whites Tower, bought one of those sickle grinders I have mounted and ready to plug in.

William Brown bought more harness and some longer trace chains. Omer Kite and Ed Kennedy were up today—Ed bought a pair of tree trimmers and Omer got a bull loader. Couldn't get much out of Omer, as this was inauguration day for the Republican party. Otis Readnor had a wonderful trip to Washington, but the worst part, he came back on the same train with Harry Truman, who had to have a lot of forewell pictures.

taken and held up the train and made it run late.

R. G. Moore and Gordon's wife bought a lot of Armstrong lineoleum, Jack and Letus Stephenson were paying their accounts; so was Mrs. C. A. Coyle. Most everyone is satisfied with the tobacco prices. John Sleet had an extra good sale of 8,000 pounds, and was well satisfied. Earl Sleet bought his mother a Sunbeam electric iron, another brand of merchandise that is hard to beat. We received a new shipment of Perfection electric ranges today—as I have told you before, all we have to do is take the crates off them and they are ready to sell.

Perfection products all come through like that—everything fits. If you want the best and most for your money, buy Perfection. We had several inquiries about Bemis tobacco setters today—they were looking them over, as we have some set up. Saturday was a bad day—it rained and snowed and very few people came to town. We had several callers—Chas. Sparks, Russell Sparks, Clarence Struve, Nathan Brewster, and Rev. Vaughn. We also had several customers—Lassing Huey, James Messmer, Myrick Crouch, Stanley Ranson—all bought small items, mostly for repair work.

Garrett Harvey, over by Napoleon, bought a lot of harness—he has two 4-year-old mules to break, so he bought new bridles, new check lines, new breeching, hames, hame straps and belly bands—he wants to be sure and hold these mules and not let them get away the first time. Brewster did a lot of repair work on irons, toasters and hot plates. I bought 75 ne patterns of lineoleum rugs—we will have plenty to pick from and they will be $4.95, $7.95 and $9.95 11 x 12 rugs. These will be in this week, and you, if first choice.

Garrett Harvey was back in for a horse collar and collar pads. We sell some harness every week. Another fellow, I did not know, bought a leather halter. Cecil and Edna Dickerson bought a lot of Armstrong lineoleum, 3 gallons paint, a foot adze, a case pocket knife, two plastic shades, some aluminum pans and some dishes. Omer and Marvin Kite bought a gallon of Boze White paint, a lot of bolts and washers, also some angle iron. Omer bought a Chevrolet pickup truck and they were making a rack for it. Omer said to carry fishing poles on.

Robt. Slayback, James Messmer, Ben Dixon, John Wood and Clay Kerns were my lofers today. We had a good fire, as some of my lofers carried in the coal. Everett Jones, my every-day customer, bought lard cans, liquid smoke and locker paper. Everett is here every day, and buys a lot of hardware from me in a year. COME TO CONRAD!

Wa-Na Club to Sponsor Heart Fund Drive

The annual Heart Fund drive, according to the chairman, Miss Jeanette C. Grubbs, will be sponsored by the Wa-Na Club of this community on Thursday, February 19. The American Heart Association is the only national voluntary health agency devoted entirely to diseases of the heart and circulatory system. It conducts a nation-wide program of research, education and community service.

Nine million people in the U. S. have heart disease. About every other person in the U. S., whose death is not due to violent accidents, dies of heart disease. More children between the ages of five and 19 dies of heart disease than of any other disease. The physical and emotional damage caused by heart disease cannot be measured in dollars and cents.

Miss Grubbs said, "We believe that there is much we can do to reduce the economic, emotional and physical damage caused by heart disease. We can help many people suffering from heart disease to lead useful lives. Through research and with application of what is known, we may be able to prevent many forms of heart disease."

"Want you to do your part by contributing to this worthy cause?"

There will be plastic hearts placed in the business establishments of Walton, until the day of the drive—Thursday, February 19, at which time the town will be canvassed for contributions. Do your part now to help the American Heart Association.

Children's Pictures Taken Free and Published by Us

It is an undisputed fact that the responsibilities of tomorrow's world, our Nation, and community will rest upon the shoulders of the children of today. Since this is true, the publishers of this newspaper would like to give you a good look at these future "World Builders."

The only way we can do this is by publishing pictures of the min e features. To assure the latest and best reproduction pictures—these must all be of uniform size and quality—we have invited the Waltz Studios of Des Moines, Iowa, nationally known children's photographers, to take these special pictures for us.

An expert children's photographer for the studios, with all the necessary equipment for this specialized work, will be here Thursday, February 19. The special studio will be set up at the Waltonian Hotel, and will be open from 10:00 a. m. to 6:00 p. m.

Contest An Added Feature

To add to the interest and fun in this exciting event, the Studio will award $500.00 in CASH prizes—$250 to the cutest girl; $250 to the cutest boy. Each child or children photographed in this community will automatically be entered in the contest. The contest covers the Mid-West States only. Beauty alone does not count—the Studio judges will base their selections upon the personality and charm as portrayed in the pictures. Every child and family group are eligible.

No Charge to Parents

There is no charge to the parents. There are absolutely no strings to this invitation. It is bonafide in every sense of the word. Parents do not have to be subscribers, nor even readers of this newspaper to take advantage of this feature. Neither are they obligated to purchase pictures after they are taken. Those who want some additional prints may obtain a limited number by arrangement with the Studio representative when they select the pose they want printed in the paper and entered in the contest. It is entirely up to them.

The More Pictures, The Better

The Advertiser simply wants pictures of all the youngsters and the more the better. So the Mothers and Fathers of the community in which paper circulates should remember the date, Thursday, February 19, at the Waltonian Hotel, and not fail to bring their children to the photographer.

You will be mighty glad, afterwards, if you did, and very, very sorry if you do not permit your children to participate in this event. The kiddies will have fun and their Mothers and Dads—and the youngsters too—will be very proud to see their pictures in print later, and remember, your child may win one of those wonderful prizes to be awarded.

SON BORN IN COLORADO

Mrs. Katie Welsh received a telegram this week announcing the arrival of a son in the home of Laurence and Loris Welsh of 3528 West 25th Ave., Denver, Colo. The little fellow has been named David Michael, and weighed 8 pounds. Mother and son being nicely. They have another son, Larry.

SERVING IN GERMANY

Pvt. Earl E. Phipps, son of Edward Phipps, Verona, is serving in Germany with the 28th Infantry Division.

Private Phipps entered the Army in June, 1951, and is serving as a gunner with Company L of the 109th Infantry Regiment.

BAPTIST W. M. S.

The W. M. S. will meet at the Walton Baptist Church, Thursday, February 12, for the regular monthly meeting. The devos set up a week earlier because of other church activities. Bring clothing for the Mountain Mission.

Hostesses are Mrs. Sara Sleet, Mrs. Ann Snowden and Mrs. Bertha Snowden.

HOME FROM KOREA

Cpl. Norman Eckler, who has been serving with the Marines in Korea, for the past year, arrived home for a 30-day furlough last week. He was wounded in action and has been awarded the Purple Heart. Eckler is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Eckler of Verona Road.

POLIO DRIVE

The Wa-Na Women's Club is proud and happy to report the total collection of $236.00 as a result of the "Mothers' March On Polio," held here last Thursday night. This drive, which was made by members and friends of the Wa-Na Club, under the direction of Mrs. Charles Holder, met with complete success. All of its participants wish to thank local residents for their enthusiastic support. It has not been long since polio struck in this community, and our contributions to the March of Dimes are certainly the best possible means of preventing the repetition of this terrible occurrence.

Those who were inadvertently missed during last Thursday night's house-to-house canvass, and who wish to contribute to the Polio Drive, are urged to bring their checks or money orders to Mrs. Charles Holder, Walton, Ky.

The community of Verona, under the chairmanship of Mrs. W. D. Scroggin, donated $20.00 to the Polio Fund.

BAPTIST B.M.C. TO MEET

The Business Women's Circle of the Walton Baptist Church will meet February 5 (Thursday) at 7:45 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Katie Hamilton, 117 South Main Street. Members please be prompt. Bring new members.

Annual Kenton County Farm Bureau Meeting

The Kenton County Farm Bureau held its 33rd annual meeting at the Independence Courthouse, Monday, January 26. S. W. Durr was re-elected president; C. C. Northcutt, vice president; Mrs. W. G. Wolterman, secretary, and Clifford Northcutt, treasurer.

Charles Wallace, Director of Research, Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation, talked about the need for farm organization at the county level to help solve agricultural problems. He stressed the importance of farm cooperation at the local level, as well as at state and national level.

John I. Gray, Smith-Hughes teacher, Simon Kenton school, introduced James Whitaker, who told about Future Farmer activities in 1952. Special music was provided by the Future Farmer boys, under the supervision of Mr. Gray.

John Hetterman and George Salisbury, G.I. instructors in Veterans Work at Simon Kenton, outlined work of the veterans during the past year.

Thomas L. Riley, Assistant County Agricultural Agent, outlined 4-H Club activities in the county, as well as the older youth work during 1952.

C. A. Wicklund, County Agricultural Agent, talked about the importance of pasture, hay crops and soil testing in the county.

Mrs. W. G. Wolterman explained about the Farm Bureau Automobile Insurance saving to farmers and the Blue Cross Hospitalization plan. Detailed information about these services may be obtained at local Farm Bureau offices. In Independence at the Assessment Fire Insurance Building.

Mrs. Cora Bethel has been ill at her home on H. Street.

Boone County Farm Bureau Meeting Held

The Boone County Farm Bureau held its kick-off meeting for the annual membership drive on Monday, January 26. A majority of the directors were present and a number of volunteer workers.

Charles Wallace, director of research of the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation, outlined what the Farm Bureau has done, and is doing for the rural people, and stressed the need for an educational program to bring these facts to the attention of members and prospective members.

The membership committee will try to contact all members who have not renewed their 1953 membership to date, and as many prospective members as possible, and complete the drive by February 10. This year's goal is 800 members.

1953 directors named at the annual meeting were: J. C. Aylor and Sterling Dickey, Hebron; Vaughn Hempling and Gilbert Doolittle, Canaan; M. K. Toady and Charles A. White, Petersburg; John T. Stevens and Robert B. Rogers, Bellevue; H. E. White and Frank Murre, Burlington; L. H. Congleton and Grant Maddox, Florence; Lassing Huey and S. W. Eichholz, New Haven; J. B. Jones and D. E. Ogden, Hamilton; Joe Rouse and Harold Rosenstiel, Verona; and Beckham Shields and Ben F. Dixon, Walton.

First prize in the amateur contest went to the Jumping Jocks, acrobatic act; second prize, Charles Flynn Trio, and third prize, Kay Ellen Arnold.

SPECIAL MEETING

The congregation of the Richmond Presbyterian Church will hold a special congregational meeting next Sunday, February 8, after the morning worship service. Members are urged to attend.

SOIL TESTING LAB

Have you had your soil tested? Boone County has a soil testing laboratory, which has been set up for the farmers' use. S. R. Eichholz is the county soil testing technician, and the fertilizer recommendations are given by County Agent Joe Claxon.

BOX SUPPER FEB. 12

SERVING IN JAPAN

Pfc. Gerald B. Stephenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Stephenson, Route 1, Independence, is serving in Japan with the 1st Cavalry Division.

Veterans of the Korean conflict are giving intensive field training to the new replacements in the division on the Japanese Islands. The 1st spent 17 months in the combat zone before being rotated out of the line in December of 1951.

Pfc. Stephenson entered the Army in January, 1952, and is serving as a rifleman.

Jimmy Vest is spending a few days with his son, Dick Vest, in Bowling Green.

Zeiler-Kidwell Marriage Solemnized In East; Now Living In Covington

SYRACUSE, N. Y.—Miss Norma Marie Zeiler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Zeiler of Chittenango, became the bride Saturday, December 27, 1952, of Earl Lee Kidwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Kidwell of Manning, Ky. Marriage vows were exchanged in St. Francis of Assisi Church, Bridgeport, before the Rev. Engelbert Eichenlaub, before the family and friends attended the wedding breakfast at "Hubbert's of Syracuse." A reception followed at "Howard Inn," from 2 to 6 p. m.

The bride's sister, Miss Jane Zeiler, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Ann Farwig of St. Louis, Mo., Mrs. Charles Fontana and Miss Barbara Lum of Bridgeport. They were welcomed in burgundy, blue, green and red, respectively, and carried bouquets of roses. Bonnie Singer was flower girl. Donald Cox of Mount Holly, N. J., was best man. Leonard Zeiler, Charles Fontana and Eric Kuhnle were ushers.

The bride's candlelight taffeta and satin brocade gown had an illusion neckline held a fingertip veil and her bouquet was roses and white orchids.

BURDINE - PARKER

Miss Lillian Burdine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burdine of High School Court, and Mr. William Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Parker of the Dixie Highway, were united in marriage recently at the Walton Baptist Church by the pastor, Rev. W. G. Burkett.

Mrs. Tom Parker, sister of the bride, and Mr. O. J. Struve were the only attendants.

The bride was lovely in an aqua knit dress with blue accessories, and Mrs. Parker wore a blue crepe dress with blue accessories.

Free Plants For Living Fences, Seed For Quail

To increase food and cover for game, the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources will give Ispesedol bicolor, ulittora rose and other plants to interested farmers in Boone County.

Multiflora rose will make an effective living fence in as little as three years, has eight feet wide, and does not spread into cultivated or grazed land. It requires no maintenance and is excellent for contour fences. To songbirds and small game it furnishes food and protection against enemies.

Bicolor Ispesedol will produce enough seed on one-eighth acre to winter a covey of quail. Much of the seed will fall in January and February, when other quail foods are scarce and covered with snow. Bicolor will not withstand grazing, but will grow on very poor soil, and along woods borders.

Other plants include black walnut, Russian olive and Russian mulberry, which is a good past tree.

Most of the plants will be distributed through the Boone County Soil Conservation District and Floyd E. Kells, Soil Conservation Service Technician, will advise farmers on where to make plantings and how to care for them.

Ollie Herrington, Conservation Officer for Boone County, and C. M. Smith, District Biologist, will deliver plants to individual farmers. They will also advise farmers on where to make plantings and how to care for them, or on any other problems regarding wildlife.

Three-fourths of the cost of this planting program is paid from Pittman-Robertson funds administered by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service from excise taxes collected on sporting arms and ammunition.

BLOODMOBILE AT AIRPORT

A Boone County-wide blood donation drive will be held Friday, February 20, when the mobile unit will visit the Boone County Airport. The local Red Cross Chapter urges the fullest cooperation in this life-saving project. More details in next week's paper.

Hargis Banta, Jr., arrived here last week from Korea, where he has been serving with the Marines. He is spending a furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hargis Banta, Sr., of Eads Road.

Mrs. Howard Blackburn is ill with flu.

Bearcats Beaten Three Times In Past Week

ARE YOU ONE OF 'EM?

You are one of these two groups: Either you are one of the hundreds who have paid their subscription to the Advertiser in the past few weeks (for which we thank you very much), or you are one of the 81 on our list of leavers, still in arrears. Now we don't want to take anyone off our list of readers, but the Postal Inspector will be here any day and he will order just that—so, make Ye Editor happy by having a 100% pay list.

MESSMER COMING HOME

Pfc. Delbert G. Messmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Messmer, of near Verona, is returning to the United States under the Army's rotation program after 15 months in the Far East.

A motor corporal in Company G of the 8th Cavalry Regiment, Messmer entered the Army in March, 1951. He served for three months in Korea and was awarded the Army of Occupation Ribbon for service in Japan, Combat Infantryman Badge and the Korean and UN Service Ribbons.

Women's Club Meets In Johnson Monday Evening

The February meeting of the Wa-Na Women's Club was held at the home of Mrs. J. B. Johnson, Monday evening, with Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Thomas Leathers acting as hostesses.

Mrs. Beverly Snipe, president, presided over the business session, during which various phases of the Civic Betterment Program were discussed. Mrs. C. C. Pruett and Mrs. Clayton Jones volunteered to represent the Wa-Na Club at the James Webb, Mrs. D. L. Maddox, Mrs. Carl Conner, Mrs. Clayton Jones, Mrs. James Falls, Mrs. Beverly Snipe, Mrs. Gayle McElroy, and Miss Jeanette Grubbs.

The program, the topic of which was, "American History," featured Mr. J. O. Ward as its guest speaker. Mr. Ward made many interesting remarks concerning the study of American History is important. "America is great today because she is a 'good' nation," he said. Mr. Ward traced our roots from England, France, Spain and other countries to our present day place of leadership in the world, pointing out, in many instances, how Kentucky has played a part in leadership during our period of growing up as a nation.

Delightful refreshments were served by the hostesses to the following guests and members: Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Ward, Mrs. Betty Carlisle, Mrs. Frances Stephens, Mrs. James Webb, Mrs. D. L. Maddox, Mrs. Carl Conner, Mrs. Clayton Jones, Mrs. James Falls, Mrs. Beverly Snipe, Mrs. Gayle McElroy, and Miss Jeanette Grubbs.

POLICE COURT BUSY

The Walton Police Court, Judge Chas. Worthington presiding, has been rather busy the past week with cases as follows: Sidney L. Parker, Newport, Ky., was arrested January 30 by Chief Hermon Simmons for committing a nuisance in a public place. He was fined $29.50.

Saturday night about 10:30, Chief Simmons was called to investigate a woman found lying in the highway South of Walton. She was registered as Clella Therpe, 305 Pontiac Ave., Dayton, Ohio, and was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital in the Chambers & Grubbs ambulance. As far as known, she was thrown from a car.

John Fields, Harrison, Ohio, was arrested by State Trooper Ralph Cline for reckless driving, and fined $19.50.

Trooper Cline also arrested Ned Browning, Lexington, Ky., Sunday, for driving an expired 1952 dealer tags. He was fined $19.50.

Sgt. Campbell of the State Police arrested Roger Rider, Florence, Ky., Tuesday, for not having a drivers license. He drew a $11.50 fine.

Thad Curley, Walton, was arrested Monday evening by Chief Simmons for drunk driving on the streets, and was fined $19.50 by Judge Worthington.

Williamstown, Lloyd Next On Schedule

—By Marie Martin—

The Bearcats lost to the Hebron Cardinals at Hebron, Friday, January 30. The 'Cats played very hard all the way, but were beaten 61-58. During the first quarter, the score was tied many times, and at the end of the first period the score was 18-13. The second quarter, Hebron gained seven points, to make the score 35-28. At the third quarter, Walton jumped ahead 49-46. The last quarter of the game was very exciting. Walton was leading by three points with only minutes to play. Then the score was tied 58-58; Hebron got a foul shot from Walton and made it; Walton lost the ball out and Hebron took it out and scored the final two points to make the Cardinals win by only three points.

Scoring for the Bearcats was as follows: Vest -16, Mosley 15, Smith 14, Mudman 5, Grubbs 5, and Roberts 3.

The second team lost 53-31. Monday night of this week, the Bearcats lost to St. Henry by a score of 61-59. Walton was leading the first quarter 13-10, and at halftime 33-25. The score was tied 40-40 at the third quarter. Walton was leading most of the time during the final quarter, but with St. Henry's rebounding and field goals, they took the lead with only two minutes to play. Mosley played outstanding ball throughout the game, but the team's rebounding and passing timing was off, and they didn't get too many shots.

Tallies for the 'Cats were: Smith 21, Mosley 18, Vest 12, Roberts 5, and Grubbs 3.

The second team lost 40-33. The Bearcats lost their third straight game February 3, when they played Newport Catholic, there. They were defeated 78-52. This makes their record 10 wins and eight losses, with five more games left to play.

Points for the 'Cats were: Vest 27, Grubbs 9, Mosley 7, Smith 6, Mudman 2, and Roberts 1.

The second team lost 43-25. The 'Cats travel to Williamstown, Friday, February 6, and play Elinger Lloyd here next Tuesday.

Drawings for the District tournament will be held at Florence, February 16. The turnney will be held at Florence, March 3 through March 7.

DAR Organizing Children's Group In Boone County

In October, 1952, Mrs. Roy Nestor, Organizing Agent, Boone County Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Florence, received word from Washington that she had been appointed Organizing Senior President of a Children of the American Revolution Society in Boone County. Since that time much work has been done toward this objective, and the new C.A.R. Society is on its way toward being a reality.

The National Society, Children of the American Revolution, was organized in 1895 and was the first national society devoted to the "Cause of the Child."

Any girl or boy under 21 years of age may be eligible for membership in this society who is lineally descended from a man or woman who, with unfailing loyalty, rendered material aid to the cause of the American Independence as a soldier, sailor, civil officer or recognized patriot in one of the several colonies or states or of the United Colonies or States.

The society for the children is being sponsored by the Boone County D.A.R. An organization meeting will be held in the near future, as applications are now pending in Washington, and the new society will receive its name at this time.

Rev. A. K. Johnson is a patient in St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington.

Howard Blackburn was at the Veterans Hospital, Louisville, last week for an examination.

Mrs. and Mrs. Ernie Carr of Bromley, were the Sunday guests of Mrs. Lana Sanders and daughter, Louise.

Mrs. J. M. Huey underwent a minor operation at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Monday.

O'Neal's basic training will consist of eight weeks of Infantry Regimental training and eight weeks of Quartermaster Corps training.

Polio Drive

The following mothers collected $155.76 last Thursday for the "Mothers' March On Polio" drive in Independence and community: Mrs. Hubert Baird, Mrs. William Elbert, Mrs. Robert West, Mrs. Robert Dennis, Mrs. Robert Knox, Mrs. Carl Fortner, Mrs. Cleo Snelson, Mrs. William Letcher, Mrs. Estill Snelson and Mrs. George Riley. Mrs. Riley was chairman of the group and on such short notice, did a wonderful job. The mothers listed above wish to express their appreciation for the donations for this worthy cause.

Kenton Utopia Club

The Kenton Utopia Club will have its next regular meeting at the Visalia School, February 11. The hosts for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. John Carlisle, and they have planned a program for the interest of all members. This meeting will be the second in a series of talks on farm management and the guest speakers will be: Harry Young and Carl Jones, from the University of Kentucky. All members are urged to attend, both for the benefit of themselves and the club.

Colonel Wagner

It was reported that Mike Wagner of Shaw Pike was the only known Colonel who rates a left hand salute, and recently it was observed to be true. Mike visited the County Clerk's office in Independence and all stood at attention and made a left-hand salute when he entered. Colonel Wagner has the people of this area well informed and neatly educated on the respects due him.

Sick List

Irene and Goble Armstrong have been confined to their home because of the flu; Sandy West has been down with the flu; also, Raymond Dickson is now home from Booth Hospital, and Mrs. E. H. Reed is also down with flu.

O.E.S. Chapter, 493

Fire Department Auxiliary

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Independence Fire Department met Thursday, January 29 for the regular monthly meeting. Mrs. William Back, Sr., the new president, presided. Other officers for this year are: Secretary, Mrs. Robert Dennis; Treasurer, Mrs. Dawson Bagby, and Vice President, Irene Armstrong. A lovely luncheon was served by Mrs. Robert Knox and Mrs. George Dawkins.

Homemakers to Meet

The Independence Homemakers will meet at the home of Mrs. Cleo Snelson, McMillan Drive, February 12. Roll call will be answered by members telling of something worthwhile they have done. Mrs. Aaron Niehaus and Mrs. Snelson will present the lesson on picture hanging.

An Actor

Last week it was learned that Gerald W. Elam, a former student at Simon Kenton High School, who graduated in 1941, was a member of the cast in the play, "The Small Miracle," which played at the Cox Theater last week. In real life Jerry Elam is a uniformed city patrolman living at 3001 Crestmore Lane, Cincinnati, Ohio, and is a Police Officer, assigned to District 2. His part in the play was that of a plain clothes detective, nearly the same as that of his every day life. "Small Miracle" has no individual stars, but it gives a cost of 25 non-professional Cincinnati actors a good chance to display their talents and gain experience, should a break come their way.

U. S. Presidents

Last week I came across an article concerning whether President Eisenhower would be listed as the 34th or 35th President of the United States. Historians are at odds because of a strange case of the "Last President."

It seems all this is dated back to 1849, when the terms of James K. Polk and his Vice President, George Dallas, expired at noon on March 4. General Zachary Taylor, elected the year before, was to have been sworn in at that hour, but inauguration day fell on Sunday, and Taylor, a religious man, refused to take office until the following day. The office of President was vacant and the Vice President had also ended his term. By the Succession Act of 1792, then in effect, the Senate's temporary head automatically took the helm. And thus the newspaper asserted, David Rice Atchison became the 12th President of the United States, serving from noon, March 4 until noon, March 5, 1849. Since that time until the present day, someone has returned to the above story and debated whether or not Mr. Atchison would be considered a President of our country.

Simon Kenton's basketball team will play Silver Grove at Silver Grove, next Friday evening, February 6. In last Friday's game, Simon Kenton won over Bellevue, 60-49.

BIBLE QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

(1) Is it wrong for a Christian woman to wear finger-rings and earrings? I have been told I ought not to do it, and I Peter, 3:3, has been quoted as the biblical reason.

Spiritual common sense must be applied in the reading of the Scriptures. If the verse that was quoted to you absolutely forbids a woman wearing any jewelry whatever, then it also forbids her wearing any clothes whatever: "whose adorning let it not be that . . .

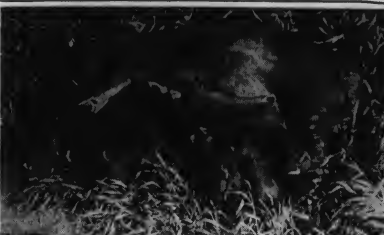

of putting on apparel!" Surely Christian women should be modest in their appearance, not over-dressing or under-dressing. The emphasis in 1 Peter 3 is upon being more occupied with spiritual adornment, which has eternal value, than physical adornment, which is temporal. "But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is no corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price." (verse 4).

(2) I sometimes hear people speaking of the "church organization" and the "church organism." What is the difference?

The difference between the former and the latter might be said to be, in a sense, the difference between death and life. The "church organization" may be composed of a group of professing Christians in any denomination or sect, some of whom may be genuine Christians while others may not be believers in Christ in the true meaning of the term. All in this organization may not be spiritually dead; in fact, there may be some local churches in which every member is saved and therefore has spiritual life. The organization itself, however, is dead in comparison with the "church organism," which is composed of all who have been regenerated through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, whatever church affiliation they may have on this earth. In other words, while there are indeed local churches, such as at Corinth, etc., in which there are a group of believers who have spiritual life, the Church of God is not an organization but an organism—the mystical body of Christ. "of His flesh and of His bones," (Eph. 5:30).

(3) There are millions of unsaved in the United States. Why use the Lord's money for foreign missions, therefore,

Good Pasture Cuts Hog Feeding Costs Increases Farmer's Profit Per Acre

Thick growing pasture speeds hogs' weight gains, cuts feed bills.

W. M. BEESON, Purdue University, reports that good pasture eliminates the need for a full feed of protein supplement, reports that good pasture eliminates the need for a full feed of protein supplement. Beeson points out that good pasture and good soil manure of the protein needed to put hogs agement go hand in hand, said Beeson. To get thick, high protein meat-building top growth, you need a soil well stocked with nitrogen, protein to grow and fatten than did phosphate and potash. These can be hogs on dry lot, Beeson said. Some be supplied in the form of commercial pasture crops make better hog pasture than others. When you cut hog feeding costs that the tests showed ladino clover by the use of good pasture, you in to be about the best. Hogs on ladino clover increase your profit per acre. The alone grew almost as fast as hogs farmer who builds and maintains on alfalfa pasture with a supplement. High yielding pastures by the use of fertilizer is in a good position to until all in America are saved?

Almost all the protein saving make money from his livestock and comes after the pigs are 100 pounds.

Our Lord said that His own are to be witnesses unto Him, "both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth," (Acts 1:8). He did not tell His followers to wait until everyone in Jerusalem was converted before they should go into all Judea, nor that everyone in Judea must be converted before the yshould go into Samaria, etc. The answer to your question is that we must witness to Him to the uttermost part of the earth in obedience to His command. That is the reason for foreign missions. In fact, you yourself would doubtless never have heard the Gospel if the early Church had not reached abroad until everyone at home had been converted. (adv.)

STATE PROVIDES SHOTS FOR 70,000 CALVES

Approximately 70,000 calves were vaccinated against Bang's disease in Kentucky last year, according to a report issued today by Dr. L. L. Breece, State Veterinarian. This program is carried on through joint efforts of the state Division of Livestock Sanitation and the Federal Bureau of Animal Industry.

All a Kentucky cattle raiser is required to do to get the service is to call a veterinarian, Dr. Breece explained. The veterinarian will vaccinate all calves from four to eight months old at state expense.

MORE SHEEP MAY BE RAISED IN KENTUCKY

The probability that farmers will raise more sheep this year is mentioned in the annual outlook report of the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics. The reason is that sheep are in a more favorable position than are other livestock.

Sheep numbers declined last year due to drought. Farmers cancelled their orders for western ewes, and many sheep were sold off.

Lamb prices next spring are expected to average about the same as a year ago, but should be higher in the second half of the year than they were in the same period in 1952, the report states.

The price of wool will likely continue at about the present level, unless the support price is changed.

Charles Rankin, one of the first farmers in Fleming county to grow Kenland clover, harvested 50 bushels of seed on acre the past season.

Woodrow Pennycuff of Clinton county averaged 7,350 pounds of milk from seven artificially bred cows in 10 months time.

LOOK SOUTH LOOK AHEAD

Growing like Jack's Beanstalk!

FOR YEARS, the Southern Railway System and many other organizations and individuals in the Southland have been saying to all America—"Come South, to find spectacular new opportunities in industry, agriculture and commerce." And our voices have been heard!

In the past decade, the South's rate of economic growth has far exceeded the national average in practically every category. In new construction, now at an all-time high. In expanded manufacturing output. In farm income, which has quadrupled. In per capita income and consumer sales.

Look back—and see how far we have come. Look ahead—and see the certainty of still greater progress and growth. Because all of us in the modern Southland are determined that it will continue to grow. And all of us will benefit.

AGRICULTURAL REPRESENTATIVE
KENTUCKY BANKERS ASSOCIATION

PASTURE FACTS—Pasture reseeding time is here. February and March seedings are more dependable than those made later. Fertilizer applications at the time of seeding is just simply good insurance. Use it liberally.

The University of Maryland reports that a mixture of Fescue and Ladino Clover produced 432 pounds of beef per acre in 1951. This was the highest production of any of five grass-legume mixtures tried.

The University of Kentucky has just published its most attractive circular. It contains 4 color pictures and several black and whites. It's subject? "Kentucky 31 Fescue, It's Use and Culture." Get your copy from the County Agent. Fortunately there was a big crop of Fescue seed produced in Kentucky last year.

Alfalfa seed is cheap this spring. Why not sow some? It can be seeded on well prepared seed beds as late as mid April. The requirements for success are: a well drained soil; plenty of lime, phosphate and potash; a firm seed bed and inoculation. The best varieties are Atlantic, Buffalo and Ranger.

The use of nitrogen fertilizer as a top dressing for small grain and grass seed is one of the most profitable and dependable uses of fertilizer. The application of 100 pounds of ammonium nitrate per acre used as soon as spring growth starts often increases small grain yields 10 to 15 bushels. If the small grain is used for early spring pasture, a second application should be used as soon as the livestock is removed.

LIVESTOCK FACTS—According to B. A. E. reports, Kentucky farmers will have 30 percent fewer sows to farrow this spring than last. For the country as a whole the decrease is expected to be 13 percent. Hogs should be profitable property later in the year. Better save all the pigs you can.

Since the days of Henry Clay, Kentucky has enjoyed a wonderful reputation for fine livestock. Now, livestock producers are preparing to capitalize on that reputation. The Kentucky Purebred Livestock Association is publishing, with the help of the Kentucky Agricultural and Industrial Board, a beautiful booklet in color, extolling the merits of Kentucky's livestock—her fine and fast horses—her beef and dairy cattle—sheep and hogs—and even goats, dogs and chinchillas. Distribution will be mostly among the buying public of other states.

MARCH IS PUREBRED LIVESTOCK MONTH—A committee has been named in every Kentucky County to help organize a County Livestock Improvement Association, dedicated to a more rapid improvement of livestock and wider adoption of better production practices. Membership is wide open. The movement needs your help. Learn from your County Agent the names of your committee and help organize an association in your county.

FARM YOUTHS—Many Kentucky farm boys will continue to find their way to cities to become successful bankers, lawyers, doctors, and the like, but, thanks to the 4-H Clubs and Future Farmers of America, those that stay on the farm will be better prepared to cope with the modern problems of making a good living from the farm, feeding and clothing the increasing population, and maintaining their soil resources. These two rural youth organizations are contributing much to the development of character and leadership in our farmers of tomorrow. Both organizations observe their national weeks soon. Let's give them our united support.

National F.F.A. Week is February 21-28, and National 4-H Club Week is March 7-14.

Plant Food Cut Back Poor Economy When Farm Prices Decline

Cutting down fertilizer use when prices of farm products drop is the worst type of economy a farmer can make, says P. E. McNall, University of Wisconsin agricultural economist.

Even though farm prices should drop 50 percent and prices of fertilizer should stay the same, McNall says, the average farmer would get back $1.50 in increased Adding plant food via grain drill. crop value for each $1 he spent for plant food.

Tests at state agricultural colleges and experience on Midwestern farms have shown that at present prices, farmers can expect to get a return of $3 for each $1 invested in fertilizer.

Actually, agronomists at Midwestern agricultural colleges and experiment stations are advising farmers to increase rather than cut down their use of fertilizer. These soils men report that heavy fertilizer applications are the most profitable a farmer can make.

University of Missouri agronomists report that in one test, 25-bushel corn land produced 124 bushels per acre, when 1,100 pounds of nitrogen, phosphate and potash fertilizer was plowed down before planting and a complete starter fertilizer was added at planting time.

Molly McGee caught her hungry husband, Fibber, just in time to save her peach cream pie. Seems that Fibber believes in midnight snacks (and we use the term lightly) in preparation for his role on the WLW-NBC "McGee and Molly" program aired at 9:30 p.m., EST, Tuesdays.

MORE MODERN HOMES FOR GRANT COUNTIES

Modernization of farm homes in Grant county is gaining headway every year, dealers in equipment for home improvement told Robert Hume, county agent, with the University of Kentucky.

More than 100 water systems were installed the past year, a large percentage of home owners installing bathrooms as well as kitchen sinks and water heaters. Several farmers have planned their water systems to include the dairy barn and milk house.

A considerable number of furnaces also were installed in farm homes in 1952, Mr. Hume added.

Fourteen Gallatin county 4-H's won nine out of 30 crop prizes at the Northern Kentucky district tobacco show and sale.

Recognized nutritionists repeatedly stress the importance of bulk, the importance of minerals and of molasses in dairy feeds. All three of these factors are included in Tuxedo Dairy Feeds in their new form, in which over one-third of the feed is in the form of pellets.

The pellets in Tuxedo Dairy contain all of the fine ingredients possible to incorporate in them, including the common and trace minerals. Pellets increase the bulk and give the feed a rougher texture. They also prevent the sifting of fine ingredients to the bottom of the feed box and loss of any essential ingredients. The use of crimped oats instead of ground oats also adds to the bulk of the new Tuxedo Dairy Feed. Palatability is increased, as molasses is included in the pellets as well as for coating the feed.

Ask for the new Tuxedo Dairy containing pellets, and watch your milk checks climb.

Miss Ann Lutes, who is attending the University of Kentucky, Lexington, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Lutes of Montgomery Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Davis at the Dixie Highway, attended the supper at the Christian Church, Saturday evening.

Miss Doris June Souther was the Sunday morning guest of Mrs. Hattie Owens of Girard Street.

A special invitation is extended each and everyone in the community to attend the Renfro Valley show at the High School auditorium, Thursday evening. There will be two performances, at 7:00 and 9:00 p. m. It is a show you won't want to miss.

Come to the community dance at the fire hall and community center Friday evening, if you would like to have a good time. Let's make it a get-together for everyone in the community who likes to dance.

Lawrence L. Aylor, who is the chairman of the dance committee, promises an evening of good entertainment. Walter Paris and His Parisians will furnish the music. This trio of musicians is the best in Northern Kentucky. They will play for both modern and square dancing.

Everyone will want to be present Saturday evening for the festival at the community center. There will be plenty of refreshments, lots of good fish sandwiches, many attractive booths, games and lots of entertainment. These three affairs are being sponsored by the local Rotary Club and will be assisted by Boone Post American Legion and its Auxiliary Unit, the Volunteer Firemen and their Auxiliary, and wives of the Rotarians. Proceeds of the three affairs will go 100% toward the building fund and the maintenance of the fire department.

Miss Anna Mae Staggs of the Lucas Apartments was confined to her home the past week with the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rogers attended funeral services Friday for his niece, Mrs. Emma McMurray, who succumbed Tuesday at her residence in Addyston, Ohio. Services were at St. Andrew Church, Addyston, at 2 p. m.

Mrs. Irene Renaker is recovering rapidly following an injury which occurred at her home. She was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital for treatment.

Mrs. Lucy Beatty of Crittenden, was the guest of friends in the community on Saturday, and while here, attended the supper at the Christian Church.

Congratulations and best wishes to the newweds, Mr. and Mrs. William Childress, who were married in a beautiful wedding January 24, at the Elsmere Baptist Church. The bride is the lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Wingate, and Mr. Childress is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Childress, Erlanger.

Tom McHenry was hospitalized for a few days the past week for observation. Friends in the community wish him an early recovery.

Walton Home'ers No. 2

Walton Homemakers, No. 2, met at the home of Mrs. Sam Sanders, January 13, 1953. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Wm. Smith. The club song and prayer were said by members. A delicious covered dish luncheon was served by the hostess.

Dues were collected and scripture was read from Genesis, 1-9. Mrs. Aylor gave an interesting lesson on rearranging furniture. One new member was added to the club, Mrs. Spriggs of Independence. The club will meet February 17, with Mrs. Almeta Jones, Walton, and the lesson will be an oven meals.

Those present were: Mrs. Robert E. Sleet, Mrs. Walter Sleet, Mrs. William Smith, Mrs. Norris, Mrs. Birdie Blue, Mrs. Rasella Sleet, Mrs. Spriggs, and the hostess, Mrs. Sanders.

When Neighbors WORK TOGETHER ... They Find the BEST ANSWERS

Before farmers began working together in their national farm loan associations they were at the mercy of the money lenders. Interest rates were high, renewals were expensive if available at all, commissions were expensive, loans were made for short terms—everything was in favor of the lender.

Then, in 1917, farmers began working together cooperatively through their national farm loan associations and Federal Land Banks to get the BEST in farm loan service. In the years since the Federal Land Bank system was established there have been more improvements in the farm loan service available to farm families than in all the history of the United States up to that time.

It is generally recognized that every major improvement in farm mortgage loans during the past 35 years has been pioneered by the Federal Land Banks and national farm loan associations.

One of these improvements is our low 4% interest rate. Many lenders have raised their interest rates but the Federal Land Bank of Louisville still maintains its rate at the same low 4% that has been in effect since 1935. And the long-term without renewals, the privilege to prepay any amount at any time without penalty, no application fees, no appraisal fees, the future payment fund program, loans based on normal agricultural values—are other improvements.

Working together gives them an opportunity to continue pioneering in making "The BEST farm loan in America" an even better loan.

BIBLE SPEAKS

International Union
Sunday School Lesson
BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Scripture: Matthew 22
Devotional Reading: Ephesians 3:1-10

Not for Sale

Lesson for February 8, 1953

IF THE modern reader of the parable of the laborers in the vineyard is puzzled, he at least has the comfort of knowing that great Bible scholars have been puzzled too. He also has the discomfort of knowing that no interpretation he can put upon it will have unanimous agreement. To be sure, there are some things it does not mean. This parable does not give a flood-aid for labor and management. Jesus was not talking about wages literally. He was saying something about God, and his dealings with man. Furthermore, this parable does not mean that God's only reason for doing things is "because;" that he is one whose acts have neither rhyme nor reason. But what does this parable mean? Among the various plausible interpretations that have been given it by Christian thinkers, let us pick out one of the most important truths that this peculiar story suggests.

Nothing to Sell

That truth is: The grace of God cannot be earned. To desire the loving favor, the "grace," of God, is to desire the greatest gift God can bestow. But it cannot be bought. It cannot be earned. We can see that this is true by thinking a moment. Think whose it is. We can pay for business favors, we can tip a waiter or a Dr. Foreman porter for doing something special for us; but we can't tip God. We can employ the services of all sorts of people; but God's services are not for hire. We can earn anything on earth, or many things; but the grace of God is from heaven. What he does for man is a gift, not a payment.

And then think who we are. Suppose we really thought we could do a bookkeeping business with God. If we get it into our foolish heads that he owes us something, what about our debt to him? If we must have it on a bookkeeping basis, we shall always be in the red.

Earning God's Grace

Still, the race of man includes many fools. And some of these have tried to do the impossible, to earn the infinite grace of God. One way they have tried is to buy it. A lifelong racial conscience will finally begin to hurt him, and so to get God on his side he will build a cathedral or endow an orphanage or pour money into some church treasury, hoping that God will overlook the villainous ways in which he earned the money because of the pious way in which he spends it. Other men (a little more on the "religious" side) seem to think they can sweet-talk God into being their friend. They would not put it that way; they would say that God will listen to their many prayers. Do they not regularly attend prayer meetings, or early communions, and should not God be expected to do something for them in return? Others, again, hope that God can be made to feel so sorry for them that he will pour out on them his special grace. If they do not have natural troubles they will make artificial troubles for themselves. They will go without proper food and clothing, they will wear hair shirts or iron chains around their waists, they will roll on beds of spikes or go without baths for years and years. But God's grace does not go to the highest bidders; it does not go to the most long-winded prayers; it is not offered as a reward for self-inflicted wounds. God's grace must be taken as a gift or not at all.

Grace and Gratitude

Then does it make no difference what we do? Will God be just as good to us, no matter what? Shall we even "do evil that grace may abound," that is, shall we make God's grace even more gracious by being as bad as we can be? Not by any means. The truly good life is not a way of earning the grace of God; it is a way of responding to the grace of God.

Some one has said that religion is gratitude. Religion is a response to God, not his to us. Religion is our reply to the infinite goodness of the Almighty, not his reply to our part-way, badly mixed and human goodness. Indeed, the good life is more than a lifelong act of gratitude; the good life itself is the effect of God's grace.

THE PROTECTING ARM OF THE LAW

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

VERONA NEWS

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Webster were her son, Thomas L. Leathers, of Wesleyan University, Bloomington, Ill., and a friend, Mr. Skiverson of the Psychology Department. His home is in Chicago. They had a very nice weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Webster spent Saturday in Cincinnati, shopping, and had lunch with her daughter, Mrs. Cordelia Thie of Banning Road.

Thomas L. Leathers and friend attended the basketball game at Lexington, Friday night, and were accompanied by Miss Babe Kenney.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Johnson entertained their daughter, Louise Norman, of Ft. Mitchell, their grandson, A2/c John L. Steton of Greenville, S. C., and their granddaughter, Evelyn Fields, and baby of Covington, last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chapman entertained Sunday, Rev. and Mrs. Kelly Kennedy and son, Mr. and Mrs. D. Hess Vest, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Yates and daughter, and Mrs. Rose Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Littrell, Jimmy Ray and Gary, spent Wednesday and Thursday in Dayton, Ohio, visiting her father, Mr. Adams, who is ill. They also called on her sister, Mrs. Thomas Blaker, and family.

Mrs. Iris Hughes spent Friday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Edington.

Petty Officer Roland Stephenson of the U. S. Navy, and mother, Mrs. Groce Stephenson of Florence, were dinner guests of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Littrell, recently.

Mrs. John Lamm and daughter, Blanch visited Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lamm, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Donnelly and mother, Mrs. Lucy Donnelly of near Wheatley, were calling on Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Glore, Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Wilson are enjoying a new television.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lamm were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Chapman and Pete Chapman, Sunday afternoon.

Quite a few of the school children have mumps in our community.

The old Ground Hog will sure see his shadow today, Monday, but we were all expecting some more bad weather anyway.

Dennis Sizemore of Latonia Lakes, who is a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Littrell, is home and doing nicely after a recent operation for cancer at Jewish Hospital. The Littrells want to thank all who prayed for him when he was so seriously ill.

Susie Glore and Flonnie Edington, were calling on Mrs. Locke, Sunday.

Sorry Mrs. Mae Wilson and Mrs. Effie Clemen is one on the sick list. Hope to see them out soon.

We were sorry to hear of the sudden death of W. L. Satchwill of Plant City, Fla. He moved from this vicinity to Florida, last year. He was the father of Mrs. Marcelle Richards of this place. We extend sympathy to his wife and children in their sorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Mayo Hayden and Carolyn were calling at the Bill Brunan home, Sunday afternoon.

Leonard Han, Paul Chatman, Lawrence Groves, Bro. Foote and Miss Yvonne Duncan called to see Elfrie Henderson, Sunday.

Charley Miller, of Sharonville, Ohio, spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Groves.

Stop Taking Harsh Drugs for Constipation

End Chronic Dosing! Regain Normal Regularity This All-Vegetable Way!

Taking harsh drugs for constipation can punish you brutally! Their cramps and griping disrupt normal bowel action, make you feel in need of repeated dosing.

When you occasionally feel constipated, get gentle but sure relief. Take Dr. Caldwell's Senna Laxative contained in Syrup Pepsin, it's all-vegetable. No salts, no harsh drugs. Dr. Caldwell's contains an extract of Senna, oldest and one of the finest natural laxatives known to medicine.

Dr. Caldwell's Senna Laxative tastes good, acts mildly, brings thorough relief on demand. Helps you get regular, end chronic dosing. Even relieves stomach sourness that constipation often brings.

Try the new 25¢ size Dr. Caldwell's. Money back if not satisfied. Mail bottle to Box 280, New York 18, N. Y.

GLENCOE

Mrs. Blanche Poland received word that her friend from Cleveland, Ohio, had passed away, and she made the trip there to pay her respects.

Elfrie Henderson fell and broke his arm last week. He is getting along as well as could be expected.

Mrs. Liza Stone is on the sick list. We hope for her early recovery.

John Tolbert is doing a fine Christian deed each Lord's day by visiting the Warsaw jail. A lot of these men have made confessions. May God bless him in his fine work.

Harvey Chapman and wife are expecting to arrive here today from the U. S. Navy, on leave.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Noel has been very sick the past week.

SPARTA R. 2

Sorry to report Mrs. Martha Jane Miller seriously ill. Those who called to see her during the weekend were: Mr. and Mrs. James Dobson, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Skirvin, Charley Miller, Mrs. Dennis Noel and granddaughter, Mrs. Sarah Miller and son, Mrs. Mary Wilson, Mrs. Eliza Scudder, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Henderson, Mrs. Mary Evelyn Noel, Mrs. Marie Rodgers, Mrs. Margaret Groves, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Miller and others.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kemper were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Henderson and family.

Elfrie Henderson fell Thursday afternoon and broke his right arm.

Mrs. Bertha Gross and Kathy Ann Furnish called on Mrs. Molly Kemper, Monday afternoon.

Glad to report "Uncle" Ab House some better at this writing.

Come in and See ALL THREE!

Right now you can have your pick of three vegetable-growing tractors—the Farnall Cub, Super-A, and C. They all have fingertip Farnall Touch-Control—and matched, quick-change multiple-row implements. Farming's a snap with any of these hydraulic implement control. Just ask about it...I'll be glad to explain how it saves not only your time but also your money.

FEBRUARY

Well, we made it through January very nice; the weather was just right for Kentucky winter. Ground Hog Day, if there is such a thing, was this week, and whether that hog saw his shadow or not, we are bound to have some bad weather. The tobacco markets are about ready to close, as most all the burley is in. We had a wonderful market this year and tobacco made a ton per acre. I believe most everyone was satisfied—it a person didn't get a good sale, there was something wrong—the tobacco was wet or it wasn't good quality, but most everyone I heard talk was satisfied.

Most all the farmers had a good year in 1952 and I believe 1953 will be as good or better. Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Behmyer came up today—Bob traded me a practically new tobacco setter for a rubber tired wagon—his wife bought a Jamestown electric heated 8-gallon water fountain and as they started to leave, I sold him a square aluminum tub Maytag washer. Then came Mrs. Cecil Gaines and Sharon, with that beautiful baby of Sharon's and Buddy's. Mrs. Gaines and I had a washer trade—she gets a round tub Maytag tomorrow.

Alicia Neumeister was getting repairs for her Jamestown poultry fountain—these heated water fountains keep the water at 55 degrees and those old hens will drink more water, then lay more eggs. Mike Link bought line cars, sundries and a meat saw blade. Henry Brooks and wife, who moved on Hick's Pike, bought two new Armstrong linoleum rugs. Kenneth Tomlin brought in two floor lamps to be rewired—sometimes this is some job.

We had loafers today and some of them turned out to be customers. J. C. Benton, Robert Benton, Albert Parker, Ralph Sparks, Bert Masie, Geo. Fisher and a bride, also some light bulbs. Mr. Ray from Verona, bought a new axe—I don't know who is going to use it. Mrs. Wm. Gatewood came after Gem pump repairs and galvanized pipe to use for ground rods.

William Brown, over Piner way, brought in a lot of tools to put handles in—he bought singletrees, double-trees, cleaves, lap rings; calf weaner, Rotenone, louse powder, H22 powder and some wrenches. We have the linoleum for you now—we have 9x12 rugs for 4.95, $7.95 and $9.95, also 12x12 for $15.95 and 12x15 for $18.95, and several patterns of yard goods. If you need linoleum, look at our selection first. We have over 100 patterns in most all prices and sizes, but I have always told you—buy Armstrong, it is best.

Edna Dickerson was back for more paint—she already put on what she bought the other day. Myrick Crouch stopped in and wanted a gallon of that Balc White Interior Gloss. We have a lot of customers who say, I want some of that Balc paint just like I bought last year. Every time a truck stops, they unload Armstrong linoleum rugs and linoleum. I also bought a lot of Rotarug rug for $4.95, and Beauty Tone for $7.95—if it is linoleum you want, we have it.

They call here from all parts of Northern Kentucky. Today a lady called from Gallatin County for a Perfection oil range; a man called from Williamstown for wiring material; another party from Grant County called for wire fence and gates—we had all of their wants. Jerry Maxwell had me order him a 54-inch double drain cabinet sink and base cabinet to match—a beautiful combination in anyone's kitchen. I just love to have hardware items that most other stores are out of—a fellow from Butler came in for a certain size V-pulley with a 3/4-inch hole and a key way for his milking machine—he had been to Falmouth and Butler and they did not have them, and he came to Butler Bros., and they sent him into me. I took care of him and he went home to milk.

Another fellow came down on the bus from Corinth, to get a file to sharpen a chain saw—he couldn't find one anywhere, but we had it. Mr. and Mrs. Willard Benton came in to buy a pressure cooker and of course I sold them a Mirromatic, which I think is the best pressure cooker on the market. Some fellow stepped in the door and said, I want that tricycle in the window, how much is it?—he was a stranger to me. Lassing Huey bought a long handle round point shovel and a fork handle—I believe he is going to work, so he can fish next summer.

Harry and Georgia Mayhugh, just returned from California and Florida. Mrs. J. C. Benton and Junior just arrived from Hot Springs, Ark. Had a card from Howard Stephenson—he and John Wood are catching fish in Florida. Brewster has been laid up with the flu, also Gayle McElroy, who is over his operation but took the flu, and is still in the house. Ray Atha and father came over for enough wiring material to wire Ray's new house he is building on the farm.

The past several days I have been having calls for hardware items I did not have or never have had—now I can't carry all of them, but I try to keep most hardware that my customers will use. We sold a lot of galvanized pipe and fittings, which we have a good stock of, also we have a very good stock of Dayton water systems. Buy your hardware at CONRAD'S.

Kenton Countian State President of Homemakers

Mrs. R. P. Matchett of the Kenton County Homemaker Association, was elected president of the Kentucky Federation of Homemakers during the 41st annual Farm and Home convention, held February 3-6, at the College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky, Lexington.

The Kentucky Federation of Homemakers has a membership of 29,869, representing more than 90 counties, carrying on an organized program of homemaking.

Mrs. Matchett will take up her duties September 1 as state president, will attend district, state, national and international meetings, representing the Kentucky homemakers.

The State Federation has been a member of the Associated Country Women of the World since 1936. The last international meeting was held in 1950 in Copenhagen, Denmark.

In the past Mrs. Matchett has served in Kenton County as president, vice president, and program chairman. She was a member of the County Speakers Bureau for four years, during which time she talked before many groups concerning home demonstration work. A member of the Arcadio group she has held all offices and has taught four tailoring classes in her community.

In 1950-51 she served as state vice president, filling an unexpected term, and was a member of the State Federation Peace Committee. Mrs. Matchett has been active in Kenton County Red Cross work and in women's activities at the Summit Hills Country Club.

This is the first time in 28 years of home demonstration work in Northern Kentucky that a state president has been elected from this area.

The new president has two sons and two grandsons. One son is a graduate of the Mechanical Engineering Department, University of Kentucky, while her younger son is now a third year student in Metallurgical Engineering at the same university.

Bloodmobile to Visit Airport February 20

Mrs. Alan H. Gaines, county chairman of the Boone County Chapter, American Red Cross, is asking that as many people as possible give blood when the Bloodmobile makes a visit to the Boone County Airport on Friday, February 20, from 1:00 to 7:00 p. m.

This blood is urgently needed. Don't forget the boys who are fighting for you so that you may stay in the warmth and privacy of your home, while they are living in fox holes and laying out on the snow in Korea. Can anyone who is good health and able to give blood, deny this precious gift to these fighting men?

Thirty-four Japanese were recently honored for having donated more than a gallon of their blood for the Armed Forces, "not for the same of an international incident, but for the sake of humanity," as one donor put it. Can we, here in the U. S., do less?

The blood donor solicitors in the various communities are: Mrs. Edward Peel, Hazard; Mrs. William Rudolph, Burlington; Mrs. Justin Dolph, Petersburg; Mrs. Ed Ellis and Mrs. Virginia Herbstreit, Constance; and Mrs. Earl Morehead, Taylorsport. Call any of these ladies and make your pledge to give blood on February 20 at the Boone County Airport—1:00 to 7:00 p. m.

Tips On Flu Prevention
Influenza in itself is not dangerous, but it opens the channels for more serious complications. If influenza becomes an unwelcome visitor in your home, call your family physician, go to bed and remain there until you are well. The following tips might help you from contracting this disease.
Stay out of crowds—flu goes from one community to another.
Avoid direct contact with anyone who sneezes or coughs carelessly.
Build up your body resistance by eating properly—eat those foods that make you strong.
Wear suitable clothing that is warm and dry.
Get enough sleep; rest—don't overdo when you are tired.
Exercise and inhale a little fresh air. If you would like further information, contact your County Health Department.

ON LEAVE FROM KOREA

Cpl. Norman E. Eckler
Cpl. Norman E. Eckler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Eckler, Verona Road, is home on leave after a year's service in Korea, having been awarded the Purple Heart. He will return to Camp LeJeune, S. C., in March.

Mobile X-Ray Unit to Be Here Friday, Feb. 20

The Mobile X-Ray Unit will be located in Florence, February 17-18 from 9:00 a. m. to 3:00 p. m.; Burlington, February 19, 9 a. m. to 3 p. m., and Walton, February 20, 9 a. m. to 3 p. m.

All persons over 15 years of age are urged to make sure they do not have tuberculosis by having a chest X-ray. Any child, under 15 years of age, will be X-rayed if any member of their immediate family has had tuberculosis.

The examination is FREE of charge. It is not necessary to remove clothing. This service has been highly beneficial in combating tuberculosis throughout the state during recent years. All Boone County residents are urged to visit Burlington, Florence, or Walton, on the above dates and have chest X-rays made.

Anyone who wishes to have a chest X-ray but does not have a way to come please call Florence 302, and transportation will be provided by the Boone County Homemakers in the Burlington and Florence areas, and by the Wa-No Club in the Walton area.

LULA HOARD

Lula Hoard, colored, age 78, was found dead in her home Saturday afternoon about 2 o'clock by Police Chief Herman Simmons. She had not been seen for several days and a neighbor, Bill Johnson, asked Chief Simmons to investigate.

According to Coroner R. E. Brugh, she had died of natural causes, and had been dead about two days, when found.

Scottsville, county seat of Allen county, is named for General Charles Scott, fourth Governor of Kentucky.

Vallandigham-Shields Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Vallandigham have announced the marriage of their only daughter, Colleen, to Mr. Clinton Shields, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Shields. The double ring ceremony, performed by Rev. Donald Hopkins, pastor of the Crescent Springs Presbyterian Church, took place February 3, at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Mary McAfee, sorority sister of the bride, from Louisville, was the maid of honor. The groom chose his younger brother, Mr. Donald Shields, to be his best man.

V. D. James to Head Local Red Cross Fund Drive

Mrs. A. H. Gaines, chapter chairman of the Boone County Chapter, American Red Cross, has announced the acceptance of V. D. James, prominent advertising executive of Walton, as chairman of the Red Cross Fund Drive for this county, which starts March 1.

Mr. James is one of Boone County's most civic-minded citizens, being chairman of the Board of the Walton Christian Church, prominent in Masonic and Eastern Star work, a member of the Rotary and Lions Club. Further details of the campaign will be announced in the near future.

In discussing the Fund Campaign, Mrs. Gaines said that the Red Cross blood collection program is being expanded by 25% nationally to provide supplies of blood-derived gamma globulin to help combat polio epidemics. This blood is being collected by the Red Cross to assist in supplying serum to be given in cooperation with the Infantile Paralysis Association. It is expected that the use of this serum will save countless lives of children to whom it will be administered. This is but one of the many services given by the American National Red Cross to assist suffering humanity wherever the need exists.

3 CARS, POLE AND HOUSE HIT BY TRUCK WEDNESDAY

Wednesday morning, about 5:30, a large truck, loaded with hay, and driven by Clarence H. Winn, Lexington, got out of control on South Main Street and struck three cars, a telephone pole and the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Pruett.

According to reports, the truck belonged to the Stanley Penn Co., Lexington, and the driver was returning from Michigan with the load of feed.

Two of the automobiles were completely demolished. They were a 1946 Chevrolet belonging to John House, and the other, a 1947 Chrysler, owned by John Ervin Ryan. The third car, a 1947 Ford, is owned by Ray Bray and was damaged to the extent of about $100.

It is said. Total damage, including the pole and the Pruett residence, is said to be in the neighborhood of $2,000. Trooper Cline and Chief Simmons investigated the affair.

In Police Court, Donald Davis was fined $19.50 for being drunk in a public place. He was arrested February 5 by Chief Simmons. State Trooper Cline arrested Carl Burger, Walton, Feb. 9, for having no driver's license. He was fined $11.50 by Judge Worthington.

In the four-month period from September 8, 1952 to February 9, 1953, a total of $875.00 was turned over to the City by Police Judge Charles Worthington in fines collected.

Whitley county farmers bought seed last year to sow 2,000 acres of Ky. 31 fescue, 800 acres of orchard grass, 300 acres of red clover, and 800 acres of ladino clover.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white velvet of ballerina length. The dress had a high neck, long pointed sleeves, and tight bodice. She carried a nosegay composed of a white orchid encircled by pink carnations. The maid of honor wore a gown of wedgewood blue velvet, ballerina length, and she carried an all white nosegay.

Only the immediate families and closest of friends were present at the wedding. The house was decorated with red roses and white gladiolus.

HOME FROM KOREA

Pfc. Hargis Bonto, Jr., of the U. S. Marines, is home after a year's service in Korea. He wants to thank everyone who wrote him and sent him boxes while he was overseas. He added, "Please don't forget the other boys over there, for no one knows how much a few lines from home means to the boys there." He also thanked the ladies of the local Methodist Church for the nice Christmas box, and said it was grand.

Pfc. Bonto is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hargis Bonto, Sr., Eads Road.

Crusaders Class Plans Special Recognition

The Crusaders Class of the Walton Christian Church, Ben Doan teacher, is sponsoring a program of increasing attendance in the entire Bible School from Sunday through April 19. Special recognition of members of the class and of former members will be given each Sunday morning in the Bible School and Church. The following persons and dates will be observed:

February 15, as Ransler Day, for our member, Charles Ransler, Jr., who is doing a good work at teacher of the Willing Workers Class.

February 22, as Roberts Day, for our members, Jack and Sally Roberts, who are doing a real service with our Junior Class.

March 1, as Campbell Day, for Morgan and Lucille, our past School superintendent and now co-sponsor of the Young Peoples Class.

March 8, as Spencer Day, for Jimmy and Audrey, present Sunday School assistant officers and leaders in our church music department.

March 15, as Cathy Day, for Catherine Simpson, our school pianist and a member of the church music department.

March 22, as Rouse Day, for Jack Rouse, a past School superintendent and a faithful member in getting class members.

March 29, as Penick Day, for Frank, assistant Superintendent and a spiritual influence in class to all.

April 5, as Edwards Day, for Chester, our School superintendent and leader that we all admire and respect for his Christian spirit.

April 12, as Adams Day, for Billy, president of the Men's Fellowship and a faithful class worker.

BOX SUPPER TONIGHT

This is the last reminder of the Box Supper to be held tonight at the Walton Christian Church, sponsored by the Missionary Guild. The time is 7:00 p. m. Bring a well-filled box to be sold. Enjoy a full evening of fun and games. Everyone is invited.

Bethany Class to Meet

The Bethany Bible Class of the First Baptist Church, Mrs. O. K. Powers teacher, will meet at the home of Mrs. Melvin Jones, 29 Edwards Avenue, at 2:00 p. m., February 14. All members are urged to be present. Visitors welcome.

CUBBAGE ANNOUNCES FOR STATE SENATOR

James C. Cubbage, Pleasantville, has authorized the Advertiser to announce his candidacy for State Senator, representing the 26th Senatorial District, in which Boone county is included, subject to action of the Democratic Party at the Primary in August, 1953.

Mr. Cubbage is engaged in the insurance business and is presently State treasurer of the Young Democratic Club of Kentucky. A formal statement will follow at a later date.

Boone County Girls Honored by D.A.R.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Miss Marilyn Russell
Mr. and Mrs. Eli Russell, Walton, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marilyn, to Mr. Carroll Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Carter, Independence. No date has been set for the wedding.

Camera and Birdie Await Kiddies at Waltonian Hotel

Next Thursday, February 19, is the big day for the picture taking of your youngsters. The Advertiser is having pictures taken of all children who are brought by their parents or other guardians to the Waltonian Hotel between 10:00 a. m. and 6:00 p. m., absolutely free of charge. The Waltz Studios of Des Moines, Iowa, nationally known children's photographers, will be in charge of the photography. The Advertiser wants a picture of your child to print in its forthcoming feature "Citizens of Tomorrow," a series of photographic studies of local children. The more we get the better the feature will be, in cooperation of mothers and fathers is urged.

It often seems to parents that children are little one minute and are growing up the next, so fast does a child's growth take place. Here is a splendid opportunity to catch a likeness of your child or children at this present stage on the pleasure you will enjoy in seeing it in print. You will want to clip it from this, your home town newspaper, and preserve it for the youngster when he or she grows up.

There is absolutely no charge or obligation for taking the pictures. Parents don't even have to be a subscriber to the Advertiser, nor even a reader. You do not have to purchase pictures either, though you may obtain a limited number of additional prints by arranging direct with the Studio if you want them. That is entirely up to you. There is no age limit.

Annuals Now On Sale

Anyone who wishes to purchase one of the 1953 Walton-Verona High School annuals is asked to see any member of the senior class immediately. The price is $2.00. Only a limited number are on sale, so act now.

Walton-Verona PTA to Meet

The Walton-Verona P. T. A. will meet Wednesday, February 18, in the school auditorium.

Eighth and ninth grade girls, under the direction of Miss Yancy, will present a playlet, "Youth Takes a Hand." Girls appearing in the play are Janice Osborne, Patsy Kerns, Ora Crowe and Sue Gutzeit. Posters made in the play were made by Judith Norman.

A large birthday cake, baked by Mrs. Ferguson for the play, will be served with coffee for refreshments after the "Founders' Day" program.

Mrs. O. F. Young, president of the PTA, cordially invites all parents and friends of the school to be present for this interesting program.

MRS. LUCY GILPIN

Mrs. Lucy Gilpin passed away Tuesday morning at the home of her son, John, in Russell, Ky., where she had been ill for some time. Funeral arrangements are being completed.

Meeting Held In Home of Mrs. Wallace Grubbs

The February meeting of the Boone County Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was held in the beautiful home of Mrs. Wallace K. Grubbs, in Walton, with her daughter, Jeannette, acting as co-hostess.

Mrs. Ray C. Nestor, Regent, presided over the business meeting, which opened with the D.A.R. Ritual, Collect, Pledge to the Flag, and American Creed. Mrs. Clarence Wolfe read the poem, "Teamwork," which stressed, "a little less of you and me, a little more of us." The Regent announced that she had written to Governor Wetherby thanking him for proclaiming February, American History Month in Kentucky. Kentucky is the only state in the Union having such a proclamation, although the societies in other states working diligently to have the governor of their state issue the same proclamation. The Boone County Chapter would like to see this proclamation stressed in all the schools and homes in the county.

One of the highlights of the meeting was the presentation of Good Citizenship medals by Mrs. Nestor to the five girls who were selected by the faculty of each school in the county for outstanding qualities in dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism. The five girls chosen were: Mary Florence Ryan, Walton; Ann Wilson, New Haven; Barbara Schiwer, Hebron; Jenny Lee Tanner, Florence, and Janice Kinman, Burlington. In the spring, these girls will be taken on an all expense tour of Frankfort, be the guests at a luncheon, and attend a tea given in their honor by Mrs. Lawrence Wetherby at the Governor's Mansion.

Since 1935, the National and State Daughters of the American Revolution have sponsored the Good Citizen program, and it will always be a yearly event. Mrs. C. Davis Gaines, Good Citizen Chairman, conducted the contest throughout the schools in the county.

Mr. William Albers of Loring Andrews Jewelers, Cincinnati, Ohio, gave a talk on five thousand dollars worth of fine early American silver and modern Kirk silver. He presented colored film, assisted by Mr. Bruce Wallace, a prominent Walton business man, showing the making of Kirk silver. Mr. Albers showed an early silver tea pot made by a woman silversmith, costing $550. The Kirk silversmiths not only make fine table ware, but also ecclesiastical silver. In the making of Kirk silver, the metal is heated and made into bars called spoon bars. From these spoon bars, all types of silverware are made. Many pieces of silverware are made. Bearcats Continue To Lose; Play at New Haven, Fri.

By Marie Martin

The Bearcats lost to the Williamson Demons, Friday, February 6, by a score of 51-49. Williamson was leading all the way, once by 15 points, and stood off a fourth quarter rally by Walton. Period scores were: 11-9, 32-20, 46-36, and 51-49, Williamson.

Points for Walton were: Smith 16, Roberts 11, Grubbs 10, Mudman 5, Mosley 4, Courtney 2, and Vest 1.

Walton's reserves lost 35-17. The Bearcats lost to Erlanger Lloyd, Tuesday, February 10, 67-60, but the game was undecided until the last minute, the score being 61-60. Erlanger, with 45 seconds to play, then Erlar of Lloyd scored 6 points. The Cats missed five foul shots, but the play of Smith and Vest was improved over recent games. Walton had trouble solving the Lloyd defense, which was very aggressive, causing the home team to lose the ball on numerous occasions. Coach Durham says these mistakes will be ironed out by tournament time. He is confident Walton can win the tourney.

The period scores were: 22-18 Walton, 32-32, 51-50 Walton, and 67-60 Erlanger. Points for the Cats were: Smith 25, Vest 17, Mosley 7, Roberts 6, and Grubbs 5.

The reserve game was won by Erlanger, 52-38. Our next game is with New Haven, Friday, February 13, at New Haven.

Just A Thought—

The reason they call it take-home pay is because that's the only place you can go with it.

Birthday Party—

Bobbie Jean Knox, McCullum Road, was hostess at a party last Sunday, Feb. 1, on the occasion of her ninth birthday. Games were played and refreshments served to Rebecca and Gayle Groger, Peggy Wenzling, Mary Edith Blick, Sandy West, Carolyn Marshon, Teresa Foltz, Norma Palmer, Johnny and Debbie Dawkins, Jerry Schneider, David Knox, and Michael McGraw.

Bridge For the Licking River—

Louis Haubner, president of the Licking Valley Improvement Association, announced that the discussion of the possibility of constructing a new bridge across the Licking River, probably in the vicinity of Visalia, will be made at the next meeting, Wednesday, Feb. 11. Some years, Mr. Haubner recalled, suggestions were made for a new bridge across the Licking River at Kenton Station, but nothing ever developed.

Another Day—

The banks and various public offices that are subject to nearly all days that denote a holiday have forgotten one that is listed in the books. It is called Forefathers Day, December 22, a day celebrated to commemorate the landing of the Pilgrims. It was first observed in 1769.

Simon Kenton P. T. A.—

Mrs. James I. Tichenor, president of the 6th District of the Kentucky Congress of Parents and Teachers, was the Founder's Day speaker at the February meeting of the Simon Kenton P. T. A. Mrs. Tichenor told of the founding of the National organization and its growth in the last 56 years, and also discussed the principles and policies of the P. T. A. Rev. Wilham Mullins, pastor of the Oak Ridge Baptist Church, led the devotional. Ruben Hinsdale, Mrs. A. W. Butler and Miss Helen Richardson were elected to serve on the nominating committee. Robert Roden, musical director, presented Miss Dale Webster, who sang "My Hero," and Floyd B. Hymer, Rodney Cain, Robert Carlisle and Billy Dixon, a saxophone quartet. Mesdames Nell Morgan, L. N. Gabriel, Harry Rubbe, A. W. Butler, past presidents, and Mrs. William Eger, presiding officer, were presented corsages. A traditional Founder's Day Aeo, with Mrs. Morgan, and Mrs. Butler on the serving committee, was enjoyed after the meeting. Miss Mary L. Yancey's home room won the attendance award for the third consecutive month.

Simon Kenton—

Simon Kenton's basketball team will play Highlands at Highlands on Friday, February 13. In last Friday's game, Simon Kenton won over Silver Grove, 58 to 42.

Richard and Lata Larsey of Lexington, are the proud parents of a baby girl, born February 3. They named her Sarah Lynn. Grandma Agnes Dorsey has taken this week off from the Post Office to get acquainted with the new arrival to the family.

Moan Bros. Post, 275

Moan Bros. Post, 275, will hold their next regular meeting at Nick's Grove on Taylor Mill Road, Thursday, Feb. 12. All members are urged to attend and any veteran wishing to submit an application for membership may do so at this meeting.

The Great Fodick—

Many of you, when you see the name "Fodick," have in mind the Fearless Detective of the Lil Abner comic strip, but another man by the name of Harry Emerson Fodick, an American clergyman, born in Buffalo, N. Y., in 1878, was a liberal Baptist minister and theologian. He is also a prolific writer of books on religion, chief of which is, "The Meaning of Prayer," in 1915.

Firemen's Meeting—

Members of the Independence and Community Fire Department will meet next Monday, Feb. 16, at the firehouse. All members are urged to attend for a discussion on pledged members and potential pledge members. New fire house keys will also be distributed to all members in good standing.

Bredford Lodge, 123—

The Independence Masonic Lodge, 123, will have their next regular meeting on Thursday, Feb. 12. Next Saturday, February 14, candidates will receive their third degree, beginning at 2:30 p. m., at the Lodge hall. The supper will be served at 6 p. m. in the Independence Christian Church, by members of the Eastern Star. All members of the Masonic Order are invited to attend.

Birthday Party—

Misses Alma and Mary Stephens of Main Street, had a surprise birthday party for their aunt, Mrs. Nellie Pinguely, at their home last Saturday. Mrs. Pinguely is from Melbourne, Ky. Guests attending this celebration were Clara Eaton, Jane McHigh, Mrs. Russell Rector, Mrs. Donald Rector, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Stephens and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney.

Of Interest to Ex-GI's—

Any ex-service man or woman who has since obtaining a discharge from the service retained some part of their GI insurance, are being traced by the Veterans Administration. It seems the VA is holding insurance dividend checks and are having trouble locating some of the owners. An estimated 650,000 WW2 veterans did not apply for the first special NSLI dividend, paid in 1950. To you vets who held insurance and who did not apply, may find it to your advantage to write to the District Office, which would normally handle your insurance account, or better, contact an American Legion Service Officer in your area.

Old Glory—

The Stars and Stripes—our national flag, is the third oldest national standard in the world. It is older than the Union Jack of Great Britain or the Tricolor of France. It was first authorized by Congress on June 14, 1777, and was first flown from Fort Stanwick (now Rome, N. Y.) August 3, 1777. First carried into battle at Brandywine on September 11, 1777, and was first flown over foreign territory at Nassau, Bahama Island, January 28, 1778. The Stars and Stripes received its first foreign salute on February 13, 1778 from the French Admiral LaMott Piquet.

FLORENCE

Dr. N. A. Jett was confined to his home the past week, due to a severe attack of flu. His friends wish him a rapid recovery.

Howard and Lee Thompson were in Terre Haute, Ind., Tuesday to attend the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Pearl Schwab.

H. B. Simpson and a fellow associate of the American Lubrication Co., Dayton, Ohio, were in Charleston, W. Va., transacting business pertaining to the company during the weekend.

Miss Olive Brown of Elmore, was a caller in the community Monday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodward were hosts with a delicious steak dinner on Thursday evening at their home on Mt. Zion Road. Guests enjoying the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Tanner and the P. J. Allens. The event was in honor of Mrs. Tanner and Mr. Allen, who were celebrating birthdays. We join in wishing the celebrants many happy returns of the day.

Blayne Miller of Dayton, Ohio, was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Miller, during the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. James (Pete) Carpenter and two small sons departed February 3 for Gainesville, Fla., where he will continue studying for his goal of Doctor's Degree in Agriculture. He previously attended the University of Kentucky, and received his Master's Degree in January. Mr. Carpenter's education is rather outstanding in that he was never afforded the opportunity of attending high school due to a hospitalization period of almost a year for burns and plastic surgery following which he entered World War II, serving in Japan, where he was stricken with typhus and malaria. When he returned to the states hospitalization was again necessary for a repeat of plastic surgery and during this period he took a short course of high school and received his diploma from Florence High. Mr. Carpenter will teach while attending school in Florida. Mr. Carpenter's experience proves the adage, where there's a will, there's a way. His friends join in wishing him the best of luck.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Arnold entertained with a family dinner party Sunday, honoring their son, Buddy, who was celebrating a birthday. Other guests were Mrs. Buddy Arnold and Deborah, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Arnold and family, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirkpatrick and son, and Mrs. Charlotte Wilson.

Mrs. Ella Weaver of Lloyd Ave., had as dinner guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Smith and Mrs. Eva Delahunty.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Flynn and daughter of Walton, were visiting the Clyde Arnolds, Sunday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hanson of Augusta, were guests Friday and Saturday of her father, Dr. N. A. Jett, and family. Recent guests of the Verne Arnold family were Mr. and Mrs. John Pierce and children, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Rogers and Mrs. Alva Snow.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Carpenter have purchased from Bud Gallenstein the farm on Burlington-Bulittsville Road, on which they have resided almost a year.

Sunday of last week, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Arnold had as guests, Mr. and Mrs. Art Centner and twins of Erlanger, and Mrs. Ardele Fox, and a Monday caller was Miss Jane Britow of Union.

Verne Arnold and family were visiting his aunt, Mrs. Jeff Edmonds, and family of Latonia, Saturday.

Women's Society Meets

The Woman's Society of the Florence Methodist Church held their regular meeting at the church February 4, at 11 a. m. The opening prayer by Mrs. Paul Chaney, was followed by the business session conducted by Mrs. S. J. Bradley, president. Reports were heard and Mrs. Bradley was chosen delegate to the annual W.S.C.S. conference, to be held at Winchester, in April. Mrs. Paul Chaney was selected as alternate. Several of the group are planning to attend the "Day Apart," to be at the Erlanger Methodist Church, April 1. Mrs. Geo. Miller and Mrs. Owen Bethel were completely surprised when Mrs. Bradley presented to each of them the certificate and pin of life membership for their faithfulness to the church and society over a long period of time. Mrs. W. R. Miller closed the session with prayer. Following lunch, the devotional was conducted by Mrs. Miller and the program was an arrangement in which all present participated. For the dismissal, the group formed a circle and sang, "Blest Be the Tie." Attending were Mesdames Paul Chaney, Ida and Eva Miller, S. J. Bradley, A. T. Knox, C. S. West, Lella Allen, Sara Jones, Mae Bristow, Nannie Mitchell, C. A. McKibben, Owen and Helen Bethel.—Pub. Chm.

BEAVER LICK

Please don't forget Sunday School and preaching services at the Baptist Church each Sunday morning and evening. You are always welcome to worship with us.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Black and Uncle Lee Kite are ill with flu.

Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Isaacs will celebrate their Golden Wedding anniversary Sunday and their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Black will celebrate the Silver Wedding anniversary the same day, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaacs in Union.

Mrs. Lee Besterman entertained company Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Moore had as Sunday afternoon guests her daughter and family of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hodges made a business trip to Walton, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith, Charley Trapp, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Black spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Maddox of Owen county.

Seventy-Six Falls, near Jamestown, is so named because that is the number of feet down which the water plunges. Jamestown, county seat of Russell county, was first called Jacksonville, in honor of Andrew Jackson.

Ryland Homemakers

Pictures can add beauty to the home, and careful selection of size, color and height of hanging pictures were interesting suggestions given by Mrs. Harold J. Halfhill in presenting the lesson, "Picture Hanging." Charts and samples of pictures were also shown to illustrate the lesson. Mrs. Oliver Gee opened the February meeting of the Ryland Homemakers Club by reading the Kentucky Homemakers creed. Mrs. Harold Halfhill was hostess for the meeting.

Mrs. F. B. Hermes, president, presided over the business session. The devotional and a reading, "Why Was Memory Given Us?" was presented by the Increased Performance in New Chevrolets

The low, sweeping lines of the 1953 Chevrolets are exemplified by this four-door sedan in the "Two-Ten" series, which this year offers increased performance, comfort and convenience in addition to a complete re-design. Apparent in this view are the enlarged front and rear vision, new fender and hood contours and a fresh grille treatment that enhance the rugged beauty of the cars. Four-door sedans are also available in the "One-Fifty" and the new Bel Air series.

reading chairman, Mrs. G. A. Damon. Each member attending gave a patriotic reading or poem, and magazines were exchanged.

The recreational program was in charge of Mrs. W. B. Barnes, and a quiz game, and group singing, led by Mrs. Oliver Gee, were participated in by all present. Mrs. W. P. Schwall gave a report on the advisory council meeting, and at noon a nutritious luncheon was served.

Assembled for the meeting were Mrs. Robert Zacharias, Mrs. F. B. Hermes, Mrs. Oliver Gee, Mrs. O. J. Williams, Mrs. G. A. Damon, Mrs. Wm. Bagby, Mrs. J. H. Lawson, Mrs. W. P. Schwall, Mrs. W. B. Barnes, Mrs. Harold Halfhill, Mrs. W. A. Damon, and a guest, Mrs. Hermes' mother.

The March 3 meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. W. P. Schwall, Oaklawn Farm, Highway 177, near Visalia.

Highlighting the growth of boating as a popular activity on all Kentucky waters, Coast Guard officers met recently with boat owners at Kentucky Lake State Park to organize a Coast Guard Flotilla in that area. The group will assist in promoting water safety on Kentucky Lake, one of the nation's foremost resort centers.

Over the past decade, the number of tractors on Kentucky farms has risen from 11,927 to approximately 59,183. Kentucky farmers used more than 600,000 tons of fertilizer in 1951.

Beef cattle raising is becoming extremely important as a source of rural revenue in Kentucky. Cattle and calves in 1951 totaled 22% of agricultural income.

What's the MEASURE of a Bull?

← PEDIGREE?
← TYPE?
← DAUGHTERS?

Pedigree and type of a bull are only indicators of the kind of daughters he should sire. His true measure lies in his ability to get daughters that will produce on a high level.

Every sire in the American Breeders Service studs that furnish our semen is Proved Great. Their average index, of over 500 lbs. B.F., ranks them in the top 2% of all bulls proved by D.H.I.A. daughter-dam comparisons.

The sure, economical way to improve your herd production and type is to call our technician and breed your cows to SIRE PROVED GREAT.

Harmony Reigns with a SECOND Set

If you're shopping around for a new television, give some serious thought to keeping the old one. It will banish that dinner-hour question: "What do we tune in tonight on TeeVee?"

Program preferences are bound to crop up in every family, especially where children or teenagers are a part of the family group. Having TWO sets in your home is worth more than the best trade-in deal you could make.

So remember, when you decide on that new television at your dealer's... YOUR BEST BUY IS A SECOND SET.

BIG BURLEY GROWN IN WESTERN COUNTY

One of the heaviest burley yields ever produced in Carlisle county was that harvested last year by Robert and Orville Holstead of the Milburn community on nine-tenths acre, according to J. R. Davis, UK county agent. The crop of 2,318 pounds sold for an average of $58.80 a hundredweight, or a total of $1,363.

The crop was the result of building up the fertility of the soil through heavy applications for fertilizer, and good management of the crop both in the field and in the barn. In addition to the usual cover crop, last year they disked in 12 loads of stable manure on acre with 300 pounds of phosphate and 240 pounds of sulfate of potash. Five hundred pounds of fertilizer were used at the row, and 200 pounds of ammonium nitrate worked in with the first cultivation.

These thrifty farmers pruned 838 pounds of leaf, and then permitted the remainder on the stalk to ripen fully before cutting. This is the eighth burley crop grown by Holstead Bros.

Some of Kentucky's best tobacco-growing land lies around Lexington, in Fayette county. Yields there sometimes run as high as 2,000 pounds an acre.

When Neighbors WORK TOGETHER ... They Find the BEST ANSWERS

Before farmers began working together in their national farm loan associations they were at the mercy of the money lenders. Interest rates were high, renewals were expensive if available at all, commissions were expensive, loans were made for short terms—everything was in favor of the lender.

Then, in 1917, farmers began working together cooperatively through their national farm loan associations and Federal Land Banks to get the BEST in farm loan service. In the years since the Federal Land Bank system was established there have been more improvements in the farm loan service available to farm families than in all the history of the United States up to that time.

It is generally recognized that every major improvement in farm mortgage loans during the past 35 years has been pioneered by the Federal Land Banks and national farm loan associations.

One of these improvements is our low 4% interest rate. Many lenders have raised their interest rates but the Federal Land Bank of Louisville still maintains its rate at the same low 4% that has been in effect since 1935. And the long-term without renewals, the privilege to prepay any amount at any time without penalty, no application fees, no appraisal fees, the future payment fund program, loans based on normal agricultural values—are other improvements.

Working together gives them an opportunity to continue pioneering in making "The BEST farm loan in America" an even better loan.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Eckler had as dinner guests recently, Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Eckler and little son, Norman Ray, of Newport; Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Eckler of Ludlow, and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Eckler. The affair was in honor of Cpl. Norman Eckler.

Robert Blackwell, South Main Street, was rushed to St. Elizabeth early Wednesday morning, having suffered a severe hemorrhage.

Cedar Cove Spring, near Frankfort, was the source of the first public water-supply system in Kentucky, established in 1804. The water was transported to Frankfort by wooden pipes.

Atwood-Nicholson Homemakers

"What Do You Wish to Attain in 1953?" was the topic of the lesson planned by Mrs. Alfred B'Hymer at the January meeting of the Atwood-Nicholson Homemakers Club. The meeting was held at the McAlpin Tea Room, with Mrs. John C. Mayhugh presiding; Mrs. B'Hymer gave notes concerning the importance of family budgets and money management.

"The Take It Easy Kitchen," designed for the handicapped on display at the Cincinnati Gas & Electric Co., was viewed by the homemakers in the morning. A movie pertaining to this type kitchen was shown.

Good Soil Management, More Plant Food Helps Boost U. S. Crop Yields 45 Per Cent

Yield boosting fertilizer gives extra bushels of corn per acre.

SCIENCE and industry have teamed up with the farmer to produce grain, labor-saving machines, yield boosting fertilizer, closer planting, better cultural methods and soil management practices, have helped increase crop production per acre.

"One of the key factors promoting this increase has been the greatly expanded use of fertilizer and lime. Fertilizer use nationally reached an all-time high in 1951, totaling 20,888,740 tons. That was 14 per cent ahead of the previous year and nearly three times as great as before World War II.

"Boosting yields per acre through the use of fertilizer has meant more money for farmers. Higher production means lower cost per bushel and greater profit per acre."

"As a result," it says, "hybrid seed corn and other heavier producing grains, labor-saving machines, yield boosting fertilizer, closer planting, better cultural methods and soil management practices, have helped increase crop production per acre."

City Ordinance 221

An Ordinance approving the sale of and directing the conveyance of a 25 foot strip of ground, the property of the City of Walton, Kentucky, to Mark M. Meadows, and fixing the purchase price thereof.

WHEREAS, the City of Walton, Kentucky, has a rectangular strip of land immediately East of the new City Building, fronting on Church Street, and for which they have no immediate use, and

WHEREAS, MARK M. MEADOWS desires to purchase the same from the City for a sum acceptable to the City Council,

NOW, THEREFORE, THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF WALTON, KENTUCKY, DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION I. That the City of Walton, Kentucky, accept the offer of MARK M. MEADOWS to buy the parcel of land owned by the City and fully described herein in Section II, for the sum of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars.

SECTION II. That said parcel of land is described as follows, to-wit:

"Located generally in the City of Walton on the North side of Church Street near its intersection with U. S. Highway No. 25 (Main Street) and described particularly thus: BEGINNING at a point, the most easterly corner on the North side of Church Street of said City Hall Lot, said point of beginning being 93.95 feet N 54-37 E along the North line of Church Street from the East edge of the old East Curb line of Rt. 25; thence N 20-22 W 62.5 feet to a point in a line of Grass; thence with said line S 69-20 W 41.48 feet to a point and a corner with the remainder of said City Hall property; thence with said line S 34-31 E 70.90 feet to a point in the North line of Church Street; thence along said line of Church Street, N 54-37 E 25 feet to the place of beginning CONTAINING 2,182.4 square feet.

Being a part of the same property conveyed to the Town of Walton by Walter D. Vest, single, by deed dated April 23, 1941, and recorded in Deed Book 78, page 151, of the Boone County Court Records at Burlington, Kentucky.

SECTION III. That the Mayor, Russell M. Hall, be and he is hereby authorized and directed to execute a deed of conveyance to MARK M. MEADOWS and ANN MEADOWS, his wife, jointly, and to the survivor, conveying unto them all of the right, title and interest of the City of Walton, Boone County, Kentucky, in and to the property described herein in Section II, upon receipt by the City of the purchase price herein.

SECTION IV. This Ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and publication.

Passed by the City Council of the City of Walton, Kentucky, by a vote of four members of Council at a regular meeting on the 9th day of February, 1953.

No Favorites

Lesson for February 15, 1953

NOBODY loves a "teacher's" pet. No teacher should have one; just as no father or mother should have a "pet" child. We all feel that everybody should be treated alike. And yet, strange to say, when it comes to religion, many a person who wouldn't be a teacher's pet for anything, will believe and hope that he is one of God's pets. All of us have this wish at times. We like to feel that God won't deal with us strictly, that he will let down the rules for us a little. We like to think of ourselves as special cases, we like to feel we have the inside track, or the "pipeline to God." But it won't do. God has no special favorites.

Fatal Mistake

It is a fatal mistake to think that God is bound to look out for ME, no matter what. In the time of Jesus, the leaders of his people thought God was just bound to give them the front seats in his kingdom. For one thing, those Jewish leaders were proud of their ancestors. On their family tree were men like Abraham, Samuel, Moses, David and countless other good and noble people. The aristocrats of Jesus' time thought: Since we belong to the same family as those who have served God so well, surely God will show US special favors! But God does not grant special privileges merely on account of a family tree. There are people today who will tell you: "Yes, my people for three generations have belonged to this church. My great-grandfather helped to build it. My good old mother just about wore her Bible out—I could show you if I could find it around somewhere."

Jesus did not hold out any hope that you can secure a seat by the Throne on Abraham's ticket, or your dear old grandmother's, or any one else who happens to be high on your family tree. Then for another thing, those stuffed-shirt Pharisees thought God owed them something because of the positions they held. They had the front seats in the synagogues; every one got up when they came in. They seem to have got the idea that even God would get up when they arrived in heaven. But Jesus gave no encouragement to that notion either.

Promises "If—"

Another reason why these prominent men thought they had a sort of first mortgage on the Kingdom of Heaven was that they misunderstood the promises of God. Many promises of blessings, wonderful blessings, had been made to the people of Israel by prophet after prophet. These promises are still to be read in the Old Testament. Where the chief priests and all that crowd made their mistake was at two points. One: They supposed that the promises "no matter what" promises without conditions, without any strings attached. God would give Israel all these blessings, they reasoned; they were longed to Israel, therefore they would share the blessings.

Not at all; Jesus tells them straight out that the kingdom is to be taken away from them and given to a "nation producing the fruits of it." What nation? That promise is still good, but no nation, group or people or race or church can claim it absolutely and finally. The "kingdom," with God's highest blessings, can belong to England or Japan or the United States or Ethiopia—if they are obedient and promised to any nation that will produce the fruits. Does ours?

Christ or Chaos

Again these men were mistaken in supposing they could claim God's blessings and yet reject God's Son. The basic trouble with those big men of Jerusalem, and the people they influenced, was that they did not want Jesus. They did not want him, his ideas, his leadership; they had no notion at all of his sacrifice. Living or dying they had no use for him, and so they perished. Those who reject the living Grace of God have to suffer the consequences. Christ is still the center of community and nation. The people who welcome him, live by him, have enduring life. The kind of people who turn him away and try to destroy what he gave his life for, will themselves be destroyed. The epitaph of all wrecked nations could well be the same: Here lie the wrecked remains of a people that had no use for God. To reject Christ is to choose chaos.

GREATER THAN THE ATOM'S POWER...

Everyone these days talks and thinks about atomic energy. To most of us it is the most remarkable and powerful form of energy yet discovered. One of the world's outstanding scientists does not agree. He points out that the most powerful form of energy is not mechanical. It is not electronic, or even atomic energy. It is, he says, prayer energy.

This little family, then, is tapping that source of amazing power—whether the children enter the simple words, "Now I lay me down to sleep—" or a special prayer: straight from their hearts.

When you see a family united in prayer, you know it is a family united in all things.

And you know, too, that the Church is an important part of its life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

VERONA NEWS

Mrs. Robert Salmon of near Zion Station, attended church here Sunday.

Rev. Kennedy and family were entertained in the Joe Rouse home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lamm of this place, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Perry Baker of Walton, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Reffitt of Erlanger, were calling on Mr. Lamm's sister, Mrs. Phoebe Jump, who still remains very ill.

Mrs. Carrie Coleman and son Woody of Cincinnati, were calling on her father, J. T. Glare, Sunday afternoon.

We were glad to see Mrs. Patti Wal-ler back in Sunday school and church, Sunday.

Mrs. Elmer Richards arrived home last week from Plant City, Fla., where she attended the funeral of her father, W. L. Satchwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Greenwell of Erlanger, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamilton and sons, Sunday afternoon. Jim Bob and Freddy Hamilton have had the mumps.

Mrs. Iris Hughes, Mrs. Grace Adams and Mrs. Flonnie Edgerton, Friday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Elliott spent Saturday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Chipman.

Mr. and Mrs. James Willis had as weekend guests, two of his brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Willis and three children of Evansville, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. John Willis and three children of Central City, Ky.

Boyd Webster and Hiss Vest are back on their old job again with John L. Vest of Walton.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fisher, and Mrs. Les Moore spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lon Wilson and Mrs. Molly Davis.

Chas. Richards, Jr. is home on a few days furlough. He is looking fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Mayo Hayden and daughter, Carolyn, were visiting Mr. Hayden's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Yancey, and sons Sunday.

We are glad to report Delbert Messer arrived home Saturday night from Korea, where he had been stationed for quite some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Sturgeon are expecting their son, Harry C. Sturgeon, home from the Army. He was to leave for home about the 20th of January.

Mrs. Susie Glare spent Sunday with her son, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Chandler, and daughter, Laverne.

Mrs. Clifford Cooke was calling on her mother, Mrs. Effie Clements, Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Clements still remains quite sick.

Mrs. Smith of this place visited her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Allphin of Walton, Sunday.

COLLEGE TESTS FEED NEEDED BY BROILERS

The 3,000 broilers raised at the University of Kentucky Experiment Station the past season required an average of 9.89 pounds of feed to finish them at the age of 10 weeks.

In a report on increasing profits by better feeding, the Poultry Section lists the amount of feed required at the end of each week for one to 10 weeks.

Three things that make for better feeding and increased profits in raising broilers are quality chicks, balanced feeds and sound management practices, it is stated. Management and methods of feeding are considered the most important. Here are some points listed in the report:

1. Don't overcrowd. Allow three-fourths of a square foot of floor space a bird in cool weather and one foot in warm weather.
2. Practice sanitation. Do not rely entirely on medication and vaccination. Clean up after each brood. Clean out waterers daily. Keep the house dry and well ventilated. Keep visitors out.

3. Practice full-feeding and avoid feed waste. Use enough feeders of proper size. Too few feeders waste feed because they have to be filled too full. Small feeders cost a feed waste by the birds billing and scratching feed out.

For the first two weeks, allow an inch of feeder space a chick. For three to six weeks, two inches, and after six weeks, three inches a chick.

"DIVINE HEALING SO CALLED"

"Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, and today, and forever"—This does not mean that he deals with his people the same way in every circumstance, but that His character and attributes remain un- changed and unchanging.

Let us say, first of all, that our God is sovereign and omnipotent. He can heal. He does heal some times in answer to the prayer of faith. But bodily healing is not promised universally to the saints of this age. Some teach that the healing of the body is in the atonement; this is false (Isa. 53:5). It is only for the soul. I know of the promise to the disciples in Mark 16:18, but this was a sign to testify to their ministry—I know Peter and John healed the lame man at the temple (Acts 3:1-9), but Peter and John did not heal multitudes in great gatherings. Upon some the Spirit bestows the gift of healing (1 Cor. 12:9). This I do not deny.

If bodily healing were a part of the atonement, is it not strange that Paul was never revealed from the "Thorn In the Flesh," (11 Cor. 12:7-19)? Also Paul wrote to Timothy, "Trophimus have I left at Miletum sick," (11 Tim. 4:20). Why did he not pray and the Lord heal him? Paul knew that our Lord never promised to heal all the sick in this dispensation. Look at the fruit of some of the "Divine Healing" campaigns. Many times there is disappointment, disillusionment, not to speak of increased misery. Many listen to the promises of the Evangelist, often time nothing happens, then other times people throw away their crutches, glasses, diabetics seem to be better, stop their diets, but go back a few weeks after the campaign is over. What will you find? Generally it will be despondency. This is not the Spirit of God.

Then, too, in the wake of such "Healing meetings," there often follow strife and division. Families are broken because of them and churches are divided. This is not the Spirit of God either. He (The Spirit) does not cause strife among God's people, neither is His ministry divisive but unifying. For the Word tells us that we are to seek earnestly to guard "The unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace," (Eph. 4:3). God is the God of order, and His Spirit is the Spirit of quietness and peace.

Not long ago, in one of our southern towns, the story is told a large tent meeting (divine healing) was in progress. The tent was blown down by a wind storm, over 50 people injured and every ambulance in town was called, rushing the people to the hospital. Why the gift of healing was not used, I do not know. You answer this one. (adv.)

Recognized nutritionists repeatedly stress the importance of bulk, the importance of minerals and of molasses in dairy feeds. All three of these factors are included in Tuxedo Dairy Feeds in their new form, in which over one-third of the feed is in the form of pellets.

The pellets in Tuxedo Dairy contain all of the fine ingredients possible to incorporate in them, including the common and trace minerals. Pellets increase the bulk and give the feed a rougher texture. They also prevent the sifting of fine ingredients to the bottom of the feed box and loss of any essential ingredients. The use of crimped oats instead of ground oats also adds to the bulk of the new Tuxedo Dairy Feed. Palatability is increased, as molasses is included in the pellets as well as for coating the feed.

Ask for the new Tuxedo Dairy containing pellets, and watch your milk checks climb.

CONVENTIONS

February is convention month for so many different businesses. This week is the Kentucky Retail Hardware Convention in Louisville—last week was the same thing in Ohio. Next week, when the hardware men and wives leave, the Road Contractors and Newspaper people take over—it goes on like that all month, and some in March. You can learn a lot at a convention, also see a lot of new merchandise, and best of all, you can have lots of fun, which everyone should have once in a while. Some hardware dealers never leave their stores only at convention time, and do they celebrate for one week only, then they are ready for another year of work.

We received a shipment of rubber tired wheelbarrows, in about three sizes—that large size is fine around the dairy barn. Lennie and Herbert Hoffman were in today—Lennie was bragging on Herbert. Groger unloaded another load of Armstrong lineoleum rugs—we sure have a supply and no more space for we even have rugs in the warehouse. We sold three 9x12 rugs to Mrs. Gilbert Brewster, also several gallons of Bolce Interior paint, flat and gloss.

Ed Hamilton was up today—he was loafing a bit—said he had the flu and nearly died. In came Jake and Mary Stahl from South Fork—Jake said he had better pay for that Arvin radio he took home to try—we have very little trouble with Arvin radios, just a tube now and then. Ethel Sheppard was in today—she sure likes that Perfection electric range she bought a couple years ago—can't see how she got along without it.

Stan Eichholz was in and asked me if I didn't want to join the Farm Bureau, and I told him if I could be of any help to the farmers I would join. Every farmer should belong to this organization, because through the Farm Bureau you get your representation in Washington, and that is what the farmers have to have to hold prices up and controls kept on. Join the Farm Bureau, maybe you can help and it only costs $5.00 per year. Elizabeth Cox and Chick had a trade—he traded her an oil heater for a washing machine and a coal heater—of course he got some boot. He is some trader—he must take that from his uncle Frank—he is a trader.

Corra Bethel bought a 12x15 Armstrong lineoleum rug. As I told you last week, we have a large selection of lineoleum—look it over. We have two used washers—will sell cheap. Have you seen this grass seeder to put on draw bar of your tractor and drives off the power take-off; sows all kinds of seed and costs only $35.00. We made up some power sickle grinders—all ready to plug in and sharpen all your tools—these are in two sizes, $39.50 and $32.50. We have a used coal heater, 100-lb. size, for $15.00, and a used two-burner oil heater for $10.00.

Another bargain we have is a used Tiger tobacco setter, only set 20 acres tobacco—cost $200 now; you can buy this one for only $125. Clay Nix was in today, asking about wire fence—he will need some in a few days. Nick Trapp bought two Bluegrass AAA Canopies—they have tobacco canopies advertised at a lot of different prices, but you can't beat Bluegrass AAA brand, it is the best canvas on the market. We have always bought the best grade and have never had a bad canvas. It is a little heavier and this makes the plants grow faster—plants do better with new canvas, especially when it is heavy like Bluegrass AAA. Get your canopies at Conrad's, we have it in 9-ft. and 12-ft. widths. We also have a complete line of Richard's tobacco seed, also Warner Golden Bury, grown and produced by Noble Earle of Harrison county. John Cheesman and Charlotte took home a 9x12 rug. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Black came after a 12x12 Armstrong rug. Mrs. Ed Webster, over in Gallatin, bought a new Perfection oil range—she has used Perfection for years and would have nothing else. John Dorsey was inquiring about a Bernis tobacco setter and that grass seeder to mount on a tractor.

Floyd Chapman and Danny were in—Floyd was asking about a rubber tired wagon. Carl Schmidt was looking over the oil heaters—he wants one for his cabin at Boone Lake. Ray stopped over at Dad Chapman's and put a new bumper on their Perfection electric range. One terminal broke off—I wrote the Company and they sent a new burner free of charge—this is Perfection Stove Co. policy—they take care of their dealers and customers. When you buy anything with Perfection Brand on it, you are buying the best, and most for your money.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Moore and Mrs. Gordon Moore were buying pots and pans—Mrs. R. G. bought an O'cedor Sponge mop, a very useful one, and easy to clean. A lot of the ladies were paying their bills today. Miss Ora Bush paid for a lot of wiring material. Mrs. Lorena Myers paid for plumbing supplies for her kitchen sink. Mrs. Belle Wolford sent a check for stove repairs I had ordered for her, and my friend, Mayo Ray, Mrs. Ware, here the other day and took them over for me. Stanley Mook took a 2-hour ride—Chick took it over to the farm.

James Webster, down on High School Court, bought some Eden Park lawn seeds—he said that was really good and it sure was good. For quality, buy your hardware at CONRAD HARDWARE!

Auto-Truck Accident Near Here Monday

Three persons were injured, one seriously, in an auto-truck collision and fire on U. S. 25, a mile south of Walton, early Monday.

Kenton County Patrolmen James Crowell and Edward Taylor said the truck, which was loaded with hay, turned over, spilling part of its load over both lanes of the highway.

Later the gasoline tank exploded, setting fire to the truck and the remainder of the hay.

The officers said the truck driver was Ralph Stager, 22, Bluffton, Ohio. A passerby removed him from the wreckage and brought him to Dr. J. M. Huey. He was then removed to St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington, where he was reported in a serious condition. He suffered second degree burns of the face, neck, legs and hands.

Two women passengers in the auto, Mrs. Sally Dills, 56, Walton, and Mrs. Beulah Tebb, 48, Cynthiana, also were hurt. Mrs. Dills suffered a possible leg fracture and face cuts. She was reported in a fair condition. Mrs. Tebb was treated for face cuts.

The officers said the driver of the auto, George Coyle, Covington, and Mrs. Dills' husband, William, who also was a passenger in the 1937 coupe, were not hurt.

Crowell and Taylor said traffic was tied up 2 1/2 hours. The Walton Fire Department fought the fire, and the wreckage was cleared from the highway.

The firemen responded with two trucks. Since there was no water available at the scene, the trucks were used in relay fashion. Each pump is equipped with a booster tank which has a capacity of several hundred gallons of water.

While one truck was pouring water onto the smoldering hay, the other made a dash back to Walton, refilled its tank and returned to relieve the first.

The truck was declared a total loss and the auto was reported damaged heavily.

Collections For Heart Fund To Be Made Feb. 19

Contributions will be collected for the "Heart Fund" on Thursday, February 19, in Walton, from 7:00-8:30 p. m., with the exception of High Street, which will be canvassed between 3:00-4:30 p. m.

Your contributions to the American Heart Association will help to establish both the official agency and the voluntary agencies for an all-out effort against heart diseases. The campaign against heart diseases needs you—you are the key person in this campaign. No matter how much research is done, it cannot help you or your community unless you do something about it. Check regularly on your own condition with your physician and follow his advice. Work with your local heart association to find out what is being done in your community—work with them to help plan what should be done—work with them to put these plans into action. But most of all, be at home on Thursday, Feb. 19, and contribute all you can to the American Heart Association.

BAPTIST BROTHERHOOD

The Men's Brotherhood of the First Baptist Church held its regular monthly business meeting Saturday, Feb. 14, in conjunction with a Sweetheart Social with men playing host to their wives and families. Everyone enjoyed the buffet style supper and the song fest immediately after. Bro. Bob Smith and family were missed since he was on a business trip.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Levi Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McCubbins, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Shields, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Armstrong and Carolyn, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hankinson, Miss Pat Stagg, Mr. and Mrs. William Presser, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Roy McCubbin and Faye, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Rector and Irma, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sleet, Mrs. Nancy Sleet, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Webster and family, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Struve and family, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Burns and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Chance and family, Wayne Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gerth and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Deuchman and family and Mr. and Mrs. Audrey Eckler.

Forest fires in both county burned approximately 5,000 acres of timber and pasture land in 1952.

Marine Returns from Korea

Cpl. Clyde W. Brooks

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Brooks and son, Cpl. Clyde W. Brooks, formerly of Staffordburg, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Deuser. They now reside in North Carolina.

Corporal Brooks has been serving with the First Marine Division in Korea, for the past 12 months, and has just returned to the U. S. While in Korea, he saw service on both the Eastern and Western fronts.

Florence Youth Drowns Sunday In Ohio River

A 17-year-old Boone county youth drowned Sunday night in the Ohio River near Gunpowder Creek, when the rowboat in which he and two companions were fishing was swamped by "rollers" from a passing tow of barges.

The victim was William Dalton, 17, of Kenton. Drive, Florence. His companions, Harry G. Domes, 19, and William Henneman, 18, both of Florence, told Wm. P. McGivay, Boone county attorney, where they were coming into shore when the tow passed them.

The small boat sank immediately, they said, when the waves swept over the side. All three started swimming in the swiftly moving water. The Dalton youth was within 15 feet of shore when he sank.

The companions said they tried to reach him but were unable to because of the swiftness of the current and cold temperature of the water.

R. E. Brugh, Boone county coroner, state police, and deputies from the sheriff's office searched until 4:30 a. m., Monday, without a trace of the boy.

Former Resident Ill

Ward has been received by friends here of the illness of Hugh Arnold, in a California hospital. He has been suffering from arthritis and had gone to Desert Hot Springs, where he was getting better, when he became quite ill with catarrhal jaundice.

Anyone wishing to send him a card or letter, may do so at: Hoag Memorial Hospital, Newport Beach, California.

4 FINED IN POLICE COURT

George Ford Elliott was arrested on Saturday by Chief Herman Simmons for disturbing the peace and was fined a total of $14.50 by Police Judge Charles Worthington.

Three arrests were made late "Trooper" Ralph Cline, also on Saturday, as follows: Leonard L. Robinson driving on a highway, Ohio, was arrested for not having an operator's license and driving while under the influence of alcohol. On the two counts he was fined $11.50 and $104.50. Millard Smith of Newport was "taken in" for reckless driving and was fined $29.50. The third arrest was that of J. B. Kelly, Evans, Ky., improper parking and being drunk on a public highway. His fine totaled $44.00.

Historical Society to Meet

Mrs. Lula Tolin will present a paper, "The Organization and Jurisdiction of the Boone County Court, 1799-1861," at the meeting of the Boone County Historical Society, Friday, February 20, at 8:00 p. m. Anyone interested is invited to attend. The society meets in Florence.

SALE POSTPONED

The sale of Mrs. Nora Bickers has been postponed due to the sudden death of Mrs. Bickers on Wednesday morning. Announcement will be made by Harry F. Johnson later as to the date.

Valentine Party Saturday at Gym Well Attended

The Teen-age Sweetheart Valentine party which was held Saturday, Feb. 14, in the Walton gymnasium, was one of the most successful events of the year. The gym was beautifully and artistically decorated in the Valentine theme. A border of red hearts around the balcony held streamers, which formed the canopy and one large heart provided an entrance to the dance pavilion. Tables were arranged under the canopy where guests were served refreshments.

Although sponsored by the Walton Lions Club, all details, such as advertising, decorations, entertainment, music and refreshments were arranged and planned by the teen-agers, under the direction of Mr. John Durham. They announced the party by making attractive posters and placing them in local business places. They obtained Leon Hall to supply the record player and records for the dance music. Mr. Hall was in attendance all evening, playing the request numbers. Everyone appreciated his cooperation in making the party a success.

The highlight of the evening was the piano music of Mr. Harley Holliday, who played two special numbers and several dance tunes. His style and rhythm made even the chaparrons do some toe-tapping. His interpretation of "St. Louis Blues," was excellent and displayed his brilliant technique and originality.

The refreshment committee, composed of teen-agers, had a bountiful supply of sandwiches, home-made cake, candy and cokes available for everyone. All this good food made the evening more pleasant.

All the young ladies in attendance made a picture of real "Sweethearts" in their party dresses. There were pastels as well as vivid colors, all blended together to make this a most refreshing scene of gaiety, youth and beauty. These, together with the neat and well dressed boys, formed a pageant of living Valentines as they entered into this well-planned and well supervised party. There were 125 teen-agers and approximately 50 adult present. This was a record attendance for the young people, all due to their efforts in planning and working together.

Members of the Lions Club wish to thank everyone who had a part in making this affair such a success. A Lion spokesman said, "Our club is a service club, teen-agers, and we are very happy and proud to have had this opportunity to serve you all, with your cooperation, will make plans to serve you again in the near future."

Class to Collect Clothing For Orphan Children

Something new and very helpful has been organized by the Young Married People's class of the Independence Christian Church. This class has picked up its project for 1953, helping obtain better clothing for the orphans, ages 2 to 16 years, in the Covington Protestant orphan home, Devau Park.

Louis Lee, Jr., president of the class, along with his wife, and Mrs. Randall Wagner, Mrs. John Armstrong and Mrs. Herbert Works are appealing to you to help in this wonderful project—all you have to do is sort through your children's clothes, toss aside the clothing not in use and phone any one of the members listed below.

The Young Married People's class will do the rest—they will come to your home and personally care for the clothing, take it home, clean, patch, iron and recondition it and deliver the clothing to the children at the home.

It is a very good feeling, folks, to know you've helped someone who is destitute and very close to home. "Your Contribution is Our Resolution," so call a number—Mrs. Louis Lee, Jr., Holly 9701; Mrs. Randall Wagner, Holly 3371; Mrs. John Armstrong, Holly 8202; or Mrs. Herbert Works, Holly 8661.

Baptist B.W.C. to Meet

The mission book, "The West is Big," will be taught on Thursday, February 19, at 7:45 p. m., by Grace Knox, in the home of Mrs. Knox and Mrs. Vera Wright. All Business Women of Walton Baptist Church are urged to attend and take this mission study book.

MRS. IDA EASTON

Mrs. Ida Pearl Easton, mother of Sheriff Wendell H. Easton, died Sunday at her son's home in Burlington. She was 76 years old, and had been in failing health for a number of years. She had resided with Sheriff Easton since 1940.

Besides her son, she leaves a nephew, Earl Jones of Detroit, Mich., and a niece, Mrs. Ruth Mathis of Terrace Park, Ohio. Her husband, the late Fannie Easton, a former, died two years ago. Mrs. Easton was a member of the Burlington Baptist Church.

Rev. Roy A. Johnson, pastor of the Florence Baptist Church, officiated at services Wednesday at 2:00 p. m., in the Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Florence. Burial was in the Burlington Cemetery.

3rd Alarm Boosters To Meet Mar. 2 At Fire House

The Walton Fire Department, one of the best volunteer groups in the state, is planning to improve their service by forming a 3rd Alarm Booster group, made up of older men of the town and community.

Chief Russell Groger explains that this new addition is being formed for emergency work, when the regular firemen are on call at some out-of-town fire, or if ever two fires happen simultaneously in their area.

These men will support all activities of the department, take regular training at least twice a month, give assistance at any time they are called by the officers of the department.

The first meeting of this group with the Volunteers will be Monday, March 2. All the following men have agreed to serve, and any others are cordially invited to attend this meeting:

Those participating are Roland Gier, Cameron Breckfield, Clifford Pruett, Gilbert Groger, Mark Meadows, Lewis Schwalt, O. F. Young, Chester Sturgeon, E. Steinhouser, Dan Roberts, Lou Riddle, O. J. Struve, Ar Ryan, Paul Beigle, B. Johnson, Nick Welsh, Lewis Webster, Ray Brewster, Kenneth Locke.

VERONA P.T.A. SOCIAL

The P. T. A. of Verano school is sponsoring a Parcel Post sale Friday night, February 20, at the school house.

There will be oyster soup, coney islands, coffee, soft drinks and pie—so, come and bring your family.

Those who are donating packages, don't forget have them mailed in time to get to the school house by Friday afternoon. Send them to the school, c/o P. T. A., or Mrs. Ray Gullion.

School Problems To Be Studied By Local Group

The following people have been appointed by the Lieutenant Governor of Kentucky to make a thorough study of the school problem in the Walton-Verona district: J. O. Ward, Walter D. Vest, Ed Chapman, Mrs. O. F. Young, James V. Spencer, James Smith, Joe Rouse, James Vest, Mark Meadows, R. M. Hall, G. C. Ransom, Mrs. Bryant Rector, Mrs. Clayton Jones, Mrs. Lee Flynn, and Mrs. Ray Gullion.

This group held their first meeting at the Walton-Verona High school, Thursday night, February 12. A very interesting study was made concerning the present school program in the community, and some thirty-six problems and questions were taken up, settled and discussed. The results of this study and future studies, which will be made with the next six weeks, will be forwarded to the Kentucky Legislature Research Commission, and will be used to try to devise some means whereby Kentucky can be raised from the present position of 47th in the nation in education.

Other studies which are to be made will be on transportation, school finance, and other subjects pertaining to having a better school system for the entire state. People throughout the state are being awakened to the fact that many of our schools are in a deplorable condition.

There is a great deal of concern also concerning the 16th amendment to the Constitution of Kentucky, which says that all school money furnished to the school district by the state shall be paid on a pupil census basis. This amendment is (Continued On Page 4)

PRACTICE BIBLE SCHOOL AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The Walton Christian Church will sponsor an "Observation Practice Bible School," under the direction of Miss Betty Lawson, State Children's Director of the Kentucky Christian Churches of Lexington, at the local church, April 13-17.

All Christian Churches in Northern Kentucky are invited to send teachers, ministers, officers, and education members. The enrollment fee is $5.00 for the course. This Laboratory Training program is being held in five other Kentucky churches in 1953.

THOMAS SETTERS

Services were held Friday at 2:30 p. m. at Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Florence, for Thomas Setters, 68, Buttsville, a retired farmer, who died last Wednesday at his home. Burial was in Petersburg Cemetery.

Mr. Setters, a member of Big Bone Baptist Church, leaves three sons, George Setters, with whom he resided, Ben Setters of Idlewild, and Cal Setters of Union; two daughters, Mrs. Mabel Abdon of Burlington, and Mrs. Lilly Eickles of Goshen, Ohio; two sisters, Mrs. Grace Feldhaus of Erlanger, and Mrs. Ellen Cunningham of Rising Sun, Ind.; two brothers, Joe and John Setters, both of Union; 18 grandchildren, and ten great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Ransom Is Hostess to Local Literary Club

"A History of Walton Women's Literary Club," by Mrs. Clayton Jones, and a talk by Mrs. James Webster on "Noted Americans Born in February," were special features of the February meeting of the Walton Women's Literary Club at Stephens Restaurant, with Mrs. Grover C. Ransom as hostess, and Mrs. Julia A. Rouse presiding.

The first twenty years of the club history, given by Mrs. Jones, was written ten years ago by the late Mrs. Edna Vest, a charter member. The ensuing ten years were recorded by Mrs. Jones, Mrs. E. K. Stephens, a former resident of Walton, now living in Covington, was the founder of the club. Early in the year 1923 Mrs. Stephens called a small group of women into her home to discuss plans for organizing a club—and there this organization came into existence, with Mrs. Stephens as president of the newly-organized club. The first meeting was held in her home, on Monday afternoon, February 12, 1923.

At the present time, Mrs. Stephens and Mrs. Grover C. Ransom were co-hostesses. Of the twenty-four charter members, ten are still active members. The president read letters of congratulations from the following charter members: Mrs. E. K. Stephens, Mrs. A. R. Johnson, and Mrs. Elmer Groger of Covington; Mrs. George Grubbs, Miami, Fla.; Mrs. Mabel Stanifer, and Mrs. Helen Tomlin, Cincinnati; Miss Alpha Hance, Georgetown, and Mrs. Martha Wallace, Walton.

Mrs. Webster, who was introduced by the president, Mrs. Rouse, gave an interesting talk, naming among noted Americans born in February, Sydney Lanier, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Albert Johnson, Charles Lyndberg, and Susan B. Anthony.

Mrs. Bryan Rector, a guest, led the group in singing, "America, the Beautiful," and "God Bless America."

The meeting was opened with the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag, led by Miss Jean Chambers. The spiritual guidance was given by Mrs. Lotta Powers with an inspiring talk on, "Triumph of a Man of Faith," with Abraham Lincoln mentioned as an example. Mrs. Powers gave selections from the 37th Psalm, closing with prayer.

Mrs. Rouse gave a report on the mid-winter meeting of the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs, which was held recently in Lexington. Roll call was answered with a "Quotation from a Noted American."

Following adjournment, delicious refreshments were served to Mrs. Bryan Rector, Mrs. James Webster, Mrs. E. K. Wallace, Mrs. D. Hess Vest, Mrs. Forest Thompson, Mrs. A. P. Stephens, Mrs. W. (Continued On Page 4)

'Cats Meet Burlington In Opener March 3rd

By Marie Martin

The 34th District Basketball Tournament will be held in the Florence High School gym, March 3-7.

Drawings were held Monday afternoon at Florence, with results as follows: Walton-Verona will play Burlington on Tuesday evening, March 3, at 7:30, in the opening tilt. At 8:45 the same evening, Hebron will meet Lloyd. For the remainder of the meet, there will be one game each evening. Wednesday at 8:00 p. m., Florence will play St. Henry. Thursday at 8:00, the winners of the Walton-Burlington and Hebron-Lloyd contests will meet, and on Friday evening New Haven's Tigers tangle with the winner of the Florence-St. Henry fray. The Tigers drew a first-round bye. The finals are set for Saturday night, March 7, at 8:00 p. m.

Straight admission for the tournament is to be .75 cents per person. "Cats End Slump" The Walton-Verona Bearcats come out of their losing slump Friday, Feb. 13, when they won over the New Haven Tigers, 79-64. Period scores were: 13-12, 31-29, 54-44 and 79-64, all in Walton's favor.

The cats have only two games left to play, which are with Florence, Friday, February 20, and Burlington, Friday, February 27. Both contests are here.

CHARLEY SNELLING

Services for Charley Snelling, retired farmer and lifelong resident of this county, were held Wednesday afternoon of last week at his home on Bellevue, Burlington Pike, Rev. Will Smith officiated, with burial in Bellevue Cemetery, under the direction of the Chambers and Grubbs funeral home, Florence.

Mr. Snelling died February 8 at his home, at the age of 67 years.

Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Corda Snelling; four daughters, Mrs. Richard Hensley of Petersburg, Mrs. Harold Aylor of Florence, Mrs. Robert Glenn and Miss Marie Snelling, both of Lawrenceburg, Ind.; three sons, Howard of Petersburg, Albert of Burlington, and Franklin Snelling at home; two sisters, Mrs. William White of Petersburg, and Mrs. Lee Mundell of Aurora, Ind.; three brothers, John of Taylorport, William of Grant, Bryan of Utica, Ind., and Ott Snelling of Bright, Ky., and 11 grandchildren.

Boone Trail Society Formed Feb. 15 at Florence

The organization meeting of the Boone Trail Society, Children of the American Revolution, was held at the home of the Organizing Senior President, Mrs. Roy C. Nestor, Florence, on Sunday afternoon, February 15.

This is a youth organization for ages from birth to 21 years, and it's objects are Patriotic, Educational and Historical training for young people. The Children of the American Revolution was organized in Washington, April 5, 1895, and was the first national society devoted to "the cause of the child." Members must be lineally descended from a man or woman who served the cause of American Independence as soldier, sailor, civil officer or a recognized patriot in one of the Colonies or States or the United Colonies or States.

Officers and organizing members of the Boone Trail Society are: John Schuyler Nestor, chaplain and registrar; Roy Lockwood, Jr., president; Virginia Alice Holloway Haves, recording and corresponding secretary; Martha Eugenia Develock Lockwood, treasurer; Ann Elizabeth Lockwood, color bearer, and Barbara Susan Lockwood, historian. The papers of Mary Elizabeth Grubbs are pending in Washington.

The Organizing Senior President, Mrs. Roy C. Nestor, was also Organizing Regent of Boone County Chapter, D.A.R., new C.A.R. society. In addition, Mrs. Nestor is the sponsoring chapter of the Nestor is a member of the Covington Art Club, is a Kentucky Colonel under the administration of Governor Lawrence Wetherby, is active in church work, and is Executive Secretary of the Boone County Chapter of the American Red Cross.

State Income Tax Forms Mailed to 1952 Filers

State income tax forms have been mailed to all persons who filed tax returns last year and Department of Revenue officials urge prompt filing to avoid a rush around the April 15 deadline.

A new short form for persons whose income came from wages, bonuses and commissions and not more than $100 in dividends and interest will make filing easier, and most taxpayers will be able to file returns without outside help, the officials believe.

Required to file returns are single persons who had a 1952 gross income of at least $1,500 or a net income of $1,000. Married persons living together must file if they had a combined gross income of $2,500 or a net income of $2,000.

Special cases help in filing is available in field offices. The one in this area is located in Covington.

Persons who owe at least $30 in tax may pay it in three installments throughout the year.

When Neighbors WORK TOGETHER ... They Find the BEST ANSWERS

Before farmers began working together in their national farm loan associations they were at the mercy of the money lenders. Interest rates were high, renewals were expensive if available at all, commissions were expensive, loans were made for short terms—everything was in favor of the lender.

Then, in 1917, farmers began working together cooperatively through their national farm loan associations and Federal Land Banks to get the BEST in farm loan service. In the years since the Federal Land Bank system was established there have been more improvements in the farm loan service available to farm families than in all the history of the United States up to that time.

It is generally recognized that every major improvement in farm mortgage loans during the past 35 years has been pioneered by the Federal Land Banks and national farm loan associations.

One of these improvements is our low 4% interest rate. Many lenders have raised their interest rates but the Federal Land Bank of Louisville still maintains its rate at the same low 4% that has been in effect since 1935. And the long-term without renewals; the privilege to prepay any amount at any time without penalty, no application fees, no appraisal fees, the future payment fund program, loans based on normal agricultural values—are other improvements.

Working together gives them an opportunity to continue pioneering in making "The BEST farm loan in America" an even better loan.

SCHOOL PROBLEMS

to be voted on for repeal in the fall of 1953 and if repealed, it will enable Kentucky to set up a minimum foundation program, which would guarantee equal educational opportunity to each child in the state. The repeal of this amendment would benefit the state a great deal educationally speaking, but it might jeopardize some of the wealthier districts in the state in order to build up poorer districts. It seems that no district in the state, today is too far advanced in education, nor is any district so poor that part of what they now have should be taken away to help a poorer district. These districts need more help and this group of people, making this study, will try to decide how this might best be accomplished. Each school district in Kentucky has a group of its citizens working on this problem.

CARD OF THANKS—

We want to express our thanks to our neighbors and friends for their kindness and sympathy in the death of our beloved mother and grandmother, Lucie Gilpin. Especially do we want to thank Rev. Johnson, Rev. Burkett, Rev. Carpenter, for their consoling words and prayers; the ones for the beautiful music; Chambers & Grubbs, the ones who prepared the grave, and also the ones that gave flowers.

Walton Homemakers

The Walton Homemakers held their regular monthly meeting February 13, in the home of Mrs. Queenie Webster on High School Court. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Forest Thompson. Fifteen members answered roll call with "Vacation plans for next summer."

Mrs. Nancy Aylor gave some highlights on spring style trends. A beautiful lunch was served and a beautiful lunch was enjoyed at the noon hour, after which Mrs. Lloyd Watson from the Kanton County Homemakers Club, gave a very interesting report from Farm and Home Week in Lexington.

Despite the adverse season, six 4-H club boys in Scott county produced over a ton of tobacco an acre. Drought reduced the weight, according to Asa I. Overall, UK assistant county agent.

Nineteen boys had an average yield of 1,531 pounds an acre. Top producer was Tommy Giles, whose third of an acre turned off 912 pounds which brought $64.14 a hundred.

In Shelby county, a total of 1,129 soil samples were tested during 1952, exceeding any previous year.

Lesson for February 22, 1953

ON February 22 we celebrate the birthday of a man who (it is said) claimed he could not tell a lie. That is an exaggeration. Almost any man can tell a lie if he tries hard enough. But even if this were such a wonderful world that literally nobody could tell a lie, it might still not be the ideal world. For what is most important is not cheating back the falsehoods, important as that is. The big thing is to tell the truth. And it is even harder to tell the truth and tell it right, than to keep from lying. Truth can be told in a dull way so that no one listens to it. If truth is worth telling it ought to be pointed—, and when we say "pointed" we mean that three ways.

Pointed At—

For one thing, truth may as well not be told at all if it is not pointed at somebody. There's no use telling your dear old grandmother about the circus; she's not going. There is no use telling a small baby to keep his face clean. There's no use giving a lecture on space-heating to an audience of Hottentots; they're hot enough already.

Dr. Foreman

You're talking to the wrong people. Truth ought to be fitted for, and pointed toward, the people who need it. The Master-Teacher himself showed how this is done. Much of Jesus' most vital teaching was directed to what we would call "hecklers." Sometimes their questions were meant to trip him up (like the three recorded in Matthew 22). Sometimes they were asked from mere curiosity, sometimes they were desperate gropings for light. But whatever the motive, Jesus always gave them answers—plus. He would take advantage of the moment to push in a pointed truth. If only preachers and Sunday school teachers—and politicians too—would spend more time answering the questions people do ask, instead of questions they don't ask!

Sharp Enough To Stick

There is another sense in which truth, to be effective must be pointed. It has to be the opposite of dull. Now there are situations where truth can be dull, and welcome. If you are looking up in the encyclopedia the population of North Dakota, or trying to find out what nacin is, you don't want to be amused, startled, or entertained. You just want plain fact, plainly stated. Professors and other studious people are trained to absorb truth no matter how dull it is presented. It's a poor student who can't learn as much from a dry professor as from a witty one. But most human situations are not in classrooms. Truth that is not dry, ought not to sound dry. Truth that's worth remembering ought to be told in such a way that it can't be forgotten. Again, our Lord's teaching was of this sort. He never told a dull truth, and he never told his bright truth in a dull way. His sayings are all pointed; they have a way of sticking in the mind. What he says flashes in the eye like sunlight on steel. There was no one around taking notes when Jesus spoke. His sayings are remembered not because somebody had a good notebook but because what he said, stuck.

"To The Point"

What do we mean by a point—less joke or a pointless remark? We mean, of course, that the thing was not worth saying, however true it may have been. We want people to speak to the point. If we are going to listen to them we want them to be saying something that is worth saying, something we'll be worse off for not knowing. Now again Jesus' teaching was pointed truth in this sense. It was relevant truth; it was truth dealing with specific situations. He came "down to brass tacks" as we say. His teachings did not float away up in the clouds, they came down to earth and walked there. They had to do with people's real problems. And what we shall find out, if we study Jesus' teachings faithfully, is they deal with our problems today too. The problem of the demands—sometimes seeming to conflict—of church and state, of country and conscience; the problems of death and of the life beyond; the problem of how best to serve and obey God; these concerned the men of ancient Judea, they concern us no less. Jesus words are just as pointed today as they were nineteen centuries ago.

THE CHURCH AND THE COMMUNITY

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church on the corner or at the crossroads stands for three of the most important phases of community life—the social, intellectual and spiritual development of its people.

Within its hallowed precincts the rich and the poor, the high and the low meet on common ground and learn to share each other's joys and sorrows. It is the social center of the community, where people learn to mingle and cooperate and be friendly.

The accumulated knowledge of past ages was preserved and transmitted to us by the Church and its religious institutions. The Church pioneered in modern education, built great colleges and universities, and works in full harmony with the schools in every generation.

But the Church performs its highest and holiest mission in the realm of the spirit. All its other services are contributory to this supreme end, that it may teach men to know God and love and serve Him. It opens up a vast new world of faith and hope and joy.

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are few sound attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the children's sake. (3) For the sake of the community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

WLW's newest vocalist, Ruby Wright, presents her original song stylings on the "Al Morgan Show" at 11 p.m. EST, Monday through Friday. Ruby is returning to radio after her retirement to raise four daughters and is also heard on WLW on the new "Bill Thall and Co." program at 9:30 a.m. EST, Saturdays.

Rev. C. N. Ogg was calling in the community Monday, of last week.

Mrs. Buddy Arnold has been ill, we regret to report. Her mother-in-law, Mrs. Clyde Arnold, was with her during the time.

Sorry to report Mrs. Will Woodward being ill with flu also Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodward are not so well, due to the flu. However, their friends are hoping for their early recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Tanner, Mr. and Mrs. James Bristow and Miss Ruth Bristow were pleasant guests of the P. J. Allens for a turkey dinner Sunday. Missed by the group were Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Woodward and Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Carpenter, who were absent due to illness.

Mrs. Marie Thompson of the Dixie Highway, succumbed early Friday following an extended illness. A member of the Florence Methodist Church, services were conducted Monday at 2:30 p. m., by her pastor, Rev. C. N. Ogg. Prior to her illness she was an active member of the Woman's Society and chair, and a faithful worker in other activities of the church. She leaves her husband, Lawrence J. Thompson, and two sons, Howard and Lee Thompson, Florence. Ralph Smith, Florence funeral director, was in charge of arrangements, and burial was in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, beneath a profusion of beautiful flowers. Sympathy of the community is extended the family.

The M. Y. F. organization of the local Methodist Church entertained with a banquet at the church Thursday evening. Featured at this occasion were Miss Margaret Patton, speaker, and a group

GONE AGAIN

I left Walton, Sunday afternoon late and drove to Louisville, to be there for the Hardware Convention. Tuesday, So Monday I went to the wholesale house to look over new merchandise for 1953. For the fisherman, they have some new spinning rods and reels, also some new line, very light and extra strong. Of course they always have a lot of new baits in casting and fly fishing—everyone seems to be going to glass rods instead of steel and bamboo, but I bought some of each. I also bought an assortment of treble hooks and long shank Eagle claw hooks.

Then for the ladies, they have a new Clark chrome plated legs adjustable iron board, which is the best looking and most useable iron board I have ever bought and they sell for $12.95, but not available for three months. Of course they had a lot of new gadgets but none had been tried out too much yet, so I let them alone. Then Tuesday, I went to the convention and looked over what they had on the display floor. I bought a few items, but nothing different than I have already put in stock. Then I visited each jobber and manufacturer's room and of all the conversation that went on—when you get about 15 hardware men together, it is worse than what I have around the old store.

They even talked politics and what the Republican administration was going to do for business—some said business would be leveled off and would be run on a solid scale—others said it would tighten down, while others said the first two fellows didn't know what they were talking about—one fellow said he had been in business in 1929 and he had no more money than he had in 1929, so they told him he was a poor business man and bet him he was a Republican, and later found out he had to pay Uncle Sam $11,000 back income tax, so he must have made a little money.

I don't have a thing against the Republican party and a lot of my good friends and customers are Republicans, but you can't get a one to say he made money in the past ten years under Democratic administration—why is it? Well, we have a lot of fun and hope no one got mad, because when a person gets mad they generally will get over it. For the American people will fight and argue and then when necessary will fight together—that is what makes this the greatest country in the world.

After the convention was over I drove through rain all day to Memphis, Tenn., where I stayed all night at one of the finest tourist courts in the South. We watched the fight that night in the office, between Chuck Davey and Kid Gavilan. Then next morning we drove down that great street, Union Avenue, in Memphis, with the flowers blooming, and they have turned a lot more of those old homes into flower shops, dress shops and other kinds of business houses.

It is the most interesting street I have ever seen. Then across the Mississippi River and into Arkansas. We first entered the cotton fields for about 50 miles, then up on higher ground into the timber country for about 50 more miles, then back into swamp country where nothing but rice fields and some cypress trees could be found, then into the cattle country and Little Rock, Ark. From there to Hot Springs, it is God-forsaken country and into the Ozark Mountains. We drove into Ho Springs, to our room at the Majestic Hotel, and in the lobby we saw Mr. and Mrs. John Simpson from Nicholasville, Ky., and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Grisom of Burnside, Ky., all who we had met before.

This is Friday and a wonderful day here—sun is hot and people are sitting on porches taking sun baths. Received a letter from my mother that the rain had stopped and the weather was better. Brewster wanted to know how many Dayton water systems to buy—the way they have been selling, he should buy several. You can't beat that Dayton for service and price. Several salesmen told me I could not get a black snake wagon with some long saddle girls, but I found a manufacturer in the South that will ship me some.

I have always said you could get anything if you really want after it. That is the reason I have so many more items than the average hardware store, and try to live up to the old saying, "You Can Get It at Conrad's." Well I am not there but you can still get your hardware at Conrad's because we stocked up in January, before I left, but Brewster and Chick will keep on buying what we need. If we don't have it they will get it in a few days.

Three years ago I started writing these articles for my weekly ad. Some read it every week, some say I am crazy, some like to see their name in the paper, and some tell me not to put their name in—so I never know what to do. But I will try a few more weeks and see what happens. Don't forget to buy at your local hardware store in Walton, Ky., CONRAD HARDWARE.

Ward Named Head School Study Group

To Conduct Weekly Discussions on Problems

At the second meeting of the school study group held at the Walton school, Tuesday evening, February 24, J. O. Ward was elected permanent chairman. Joe Rouse was named vice chairman, and James Smith, secretary.

The group took up the study of teachers' qualifications and salaries. It was pointed out in the study that some Kentucky teachers make only $720 per year, while those in some districts make more than $5,000 per year.

The average salary for the State of Kentucky is $2,200 for teachers this year. The average salary paid to teachers in the Walton-Vernon district is $2,125.00, this year. Local schools are better off than many, yet not so fortunate as others. The lowest salary in the Walton-Vernon district is $1,624.00 and the highest $3,600. At these salaries, better than average teachers are employed.

The total years of teaching experience of the Walton-Vernon teachers is 85 years, and the total number of college hours for all teachers is 1,624. There are four teachers in the system that have had study beyond the AB degree, and one who holds the Masters degree.

The group decided, Tuesday evening, that no teacher should receive less than $2,400-$2,800, he holds a college degree.

These studies are proving very inspirational and interesting, according to reports, and those of the committee who fail to attend a meeting are missing much interesting discussion.

New Sun. School Building To Be Opened Mar. 8th

A big step forward will soon be taken by the Walton Methodist Church, according to the pastor, Rev. G. W. Hoffman, when six new Sunday school rooms, added to the church building to take care of the growing school, will be put into use.

Sunday, March 8, has been set as the day of formal opening of these rooms for use, and the pastor said, "This will be a great day—next to that of the building of the church."

"Hopes of the congregation," Rev. Hoffman added, "have been building up ever since the idea of erecting the new building was entertained, on through the securing of the pledges, letting the contract, and the completion of the work, until interest and enthusiasm is now at white heat."

An all-day meeting will be observed March 8, with Sunday school and worship service in the morning, followed by a covered dish dinner at noon, and the formal opening service in the afternoon at 2:30.

Dr. R. R. Patton, District Superintendent, will have the principal part in the service and will bring the message. Dr. Patton is an outstanding preacher in Kentucky Methodism, and those who have not heard him have a treat awaiting them—so, be sure and be present for this afternoon service.

Those of other denominations are certain welcome and are cordially invited to be present for this service.

The goal for attendance in Sunday School has been set at 200. "This is a high goal for our church," Mr. Hoffman said, "but everyone being present and bringing others, it can be reached—let us do it!"

CONSERVATION LOANS

Kentucky has loaned $729,293 to 79 soil conservation districts throughout the state during the last four years to assist in the purchase of heavy or specialized soil conserving equipment, according to Marshall W. Qualls, director of the Division of Soil and Water Resources.

Of this amount, $499,428 has been paid back into the fund. The work is carried on under a $400,000 appropriation voted by the General Assembly in 1948. The program allows districts to purchase equipment and to return the full value of the loan over a period of from two to four years. These payments are placed in a revolving fund to be used in assisting other districts.

Newly Formed Boosters To Meet Monday

The Walton Volunteer Fire Department, in making its annual report for the year 1952, had some very interesting data for the public. Total losses in the city of Walton were $3,793.03, of which $2,032.03 was on buildings and $1,760.00 on contents. The large part of this was the loss of the Baptist parsonage.

The fire-fighters made a total of 38 runs during the year, which included 20 in the city limits and 16 out of town, of which two were assists to Florence. There were stand-by calls and one false alarm.

The entire department was out a total of 103 hours, with 423 men taking part in the various runs, an average of 11 men each run. There were 1,123 man-hours spent in fire fighting and after-fire clean-up, besides the hours spent in practice and business sessions.

"Boosters" Next Monday
The 3rd Alarm Boosters will meet with the regular firemen, next Monday night, for their first 1953 meeting. Everyone interested is urged to be present. This is not just an accessory, but is very necessary to the department's work.

At a recent meeting, officers for the year were named: Russell Groger, Chief; Paul Simpson, Deputy Chief; Jack Rouse, First Assistant; Jesse Thornton, Second Assistant; Don Rice, Secretary, and Chas. Worthington, Treasurer.

Chief Groger said that new equipment purchased last year, included: Six pairs of boots, 6 helmets, 6 coats, 500 feet of hose, 2 masks, 2 hose clamps, sponner, and plug wrenches.

WA-NA CLUB TO MEET

The Wa-Na Women's Club will hold its March meeting on Monday, March 2, at 8:00 p. m., at the library.

Patsy George Martin, who is to be the guest speaker, will give a talk on "The Home."

Following the program, the group will adjourn to the home of Mrs. Gayle McElroy for refreshments.

Bearcats Lose To Florence, To Play Burlington Friday

The Bearcats lost to the Florence Knights, Friday, February 20, by the score of 91-71. The game was played at 7:30 p. m. at the way: 22-19, 50-39, 66-56 and 91-71. The winners scored 25 points in the final quarter, while Walton scored 15.

Vest was high pointman for Walton with 21, and for Florence, Luck had 36. Points for the Cats were: Vest 21, Masley 18, John-Grubbs 12, Howard 6, Roberts 6, Mudman 4, Jim Grubbs 2, and Courtney 2.

Florence also won the reserve game, 38-37, which was very exciting.

Hebron and Burlington are now tied for first place in the Boone County Conference, and Walton and Florence are tied for second place.

The Cats play their last game of the season Friday, February 27, with Burlington, on the home floor.

District Tournament

Walton will open the 34th District Tournament at Florence, Tuesday, March 3, at 7:30 p. m., playing Burlington. The Tuesday game will start at 7:30, and all other tournament games will begin at 8:00. Kenton Elementary P. T. A.

Founders' Day was observed at the regular meeting of the Kenton Elementary School P. T. A., recently. The meeting was opened with Mrs. George Riley, president, leading in prayer and a salute to the flag. Linda Yates, fifth grade student, read the devotional.

It was announced that 35 of the 505 copies for the rhythm band had been finished and 15 more were handed out to be finished. Also that the sewing machine had been purchased and was in use in the 4-H. Mrs. George Riley dismissed the committee, with thanks.

Mr. Caton, Mr. Bailey and Mr. Hig-tower were appointed to the nominating committee to make nominations for president and treasurer for the next two years.

Mr. Caton suggested that the PTA sponsor a "Student Aid Fund," for our school; fund to be governed by the PTA. This motion was made and carried. A committee is to be appointed later.

Under the direction of Miss Minerva Riga, a chorus of fifth grade boys sang the following songs: "Our Prayer," "When Day Is Done," "About Abe Lincoln," and "Keep In the Middle of the Road."

Mrs. John Cain, Founders' Day program chairman, introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. J. F. Crowell. She gave an interesting and informative talk on the history of the PTA, outlining the lives of two of the founders, Mrs. Theodore Binney, the first president, and Mrs. Phoebe Hearst. Mrs. Crowell also said, "There are over seven million members in the PTA today, and when we see the letters PTA, we should think also of purpose, thought and action or 'pulling together always.'" The speaker recited an inspiring poem entitled, "Hold High the Torch." In conclusion, Mrs. Crowell said that generations will live better, with liberty and justice for all.

As each past president was introduced, she stepped forward and lit a candle. Mrs. Bluch Rich lit a candle in memory of the first and present national president; Mrs. Mabel Vanlangham, a candle for the first and present state president; Mrs. Leslie Riley for the first and present district president; Mrs. Geo. Klein for the first and present county president, and Mrs. Frances Keeney for the first and present local president. A sixth candle was lit by Mrs. George Riley for presidents deceased.

Mrs. John Cain presented each past president with a corsage. Mrs. Cain gave a most interesting talk of our own local PTA history. Among the many interesting facts, she stated that "We can appreciate the long way we have come when we look at the beautiful school our children are going to today." In conclusion, Mrs. Cain read a poem, "We Observe Founders' Day." Mr. Bailey's fifth grade room won the attendance award for February.

Following the meeting, a silver tea was served with Mrs. George Klein and Mrs. Frances Keeney, past presidents, pouring. The table was graced with two silver coffee services and four blue candles, with a centerpiece of yellow daffodils and baby blue iris.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. H. L. Pitcher, March 11.

A series of historical incidents helped keep Kentucky from breaking into national industrial prominence until after World War II. Among them were the annexation of the Philippine Islands in the 1880's, which seriously hampered the state's thriving hemp industry due to a cheaper source of hemp in the islands, and the discovery of the Mesabi range, which provided cheaper and richer iron ore than was being turned out in Kentucky's busy furnaces.

Trench silos offer an economical and satisfactory way to preserve feed, according to McLean county farmers using them for the first time.

The Crittenden County Farm Bureau donated $150 to pay for equipping a soils laboratory.

OUR THANKS!!!

Every member of Simon Kenton Chapter of F. F. A. is thankful to our advertisers on this page.

Through the cooperation of these people, and others, we have grown much during the past years. We hope our organization will be one of which you will be proud.

Thanks a million!

Honorary Members

The following community leaders wear the Future Farmers honorary membership pin: Clifford Northcutt, Malvin R. Seebree, Raymond Miles, R. C. Hinsdale, Glenn D. Edens, Paul B. Clark, J. A. Caywood, Cecil B. Gordon, Woodrow Butler, and John Butler.

These men have done much to forward the F. F. A. cause in Kenton County. Without such men to encourage youth and its efforts, our nation could not exist as a free country.

Any encouragement to youth is never forgotten by it, no matter how small. Our thanks go to all people the nation over who help us and our organization.

Our motto:

LEARNING TO DO EARNING TO LIVE
LIVING TO SERVE

Miss Betty Barberick

Miss Barberick, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Barberick, Morning View, Ky., is the Simon Kenton "FFA Sweetheart" for 1952-53.

She is 17 years of age, a senior at Simon Kenton, an honor student, an officer of our sister organization, the Future Homemakers of America, and is active in many other school activities.

Camp Nelson, at the mouth of Hickman Creek, was one of the leading concentration camps for Federal troops and munitions during the Civil War.

National F. F. A. Week February 21-28, 1953

The week of February 21-28 is selected as National F. F. A. Week because of the organization's admiration for George Washington. This week was chosen out of honor and respect for the "Father of Our Country."

He was also one of America's first scientific farmers, and introduced some of the soil conservation practices that American farmers are just beginning to put into general practice.

The National F. F. A. Camp is located on land that was once farmed by George Washington. This week was chosen out of honor and respect for the "Father of Our Country."

A Future Farmer Thought

After a "miserable" freshman year at Washington and Lee University, a young man knew only too well the handicaps under which a farm boy entered college. As an upperclassman and later as a teacher, he observed first-year men from rural sections and discovered the same lack of self-confidence that had made him a freshman apart. He dreamed of correcting this situation.

The dream became a reality with the formation of the "Future Farmers of America," in 1926, and the "Future Farmers of America" organization, officially launched in Kansas City in the fall of 1928, and incorporated under the laws of Virginia, the same year.

The "miserable freshman" was the late Henry C. Groseclose, beloved "Father of FFA," who named the organization, wrote the constitution, by-laws, and ritual first used by the Future Farmers of Virginia, and now by the national organization. The date of "actual birth" of the Future Farmers of America is generally accepted as April, 1926, when Mr. Newman, then supervisor of agricultural education in Virginia, first publicly suggested a state organization of vocational students.

The FFA motto: "Learning to do, doing to learn; earning to live, living to serve." A little story we heard some years ago seems to tie in with this motto. A busy young father was being pestered by his young son. In desperation, the father tore a map of the world from a magazine and cut it into many parts. He suggested that the boy put it together again. To his astonishment, the boy returned in a few minutes with the map pieced together. "How did you do it so fast, son?" he asked. "Well, daddy, on the back of the map was a picture of a boy. I knew if I could build the boy right, the world ought to come out right, too."

James Whiteker

Jim, president of the Simon Kenton Chapter of F. F. A., is also State President of the Future Retailers of America, and a member of whom we are proud, for his leadership ability and cooperative attitude.

He is the son of George Whiteker of Bristow Road, Walton, Ky., Route 1.

Vocational Agriculture In The Rural High School

Vocational agriculture in rural high schools came into existence with the passage of the Smith-Hughes Bill by Congress in 1917. The bill provided for financial aid to help defray the expense of Vocational Agriculture Departments for schools desiring the training. The program has seen tremendous growth in 36 years. Nearly every high school in the United States, Puerto Rico and Hawaii, where vocational training in agriculture is needed, has a department as a regular part of the school.

A complete Vocational Agriculture Department renders service to not only high school boys but to adult farmers, young farmers, and veterans institutional on-farm trainees. The Future Farmers of America organization is a regular part of the high school program, and a part which is very essential to the high school farm boy.

Simon Kenton High School Department of Vocational Agriculture has been organized for about 15 years. Many of Kenton County's present farmers studied vocational agriculture. About 175 veterans of World War II have received training through the local agriculture department, with 25 presently enrolled. During the past four years, approximately 75 adult farmers have attended vocational agriculture classes at Simon Kenton High School. About 35 young farmers from the ages of 18-25 have received systematic instruction in agriculture.

At present, 43 boys make up the regular high school portion of the total vocational agriculture program at Simon Kenton.

Boys who enroll in vocational agriculture must be able to and have the facilities for carrying out small farming programs of their own, so that he can put into practice those improved farm practices studied in class. Unless a boy receives full cooperation from his parents, he cannot receive the fullest benefits that vocational agriculture and the F. F. A. offer him.

Vocational education in agriculture has made a big contribution to the improved farming methods used by farmers over the entire nation.

Twenty-seven Spencer county 4-H club members sold 21,284 pounds of tobacco at the district sale, for an average of $53.67 per 100 pounds.

The History, Growth and Purposes of The F. F. A.

The Future Farmers of America organization had its beginning in Kansas City, Missouri, in 1928. It began with only a few boys studying vocational agriculture and in 23 years has grown to approximately 320,000 members in 48 states, Puerto Rico and Hawaii. There are about 8,000 local chapters of Future Farmers in America. The ages of boys enrolled range from 14 to 21 years.

The organization operated under a cooperative charter issued by the State of Virginia until last year when the Congress of the United States passed public law 740 granting the F. F. A. a federal charter of incorporation.

Vocational agriculture education in the nation's rural high schools and the Future Farmers of America organization are contributing substantially to the education of farm boys in the skills that will enable them to become successfully established in farming, and provides participating experiences to help develop to the fullest extent the boy's abilities in rural leadership, and American citizenship.

It is fitting and essential that recognition should be given these young farmers as they prepare for a future in the chosen occupation of farming. Encouragement in their work at this point in their training will do much to stimulate them to harder study and greater achievement.

National F. F. A. Week is scheduled to focus attention on the work of this group of Future Farmers of today, who will be the successful farmers of tomorrow.

At present, the chapter has a membership of 43 "rural" farm boys, who are active and who believe in the F. F. A. The Future Farmers of America organization offers much to American farm boys who are interested in making farming a "profession."

Leadership training, community betterment, cooperation, character, citizenship, recreation, and a will to work for a cause are some of the ideals on which the F. F. A. is founded.

Some quotations from the F. F. A. Creed:

"I believe in the future of farming, with a faith born not of words but of deeds."

"I believe in leadership from myself and respect from others."

"I believe in more power bargaining and less dependence in begging."

"I believe in being happy myself and playing fair with those whose happiness depends upon me."

"I believe that rural America can and will hold true to the best traditions of our national life and that I can exert an influence in my home and community that will stand solid for my part in that inspiring task."

Gerald Dixon, Jr.

Dixon is shown in his half-acre strawberry patch in Devon, Ky. Jerry is a senior in Vocational Agriculture and this is one of the projects in his supervised farming program.

Bobby Gibson

Young Gibson, the son of W. S. Gibson of the L.L. Highway, Independence, Ky., is pictured here starting his baby chicks under the brooder. Bobby is a senior in Vocational Agriculture and has filed an application for his State Farmer Degree this year.

Hypocrites

Lesson for March 1, 1953

"HYPOCRITE" is a bad word. You should be careful about calling people hypocrites, because perhaps you do not quite mean it. A hypocrite is not the same thing as a weak Christian, or a stumbling Christian, or a half-developed Christian, a 50 per cent Christian. These are pretty common; the regular simon-pure hypocrite is a rarer bird. A hypocrite is a person who is knowingly and intentionally bad, and has no intention of being anything else; but he puts on a mask or disguise of goodness. It is only a front, he does not mean a bit of it. He is just a devil playing angel. Such persons may be somewhat rare, but they do exist. They are to be found in the church, they are high up in the state. No walk of life is altogether free from them.

They Will Not Lift A Finger

Almost the entire 23rd chapter of Matthew is devoted to Jesus' slashing attack on the hypocrites he knew. The modern reader will be struck by certain family resemblances between hypocrites of all eras. Jesus, be it noted, was talking about the religious "experts" of his time, the men who correspond to today's big city preachers, professors of theology, Bible teachers and so on. He did not mean to say that they were all hypocrites but definitely some of them were.

One mark of the hypocrite is that he preaches but does not practice. As Jesus puts it, he lays heavy burdens on other men but he will not lift a finger to help carry such a load himself. Common modern examples of this kind of person include the politician who yells distractedly about dishonesty in the other party but hush-hushes all the irregularities in his own; the business man who demands that others why can't have honesty in government while all the time he and his firm are carrying on crooked deals; the young man who demands that his sweetheart must be true to him while he carries on with one girl after another. Insisting that others live up to a standard we will not accept ourselves, is what Jesus called hypocrisy.

They Want To Face The Cameras

A cartoon shows a football team in a huddle. The captain is saying: "Let's try a run around the other end. Never mind if you're not facing the television cameras!" Any one who can remember seeing the great political conventions of last summer on television will recall how time after time the roll call would be slowed down by some one demanding a poll of the delegation. Shrewd observers remarked that in numbers of cases there was no real doubt about the accuracy of the vote; there was no good reason except that for a few brief moments the man who asked for the re-count would have the cameras trained on this playing for the grand-stand, scene-stealing, all that sort of thing, is part of what our Lord calls being a hypocrite. In fact the very word "hypocrite" in Greek means an actor.

This world is full of actors and they are not all on the stage. Even in the pulpit we can sometimes see men who think more of what the Monday papers will say about their sermons than of what God will say. A good reputation is a good thing to have; it is not to be despised.

Frosting and Gravy

Furthermore, hypocrites are excessively fond of all the outward signs and benefits of being (or being thought to be) "big shots." Every once in a while the newspapers tell of some man who has pretended to be some European count or other titled gentleman. Imitating the manners of the aristocrat, he lives off quite a number of gullible people before the police catch up with him. Now the true aristocrat is a responsible person; he carries many responsibilities. Titles and so on are incidental. But the bogus aristocrat is irresponsible; all he cares about is glamor. Now you can't make a poor cake good by giving it thick coat of frosting; you can't make a tough steak tender by slathering it with gravy. It takes more than frosting and gravy to make a good meal. But the hypocrite, in the church or out, cares more for life's cover-up than for what is underneath.

"THE GREAT DIVIDE"

In the great Mid-West of our country stands one of the miracles of nature called "The Great Divide." Here, if a drop of water falls to the west of the divide, it goes on and on into the Pacific Ocean. If it falls to the east, it flows until it reaches the Atlantic Ocean.

In our lives, little "divides" cause us to swerve to the right or to the left; toward the thing that is right or the thing that is wrong and sinful. Little things? No, not as little as they seem, for often a little deed changes the whole course of one's life, or the life of another.

Of ourselves we can do nothing, but help is near. The Church stands ready, offering us the sure hand of Christian faith. Here we can find strength to make the right decision at every "divide" in life's way.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest force on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization nor reason why every person should support the Church. They are: (1) children's souls. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plans to go to Bible study.

Staffordburg Homemakers

"Picture Hanging," was the lesson presented to the Staffordburg Homemakers at the February meeting. Mrs. John Shaw, leader, told the club that "Good pictures properly hung can add beauty and taste to a room. Do not hang a flowered picture or a small picture on large flowered wallpaper. If you have a piano, don't load it down with pictures. Spacing and arrangement are also important in picture hanging."

Mrs. Bluch Rich was hostess, with Mrs. Mabel Vanlandingham assisting her.

The Advisory Council report was given by Mrs. Ralph Howard, vice president. Mrs. Shirley Halderman read Psalm 145 for the devotion. A beautiful poem, "Things I Have Loved," by Edith Emily Humphrey, was read by Mrs. J. B. Barnett. An exciting white elephant sale was held in the afternoon, with Mrs. Bluch Rich swinging the hammer as auctioneer.

These 25 members and 16 guests attended: Mesdames J. J. Barnett, Howard Barnett, Ernest Ryle, Mabel Vanlandingham, J. A. Keeney, J. C. Beall, Roy Payne, Hollie Carr, Dancer Binder, Clint Henry, Bluch Rich, L. J. Rapp, L. M. Deuser, Ralph Howard, John McClure, Shirley Halderman, Emil Stein, Edith Ware, William Gasker, H. L. Faulkner, John Shaw, George Klein, Chester Hill, Stella Richardson, William Binder, members.

Mesdames Earl Wiseman, C. Roll, J. M. Leimiller, F. Johnson, Herbert Barrow, Mary Binder, Ray Howard, E. Nehring, L. Kuhlman, Virgie Miller, Joe Blou, M. Blou, Shaller Marshall, D. B. Vanlandingham, William Rich, and Miss Minnie Rapp, guests.

BOTTLED GAS VIOLATORS NOTED BY FIRE MARSHAL

Rigid enforcement of laws affecting the handling of liquefied petroleum gas was promised today by the State Fire Marshal's office, Frankfort, following complaints of violations in filling bottled gas containers, especially in trailer parks. State Fire Marshal J. T. Underwood, Jr., reminded dealers that the law provides that all containers, upon being recharged, shall be provided with excess flow or back flow check valves to prevent the discharge of contents in case of failure of either filling or equalizing connections.

The law also provides that skid tanks and similar appliances must be located not less than 50 feet from the nearest important building and that containers belonging to one dealer may not be filled by another without express consent. Violations of all three provisions have been noted.

Independence Homemakers

The Independence Homemakers Club met at the home of Mrs. Frank Cox on McMillan Drive. The morning session was devoted to business and committee reports. Pennies for Friendship were collected and the amount was $3.00. Mrs. Nienhaus, reading chairman, read a poem and reported 14 books and 46 magazines were read by members in January. Mrs. Yogan Wayman, exterior beautification chairman, gave a timely lesson for outdoor planting. Trees, she said, should be selected and set according to location, livability and beauty, not just because of a fondness for a species. Instructions for planting bittersweet were given, to provide winter decoration next fall.

The major project lesson, "A Spending Plan," was given by Mrs. John Leslie and her mother, Mrs. Foster Armstrong. Members were urged to keep a record of household funds and plan ahead for items desired to be purchased. Get something-for-nothing money and avoid evaporated spending. Games, prizes, and an auction sale concluded the meeting.

Attending were Mrs. Leslie Wagner, Mrs. J. C. Reynolds, Mrs. J. H. Houston, Mrs. Walter Moser and son, David, Mrs. William House, Mrs. A. Nienhaus, Mrs. Logan Wayman, Mrs. Cleo Snelson, Mrs. C. Davis, Mrs. Foster Armstrong, Mrs. John Leslie, and Mrs. Frank Cox.

Piner W.M.S. Meets

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Piner Baptist Church met in the church basement January 27. Fourteen members and a visitor answered roll call with a scripture verse. Tithing of time, talent and money was urged by Mrs. Agnes McMillan, Stewardship chairman. Five new goals for the W. M. S. in '53, were discussed.

A Mission Study course was taught by Mrs. Libby Tyner at the church, on February 18. The group also discussed things to do for the ill in the community. It was also decided to buy utensils for the church kitchen. Mrs. Myrtle Bell and Mrs. Frances Gross are the committee for planning the church kitchen. Dishes and silverware are now being bought.

The collection for the day was $12.06. After lunch, all present participated in the Royal Service program, entitled, "Baptist Women Around the World."

Closing prayer was by Mrs. Gross. Those present were Miss Lucy Beighle, Myrtle Bell, Mary Elliott, Lorena Forhan, Ruby Linder, Nettie Monry, Agnes McMillan, Christine Oliver, Waurdop Rich, Libby Tyner, Frances Gross, Mary Oliver, Cecil Belev and Miss Edith Meh-eefe. Mrs. Hazel Mullins was a visitor. We will meet February 24th at the church, for the next regular meeting.

Sixty-eight barge lines are authorized to serve Kentucky parts along the Ohio river.

GLENCOE

Dr. Salem's widow is very low at this time, we are sorry to report.

Mrs. Ella Beal is not so well lately. We hope for her speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Allie Ruth Brock and daughter spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Laura Connelly.

A Bible study will be taught at the Baptist Church by Bro. Frank Rhodes of Warsaw, starting Thursday night. Come out and hear him explain, in a very fine way and enjoy a blessing.

Mr. and Mrs. Elfric Henderson are confined with the flu. We request your prayers for these fine Christian people.

A new store will open at the Brock and Connelly property, this week, by Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Black of Walton. We welcome these fine people to our town.

Hazel and Bell Kemper and, Willina Jones of Indianapolis, Ind., spent the weekend with Mrs. Laura Connelly.

MIDNIGHT MARCH 1st IS LICENSE DEADLINE

Midnight, March 1, is the deadline for purchase of 1953 motor vehicle license plates. After March 1 motorists who do not have 1953 plates on their vehicles will be subject to arrest and fine. This is a reminder issued today by the Department of Revenue, Frankfort.

New registrations have been on sale in the offices of county clerks since January 2. A large number of vehicles have been registered, but the usual rush is expected for the last days in February. Those who wait until the last minute may experience delay and inconvenience, the department warns.

A vehicle owner who moves into Kentucky from another state must buy a Kentucky license immediately.

SANCTIFICATION

Q—Is this word defined in the holy scriptures?
A—It is not.
Q—How then may we know what it means?
A—By the use of the word in the sentence.
Q—What is the first instance of it mentioned in the Bible?
A—Gen. 2:3, "And God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it."
Q—What did God do when He sanctified the Sabbath?
A—He set it apart as a day of rest from natural toil.
Q—Then does sanctification mean a setting apart?

A—Yes.
Q—Can this definition be generally applied in all Bible references?
A—Yes.
Q—What other things are spoken of as being sanctified?
A—The tabernacle (Ex. 29:44), the altar (Ex. 29:44), a fast (Joel 2:15), etc.
Q—What persons are spoken of as being sanctified?
A—The firstborn (Ex. 13:2), the people (Ex. 19:10), the priests (Lev. 8:30), God (1 Pet. 3:15), Christ (Uo. 17:19).
Q—What conclusions do we arrive at from these references?
A—That depends upon the sanctifier and the purpose whereunto persons or things are sanctified as to what the sanctifying or setting apart really means. Since the sanctification usually spoken of in connection with the children of God means a setting apart through the power of God to His service, it becomes a synonym of holiness. Hence, when we speak of true evangelical sanctification, we mean holiness.
Q—What importance does the Bible place upon holiness?
A—Without it, no man can see the Lord (Heb. 12:14).
Q—Does this mean, no sanctification, no salvation?
A—Yes.
Q—What about the theory of first conversion, then a wilderness experience, and then sanctification?
A—The Bible is silent on this theory.
Q—Does the Bible require a greater degree of consecration for sanctification than for conversion?
A—No.
Q—Is not Christian perfection a result of sanctification?
A—Christian perfection is assured as an evidence of the new birth (1 Jno. 3:8-9).
Q—Does not the Bible teach a purified life through the baptism of the Holy Ghost?
A—The blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin (1 Jno. 1:7).
Q—Who are mentioned in the work of sanctification?
A—The Father (Uo. 10:36), Christ (1 Cor. 1:30), the Holy Ghost (Rom. 16:16), the Word (1 Tim. 4:5).
Q—What does sanctification procure for us?
A—A union with Christ (Heb. 2:11), Christian perfection (Heb. 10:14), separation from the world (Rom. 12:1-2, 11 Cor. 6:14-18), purification (1 Tim. 2:21), eternal inheritance (Acts 26:18).
Q—May a man be sanctified and still continue in his sins?
A—"He that committeth sin is of the devil" (1 Jno. 3:8).
Q—What is said of those who belong to Christ?
A—"They that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts" (Gal. 5:24).
Q—What is the Gospel standard of sanctification?
A—"And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ," (1 Thess. 5:23).

Master Homemakers Named at Meeting

Mrs. Henry Hall of Pulaski county, and Mrs. J. Lewis Judy of Harrison county, were recognized at Kentucky's Master Farm Homemakers of 1953 of the Farm and Home Convention in Lexington. They represented, respectively, the Wolfe Creek Dam and Northern Kentucky Districts.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall live on a general farm of 198 acres. Although they have no children, they have helped several young people through school.

Their 8-room log house is an interesting combination of the new and the old. In the kitchen, which has been modernized with electric equipment, the open fireplace is flanked by all. The new carpeting on the living room floor was woven by Mrs. Hall and her sister, who makes her home there, and many places of antique furniture have been refinished by them. A complete bathroom has been installed.

The philosophy of this thrifty homemaker is expressed in the statement: "We rise early and go quickly to work on routine tasks. It is putting off and complaining about them that makes such tasks hard. Don't talk about them. Do them."

Mrs. Hall is active in church and Red Cross work, and is a member of the Pisgah Homemakers Club.

Community activities have claimed an important share of the time of Mrs. J. Lewis Judy. She was the first president of the Oddville Homemakers Club, helped organize the Parent-Teachers Association, worked at the polls and for school consolidation and Red Cross. She is active in church, and is a member of the Farm Bureau and Harrison County Homemakers Chorus.

Mr. and Mrs. Judy started farming in 1922 on their 63-acre farm, adding to it until they now have 200 acres. "We have tried to be good stewards of the land for the next generation," she said.

Right now you can have your pick of three vegetable-growing tractors—the Farmall Cub, Super-A, and C. They all have fingertip Farmall Touch-Control—and matched, quick-change multiple-row implements. Farming's a snap with Super-A's hydraulic implement control. Just ask about it... I'll be glad to explain how it saves not only your time but also your money.

Wilmington WMS

The Wilmington Baptist Missionary Society met February 4, at the home of Mrs. R. L. Alsip. Sixteen members answered roll call. There was also one man and one child present.

It was voted to send $10 to Piner School to buy school lunches for needy children. A love gift was sent to Hazel Works, formerly of this community, who is now studying in Blue Mountain, Miss. She plans to be a missionary.

A letter was read from Rev. Peter Lee, a Chinese missionary, and one from Mrs. Lydia Taylor, a former member, who is now in the Daughters of America home in Tiffin, Ohio. There were 106 cards from 58 visits made to the sick during the past month.

A delicious lunch was served, after which the Royal Service program was presented. All members participated.

The program was conducted by Mrs. Hazel Kidwell. The society was favored by thirty minutes of instrumental music and songs by Louise Alsip.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Nell Rapp.

State Fishing Regulations

The State Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources announced this week that the size limit for bass taken from Lake Cumberland had been removed, but a daily creel limit of 10 was retained. The regulation, effective Jan. 31, will continue through 1953, and applies to Lake Cumberland alone. A ten-inch size limit and 10 creel limit for all other waters of Kentucky is retained. March 1 through April 30 was designated as open gillnet season, with a bag limit of 15 per day. Gillnetting will be open in the specified season for all streams, except Elk Horn Creek, Dix River, Kinnickinnick, Triplett, Red River, Harrods Creek, Tygart Creek, North Fork of Kentucky River from Hazard upstream and including tributaries.

The Division of Weights and Measures of the State Department of Agriculture is charged with the responsibility of checking all weighing and measuring devices in the state—from grocery scales to gasoline pumps.

FLORENCE

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Vilcofsky and Mrs. Irene Matthew of Dayton, Ky., were the Sunday guests of Mrs. Clara Conner.

Regret to report Mrs. Bertha Dixon as being confined to Booth Hospital for Mrs. Robert Surface devoted the major part of her time the past week, aside from her own family, to her father, Ray Gardner, who was confined to Christ Hospital, Cincinnati, due to minor surgery. However, he has returned to the home in Williamstown, and is convalescing.

Rev. and Mrs. Paternoster and three children of Indianapolis, Ind., are guests of Dr. Gladys L. Rouse and Mr. Rouse. Rev. Paternoster was a former pastor of the local Christian Church.

Miss Billie Baker and father, Lute Baker, and Mrs. Chas. Thompson, all of Fort Thomas, were calling on the Geo. B. Millers, Saturday.

Dr. N. A. Jett enjoyed a visit recently with a daughter, Mrs. Lucille Dehlinger, of Covington.

Mrs. W. R. Miller was a luncheon guest of Mrs. Sidney of Sanders Drive, on Monday of last week.

Welcome guests at the local Methodist Church were Rev. and Mrs. Downs and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, all of Ontario, Canada, who paused enroute to worship at the morning service.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Surface and son were calling on friends in Nicholasville, Sunday afternoon.

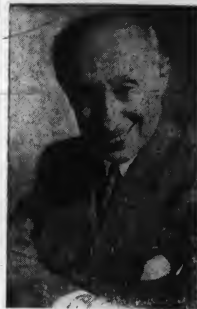

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Dolwick, Jr., Saturday afternoon and evening, were Mrs. Geo. Miller and son, Blayne, and H. B. Simpson.

The Florence basketball team, and coach, Geo. Maines, attended, in a body and were given recognition, at the local Methodist Church, Sunday morning.

Mrs. Lloyd Rouse recently had as a guest, her sister from Texas.

Numbered among the ill were Mrs. Chas. Carpenter, the Albert Lucas family and the Will Carpenter family of Tanners Lane.

Billy R. Markesbery and Alan Utz, Jr. both of U. K., enjoyed the weekend at their homes here.

WLW's Joe E. Marks, veteran of 40 years in show business, reminisces with WLW listeners about exciting incidents and clever anecdotes connected with the stars of old-time vaudeville, Broadway plays, movies, radio and television with whom he has been associated during his career. "Joe E. Marks Presents" is heard at 4:45 p. m., EST, Saturdays.

Frank Rouse of Richmond, was recently a visitor at his brother Carl. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Miller were the center of felicitations Friday evening, when friends and members of their family assembled at their home to honor them on the occasion of their 54th wedding anniversary. Honored also on this occasion was Mr. Miller's sister, Mrs. Fred Holden of Ludlow, who was celebrating a birthday. A delicious buffet dinner was served, after which guests enjoyed a fine time socially. Guests enjoying the happy occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hogan, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Miller, Mrs. Holden, Blayne Miller, H. B. Simpson, Mrs. P. J. Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Miller. Guests departed, wishing the celebrants many happy returns of the day.

We all enjoy the articles in the Advertiser contributed by Conrad Hardware and hope they will continue appearing in the paper.

Thomas McHenry remains ill at his home on Shelby Street.

ADDITIONAL VERONA NEWS—

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Webster are the proud parents of a son, born Feb. 16, weighing 6 pounds, 7 1/2 ounces, and named Terry David.

Mrs. Gertrude Webster had as guests the past weekend to see the new baby, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bishop and son, Mrs. Flossie Hepp and daughters, Mrs. Ethel Webster and Dale, Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Webster and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Harve Webster and children, and Mrs. Claudia Kendall.

STATE TROOPERS RECORD 3,319 TRAFFIC ARRESTS

HIGHWAY DEATH RATE RUNNING AHEAD OF '52

Kentucky's highway death rate is running ahead of the 1952 rate, according to a report today by the State Police. Through January 27, there had been 55 fatalities, compared to 51 at the same date last year.

There were 795 deaths for all of 1952, and 12,000 persons were injured, the report stated. The figures are a gain of 53 killed and 1,500 injured over 1951. The number of accidents jumped from 28,604 in 1951 to more than 30,000 last year.

Speeding and drunken driving were the two major causes of last year's accidents, the reported noted.

Green and white 4-H club gate signs are seen on farm entrances in almost every section of Rowan county.

HOT WATER

This city of Hot Springs, Ark., must be sitting on a big ocean of hot water, because the city is in a valley and water comes out of the mountain on all sides of 147 degrees temperature, which they use for giving baths in at both houses and it boils out of drinking fountains along the sidewalk—you have to catch it in a cup and cool it before you can drink it. The colored fellows in the both houses say there must be an underground volcano that heats this water and if it ever lets go, it will be hard to tell what will happen.

This water has no color or no odor—it is clear with lots of minerals in it. You never get full drinking it. You can drink a pitcher of it and still could hold more. People come here from everywhere. I heard a lady from Canada, about 2,000 miles from here, say she had been here every year in February for the past 12 years—she was in a wheel chair the first time she came, but went home walking as well as anyone. They carried Eddie Rich, a fellow from Sarasota, Fla., off the plane a week ago—last night he walked, with a cane, across the hotel lobby.

When they are so bad they can't put them in the tub, they swing them in a pool—in a few days they are in the tub. About a week ago I saw an old man from Wisconsin try to walk across the lobby—he took steps about six inches long—last night he and his wife took a taxi and went out on the other side of town to visit. I have heard people say there was nothing to this water, they could take a hot bath at home, but you see cases like these, who have been everywhere and tried most everything and then be able to use themselves again.

I have been here several times and I always write a little about it—I suppose people get tired reading about Hot Springs, but I am really sold on this place, because I have seen results. They have some of the best doctors here and good hospitals. The rooms are reasonable—you can get a room for $1.50 to $2.50—just whatever you want to pay. The food is cheaper than at home. The baths and massages are cheap, so it doesn't take a lot of money to spend a few weeks in Hot Springs, and I'll guarantee you will feel better and live longer.

I don't know what that is going on in Walton, as I am 700 miles away. Mother writes me some of the news and I get the Advertiser—then I call now and now to see how Chick and Brewster are doing. They said they had been selling some rubber tired wagons, some Dayton water systems, and kitchen sinks. I have talked to big men in all kinds of business, from all parts of the country, about business in 1953—everyone says it will be a good year if people don't get scared and stop spending money, which will hurt them along with us.

If the public would keep this money coming in and going out, like in past ten years, we will always have good times. Maybe not like war times, which we all have would stop, but a moderate business. You meet all kinds here in this big hotel lobby—most of them have been successful and worked and made what they have—now they are trying to enjoy part of it.

The sun is hot here today—the people are sitting all over these mountain sides and in the parks—some girls from Chicago are up behind the hotel taking sun baths—this is February 18. Some of the sun bathers are as brown as if they were in Florida. Some ball-headed guy from Chicago, sunburned his head; a Jew with a big nose, sunburned that nose and was it red? We see all sights here—city people, country people, and all nationalities mixed together, but a fine group and they all get along together—in what other country could this be done!

I talked to a banker from Bay City, Wis., a long time today—he was a Democrat, but voted for Ike and thinks this next four years will be prosperous, maybe not as wild as past ten years, but we have to level off somewhere without a crash. He said, and we all know that in the past ten years, we all have had more than ever in history. We have built homes, more home equipment, better farm machinery, electricity, better cars and trucks. In fact, we have had the best ten years ever in history. But now we will also have good living but a little slower and cautious.

We don't see any television or hear very little radio out here in the mountains. We see a Louisville paper once in a while. We saw about the wreck and Chief Groger and his Fire Department right on the job. I suppose Chick was there, as he takes off like a jet when that whistle blows. He was waiting on a stranger selling him some fence one day and the whistle blew—he took right down the driveway, never said a word—the fellow came in the side door and wanted to know if he had running fits or worse, was wrong with him, so I explained that he was a very good fireman and generally the first one there to drive that engine. He is the same way working at CONRAD HARDWARE—he puts all he has in a day's work. He and Brewster do a very good job, I think, day after day, and year after year—where could you beat them for service—the kind you get at CONRAD HARDWARE. I watch other clerks in my travels and appreciate what I have at home. You try it some time yourself, and see what we give you that others do not.

Dr. Patton To Speak at Opening Of S. S. Rooms

"Sunday, March 8, will be a glad day for the Walton Methodists and their helpful friends, in the formal opening of their new Sunday school rooms," said the pastor, Rev. G. W. Hoffman.

"These rooms," Rev. Hoffman continued, "answer a real need and will help much in the church meeting their responsibility for the moral and spiritual instruction to the present and future generation, who live in and about Walton. Everyone is valiantly working to reach the goal of 200 in our Sunday School, Sunday morning."

"We give a hearty invitation," the pastor added, "to all those who do not attend any Sunday school, to be present Sunday at 10 a. m., and become a regular attendant. Every member of the church and Sunday school are expected to be present, unless sickness prevents. Let us make this a real Rally Day—a day long to be remembered and cherished. Pray much for the success of this day, that a real spiritual advance may be made—without this, as a tie to bind us to the Sunday school and church, there will be no lasting value to a large numerical attendance. We want to reach our goal of 200, but we want this increase to be a means to an end, and that being spiritual betterment."

Three services are scheduled: Sunday School at 10 a. m., morning worship at 11 a. m., and afternoon services at 2:30, at which time the Sunday School rooms will be officially opened. Dr. R. R. Patton, District Superintendent, will be present, and will deliver a gospel message. The pastor and congregation will also have a definite part in the program.

A covered dish dinner will be served, following the morning services.

FISKBURG D. OF A. PRESENT BIBLE AND FLAG

A Bible and Flag Presentation by the Fiskburg Council, No. 59, Daughters of America, on Sunday, March 8, at 2:30 p. m., at the Piner Elementary School.

Speakers are to be Rev. Maurice Coers, minister of Immanuel Baptist Church, Covington; Miss Hester Runner, Past National Councilor, Louisville, and Melvin Shubbs, Covington. The program will also include vocal selections, presentations by Piner students, and music.

Piner 4-H Club Meets Feb. 27, Program Enjoyed

The Busy Bee 4-H Club of the Piner school met in the school auditorium on Friday, February 27, at 10:30 a. m. After a brief business session, with Betty Jane Cook, president, in charge, the following program was presented:

Talk, Clothing 1, Patricia Fisk; piano solo, "Dixie," Kay Bailey; talk, Clothing 2, Patsy Cross; "Safety," Tommy Huffman; Catherine Jones, Harry Seebie and Jean Brooks; talk, Clothing 11, Joyce Kneisel; 4-H Creed, Larry Mullins; Jerry Sipple, Sandra Hord and Betty Cook; piano solo, "My Darling Clementine," Sarah Stahl; talk, Beef Calf, Robert Rich; song, "Yodeling," Alice F. Worick; talk, Larry Mullins; poem, "Piner 4-H Club," James Younger; talk, Grooming, Mary Godsey; dance, "Turkey in the Straw," Mariann Baker; skit, "Safety," Larry Mullins, Kay Bailey, Deanna Poindecker and Ruth Cornelius; song "Dreaming," Alice F. Worick; play, "If Washington Should Return," by fifth grade. Remarks were made by Mr. W. R. Brown and Mrs. Irene Mann, local leaders.

The club was honored to have Miss Zelma Byerly, Kenton County Home Demonstration Agent, and Mrs. Oliver of Lexington, as guests, and both gave brief talks.—Reporter

UTOPIA BANQUET

The Northern Kentucky District Utopia banquet will be held in Kenton County on Saturday, March 7. The district includes Campbell, Boone, Gallatin, Kenton and Owen Counties.

The business session will start at 6:00 p. m., and the banquet will be held at Pleasure Isle, near Independence. After the banquet, Phoebe Ross from the University of Kentucky, will be in charge of recreation. Carl Jones, director of Older Youth's work, will be present. The Kenton County Utopia Club will be host to the District conference, at which Boone County Utopians will present and take an active part.

Brenda Hollis, who appears on "Morning Matinee," WLWT, was in Walton this week, taking pictures of Ye Editor and Malcolm Simpson, which will be used on television in connection with a contest which you will hear more about later.

Two Persons Pass The County Tax Commissioner Test

Two persons from Boone County passed the examination given by the State Department of Revenue for prospective county tax commissioners. Those passing and thus becoming eligible to run for the office this year are: Gilby L. Greene and Lucile C. Stephens of Burlington.

The incumbent will also be eligible because the law does not require persons holding the office to take the exam. All other prospective candidates must pass the examination and at least two persons, including the incumbent, must be eligible as candidates in each county.

Of 276 persons throughout the state who took the test, 184 passed. There were no qualifications in 33 counties and further examinations will be given for these counties. This group included Gallatin, and Grant, in this area.

FREE CHICK DAY

Saturday, March 14, will be "Free Chick Day" in Covington, with the J. H. Fedders Food Co., local Purina Chow dealers, giving away 20 day-old cockerles to the first 250 adults to enter the store after the regular opening at 7:30 a. m.

According to Bill Fedders, manager of the store, the chicks will be given away as part of a nation-wide program, sponsored by Purina dealers, to encourage more "backyard chicken flocks."

"A lot of folks would like to raise a few chickens for the Sunday dinner table," Mr. Fedders said, "and we have the program to help them do it, easily and economically—we're giving these chicks away to prove it."

INITIATED THETA CHI

Thomas Leathers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Webb Leathers, was initiated into the Theta Chi fraternity Sunday, February 15, at the chapter house at Illinois Wesleyan University, Bloomington, Ill.

Mr. Leathers, who attended Walton-Vernon High School, is now a junior at Wesleyan, majoring in Biology.

55 Pints Blood Collected At Boone Airport

Fifty-five pints of blood were taken at the Boone County airport when the Bloodmobile made its recent visit. Much appreciation is given all who worked so hard for this worthy project.

Volunteers from Hebron, Constance, Taylorsport and surrounding areas were given the required orientation course prior to work at the Bloodmobile visit. Mrs. Elizabeth C. Nestor, Executive Secretary, and Mrs. Mary Zema, of the Cincinnati Regional Blood Center, gave this instruction. Mrs. Jack Caldwell, Burlington, is chairman for nurses at all Bloodmobile visits, and Mrs. A. H. Gaines of Walton, is chapter chairman.

Have you ever really given serious thought to where this blood finally ends up? All the blood taken in this area is for defense alone. The minute the blood is taken from the arm of a Boone resident, it becomes the immediate property of the Defense Department, who send it to all parts of the world where United States troops are stationed. Try to picture an emergency hospital on the front lines—no lights, as we know them; an improvised building with gasoline lamps; doctors working under the greatest of handicaps of supplies and urgency of time; wounded men being brought in constantly on stretchers; some with arms or legs torn off, blind, or gaping wounds in their vital organs, blood soaked clothing, shock and exposure from Korea's severe weather; men screaming in pain and delirium and one thing for the most part, standing between them and death—BLOOD! Yes, folks, blood, and you do not give blood "to" the Red Cross, you give blood "through" the Red Cross. This organization is humbly grateful to have been selected by the United States Government to be the agency to collect this gift of life—blood. But the Red Cross can only get this blood to the fighting men and dying men, as well. If you pledge this blood when the Bloodmobile makes its regular visits. Remember this and the next time the Unit visits your community, do your bit, give a pint of blood!

ABOARD PITTSBURGH

While serving aboard the heavy cruiser USS Pittsburgh, Jesse L. Green, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Green, Walton, visited Karachi, the capital of Pakistan, last month.

The Pittsburgh will also visit Madras, India, and Colombo, Ceylon. In early March she will return to the Mediterranean and operate with the U. S. Sixth Fleet.

Simon Kenton High School Personalities

Miss Emily Walter, a senior at Simon Kenton High School, won the "What Christmas Means to Me" contest, sponsored by the First Federal Bank. Students from Northern Kentucky schools participated, and the prize was a $50 bond.

Miss Ida M. Greenfield, of Georgetown, came to Simon Kenton for the second semester. She has an A.B. Degree from Union State College, Nashville, Tenn., and a M.A. Degree from Peabody College, also of Nashville. Her majors are English, Latin.

Mr. Norvell also came to Simon Kenton for the second semester. He has an A.B. Degree from Eastern State College, Richmond, having majored in art and biology. He is from Danville, and did student teaching at Highlands.

Record Amount Spent Last Year By Ky. Tourists

Kentucky's tourist industry drew $393,804,064 into the state last year, according to a report made by Governor Lawrence W. Welch by. The figure is a new record and is $57,383,200 over the 1951 total.

"The 1952 figure pushes the total for the last six years to $1,598,217,961," the Governor reported. "This is money spent by out-of-state tourists alone, which means that it is income entirely new to Kentucky—money that would have been spent outside our borders if we had done nothing to attract it."

The tourist-dollar figures are established by the application of a formula based on gasoline consumption, origin and destination traffic counts and average amounts spent by tourists as determined by actual surveys.

Named to Angus Association

Wilford T. Tarvin, Walton, has been elected to membership in the American Aberdeen-Angus Breeders' Association at Chicago, announces Secretary Frank Richards.

Mr. Tarvin was one of the ten purebred Aberdeen-Angus breeders elected from Kentucky during the past month to membership in the organization.

"BUDDY" ROUSE HONORED

Asa M. "Buddy" Rouse, Walton, was among 17 outstanding students in the University of Kentucky College of Law during the first semester. He has been named by Dean Elvis J. Stahr as recipient of commendations and prizes based on good work.

Dean Stahr also announced that further prizes, which are in the form of valuable books, will be awarded in June.

RICHARD KOONS

Services were held Friday of last week at 2 p. m. in the Bellevue Baptist Church for Richard Koons, 77, a retired farmer, who died February 23 at the home of a cousin, Miss Ida Koons, Burlington, R-2. Burial was in Bellevue Cemetery, directed by Chambers & Grubbs Funeral Home, Florence.

Survivors include a son, Irvin Koons of Lorain, Ohio; three sisters, Mrs. Carl Koper and Mrs. Charles Hershler, both of Lawrenceburg, Ind., and Mrs. Charles Hughes of Burlington; five other cousins, three grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren.

MRS. JOHN M. LASSING

Services for Mrs. May Lassing, widow of Judge John M. Lassing, a former member of the Kentucky Court of Appeals and former judge of the 15th Kentucky Judicial District, were held at 2:30 p. m., Tuesday at the Chambers and Grubbs Funeral Home, Florence, /Rev. Don Hopkins, pastor of Crescent Springs Presbyterian Church, officiated. Burial was in Richmond Cemetery.

Mrs. Lassing, who was 78 years old, died last Saturday at St. Anthony Hospital, St. Petersburg, Fla., where she maintained a winter home. She occupied the Lassing residence in Burlington every summer.

Mrs. Lassing is survived by three sons, Warren, Robert and John Lassing, all of St. Petersburg, Fla.; a brother, Herbert Brady of Carrollton; two grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

She was a daughter of the late Robert and Susan Brady, members of pioneer Boone County families.

Kinman Candidate For Sheriff In Boone County

Byron B. Kinman, chief deputy under Boone County Sheriff W. H. Easton, formally announces his candidacy for nomination to the office of Sheriff of Boone County, subject to action of the voters in the Democratic primary, to be held Saturday, August 1, 1953.

Byron B. Kinman

Mr. Kinman, 41, has been a resident of Boone County for the past 25 years. He is a member of Burlington Lodge, No. 264, F. & A. M., a charter member of the Burlington Volunteer Fire Department Association, and is a deacon in the Burlington Baptist Church. A widower, he was married to the former Agnes Afterkirk of Union, who died one year ago. Mr. Kinman has four children, all living at home.

In making his formal bow to the voters of Boone County, Mr. Kinman makes the following statement: "I have never sought a political office in the past, but due to my experience as deputy sheriff of Boone County for the past four years, I feel that I am capable of serving the people in an efficient and honest manner."

"Boone County is known as one county where professional gamblers and racketeers have been unable to penetrate, thanks to the vigilance of its law enforcement officers. It has been my pleasure and privilege to have been a part of that diligent law enforcement. If the good people of Boone County see fit to elect me to the high office of Sheriff, I solemnly pledge to them my unremitting efforts to continue to keep Boone County safe from gambling and underworld interests. I will not be bribed. I cannot be coerced.

"I will make a special effort to see each voter in the county during the coming months, but should I fail to see any one, please be assured that it is unintentional, and your support is earnestly solicited and will be highly appreciated by me.

"If elected to the office which I seek, I will serve to the best of my ability, and will make every effort to keep Boone County one of the top counties in the state in law enforcement."

Kentucky's broad more population numbers about 4,000 estimated to be forth some $20 million.

In District Basketball Tourney at Florence

Those Boone County rivals of long standing, Walton-Vernon and Burlington met Tuesday night in the opening game of the 34th District basketball tournament at Florence, and when the final gun sounded, Walton had come from behind to take a 64-61 decision from Ralph Maurer's Eagles.

The game was a thriller throughout, with the lead changing hands 20 times and being tied eight times. Burlington held a 44-41 lead entering the closing period, but could not withstand the surge of Walton-Vernon.

The Bearcats led 12-11 at the end of the first period as Don Vest paced the winners' attack with six points and Smith added four more. Fair had three of the Eagles' points as the scoring was divided among five players. It was Burlington's turn in the second period and, with J. Ryle pitching in six straight points early in the period and adding three more the Eagles led after four minutes of play, but the winners were able to take a one-point lead at the half, 24-23.

Burlington took over a 44-41 lead at the end of the third period by outscoring Walton 21-17. J. Ryle had six in the period while Dingenburg added five and Cropper four. Vest had seven for the 'Cats, with Grubs adding four more.

Burlington lost the lead early in the fourth period when Smith tossed in seven straight points for Walton, but fought back to tie the score at 49-49 and again at 51-51 before the winners went out in front to stay. Smith had 13 total for W-V in the fourth period. J. Ryle had nine for the Eagles.

Burlington: J. Ryle 26, Dingenburg 8, Fair 10, Cropper 8, W. Ryle 9, and McFarland 0.

Walton-Vernon: Roberts 2, Mosley 11, Smith 22, Vest 21, Grubbs 8, and Mudman 0.

Hebron 72, Erlanger 65

R. D. Huey's Hebron Cardinals showed why they are champions of the Boone County Conference in defeating Erlanger Lloyd of the NKAC 72-65 in the second game of the season.

The Cards had many anxious moments but were ahead at all the quarter stops and enjoyed their biggest margin in the final period. The Hebron team led 14-11 at the end of the first period. Scoring was even in the second period as each team scored 19 points for a half-time score of 33-30.

The winners held a 15-14 advantage in the third period. Anderson scored six points in rapid succession to help Hebron to open the final period and the Cardinals were never headed.

Hebron: Anderson 19, Tanner 11, Cripser 23, Brautigan 13, Schneider 2, and Purcell 0.

Erlanger: Finck 9, Burgon 5, Eller 7, Schneider 26, Dudgeon 8, White 0.

Last Game of Season

The Bearcats won over the Burlington Eagles, Friday, February 27, to end their basketball season with a record of 12 wins and 11 losses.

The 'Cats played good ball all the way. At the first quarter Burlington was leading 14-11; at half-time Walton was in front 24-21; Walton had a 14-point lead in the third period, 43-29, and the final score, 55-44.

High point men for Walton were Smith and Vest with 18 each, and Mosley with 12. For Burlington, Warren Ryle had 16 and J. Ryle 14.

Burlington won the reserve game, 39 to 33.—Marie Martin

CAREY CARPENTER

Services for Carey W. Carpenter, of Florence, Route 1, were held at 11 a. m., Tuesday at the Florence Methodist Church. Burial was in Hopeful Cemetery.

Mr. Carpenter, who was 81 years old, died Saturday at the home of his son, Elmer.

He is survived by two other sons, Ven of Florence, and James of New Castle, Ind.; a sister, Mrs. El Carpenter of Walton; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Chambers & Grubbs Funeral Home, Florence, had charge of arrangements.

The Business Women's Circle of the Walton Baptist Church will meet this (March 5) evening at 7:45 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Johnson. Regular meeting and week of prayer will be observed.

Independence Homemakers

The Independence Homemakers Club will hold its March meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Davis, McMillan Drive, Independence. Roll call will be answered by relating an interesting experience in your life.

Luncheon will be served by the hostess and visitors are welcome. Thursday, March 12 is the date. Mrs. Cleo Snelson and Mrs. Aaron Nienhaus will present a lesson, "Little Things That Make A Room."

Ordination Service

An ordination service was held at the Independence Baptist Church last Sunday, and the following were ordained as deacons: George Riley, J. C. Armstrong, C. E. McGraw, John D. Breeden, Ruford Tyree, Jess Simpson. Many churches of the Northern Kentucky area were represented at this service.

Just A Thought—Sympathy is what one woman offers another in exchange for the details.

Farewell Party

A farewell party was given Johnnie and Virginia Mayhugh last Saturday evening at Oelsner's on the Dixie Highway, by their friends and neighbors. John and Virginia are making their home in Florida. They left Monday, March 2.

Atwood-Nicholson Homemakers

The next meeting of the Atwood-Nicholson Homemakers will be held in the home of Mrs. H. L. Pitcher, next Wednesday, March 11. Mrs. Pitcher lives on Harris Pike. (Would like for the secretary of this club to submit to me the activity and news for the Independence column.)

Community Party

Plans are being made for another Happy Hollow community party, to be held at Pleasure Isle, Saturday, March 21. The first party of this type was held last January and many of the neighbors requested that this get-together be held regularly, every three months, to be able to chat with many of the old neighbors that have moved away years ago. The friends and neighbors to be invited will be sent invitations a week in advance of the above date.

Accident

Last Saturday, Independence was the scene of a slight auto accident. It seems the wife of Amos Lawson, Jr., newly married since the Saturday before, made a left-hand turn from Banklick Station Road onto Main Street and instead of applying brakes, made a misstep and gave it the gas. Too late to straighten the car, it jumped the curb and crashed into the porch of Mrs. Bertha Moon's residence. No one was injured, but mighty shaken.

Walton Advertiser Readers

For something useful and enjoyable for that person in service, why not give him a subscription to the Walton Advertiser? Let that service fellow know what is going on in and near his community. It is something that will last and he will share all the home-town happenings as though he were home. Those long evening hours, when he is just lying around wondering what his friends are doing at home, he could know, if he had received his home-town paper. The Walton Advertiser has more of his type of news than any of the other newspapers printed around here. A $3.00 gift spent this way will cover a full year of enjoyment for him, but remember, give his full name, rank, serial number, and address, and caution him to give his forwarding address immediately when known to him.

Fire Call

Last Saturday at 1 p. m., two calls were received at the Fire House within 10 minutes apart. The first was a grass fire at Jerry Teegarden's on Bowman Road; no damage; the second was to Russell Carter's on Pelly Road; also a grass fire and no damage.

O. E. S., 493

The next regular meeting of Eastern Star Chapter, 493, will be held Tuesday, March 10 at 8 p. m. The presiding officers will be Dorothy Finney, Worthy Matron, and Robert West, Worthy Patron. All members are invited to attend.

Personal Interest

Dickie, Lata and their daughter, Sarah Lynne, made a trip home from Lexington, last weekend. Sarah L.'s bed composed of the dresser drawer.

Almo Knox is helping out at the County Clerk's office, due to the tremendous rush for auto tags.

Gayle England will be working for the Kenton County Matrone soon. He will take Elmer Dedden's place, as Elmer has purchased the Sunoco Gas Station, Starrett and Madison, Covington.

Margaret Shropshire visited her mother in Georgetown, recently.

Hubert Baird and family visited his wife's sister at Midway, recently.

Paula Wernuth has the flu and is under a doctor's care.

Bill Waltherman was sick, but he is up and going again now.

When Neighbors WORK TOGETHER ... They Find the BEST ANSWERS

Before farmers began working together in their national farm loan associations they were at the mercy of the money lenders. Interest rates were high, renewals were expensive if available at all, commissions were expensive, loans were made for short terms—everything was in favor of the lender.

Then, in 1917, farmers began working together cooperatively through their national farm loan associations and Federal Land Banks to get the BEST in farm loan service. In the years since the Federal Land Bank system was established there have been more improvements in the farm loan service available to farm families than in all the history of the United States up to that time.

It is generally recognized that every major improvement in farm mortgage loans during the past 35 years has been pioneered by the Federal Land Banks and national farm loan associations.

One of these improvements is our low 4% interest rate. Many lenders have raised their interest rates but the Federal Land Bank of Louisville still maintains its rate at the same low 4% that has been in effect since 1935. And the long-term without renewals, the privilege to prepay any amount at any time without penalty, no application fees, no appraisal fees, the future payment fund program, loans based on normal agricultural values—are other improvements.

Working together gives them an opportunity to continue pioneering in making "The BEST farm loan in America" an even better loan.

FOR KENTUCKY FOLKS

by Wm. C. Johnstone
AGRICULTURAL REPRESENTATIVE
KENTUCKY BANKERS ASSOCIATION

CORN FACTS: Corn planting time is just around the corner and its not too early to start preparations for record yields in 1953. Yields of 75 to 100 bushels are becoming common in Kentucky, and we should look forward to average state yields of 50 bushels in the near future. The highest average state yield to date was 41 bushels in 1948.

Higher yields will come from better land use—keeping corn on more level land; testing soil and using an abundance of needed plant food; planting to get 10 to 12 thousand plants per acre; side dressing with nitrogen and controlling weeds.

Kentucky-produced certified hybrid seed corn is still the best kind to plant. Ky. 103 to US 13 are the best yellow hybrids and Ky. 203 to US 523W are tops in white kinds.

Some folks still burn corn stalks. They probably don't realize that as much nitrogen is lost by burning one ton of stalks as is contained in 15 to 18 bushels of corn. Erosion on an average Kentucky hillside is estimated to cause 22 times more loss of soil nutrients than is removed by a crop of corn. Often, where erosion practices are not used, each bushel of corn costs 1 ton of soil. Contour cultivation not only reduces erosion but it increases yield.

PASTURE FACTS: Two weeks grazing of wheat and barley, and a longer period for rye, when the crop is 5 or 6 inches high, often saves the young grass and legume seedlings. And my, what it means to the livestock! Young small grain is very high in protein—as high as alfalfa or clover.

HERE'S TO THE BERRIES! Looking for new sources of income to supplement declining profits from crops and livestock? Then consider strawberries, especially if you have a small farm and an industrious family. During the depression of the early thirties strawberries were life savers for the area around Paduch where in one year almost 1000 carloads were shipped. March is the time to set strawberries and last year's tobacco land is the best place. The cost of setting an acre is low and a few geese are a great help in keeping the crab grass out. If interested, don't wait—see your county agent NOW about varieties, plants and shipping facilities. Setting should be done by the first of April.

LET'S SOW—NOT ARGUE: Let's not take time now to argue about the merits of the various grasses. On most Kentucky farms the question uppermost in the minds and stomachs of livestock is not the kind of grass that tastes best, but the kind they can GET during the "other 6 or 8 months." Fortunately Kentuckians have several good grasses to select from, and can use the kinds best adapted to their own conditions.

Some folks who think farming is easy should try it with borrowed capital in a dry season. If that won't make 'em plain people out of them, I don't know what will. A wise man once said that no profession required such variety of knowledge, such insight into nature, and such technical skill to be successful, as the profession of farming.

EVENTS OF INTEREST: South Central Hereford Sale, Russellville, Ky., March 26; Kentucky Polled Hereford Sale at Louisville, March 28, and Kentucky Green Pastures Tour, Northern Kentucky, May 5-6-7.

Starting with one cow 10 years ago, Edgar Egner of Whitley county has sold calves for $1,400 and now has 13 animals in his herd, all descendants of the first cow.

Chief Justice Judge Porter Sims, of Bowling Green, now serving his second term, is the oldest member on Kentucky's Court of Appeals. He is 65.

Living Alert

Lesson for March 8, 1953

WHAT is this parable of the "foolish virgins" all about? Dr. Wehrli of Eden Seminary makes a simple straightforward suggestion. The story has to do with emergency, the unexpected and how to meet it. If everything had gone according to plan, the foolish virgins would not have been in trouble. They had all the oil they thought they would need. When they set out, it was the wise virgins who looked foolish. Why carry these extra flasks of oil? Wasn't it enough to carry a lamp without being bothered with oil besides? But when the hours wore on and on, those extra flasks did not look so foolish. The wise virgins were ready for the unexpected; the foolish were not.

Life's Emergencies

If the future were as plain to us as the past, then (we think) life might be easier. But that is not the way life goes. There is much we can count on; otherwise there would never be any use in making any plans. But there also will be things we don't expect. Dr. Foreman ahead we don't expect. Dr. Foreman ahead we don't expect. Dr. Foreman ahead we don't expect.

But how can we prepare for what we don't expect? Of course we can't prepare in detail for the unforeseen. What we can manage to have is a reservoir of strength; for physical emergencies reserves of health; for moral emergencies, reserves of character; for spiritual emergencies, reserves of faith.

The Unexpected Is The Test

When there is a big fire, or some extraordinary disaster like a bombing or an explosion, the police of a great city will send reserves to the stricken area to guard against looters. Now Dr. Wehrli says, the police aren't specially worried about ordinary criminals.

But the people who do the looting at fires are the ordinary people, who in ordinary situations wouldn't think of stealing. They are honest enough for all routine situations. They would not think of breaking a door down in order to steal. But when a fire or an earthquake opens the door, and the lights go out, then these "honest" people turn into thieves. They don't have the reserves of character to carry them through the moral emergency.

Sometimes again the emergency will be an opportunity. When an important position falls vacant, who is chosen to fill it? The man who is ready for it. But who is ready for the bigger job? The man who worked harder than he needed to on the smaller job; the man who learned more than he had to know to hold down the smaller job. If a man isn't ready for a bigger job than he has, he isn't likely ever to get his chance at it when the bigger one is open.

On The Alert

Three pieces of advice can be given to those who wish to live on the alert. One is: Keep physically fit. That may sound too obvious, but it is not, as any doctor could tell you. If your health breaks down you are stopped in your tracks no matter what your work may be. Whether you aim to be a missionary, a farmer or a governor, you are going to need all the health you can have. Don't put down your body's efficiency by the use of liquor, drugs, overeating, underdressing or what not. The same can be said of the second point: Keep mentally fit. Keep your mind a bit sharper than it needs to be right now, sharp enough for the unlooked-for opportunity or problem or responsibility.

Again it is needless to say that the use of alcohol is one of the commonest enemies of mental fitness.

And finally, keep spiritually fit. The Holy Spirit is to substitute for your own hard and careful thinking; but the closer you live to the God who is Lord of both today and tomorrow, the more ready you are going to be for whatever he may send.

One Great Hour of Sharing

By His deeds, by His teachings, by His death upon the Cross, Christ demonstrated the duty and responsibility of Christians to share with their less fortunate fellowmen.

Today as we read our newspapers and listen to our radios, we sometimes tend to disregard the need and suffering in other parts of the world. Momentarily we may feel sorry, but it passes quickly as we return our thoughts to personal affairs.

To help us become more aware of our opportunity and responsibility for helping others, there has been instituted "One Great Hour of Sharing," a united effort by America's churches to assist overseas relief. Next Sunday tens of thousands of churches will simultaneously cooperate in this great plan at their Sabbath services.

Through "One Great Hour of Sharing" millions of destitute people will be aided and comforted. Millions will learn that because of the unselfish and understanding heart of America, there is for them hope of a brighter tomorrow.

And to America, "One Great Hour of Sharing" will bring the priceless blessing of spiritual enrichment that rewards those who have obeyed these words: "Go ye into all the world . . . to every creature."

Won't you go to your church on Sunday, and join this great effort?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to Bible study.

Wednesday evening, March 11, is the date for the next Turkish Towel Bingo Social, to be given by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Boone Post, 4, American Legion at the Legion Hall. Game time is at 8 p. m. The public is cordially invited.

Mrs. Harold Conner is convalescing at Booth Hospital following a recent operation.

Mrs. Frances Berkshire has been confined to her home following several weeks illness.

Mrs. Hattie Owens made a trip recently to Jewish Hospital to visit her son-in-law, Lyman Carroll.

Miss Betty Littleford is convalescing at St. Elizabeth Hospital following an accident which resulted in a broken hip. Her friends wish her a speedy recovery.

The forthcoming Pillow Slip Bingo, given each week by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Volunteer Fire Department, will be held at the Fire Hall, Thursday evening, March 19 at 8 p. m. The public is invited.

Alan Utz, a student of agriculture at the University of Kentucky, enjoyed the past week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Utz, Sr.

Harry Mayhugh of Walton, is erecting a California-type house on the Alan Utz subdivision.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keyer and son of Latonia, were Sunday dinner guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Carpenter of Price Pike.

Mrs. Bertha Dixon has returned from Booth Hospital to her home on Main Street, and is convalescing.

A number from the Florence church attended the dedication of the new Erlanger Baptist Church, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Chaney were the guests Sunday afternoon of his brother, Frank, of Brookville.

Recent guests of Mrs. Clara Conner were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rector and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ashcraft of Independence, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tanner of Fort Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Perry of Newport, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Doty of Fort Thomas, Mrs. Sally Hobart and Mrs. Francis Dixon.

H. B. Simpson and Blayne Miller of Dayton, Ohio, were weekend guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Phillips, friends of Louisville.

Billy Childress of Erlanger, who recently was confined in the Veterans Hospital, Fort Thomas, due to minor surgery, is doing nicely, we are glad to report.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wilson, formerly of Price Pike, are occupying the front apartment in the home of Clara Conner, and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ashcraft of Independence, will move into a cottage belonging to Mrs. Conner.

Mrs. Pauline Worthington and sons, Johnny and Tommy, of Louisville, were visiting her father, Rev. T. C. Crume, and Mrs. Crume and Mr. and Mrs. John E. Rouse, during the weekend.

Mrs. Lucille Dehlinger of Covington, recently underwent an appendectomy at St. Elizabeth Hospital. However, she has returned home and is doing nicely. Mrs. Dehlinger is a daughter of Dr. N. A. Jett.

While returning from work early last Thursday, Harold Zimmerman of Erlanger, was painfully injured when he fell asleep and his car struck a tree. He was not seriously injured, luckily. However, he was removed to St. Elizabeth Hospital and is doing very well and expects to return home Saturday. Mr. Zimmerman was recently released from a two-year term of military duty.

INDEPENDENCE R. 1

Mrs. Atwood Hoffman has been ill recently with the flu.

We are sorry to learn of Mrs. Flo Summey, who is visiting relatives in Arizona, having been ill. She is planning to return home about April 1.

We are sorry our attendance fell off at Sunday School, Sunday—hope all will be back next Sunday.

Mrs. J. A. Keeney and son, Don, were recent guests of her daughter, Kathleen, and husband of near Dayton, Ohio.

Mrs. Stella Richardson and Mrs. Earl Hanna attended the funeral of their friend, Mrs. Beers, at Allison & Rose funeral home, Covington.

The cottage prayer meeting of Staffordburg church was well attended at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Losey, on Taylor Mill Road.

SPARTA R. 2

Mrs. Martha Jane Miller remains ill. Mr. and Mrs. Elfric Henderson have both been very ill with influenza. Mr. Henderson is also suffering from a broken arm.

Mrs. Bea Peak still remains ill. We hope for her early recovery.

Those who called to see Mrs. Miller during the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. George Noel, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dobson, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Miller, Mrs. Avery Furnish, Mrs. A. M. Aramsmith, Mrs. Paul Carver, Mrs. Margaret Graves, Mrs. Freda Henderson, Mrs. Lottie Poland and others.

Mrs. Georgia Noel and Mrs. Lottie Poland called on Mr. and Mrs. Elfric Henderson, Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Miller called on Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Henderson and family, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Avery Furnish and daughter were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carver, Sunday.

Mrs. Sally Maddox visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Brown, Sunday.

Mrs. Grace Spencer has been helping care for her mother, Mrs. Bea Peak, during her illness.

Having been away for the past week, I don't know who has been here or what you bought, so this week I will tell you some of the hardware items for the month of March you will be needing—during this 1953, we are going to sell you hardware at a better price than in the past—we get less profit, but sell more hardware—this is hard to do when we sell quality hardware, which is standard price everywhere, but anytime we can give you a break and still make a profit, we certainly will do it. Some think we are high, but they don't stop to compare the quality—just like one of my customers was telling me he bought some American fence—he ran out and bought a roll at one of our competitors at a chapter price—the American is still higher and the other brand is rusty—this was several years ago—you get just what you pay for, but I never buy the cheaper grade unless I have to, because it generally turns out to be trouble for me.

This is my 18th year here in this business and I have made a lot of friends and good customers, along with some enemies, but these enemies have not done what they promised or tried to ruin my business for me, whichever it was—I have cut them off my list, which I should have done long ago, because I have so many good customers, and get a few new ones every month. I don't have to worry with the ones who think they are doing a merchant a favor buying an credit and not the merchant doing them a favor selling them on credit. I don't mind credit if a person will do what they promise and I have a lot that do just that—as I have said several times before, I have the best group of customers anyone in any business ever had—they treat me right and I always do the same.

Especially in 1953 we are trying harder to give you a little more for your money in merchandise and service. We have the best stock of hardware we have ever had—of course you have always been able to get hardware at Conrad's that you could not get other places—we have added several new items, and I have listed below several quality hardware needs that we have in stock and they are priced to sell—Conrad carries the most hardware items of any store in Northern Kentucky.

One-horse sled, 2-horse sled, 3-ton rubber tired wagon, Bemis tobacco setters, Dayton water system, grass seeder to mount on tractor, boys' cowboy saddle, men's Buena Vista saddle, hair tassels in all colors, point rollers, painting brushes, 54-inch double drain Murray kitchen sink, Cyclone seed sowers, hom type seed sowers, tobacco seed, lawn seed, harness, wagon wheels, heated pulley water founts, chick founts and feeders, Jamesway oil brooders, Jamesway electric hovers, drop in water heaters, heat bulbs for pigs and chicks, lamb nipples, calf buckets, trash burners, egg baskets, iron board of wood and steel, iron board pad and covers, stairway gates, 9x12, 12x12 and 12x15 Armstrong rugs, 6-ft. and 9-ft. Armstrong linoleum.

Paints and enamels, a new shipment of pure bristle paint brushes, plastic and fiber window shades, electric hot plates, irons, percolators, deep fryers, waffle irons, toasters, radios, mixers, tool grinders, sickle grinders, electric drills, motors, pressure cookers, electric hay clippers, electric razors, a new shipment of Walkover pure aluminum cooking pots and pans, a full stock of galvanized pipe and fittings, everything in wiring material to wire a complete job and lots more items, large and small. If I tried to list all the items we carry, it would fill the whole newspaper—but when you want good merchandise, like Perfection stoves, Maytag washers, Milromatic cookers, Sunbeam irons, toasters, waffle irons and razors, and lots of other brands, always come to Conrad Hardware and we will serve you the best we know how.

It is early, but farmers are looking at the new Bemis tobacco setter on rubber—we have already sold and traded several setters—if you have a used Bemis setter on rubber, we will trade with you for a modern setter on rubber for your tractor. That Check is some trader

—He traded a used washer for two motors and a little money, so if you have something to trade, see Worthington. Have you seen the new sleds, one-horse and two-horse? When I left the south, it was hot, but the closer I got to Kentucky the colder the weather got, and as you know, snow and rain, but I will still take Walton, Kentucky as the place to live. When you need HARDWARE, a fine place to get it is at CONRAD HARDWARE.

Florence Wins District Tourney, One in Regional

By Marie Martin
Walton lost to Hebron in the semifinals of the District tournament held at Florence. Walton led 14-13 at the quarter, 28-25 at halftime, and Hebron led 44-42 at the third quarter, and the final score was 62-59 Hebron.

Crigler of Hebron, and Smith of Walton, led the scoring with 27 and 19, respectively. Hebron made 35% of their shots, while Walton hit only 28%.

Florence won the tournament by defeating Hebron, in the finals, 64-60. Both teams advance to the Regional, being held at Dixie Heights this week.

The all-tournament team was: Smith and Vest of Walton, Crigler and Anderson of Hebron, Finnick and Schneider of Lloyd, Markesbery and Hudson of Florence, Jerry Ryle of Burlington, and Cook of New Haven.

Regional Meet
Teams in the Regional tournament are Williamstown, Dry Ridge, Florence, Hebron, Simon Kenton, Holmes, Newport Catholic and Highlands.

Action got under way Tuesday night, and in the first round, Williamstown defeated Highlands 66-63, and Florence again downed Hebron, 67-54.

Luck topped Florence scores with 21 points, and for Hebron, Crigler tossed in 30 markers.

Tourney March 16-17
The "B" team tournament starts on Monday afternoon at New Haven, and Walton plays their first game that evening at 7:30, against Burlington.

The finals will be Tuesday night between the Walton-Burlington winner and the Florence-New Haven winner. A consolation game will be played on Tuesday night, and three trophies will be awarded. Admission: 25c and 50c.

ORDINATION SERVICE

Sunday morning, Rev. Charles A. Vaughn will ordain Brothers Mark Roney and Finley Jackson, Jr. as deacons in the Walton Christian Church. L. M. Gabriel will be formally installed as an elder. V. D. James, Chairman of the Board and elders of the church will assist the pastor in the service. Special pewes will be reserved for the entire Board of the Church. The sermon subject will be, "The Effective Church Officer." The evening service will be evangelistic.

The Bible School will observe "Cathy Day." Catherine Simpson renders a great service to the total life of the church, the pastor said. "Her fine contribution through music is only one of her many talents she is using for God," Mr. Vaughn added.

MISS BELLE BREEZE

Miss Belle Breeze of Verona, Route 1, passed away at the Gladys Bishop Rest Home, Covington, March 4. She was a member of Concord Baptist Church, and D. of A. Chapter 101, Cincinnati, Ohio. Survivors include two brothers, J. A. Breeze of Dayton, Ohio, and Claude Breeze of Ontario, Calif., and two sisters, Mrs. Mollie Shelton of Verona, and Mrs. Rhoda White of Cincinnati.

Services were held at 1 p. m., March 7, in the Hamilton Funeral home at Verona. Rev. Frank Lipscomb, Jr. and Rev. Joseph Johnson had charge, with burial in Highland Cemetery.

Verona Homemakers

Mrs. Lizzie Noel and Mrs. Ura Roberts entertained the Verona Homemakers Club at the home of Mrs. Roberts. Mrs. Pierelena Kinnady gave an interesting and timely report on landscaping and the importance of rolling your lawn while it is wet. Mrs. Florence Florence read the "Kentucky Homemakers Creed," and Mrs. Edith Hamilton had a quiz program. Mrs. Nancy Ayler told how to conserve food budgets and also eat wholesome food. After a delicious covered dish dinner, Mrs. Roberts had charge of the devotional.

Members who answered roll call were: Mrs. Corinne McCormick, Mrs. Pearl Lamm, Mrs. Ethel Folske, Mrs. Florence Edgington, Mrs. Virgil Adams, Mrs. Frances McCormick, Mrs. Mae Wilson, Mrs. Pierelena Kinnady, Mrs. Sophronia Mills, Mrs. Nancy Ayler, Mrs. Edith Hamilton, Mrs. Ura Roberts and Mrs. Lizzie Noel.

Friends of Mrs. Pearl R. Johnson will be glad to know she is now located at 1417 Greenup St., Covington. She is recovering nicely from a broken hip and is able to attend church with the aid of a walker.

AT CAMP POLK

Cpl. Carl Bickers

Carl Bickers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Bickers of High Street, was recently promoted to Corporal. He is now stationed with Co. A, 61st Engineers Construction Battalion, Camp Polk, La.

Cpl. Bickers wishes to thank the Baptist Church for remembering him, and others, in their special service.

Legion Auxiliary Meeting Held Last Thursday

The March meeting of Johnson-McElroy Unit, 277, American Legion Auxiliary was held at the City building last Thursday, with the president, Beatrice Glenn, presiding.

The Unit voted to contribute $2.00 for playground equipment at the Ft. Thomas VA hospital, and to sponsor a ward party in May. Several members are sewing binders for the hospital, and six members are now active in the twice-monthly sewing-and-mending project for patients at the hospital. Mrs. Nell Dudgeon is now a member of the group.

The Unit wishes to thank Mrs. Truman Pruett for donating old electrical equipment for the physical therapy training shop; also Mrs. Charles Hill and Mrs. William Scroggin for large donations of reading material, and to a donor of books, who wishes to remain anonymous.

The next regular meeting will be held on April 2. Plan to attend.

Tobacco-Fruit Meetings

Boone County tobacco growers are to meet at 8:00 p. m., Monday, March 16, at the Courthouse in Burlington. Fruit growers of the county will meet at 1:30 p. m., March 18, at the home of Vaughn Hemphill.

BAPTIST W.M.S. TO MEET

The W. M. S. will meet at the Walton Baptist Church, Thursday, March 19, for the regular monthly meeting. Members are asked to bring eggs for the Orphan's Home. Hostesses are Mrs. Emma Stockman, Mrs. Louise Stephenson and Miss Pot Stog.

Florence Man Announces for Tax Commissioner

"I wish to make formal announcement of my candidacy for the office of tax commissioner of Boone County subject to the results of the Democratic primary of August 1.

"I have qualified under the State Tax Commission's regulations, which was necessary before seeking this office. Should I be chosen, I would strive to serve all the people with all my abilities and would always be very grateful and appreciative of your support.

"I am 41 years old, married and have three children, namely: Jane 13, JoNelle 4, and Gary Wayne one year. We live on Lloyd Avenue, Florence, Ky. I am a member and a deacon of the Florence Baptist Church, a member and past president of the Florence Rotary Club, also belong to numerous professional educational organizations.

"Graduated from Georgetown College in 1940 with majors in Social Science and Mathematics, also have a Master of Arts degree from the University of Kentucky. I have been engaged in the teaching field most of my life, serving as Mathematics teacher and coach in the Florence High School for two years in 1941-42, and more recently as a Mathematics teacher in Dixie Heights High School.

"I hope to meet all of you before

Pretty Wedding Solemnized Here Friday, March 6

Miss Carole Frances DeMoisey, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. DeMoisey, became the bride of Mr. David Lewis Hankinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hankinson, March 6, at eight o'clock, P. M. The setting for the ceremony, in the bride's home, was an altar made of white snapdragons and candelabras. Rev. R. F. DeMoisey, grandfather of the bride, performed the double-ring ceremony. Preceding the services, appropriate recorded wedding music was played.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was a gown of white Chantilly lace fashioned in princess style with a finger-tipped length tulle veil draped from a wreath of orange blossoms. Her only jewelry, a gift of the groom, was a heart shaped diamond and platinum necklace.

The bride was attended by Miss Marjorie Carpenter, maid of honor, who wore an aqua tulle dress and carried pink carnations. Her bridesmaid, Miss Peggy Vest, wore pink tulle and carried white carnations.

The bridegroom had his brother, Mr. William Edward Hankinson, as best man, and Messrs. Norbert Lewin, Paul DeMoisey and Robert Hall were ushers. The mother-of-the-bride wore a blue taffeta dress with a shell neckline and a corsage of white roses. The groom's mother wore a black crepe dress and also a corsage of white roses.

After the reception, which was held in the beautifully decorated dining room, the couple left for their honeymoon in the south. For her traveling ensemble, Mrs. Hankinson selected a three-piece blue gabardine suit, a white straw cloche and blue accessories.

The bride attended the University of Kentucky, and the groom, after three years in the United States Air Force, is now employed by the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Members of the family and guests in attendance were: Mr. Clarence Struve, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allphin, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hankinson, Mr. and Mrs. William Edward Hankinson, Miss Mary Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Rouse, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Rouse, Mrs. Walter M. Vest, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Johnson, Misses Mary Yealey, Rose Marie Vest and Joanne Elliott.

Due to illness the grandmothers, Mrs. Clarence Struve, Mrs. R. F. DeMoisey, and Mrs. Elvora Hodges, were unable to attend.

PINER TALENT SHOW

The Piner school will conduct its annual Talent Show, Thursday, March 19, at which time there will be about 25 contestants participating. Prizes will be given in several divisions. This event is sponsored by the Piner P.T.A. and Harry F. Johnson will be Master of Ceremonies. Everyone invited.

Dr. E. E. Kelley of Davies county has ordered several pecan, walnut and chestnut trees for spring planting.

DATE ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Kash Martin announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Cleo Rose, to Mr. Delbert Gene Messmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Messmer of near Verona. The wedding will take place Saturday evening, March 14, at eight o'clock, in the New Bethel Baptist Church, Verona. The public is invited to attend.

POLICE COURT PATRONS

Earl Ferguson, Wisconsin Blvd., Dayton, Ohio, was arrested, the past week, for speeding by Sgt. Campbell of the State Police, and fined $29.50 in Walton Police Court by Judge Worthington.

A local resident received a $2.00 parking ticket for blocking the driveway to the Fire House. The siren may sound any moment—don't park in front of the fire house!

MRS. MINNIE G. SMITH

Services were held Tuesday at 2 p. m. in the Chambers & Grubbs Funeral Home, Florence, for Mrs. Minnie G. Smith, 92, Burlington, who died last Saturday at home. Burial was in Burlington Cemetery.

Mrs. Smith, a member of a pioneer Boone County family and the oldest member of Burlington Baptist Church, is survived by two sons, Earl and Russell, both of Burlington; two grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Walton Woman's Literary Club Is Entertained

Members of the Walton Woman's Literary Club were pleased to have as their guest speaker for a musical program for the March meeting in the home of Mrs. Forest Thompson of South Main Street, Mrs. T. P. Strittmatter.

The speaker, who was introduced by Mrs. H. F. Mann, is a member of the Va-No Club and has attended Juillard School of Music, New York, and Cincinnati Conservatory of Music. She gave an interesting and informative talk on "Our Neighbors in Other Lands, with Emphasis on Literature, Music and Art." Mrs. Strittmatter illustrated her talk with several piano selections, among which were, "Lady of the Nightingale," by Granados, a Spanish composer; "To Cotta," by Kachaturian of Russia, and dosing with "Leux d'Eau," by Ravel, a French composer.

The meeting, which was conducted by the president, Mrs. Julia A. Rouse, was opened with the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag, followed by reading the club constitution.

J. C. Bedinger gave the spiritual guidance, in which she said, "We should not look for the faults in others, but should look for the good in people, and that everyone who has faults, has some good in them."

Mrs. D. Hess Vest, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, submitted the following names for officers for the coming year, to be voted on at the April meeting: Vice President, Mrs. Alan H. Gaines; Secretary, Mrs. James S. Webster; Treasurer, Mrs. H. F. Mann. The office of president, which is for a two-year term, will be filled by the incumbent, Mrs. Rouse.

Members responded to roll call by naming a favorite musical composition and the composer.

Following adjournment, the hostesses served a much-enjoyed dessert course.

Guests present were: Mrs. Cotton Grant, Mrs. Jesse Collier, Mrs. Mark Roney and Mrs. Strittmatter. Members attending were: Mrs. J. C. Bedinger, Mrs. C. S. Chambers, Miss Jean Chambers, Mrs. J. R. Conrad, Mrs. B. W. Franks, Mrs. E. E. Fry, Mrs. Alan H. Gaines, Mrs. Clayton Jones, Mrs. D. L. Lusby, Mrs. H. F. Mann, Mrs. John Myers, Miss Emma J. Miller, Mrs. James Powers, Mrs. C. W. Ransler, Mrs. S. D. S. Ranson, Mrs. Julia A. Rouse, Mrs. W. O. Rouse, Mrs. W. W. Rouse, Mrs. W. D. Scroggin, Mrs. Sam B. Sleet, Mrs. J. T. Stone, Mrs. Forest Thompson, Mrs. D. H. Vest, Mrs. Lloyd Watson, and Mrs. James Webster.

KENTON 4-H CLUBS TO BE FEATURED ON WLW-T

Kenton County's 4-H Clubs are to be featured on Bob Miller's Farm Program over WLW-T, March 13, as part of the National 4-H Week celebration. The program, to be on the air at 7:00 a. m., is now in its 4th year of 4-H Club training in later years.

A Kenton county farmer and 4-H leader will appear on the program, along with a present 4-H Club member, and the assistant county agent, Thomas L. Riley. Club members, parents and friends are invited to watch the program.

Open To All Readers; Nothing To Buy

A brand new contest has been arranged by the Advertiser and the WLW-Television stations in Cincinnati, Dayton and Columbus, in an effort to plan an all-star television show featuring your favorite star or stars.

Plans have been completed and the contest opens with this announcement. It will cost no money or box tops or anything else to get in. Moreover, the Advertiser has obtained a new clock-radio to be awarded the winning suggestion made by our readers. There is no competition with the readers of other newspapers. The clock-radio goes to the winning reader of the Advertiser.

When the winner of this newspaper's contest has been selected, that first-place suggestion will be forwarded to WLW-Television officials in Cincinnati and there, along with other suggestions, a second contest will be held. That winner, and it could well be one of our own readers, will get a 21-inch television set.

The clock-radio is the newest of its kind and will be offered the general public late this Spring after it comes from the Crosley production lines. It is arranged so that you can plug in the coffee percolator or an electric blanket or some other electrical appliances.

In addition, it has a slumber control which turns the set off should the owner forget it.

Themes are simple. All you have to do is to tell us in 50 words or less which WLW-Television star—folks like Ruth Lyons, Neal Vandyke, Wanda Thorpe, or Spooks Beckman—you would like to see in an all-star, one-hour telecast. Of course you must give your reasons.

You may send as many entries as you wish. A special form is provided but you may also submit your entries on a postal card or letter. Send them to this newspaper.

The entire contest is sponsored by the Walton Advertiser and will close on April 4, with the telecast scheduled for a date later that month.

District Utopia Meet Held at Pleasure Isle

One hundred thirty Utopia members and guests attended the annual District Utopia Club banquet and conference, held at Pleasure Isle, near Independence, Saturday evening, March 7. Elmer W. Hinkle, assistant to the president, Cincinnati Union Stock Yards, was principal speaker. During his talk, Mr. Hinkle told the young people that "the honey-moon in agriculture is over, but that the farmer who will put a quality product on the market need not fear the future."

Election of officers was held, and the following named: President, Gene Hale of Owen County; Vice President, Robert Scott of Kenton County; Secretary, Lucille Beal of Boone County; Directors, Pat Dickens of Campbell County, and Eddie Maylor of Gallatin County.

Following the banquet, Phoebe Ross, University of Kentucky, directed the recreational program. Carl Jones, state director of older youth work, also took part on the program. The two Kenton County Utopia Clubs acted as hosts to the district, which consists of members from Boone, Campbell, Gallatin, Owen and Kenton Counties.

SCOTTISH RITE PROGRAM

The Wilford Scottish Rite Club will hold services at the Madison Avenue Baptist Church, Robbins Street and Madison Ave., Covington, on Sunday, March 15, at 2:30 p. m. The public is invited.

One of three ten-minute addresses is to be given by Rev. F. D. Jones, state director of older youth work, also took part on the program. The two Kenton County Utopia Clubs acted as hosts to the district, which consists of members from Boone, Campbell, Gallatin, Owen and Kenton Counties.

CLUB TO MEET

Wilford Scottish Rite Club will meet at Wilmington Masonic Hall, Fiskburg, March 17. D. E. Costleman will be the speaker, and Mr. Clinkenbeard and Mr. Wagoner will be stewards. The meeting will begin at 8 p. m., and all Master Masons are invited to attend.

Girl Scouts

The Independence Girl Scouts are using their "Friendship" not only in and near their homes, but across the ocean as well.

The girls and their adult leaders are making "Kiddie Kits" and sending them to children in war-torn countries all over the world, to bring a little message of sisterly concern that is of prime importance in a world that knows so much friction and oppression.

These kits consist of the following articles: Writing pad, small notebook, pencils, pencil eraser, toothpaste, toothbrush, wash cloth, soap, comb and a bar of candy.

The above list are things our children take for granted, things that they use with no thought of being without, whereas, children in various countries hardly ever see, much less own. We should feel in every way possible for the job all Scouts and Scouters are doing. They're little people doing a job bigger than you realize.

Baptist W. M. S.

The W. M. S. of Independence Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Tom Burns for the regular business meeting and visitation, last Thursday.

The week of prayer for Home Missions was observed on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Chas. Dorsey. Mrs. Geo. Riley, program chairman, brought a brief opening message on "The Symbols of America's Freedom."

Those attending were: Mrs. Frank Cox, Mrs. A. Nienhaus, Mrs. Geo. Riley, Mrs.

Thos. Cain, Mrs. E. Merston, Mrs. K. Jolly, Mrs. Chas. Millbaugh, Mrs. Tom Burns, Mrs. A. B'Hymer, Mrs. J. C. Armstrong, Mrs. Jess Simpson and Mrs. Dorsey.

Fire Calls

Last Saturday evening, the Fire Department was called to the parsonage of the Banklick Baptist Church, where the smell of smoke, but no flame, was noticed. Careful search revealed charred wood from a previous fire being too close to the flue.

Last Sunday morning, they were called to Wayman Drive, to Garnett Reed's house, where a fire had been extinguished before arrival of the firemen.

ness men and the faster service for them is air travel. Why route them through the larger towns, when better arrangements could be made to shorten the distance from Mentor to the airport?

"While teaching our children World Understanding, we must remember that the ideas we, as parents indoctrinate into our families, stay with them through life. They usually accept our views on things. We should teach them to respect other people's feelings, regardless of race, creed or religion, and to never forget that we are all created equal," stated Mrs. Helen Bryant, a former Beechwood High School teacher, in her talk on World Understanding at Simon Kenton P.T.A.

Melvin Platt, Jr., seventh grade pupil, led the devotions.

INDEPENDENCE R. 1

We really are having some March weather.

The sick of our community are on the road to recovery.

The fellowship get-together at Staffordburg Methodist Church, Saturday evening, was well attended and much enjoyed by all present. After a very nice lunch of oyster soup, chili, pie and coffee, all proceeded up stairs where Rev. Potts of Trinity Methodist Church, Latonia, entertained us with some very interesting films, the title of which was, "The Bible on the Table." It was very impressive and enjoyed very much, and we wish to thank Rev. Potts and wife for being with us. We hope to have these fellowship get-together meetings more often, as the weather gets more settled and anyone who will come is more than welcome.

We were glad to have Rev. Patton with us at Staffordburg, Sunday morning, as he always brings us one of his fine sermons.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rapp and children entertained several relatives at dinner, Sunday.

Mrs. Ches. Pruett spent Saturday with her mother, Mrs. Ida Hoffman.

Mrs. Stella Richardson has as guests recently her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lon Richardson, and daughter of Latonia.

Mrs. Fay Johnson and children spent the past week in Wilmore, with her husband, who is a student at Wilmore College.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney attended the opening of the new Sunday School rooms at the Walton Methodist Church, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fennell had as guests Sunday, George's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fennell, Sr.

CONCORD

Miss Shirley Morgan spent the week-end with Mrs. Dorothy Cheatham and children of Glencoe.

Mrs. R. M. Fennell visited Mrs. Mable Miller and Bill Rider, Friday, who are patients in St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Rev. Worthington was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Webster over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hudson had as guests Friday night for supper, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie House of Warsaw.

Miss Thelma Thomas returned from St. Elizabeth Hospital, Wednesday.

PEOPLE'S "WANTS" GETTING GREATER

Writing on "Getting More For Your Money," Ida C. Hagan, University of Kentucky home economist, says, "This matter of spending money grows more complicated every day."

"According to an economist, the average person had only 72 'wants' 100 years ago. Only 16 of these 'wants' were absolute necessities. Compare these few 'wants' with today's. The average person now has 484 'wants', 94 of which are considered actual needs."

"Shopping was easy a century ago, when not more than 200 kinds of things were offered for sale to the average buyer. Now, a buyer is faced with more than 32,000 articles from which to choose. No wonder families are often puzzled about making financial decisions."

Randall Mason of Graves county sold 51 lambs from 34 ewes last season, for a gross return of $1,190.

Civil Defense officials estimate 68,000 persons will be needed in Kentucky to bring the state up to full strength in the Ground Observer program for civilian aircraft spotters.

Tobacco brought Kentucky farmers $222 million dollars in 1951.

Accountable to God

Lesson for March 15, 1953

WE all know that "responsible" is a good word, even if we might have a hard time saying exactly what it means. A person feels responsible when he knows that it's up to him to make good, and knows that some one will have the right to ask him: What about it? Somebody knows about this job I am doing, somebody cares, so I will have to give him an account of what I have done. I shall have to satisfy him that I have done my best. If I fail, he will lay me out for it. If I succeed, he will praise me and see that I get my reward.

The Irresponsible

People shift into gears, just as peas or potatoes do, only not on the basis of size. People can be graded according to their sense of responsibility. At the bottom of the human heap are the irresponsible. This doesn't include babies and idiots, who can't help it. The irresponsible who really cause trouble in the world are the people who ought to be responsible, but aren't. They can't be depended on to do any job, well, or at all. They never hold any job long. They have no pride in their work, no self-respect. They never carry their end of the log, they neither work nor worry, and they are no good.

Some distance above the irresponsible type are those who will give an accounting only to themselves. They don't like supervision, they don't like to ask if what they are doing satisfies anybody but themselves. They don't want their work or their lives inspected. If they suit themselves that is all they ask. Such persons make good artists, but they are too often undependable and antisocial, because they just don't care what other people think. It is a childish attitude, after all. We all go through this stage; but if we don't pass beyond it we really cannot call ourselves grown up.

"Is He Well Liked?"

On a higher level are those whose "boss" is popular opinion. Willy, in "The Death of a Salesman," keeps asking the same two questions about everybody. "Is he liked?" and "Is he well liked?" Willy would feel the world daving in on him if he could not say "yes" to both questions about himself. One thing that makes "Death of a Salesman" one of the most moving tragedies of our time, is that Willy finds out, too late, that a man can be well liked and still a failure. Popular opinion makes a poor boss.

Above Willy's level are those who feel accountable to God to everybody and anybody's debt to the "best people." If they can satisfy a small but select group they are quite contented. If such a person is an artist, he will crave a good word from perhaps just one discriminating critic. If he is a legislator, he will receive special gifts from special people and he will vote to please those people. These persons may have high standards (it depends on the kind of people they try to please) but they do not often serve the public well, just because they really don't care for the public nor for what people may think.

To God Alone

There is, after all, one final Judge. There is One whom all men are responsible, to whom we must give an account of ourselves. At the very top grade of humanity are those who hear's deep prayer is to be pleasing to God. This is the highest form that responsibility can take.

Now this need not be in conflict with accountability to man. Only a stupid hired man would say to the farmer: "I don't care whether you like the way I handle the tractor. I'm working to please God, not you." A person who will not do his best on his job is not likely to please the Lord. Nevertheless, in the long run, it is God's voice we shall all have to hear, and his verdict is what will count. And as Jesus so vividly prophesied, the thing God wants most to inquire about is how we treated our fellow-men.

Humanity is everybody's business. No matter how well we may please our various bosses in this world, or how well we do our particular jobs, we shall not be a success, after all, if we have failed in God's eyes.

For Prevention or Healing... CALL THE DOCTOR

"Johnny's sick!" The words strike fear in your heart, although your child's name may be Mary, Jane, or Bob. You put him to bed and call the doctor. You give him medicine and nurse him tenderly. It is easy to tell when your child is not well—physically, that is. And it is comparatively easy to provide whatever is necessary to heal him. But do you feel as much concern for his soul?

Perhaps you have not noticed symptoms of spiritual indisposition. Perhaps you have thoughtlessly disregarded his spiritual needs. Yet his body is only temporal. His soul will live on—and on—and on! Your Church is like a doctor—ready to heal illnesses of the spirit, but even more eager to prevent them. Attend Church regularly with all your family for spiritual check-ups, just as you call on your family physician for physical care.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) children's souls, (2) For his own soul, (3) For his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself. Which needs his moral and spiritual support. Aim to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

FLORENCE

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Arnold were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Edmonds of Linton.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Rouse were the recent guests of her sister, Mrs. Herman Sarver, and Mr. Sarver of North Fairmount, Cincinnati.

Friends here of Miss Anna Aylor of Louisville, received information that she suffered a paralytic stroke some six weeks ago. Miss Aylor was a former resident of the Florence community.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirkpatrick and son are spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Arnold.

Mrs. Irene Renaker entered St. Elizabeth Hospital, Thursday of last week, where she will submit to surgery. Her friends wish her the best.

Miss Elizabeth Rouse, nurse at St. Elizabeth Hospital, was a Sunday guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Rouse.

H. B. Simpson and Blayne Miller of Dayton, Ohio, were weekend guests of latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Arnold and daughter were Saturday evening guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Arnold. Mr. and Mrs. Russell House have returned to their home here following a sojourn of several weeks in Florida.

Dr. N. A. Jett visited a daughter, Mrs. W. H. Mason, of Augusta, over the weekend.

Sorry to report Mrs. Hal Hightower of Ludlow, as being ill again. Her sister, Mrs. Eva Gibson, who is with her, also is not so well, due to a cold.

Walter Arnold has returned home following a few weeks stay in Florida. He enjoyed a fine time sporting with the finny tribe and viewing the sights in the Sunshine state.

Verne Arnold expects to enter Jewish Hospital, Cincinnati, soon, to be relieved of the support that was aintjected into his leg bone, due to his accident last summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keyer and son were visiting relatives and friends here Sunday.

Sympathy is extended the family of Carey W. Carpenter, 81, who passed away at the home of a son, Elmer, of Mt. Zion Road. Services were from the Florence Methodist Church, March 3, at 11 a. m. Rev. C. N. Ogg officiated and was also soloist. Mr. Carpenter leaves two other sons, Dan of Florence, and James of New Castle, Ind.; a sister, Mrs. Eli Carpenter, Walton; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Chambers and Grubbs, Florence funeral directors, completed arrangements, and burial was in Hopeful cemetery.

Mrs. Verne Arnold, Mrs. Clyde Arnold, Mrs. Kitty Heise and Mrs. John Darby were guests Wednesday of Mrs. Walter Kirkpatrick of Rising Sun, Ind.

The community salutes the local basketball team who succeeded in capturing the 34th District tournament Saturday evening. We are proud of each and every member. We congratulate Harold Markesbery, Bernard Hudson and Charles Utz, who were selected on the all-tournament team, along with the other outstanding players, who also received this honor. We also salute the Hebron team who placed second, after a long, hard battle all the way. We acknowledge their outstanding record for all season. We wish only the best of luck to these two teams who will represent our county in the Regional tournament.

The local Rotary Club had as a guest Monday evening, Mr. Wallace Grubbs of the Walton Rotary Club. The club is always glad to welcome members from other clubs. The club meets each Monday evening at the Southern Trails at 8 p. m.

Don't forget the Turkish towel bingo social to be held at the Legion home, Wednesday evening, March 11, at 8 p. m., given by the Ladies Auxiliary of Boone Post, 4, American Legion. This is a monthly affair and is held on the second Wednesday of each month.

Mrs. Ann Conner is convalescing at her home on Main St., following several days in Booth Hospital. We wish her an early recovery.

Leroy Moore of Girard St. was confined to his home the past week because of illness.

Mrs. Edward Taylor of Erlanger, was the Friday evening dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Aylor and daughters.

Mrs. Ray C. Lutes was the guest of her parents at Donerail, Ky., one day the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Aylor of Gunpowder, were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. William N. Elkin of Elmore.

The monthly pillow slip bingo social given by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Florence Volunteer Fire Department, will be held at the Fire Hall and Community Center, Thursday evening, March 19, at 8 p. m. A most cordial invitation is extended the public. Proceeds of the social go to the building fund.

Miss Anna Mae Staggs recently accepted a position in the Bookkeeping Dept. of Willis Music Co., Cincinnati.

Master Benny Hepfinger entertained a group of little friends with a birthday party last Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. M. M. Lucas was confined to her home on Girard St., the past week, due to illness. We wish her an early recovery.

CARD OF THANKS—

I wish to thank my many friends for the many cards sent me during my recent illness.

When Neighbors WORK TOGETHER ... They Find the BEST ANSWERS

Before farmers began working together in their national farm loan associations they were at the mercy of the money lenders. Interest rates were high, renewals were expensive if available at all, commissions were expensive, loans were made for short terms—everything was in favor of the lender.

Then, in 1917, farmers began working together cooperatively through their national farm loan associations and Federal Land Banks to get the BEST in farm loan service. In the years since the Federal Land Bank system was established there have been more improvements in the farm loan service available to farm families than in all the history of the United States up to that time.

It is generally recognized that every major improvement in farm mortgage loans during the past 35 years has been pioneered by the Federal Land Banks and national farm loan associations.

One of these improvements is our low 4% interest rate. Many lenders have raised their interest rates but the Federal Land Bank of Louisville still maintains its rate at the same low 4% that has been in effect since 1935. And the long-term without renewals, the privilege to prepay any amount at any time without penalty, no application fees, no appraisal fees, the future payment fund program, loans based on normal agricultural values—are other improvements.

Working together gives them an opportunity to continue pioneering in making "The BEST farm loan in America" an even better loan.

Joe Is Dead

That has been the headline of all newspapers and main topic of all broadcasts for several days. This could be a big victory for the USA and it could be a larger loss if his successor tries to conquer the world and make a big name for himself, which would cost us a lot of lives. But some people think this will weaken Russia until the successor has enough time to get full support of Russian people. Some people think there will be an uprising for power in Russia similar to what's going on in Iran of different leaders and their following trying to get into power.

Doc Webster and wife were up from Zion Station, and bought a 9x12 and a 12x15 Armstrong linoleum rug. Henry Brooks bought tobacco canvas and tobacco seed—he is raising two crops this year. Bob Benton and Bobbie were having trouble with their electric fence charger, so Brewster went down to help find the trouble and found a rusty joint in the fence—he fixed it and Bob took hold of the wire—ask Bob if it works now. Thos. Guard came up and bought a Show-Stok electric fence charger and knobs—we sell lots of these every year.

Geo. Fisher said he wanted a gallon of red paint to paint his barn doors—next time you pass, see if you think they are red enough. Spencer and brother in his electric percolator and Brewster put a new element in it. We had several strangers today and I asked some who they were—they told me they were from Ohio—we have a lot of tourist customers, especially over weekends. Joe Kannady, over Verona way, came in and paid for one of those rubber tired wagons that Chick delivered last week. That is the reason I like to sell farmers—they say send it over and I'll pay you next time I am in town, or some say, fill out a check right now—either way, they are the finest customers in the country—they do just what they say or if they bad luck strikes, they will come in and tell me that they will pay just as soon as possible.

Farmers are the backbone of the country, and Walton vicinity has an extra fine group of them. I heard from Albert Johnson, down in Texas—I miss him a lot. He was one of my star loafers. If he could see Delaney and Bryan Rector with all their teeth out, he sure would laugh—not a tooth in either head—some here. Chas. Stenius, who farms at Keefer and lives here during the winter (his wife teaches in Covington) bought an electric fence charger.

We received some new lift pumps that will pass dairy inspection for only $24.50, which is a lot cheaper than the pumps we have had. Mr. and Mrs. John Tom Roberts of Verona were in today buying aluminum pots and pans. Mr. Willoughby, who operates the farm for Robt. Weaver of Louisville, was buying tobacco canvas. Harry Ellis also came after two tobacco canvases—he raises tobacco on the Sadie Delaney farm. John Dorsey was in today, said he wanted one of those tractor-mounted grass seeders March 18. This is the only tractor seeder that sows in an arc, which does not waste seed.

This was Tuesday, March 3, and some rainy day it was. We had loafers and lots of them, along with a lot of customers, who came to town getting ready for the good weather to break. Hub Fisher and Les Littrell bought Vulcan plow points—they are going to be ready when the ground dries up. Bill Rouse from Crittenden, spent the afternoon with me. Howard Stephenson had a wonderful time fishing in Florida—he is going again. Pahcal Bush was buying tobacco canvas—he is getting ready to raise another good crop of burley, as he always does.

Lewis Stephenson bought a new axe and grub hoe handle—he was feeling very good today. Bill Roberts of Crittenden, bought a new aluminum level and a new hatchet—he is getting ready to build more houses. We just received ten Dayton water systems—we sell a lot of these every year, because Dayton gives service. Mrs. Claudia Ashcraft came after some green Bondee canvas to paint her kitchen inside. This is very good for painting concrete blocks. We received our spring shipment of harness today—some new collars, new breeching, halters, home straps, saddle girths, buggy whips, and black snaffle whips, also several coils hair tassels.

We sell some harness nearly every day—most dealers have quit stocking harness, but I have to take care of my former friends, as a lot of them still use harness. Mr. Herndon of Gallatin county, stopped for a lot of copper wire—he is wiring for a milking machine. Mr. Hess of Demosville, bought a small milk bucket and Chick repaired his water heater. Brewster delivered Mike and Ben Link wire fence and barb wire—put up a new oil drum at Richmond church, then delivered an Armstrong 12x12 rug to Mrs. Henry Black. Two fellows stopped here from Brookville, Ind., and bought a Cole fertilizer drill.

This afternoon two more fellows stopped in hunting wire bale ties—I had after them. They were from Pendleton county. We sold out of rubber tired wagons when Mr. Menefee, over at Parkers Grove, bought the last one, so I called Louisville for three more, also more fertilizer drills, a corn drill and a Vulcan hillside plow. Hubert Wilson of Crittenden, bought a Farmers seeder to mount on the tractor and drives off power take-off, all you have to do is keep seed in the hopper and drive.

Boone County DAR Celebrates First Anniversary

Boyle Hardin, Secretary-Treasurer of the Kentucky Historical Society, Frankfort, was guest speaker at the March meeting of the Boone County Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

A dinner meeting was held Tuesday evening at Doc's Place, near Florence, in honor of the chapter's first anniversary.

Mr. Hardin was introduced by Mrs. Ashlin Logan, program chairman. During his talk, "Relationship Between D. A. R. Genealogy and the Historical Society," Mr. Hardin said, "Genealogy has become a historical science and has been accepted as such, whereas, everybody contributes to history."

Mrs. Roy Nestor, Chapter Regent, gave a report on the D.A.R. State Convention held in Ashland.

The local chapter received first prize in the state for the most outstanding scrapbook, arranged and designed by Mrs. Frances Berkshire, historian. It is beautifully bound in wood and a complete map of Boone County burned in the wood and embossed in gold, graces the front. The contents, attractively arranged, contains the history and events of the county and the Boone County D. A. R. This book may be seen on display in the home of Mrs. Roy Nestor, Florence. The book was judged on historical value, quantity of history, neatness, outside binding, and handwork.

Honorable mentions were received at the State Convention by the Boone County Chapter for membership, publicity and D.A.R. magazine sales.

Mrs. Nestor was named to serve on radio, press and courtesy committees for the coming year. Mrs. Martha Wolfe and Mrs. Janet Wolfe attended the State Convention and reported very impressive meetings.

Miss Jennie Lee Tanner, senior at Florence High School, won second prize for her "Good Citizenship" essay in the state. She will receive an all expense paid trip to Frankfort, where she will be entertained at a tea in the Governor's mansion. The contest was sponsored by the D.A.R. and the school representatives selected on the basis of dependability, service, leadership, personality, and patriotism.

Honored guests were A. M. Yealey, Ashlin Logan, Mrs. Jennie Dean, Mrs. Ethel Kuester, and Miss Virginia R. Nestor.

Others attending were: Mesdames Louise Brown, Clifford Coyle, Floyd Roberts, Reuben T. Connor, John Lockwood, Roy C. Nestor, Garnet Tolin, Clarence Wolfe, J. B. Wolfe, Dean Carter, Charles Goodridge, William H. Goodridge, Hallock Hawes, William Tupper, Rufus Tanner, Harold Conner, Sam Deaton, Sr., Fred Bennett, J. P. Brothers, Robert Woodward, Sam Denham, Jr., Ashlin Logan, Mrs. Frances Berkshire, Miss Evelyn Tanner, Margaret Goodridge, Jeanette Grubbs, Mary Lee Holmes, and Jean Slett.

ABOARD USS TABBERER

Participating in Operation Springboard in the Navy's winter maneuvers in the Caribbean, aboard the escort vessel USS Tabberer was Navy Ensign Jack N. Lewin, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lewin of Walton, Route 1.

Operation Springboard consisted of more than 100 ships and units of the Atlantic Fleet. The training program took place near San Juan, P. R., and Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. The ship is expected to return to Newport, R. I., about the middle of the month.

2-HOUR PARKING

According to Police Chief Simmons a 2-hour parking slot will be enforced in the center of Walton, extending from the Thos. Griffin shoe shop to the Rednour coal and feed business, on both sides of the street. Signs that that effect have been installed and at present "Courtesy" tickets are being given, but after one such notice, the next offense will be taken to Police Court.

SERVING ON BEALE

Participating in Operation Springboard the Navy's winter maneuvers in the Caribbean area, aboard the destroyer escort USS Beale are two Walton men, John A. Borchus, quartermaster, first class, USN, and Leonard W. Smith, seaman, USN.

The Beale is scheduled to return to her homeport of Newport, R. I. about the middle of this month. While in the Caribbean her crew enjoyed liberty and relaxation in the ports of Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

TRAINING AT FORT HOOD

Pvt. Marvin R. Pennington

Pvt. Marvin R. Pennington, the husband of Mrs. Avalon Pennington, 43 Clover Ave., Erlanger, is at Fort Hood, Texas, where he has been assigned to Combat Command "B" of the First Armored Division. Pvt. Pennington attended Walton-Vernon High School and was active in basketball.

Fires Destroy $12,647,231 In Timber Last Year

Forest fires in Kentucky last year destroyed 1,405,359 acres or 2,196 sq. mi. of timber valued at $12,647,231. It was the worst forest fire disaster in 50 years.

According to the Annual Fire Report of the state Division of Forestry, released Monday, the 8,223 fires burned timber on 728,087 acres or 1,137 sq. mi. of protected land and 677,272 acres or 1,058 sq. mi. of non-protected land. There were 2,654 fires on protected land and 5,569 fires on non-protected acreage.

Damage to timber on protected land amounted to $6,552,783 while $6,095,448 damage was recorded on non-protected acreage.

The majority of fires and resulting damage occurred during a 20 day disaster period from October 20 to November 10, according to State Forester H. B. Newland and Assistant Forester H. W. Beckman. Beckman is in charge of fire control for the state.

Lack of rain fall was listed as an important contributing factor in bringing about the over all fire situation.

BOONE GARDEN CLUB

Boone County Garden Club members spent a most enjoyable afternoon, March 10, in the home of Mrs. Paul Chaney, Route 42, Florence.

Special music by Mr. Chaney and Mrs. Ralph Smith and a talk by Mr. Richard Ammon were highlights of the meeting.

Three new members were listed, and refreshments served to 23 members and 10 guests.

The meeting April 14, at 1:30, will be in the home of Mrs. Wilson Fullerton.

Contest Entries Coming In; Clock-Radio to Winner

Entries already are coming in on the contest sponsored by the Advertiser and the WLW-Television stations in Cincinnati-Dayton, and Columbus.

Readers, it appears, are anxious to help in putting on a one-hour, all-star television show with WLW-T, WLW-C, and WLW-D talent.

The winner of the contest conducted by this paper gets a new clock-radio, one that turns on in the morning much like an alarm clock. Send all entries to this paper.

First suggestions include the name of Ruth Lyons. Many readers would like to hear her sing her Christmas song. Several others, who like wrestling, want to hear Neal VanDals as the emcee of the all-star program. Still others write that their favorite is Bonnie Lou, the yodeling cowgirl. Mel Martin and Judy Perkins are others who appear popular.

The contest closes April 4, and the winner will be announced the next week. After that the winning entry will be forwarded to WLW-Television officials and a grand prize winner will be selected in competition with other newspapers. The winner of that contest will get a 21-inch television set. The date of the all-star

Lecture Heard At Meeting of Utopia Club

The Kenton Utopia Club's monthly meeting was held March 11 at Simon Kenton High School, with Mr. and Mrs. John Hettemer as hosts. The session was called to order by the president, Robert Jackson. Roll call was answered by 28 members.

Harry Young was the third of a series of talks on "Farm Management." There was some discussion on the county banquet, which is usually held in May.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cummins, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Finnell, Mr. and Mrs. John Hettemer, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Kloertrup, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wolfing, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Works, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Rich, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Steinhauer, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Blau.

The next meeting will be held April 1, with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Finnell, hosts.

The club wishes to thank Butler Bros., Provico Feed Co. and Northern Ky. Paved Sire Service for helping to make the recent District banquet a success, as well as Everett Wilson for his aid.

4-H POSTER CONTEST

Winners of the Kenton County 4-H Club Poster Contest, which was held in connection with National 4-H Club Week, March 7-15, are as follows: First, Anna Marie Duncan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duncan, Holy Guardian Angel School; second, Charles Crouch, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Crouch, Visalia School; third, Margaret Mueller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mueller, Holy Guardian Angel School. Kenneth Gooney, Independence, placed fourth. A poster made by Roy Preffitt, Buck Reimer and Ray Lykins, Visalia School, placed fifth, and Karen Kays, Independence, received sixth award.

Prizes for the annual Poster Contest, are sponsored by the Kenton County 4-H Club Council.

FINISHES SCHOOLING

Pfc. James N. Code, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Code of Verona, graduated recently from the European Command Medical Training Center at Degerdorf, Germany.

Code, a medical aidman in the 28th Infantry Division, 109th Infantry Regiment's Medical Company, entered the Army in January, 1952. He is a 1949 graduate of Walton-Vernon High School.

DATES FOR 4-H FAIR

John Cigler, president of the Boone County 4-H and Utopia Council, announces that the 1953 4-H and Utopia fair will be held August 6, 7, and 8.

Mr. Cigler states that plans are being made for a larger and better fair.

LUCIAN WEBSTER

Lucian Webster of Elliston, Route 1, died at his home on his birthday, March 16, at the age of 76 years. He was a farmer and a life-long resident of the community.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Cecelia Webster; two sisters, Mrs. Hannah Lunford of Cincinnati, and Mrs. Sidney Caldwell of Verona, and a brother, Price Webster of Verona.

Services were held at 2:00 p. m., on March 17, in the Concord Baptist Church with Rev. Simon Webster officiating. Burial was in Concord Cemetery.

Hamilton Funeral Home, Verona, had charge of arrangements.

METHODIST RALLY

The Covington District of The Methodist Church will have a rally for the Methodist Kentucky Conference financial campaign for three colleges (Union of Owsboro, and Lindsey Wilson of Columbia) at 7:30 p. m., March 24, at Immanuel Methodist Church in Fort Mitchell.

Bishop W. T. Watkins, Louisville, will be the principal speaker. Others on the program will include Rev. Dr. R. R. Patton, Ft. Thomas, district superintendent, and student representatives of the colleges. A film strip depicting the Methodist Church's program of Christian higher education in Kentucky will be shown.

ORGAN DEDICATION

The Hammond organ, which was given to the Walton Baptist Church by Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeMailey, in honor of his parents, Rev. and Mrs. R. F. DeMailey, will be officially dedicated Sunday afternoon, March 22. The program will feature the playing of Mr. James W. Spencer, noted organist of this part of the state. The public is cordially invited.

HIGHWAY IMPROVEMENT

Contractors have been invited by the State Department of Highways to bid on a construction project in Boone County. Bids will be opened March 20.

Plans call for 15.4 miles of bituminous surfacing on the Florence-Warrior road from the intersection of US 25 and US 42 to the Gallatin county line.

CHILDRENS CLINIC

There will be a Clinic for children starting to school next September, at the Walton school, March 25, at 10:00 a. m. You are urged to bring your child as it is required that all children have a physical examination before entering school.

This is free of charge, a service of the County Health Department, with Dr. D. L. Maddox and Dr. Harry R. Daugherty acting as dentist and physician.

GATHERING EGGS

All members of the Willing Workers Class of the Walton Christian Church are sending eggs to the Christian Widows and Orphans Home. Please bring your eggs to Mrs. Katie Ransler this week. Let's fill the egg crate and more, if possible.

The sale of the late Miss Belle Breeze, which was scheduled for Saturday, March 14, has been postponed until Saturday, April 4.

Red Cross Fund Drive Late in Getting Started

Wilton Stephens Candidate for Tax Commissioner

Wilton E. (Steve) Stephens, Boone County Tax Commissioner for the past 20 years, formally announced yesterday, his candidacy for re-election, subject to the action of the voters in the Democratic primary, to be held Saturday, August 1.

Mr. Stephens, a native Boone County, was born at Union, July 29, 1908. His father, the late Thomas P. Stephens, died December 2, 1922, leaving young Steve, at the age of 14, and the oldest of three children at home with the management of the farm. He continued his education after his father's death and graduated from Burlington High School in 1927.

Give Liberally When Solicitor Calls On You

Due to illness of the Fund Chairman, V. D. James, Walton, the Boone County Red Cross Fund Drive is slow in getting started, but now that it is under way, remember to be ready to give when your neighbor comes to your door for your contribution.

Because they believe in the principles of the Red Cross, the following Boone County citizens are members of the local Chapter Board:

R. D. Frost, Mrs. Courtney Pope, Mrs. Albert Pfalzgraf, Mrs. H. C. Steward, John Cigler, Mrs. Howard Acra, Mrs. John Conner, Lawrence Chambers, Mrs. Justin Johns, Mrs. A. H. Gaines, Mrs. J. B. Delph, Malcolm Simpson, Mrs. C. C. Pruett, W. D. Scroggin, Mayoy Hayden, Mrs. Robert Eastman, John O. McEvoy, Dr. and Mrs. John Buxter, Mrs. S. J. Brody, Mrs. M. A. Yelton, Mrs. L. M. Roush, Mrs. Jack Caldwell, Warren G. Miller, Jr., Mrs. A. A. Liggett, Mrs. Stewart Weber.

Officers are: Mrs. A. H. Gaines, chapter chairman; John O. McEvoy, first vice chairman; W. D. Scroggin, second vice chairman; Mrs. Violetta Eastman, treasurer, and Mrs. Ruby Caldwell, secretary. Mrs. Roy C. Nestor is executive secretary.

Wilton E. (Steve) Stephens

Mr. Stephens continued to manage the farm for his mother, Mrs. Susie Stephens, until he made the race for Tax Commissioner in 1933.

"It is with pardonable pride that I review my 20 years in office as your tax commissioner," Mr. Stephens says in his formal statement. "It has been said that am the only Tax Commissioner in the State of Kentucky who makes a house-to-house canvass of the county to make the proper assessment. During the year 1952 only five appeals were made to the Board of Tax Supervisors, in the entire county, which is a strong indication that Boone County's tax assessments have been made fairly, impartially, and equitably."

"Honesty and integrity being equal, there can be no substitute for experience in this extremely tax-conscious age. The people of Boone County have just reason to be proud of the county's fiscal record, the only bonded indebtedness being approximately ten thousand dollars in outstanding road bonds. Boone County has the highest credit rating in Kentucky. Such a fiscal standing could not be possible without a properly administered tax structure."

"I have, to the best of my ability, served the people of Boone County as Tax Commissioner during these long years. I believe that I have knocked at more doors, and greeted more persons than any other man in Boone County. I know that you fine Boone County people have always appreciated courtesy and fairness, and that you will not let this service go unrewarded."

Mr. Stephens is junior past president of the Kentucky County Tax Commissioners' Association, and is a director of the Hebron Perpetual Building & Loan Association. He is a Mason, a member of Burlington Baptist Church, and the Florence Lions Club. In addition, he holds active membership in the Boone County Farm Bureau, Boone County Utopia Club, and the Boone County Fish and Game Club.

In conclusion, Mr. Stephens said, "My association with the people of Boone County has been a pleasure rather than a duty, and if re-elected, I will endeavor to serve you even more efficiently than in the past."

BUY'S ROBERTS PROPERTY

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roberts have purchased two pieces of property in Walton, belonging to the late John E. Roberts estate. One is on Verona Road, a five-acre house and one acre of land, and the other is a duplex house on South Main Street. Possession will be given soon.

CHURCH CANVASS

Richwood Presbyterian Church launched its annual "Every Member Canvass" at the morning worship service last Sunday. Pledges will be signed during a special Loyalty Sunday service on Sunday, March 29. Members unable to attend the service will be contacted by teams of visitors that afternoon.

The sermon by the pastor next Sunday will be on "The Adventure of Christian Tithing." James Stephenson, representing the Board of Deacons, will explain the goals which have been set for Loyalty Sunday.

The men of the church will meet next Saturday (March 21) afternoon at the horse yards some pointing, at 1:00 p. m., or as soon thereafter as possible. If possible, bring your own brush.

Simon Kenton FFA to See New Picture

The story of a split-second decision which becomes the turning point in a young man's life is told dramatically in a new film which will be shown at a meeting of the Future Farmers of America, through John I. Gray, Vo-AG Instructor, Simon Kenton High School, Independence, according to T. C. Russell, State Vice Chairman, Oil Industry Information Committee.

Entitled "Crossroads U.S.A." it gives a powerful close-up of Americana—the drama of enterprise and opportunity which have made this country the greatest in the world.

Produced by the Oil Industry Information Committee, it features an all-Hollywood cast, and was directed by Columbia Pictures Corp.

All action takes place in a little service station on a rain-swept night. In the midst of a group of people who have taken shelter from the storm is a boy on the verge of manhood—a boy who has grown up in the land of opportunity but is, nevertheless, embittered and disillusioned. How his confusion is dispelled, and how his faith in himself is given root and substance are the ingredients which put a mighty wallop in this new motion picture.

EMPLAY 26 PERSONS

Twenty-six men have been accepted for employment as Kentucky State Troopers following a competitive examination held in Frankfort, February 7, according to an announcement this week by the Department of State Police.

The men were chosen from a group of 80 applicants following the tests. Final approval was given by a non-partisan personnel board.

The fledgling officers will be assigned to a period of on-the-job training at one of the 12 Kentucky State Police posts throughout the state prior to the beginning of the 12-week Trooper Training School on April 6.

The Bel-Aires, WLW-Television stars, like the clock-radio which this newspaper will award in the WLW-TV Program Directors Contest. Entries are now being received and the trio appear to be favorite among readers who want to see them on an all-star telecast.

Television star or stars you would like to see on the program. Of course, you must give your reasons.

An entry blank for this contest will be found on page five, this issue.

Independence Homemakers

The Independence Homemakers Club met at the home of Mrs. Charley Davis, McMillan Drive, for their March meeting. Mrs. John Leslie presided over the business session.

Types of garden seeds, which are to be planted at this time, were discussed by Mrs. Logan Wayman, exterior beautification chairman. Blaze and New Dawn are the types of climbing roses recommended for all summer blooming. Due to advanced weather condition, trees, plants and shrubs may be planted in March instead of April.

Forty-eight magazines and 12 books were reported read by reading chairman, Mrs. Aaron Nienhaus.

Quiz on house-cleaning was given members by Mrs. Nienhaus and Clea Snelson. Miss Zelma Byerly gave tips and explanations of questions during the quiz review. After the quiz, leaders demonstrated the lesson by removing lace dailies from the chairs and tables of the hosts. Members were urged to simplify house cleaning by removing unnecessary items of furniture and knick-knacks from their home. Proper length of curtains and drapes is very important. They may be sill or apron length, or one inch from the floor.

An Irish lunch luncheon was served by the hosts to Mrs. Foster Armstrong, Mrs. John Leslie, Mrs. J. C. Reynolds, Mrs. G. H. Houston, Mrs. Walter Moser, Mrs. William House, Mrs. Frank Cox, Mrs. Clea Snelson, Mrs. Aaron Nienhaus, Mrs. Logan Wayman, Mrs. Dameron, of Olive Hill, Ky., Mrs. Carl Fortner and Mrs. Herbert Witte, guests.

G. S. Birthday Party

Members of Girl Scout Troop, 140, and Brownie Troop, 150, celebrated their seventh birthday and the forty-first birthday of the Scout organization at the Independence Fire House, March 12. The Brownies decorated their tables in St. Patrick design and the Scout tables were decorated with the International theme with flags and dolls dressed as Scouts and native costumes and favors were not cups decorated with Penguins. At the speakers table was the Troop birthday cake with seven candles. Following the supper, a Girl Scout Investiture service was held, and Brownies of Troop 150 had their Fly-up into the Scout Troop, 140. Miss Virginia Hunché presented badges to the Junior High groups, then she and her friend, Miss Susan Hill, told about their trip to Europe the past summer with their Marine Troop, 237, Cincinnati, Ohio. They also showed some lovely colored pictures taken in Scotland, Ireland, England, Holland, Denmark, Sweden and Switzerland. At the speakers table were Mr. and Mrs. Milton Borchers and daughter, Linda, Mrs. Hunché, and daughter, Miss Virginia Hunché, Miss Susan Hill, Miss Lena Mills and Miss Mary Stephens. At the close of the meeting, Scout Ila Jones presented Mrs. Bertha Moon with her five-year pin and a pair of Scout Binoculars, as a gift from the Scouts, in appreciation of her five years' service with the Troop.

O. E. S., No. 493

Bradford Star, O. E. S. met last Tuesday night, March 10, and initiation ceremonies were conducted for Edward Schenck and Roy Chambers. We welcome them as new members of our chapter.

Friendship night was announced by the Worthy Matron to be observed at the April meeting. Each member of Bradford Star is to bring a visitor from other O.E.S. chapters. Members of Bradford Star are asked to bring a covered salad bowl for refreshments. The refreshment committee will have charge of the drinks.

After routine business was transacted by the chapter, the order was closed in regular form, and refreshments served. The presiding officers were: Dorothy Finney, Worthy Matron, and Robert X. West, Worthy Patron.

Spring

It is a sure sign of spring when you hear children's voices are louder and to hear them longer in the evenings, when the sun begins to shine more warmer and brighter, and especially when you notice the buds appearing on the bushes and trees. Yes, you know spring is just around the corner when you see the kids straggling in from school and the working persons returning home carrying their coats, best yes, when junior says he'll be right back and it's hours later when you see him with his muddy shoes and torn trousers. But all this goes with spring. You, yourself, will find longer when you go out doors, because the air seems warmer and fresher than inside the house. Those dreaded trips to the barn and chicken house are not half so bad as they were a few days or weeks before. When you catch yourself gazing out the window at the hundred and one things you must remember to do and try to make improvements on, yes, my friends, that means that spring is just a matter of a short time away.

Girl Scouts

This week ends National Cookie Sales for the Girl Scouts and as you know, a percentage of this money goes into the Troop funds for their use during this year. Why not call the Girl Scout in your area and order that extra box. Besides, they are good cookies and with milk, cocoa or coffee make a good lunch, either for yourself or any member of your family. Believe me, I am my daughter's best customer, and I don't mind it a bit. There's a Girl Scout in your area, so give her a ring—I bet that she will have them delivered before you know it!

Fire Department

An ambulance run was made to Taylor Mill Pike and Riggs Road, where Walter Rippberger was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital.

A fire call at 1:30 a. m., last Thursday morning to White Tower Inn, on Taylor Mill Road. Complete loss was estimated by the Independence Fire Chief Tilford Mershon, at $9,000.

DEKALB Wins 5 out of FIRST 10 Places in 1952 Kentucky 5-Acre Corn Derby

Kentucky farmers who entered the 1952 5-Acre Corn Derby with DEKALB CORN, took 5 out of the first 10 places—including the first and second. (See listing below). That's an outstanding record—one that's certainly a good indication of DEKALB's yielding ability, and good reason why you should plant DeKalb in '53. This year's DEKALB SEED, is plump and full of vigor and DeKalb Dealers have varieties that are bred to fit your farm and purpose. See your DEKALB DEALER today.

J. L. and G. F. Hanson, brothers who farm as partners in Lincoln County, won second place with their yield of 111.7 bu. per acre.

Here's Why It Pays to Plant DEKALB!

In the Shadow

Lesson for March 22, 1953

SUPPOSE Jesus had died five seconds after he was born? What difference would it have made to the Christian religion? One of the most ancient Christian creeds says that the Son of God "was made man." Some theologians have supposed that the Christian religion would be no different if all we knew was that for one single instant the Eternal became man; that if Jesus had died five seconds after he was born, he would still have meant to us all that he can ever mean.

This is surely a grotesque mistake. The New Testament declares that the "word became flesh," that is, was made man; but that is only the start of the story. The four Gospels are there to tell us that the Word became Jesus. It makes all the difference in the world what kind of man God-in-the-flesh is.

Last Days Of Hitler

Adolf Hitler was one of the false leaders of men, as Jesus is the true one. They had nothing in common except that when each passed into the shadow of death, he knew it for what it was.

One of the most gruesome books of non-fiction is "The Last Days of Hitler" by H. R. Trevor-Roper (Macmillan 1947). The author, a British Intelligence officer, was sent to find out from evidence fresh on the spot, what actually happened to Hitler in those last days in Berlin. The story is a terrible one, and the more so for being true.

In the days of his glory, Hitler had seemed to millions of people to be a great man. But when the shadows fell, and his "thousand-year empire" was being crushed to powder by the armies of the free, then in the darkness of his underground bunker the real Hitler came out—great only in madness and in evil.

Three monsters stalked his soul in those dark hours. One was inclined to pity him, even to pity the free, then in the darkness of his underground bunker the real Hitler came out—great only in madness and in evil. Those monsters stalked his soul in those dark hours. One was inclined to pity him, even to pity the free, then in the darkness of his underground bunker the real Hitler came out—great only in madness and in evil.

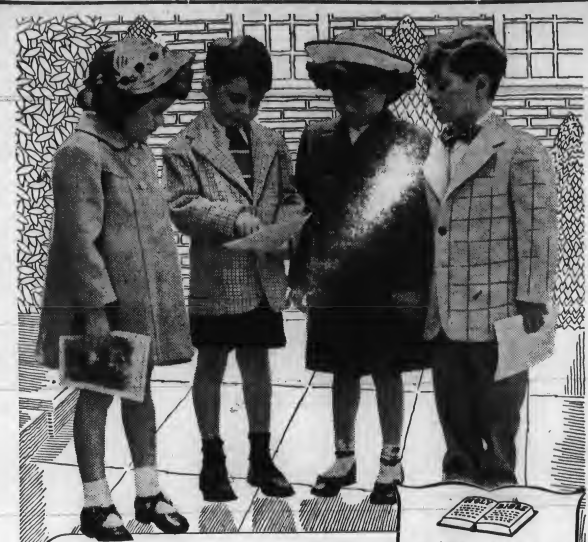

How Was It With Jesus?

How different with Jesus! The light that was in him shone more than ever brightly when the shadows came. Jesus, far from being indifferent to others, was sympathetically aware of them. He appreciated, as others did not, the devotion of the woman who broke over him that flask of perfume. When the disciples felt asleep in Gethsemane, he was not harsh with them, for he knew how weak the flesh can be. Jesus was aware, too, of his friends' weaknesses and sins. He rebuked the quarrelsome disciples at the supper table. He foretold how they would all forsake him and flee. He knew how much fear there was beneath Peter's brave bragging. Yet he did not spend a single word condemning others, not even Judas.

The loving and the unloving, the loyal and the unfaithful, they were all on Jesus' heart in those dark hours. He lived for others then, no less than in earlier days.

Aware Of God

If ever a man had an excuse for bitterness and revenge, it was Jesus. But his lips and heart were free of both. Fear did not despoil him, because he kept on believing in the Father on high. The shadow of death did not conceal the face of God. It would have been easier, you might think, to believe in God's coming Kingdom during the days of success in Galilee than in the Upper Room with death breathing over his shoulder. But even there he was as certain of God's Kingdom as if it had already come. Prayer had surely not always been the agony it was in Gethsemane; but he kept praying even there. That God is and will be the final Judge of all, is not easy to believe in a Pilate's courtroom; but Jesus' faith never trembled. It is this Jesus, the Jesus of the lighted soul, whom Christians honor and serve as Saviour and Lord.

DISCUSSING THE HIGH POINTS

We never learn all we are taught!

In religious education, as in secular, certain truths are grasped immediately; others are stored away in the mind to be understood later; and some are promptly forgotten.

When your child comes home from Church School each Sunday he has grasped a few "high points" of the lesson. You can encourage him by talking them over. He also brings home each Sunday certain impressions. He cannot express or understand them. But they are seeds which, if nourished in a Christian home, will blossom into moral and spiritual character.

But your child leaves behind him many truths which are essential to a mature soul. These "lost" ideas will be re-learned in future experiences at Church. That's why religious training must be continuous. Wise parents study their faith with their children. In our local churches there are classes for young and old.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Mr. and Mrs. Iro Ayala of Bellevue, were recent guests of Mrs. Emma Acker of Shelby Street.

Dr. R. R. Patton, Covington District Superintendent of the Methodist Church, will be guest speaker at the Florence Methodist Church, Sunday, March 21.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Rouse were Mr. and Mrs. Herman Saver and her son, Chas. Hindenberg, wife and baby, relatives from Cincinnati.

Martin Long of Limburg-Pike Pike road, was in the community Monday evening of last week.

The Lute Bradford family has been confined to its home with the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodward were Wednesday evening visitors of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Tanner.

Mrs. Jane Stephens, who has been sojourning in Florida, has returned home, having enjoyed a nice trip.

Glenn to report Mrs. Irene Renaker as being improved and able to be up part time at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Carpenter had as Sunday dinner guests, Theo. and John Carpenter and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keyer and Michael.

Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Moss are at home following an extended visit with their daughter, Mrs. Robt. Carpenter, Mr. C. Carpenter and children of Tucson, Ariz.

Sorry to report the illness of Mrs. S. J. Bradley. Hope she will soon be out.

Friends of Mrs. Bertha Dixon are pleased to know she is much improved from a recent illness. Among her visitors were: Mrs. Norma Veith, Mrs. Daisy Sawyer, Miss Lillian Biedfeld, Miss Jean Rippeot, Mrs. Marie Kinnman, and Harold McClain, all associates at Coplin Department Store, where she is employed.

Other callers were: Mrs. John Daly of Cincinnati; Rev. Gumbrell of Erlanger; Mr. and Mrs. Will Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Ben E. Dixon, Mrs. Frances Dixon, Mrs. W. R. Davis and Mrs. Robt. England.

Dr. and Mrs. Luther Bach of Lexington, spent the weekend at their farm on the "Dixie" Highway, known as Green Acres.

Harry Blackburn and wife of Ludlow, called on his grandmother, Mrs. Annie Clore, Saturday evening.

The local Baptist church is pleased with the increase in attendance at their Bible school, which totaled 256 Sunday morning.

Mrs. Annie Clore and daughter, Mrs. Al Pennington, attended a meeting of the Lantonia Garden Club in Cincinnati, recently.

Mrs. Lena Bentham, 58, succumbed Thursday at Christ Hospital, Cincinnati, following an extended illness. A native of Florence, she had been a resident at 275 McCormick Place, Mt. Auburn, the past several years. Services were from Hopeful Lutheran Church, Sunday at 3:15 p. m., with Rev. Herman Andres, a former pastor, officiating, assisted by Rev. W. S. Mitchell of Epworth Methodist Church, Covington. Mrs. Bentham leaves her husband, A. E. Bentham; her daughter, Mrs. Francis Weisbrodt, San Antonio, Texas; a granddaughter, Connie Lee, and her mother, Mrs. Clara Turner, who made her home with Mrs. Bentham. The Ralph Stith funeral home completed arrangements, and burial was in the church cemetery, beneath a blanket of beautiful flowers. Sympathy of the community is extended the family in their bereavement.

Mr. C. C. Higgins is not so well at this writing.

Mr. Jean Taylor called on his aunt, Jennie Taylor on Sunday. Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Poland in the loss of their tenant house which was destroyed by fire Friday night.

Mrs. Ola Carlton spent the week with Mrs. Liza Carlton.

It sure pays to advertise whatever you have to sell.

The Masons from here attended the ball game at Owenston last week after which a nice lunch was served.

The PTA is doing all they can to have a lunch room installed at the school here.

CARD OF THANKS—

We wish to thank all who were so kind during the illness and death of our loved one, Belle Breeze.

We especially wish to thank those who sent cards and flowers, also Bra. V. F. Lipscomb, Bra. Joe Johnson, the Concord Baptist singers, Dr. J. M. Huey, and the Hamilton Funeral Home.

Mrs. Mollie Shelton, Sister; Mrs. Ruth Walden and Mrs. Christine Wilson, Nieces.

Mr. Bill Johnson has returned from St. Elizabeth hospital and is doing very nicely.

Mrs. Georgia Noel called to see her sister, Mrs. Fennie Noel at Willmington Sunday afternoon and stopped over in Walton and attended the Christian Church services Sunday night.

Stop Taking Harsh Drugs for Constipation

End Chronic Dosing! Regain Normal Regularity This All-Vegetable Way!

Taking harsh drugs for constipation can punish you brutally! Their cramps and gripping disrupt normal bowel action, make you feel in need of repeated dosing.

When you occasionally feel constipated, get gentle but sure relief. Take Dr. Caldwell's Senna Laxative contained in Syrup Pepsin. It's all-vegetable. No salts, no harsh drugs. Dr. Caldwell's contains an extract of Senna, oldest and one of the finest natural laxatives known to medicine.

Dr. Caldwell's Senna Laxative tastes good, acts mildly, brings thorough relief comfortably. Helps you get regular, ends chronic dosing. Even relieves stomach sourness—that constipation often brings.

Try the new 25¢ size Dr. Caldwell's. Money back if not satisfied. Mail bottle to Box 280, New York 18, N. Y.

When Neighbors WORK TOGETHER ... They Find the BEST ANSWERS

Before farmers began working together in their national farm loan associations they were at the mercy of the money lenders. Interest rates were high, renewals were expensive if available at all, commissions were expensive, loans were made for short terms—everything was in favor of the lender.

Then, in 1917, farmers began working together cooperatively through their national farm loan associations and Federal Land Banks to get the BEST in farm loan service. In the years since the Federal Land Bank system was established there have been more improvements in the farm loan service available to farm families than in all the history of the United States up to that time.

It is generally recognized that every major improvement in farm mortgage loans during the past 35 years has been pioneered by the Federal Land Banks and national farm loan associations.

One of these improvements is our low 4% interest rate. Many lenders have raised their interest rates but the Federal Land Bank of Louisville still maintains its rate at the same low 4% that has been in effect since 1935. And the long-term without renewals, the privilege to prepay any amount at any time without penalty, no application fees, no appraisal fees, the future payment fund program, loans based on normal agricultural values—are other improvements.

Working together gives them an opportunity to continue pioneering in making "The BEST farm loan in America" an even better loan.

4 powerful reasons why you get more of what you want...

1953 Chevrolet Advance-Design Trucks do more work for less money!

more engine power!

Advanced Loadmaster engine—standard equipment on 5000 and 6000 Series heavy-duty and forward-control models, optional on 4000 Series heavy-duty trucks.

more braking power!

In 1953, all Chevrolet trucks up to 4000 Series heavy-duty models have "Torque-Action" brakes. Series 4000 and above use extra-large "Torque-Action" brakes in front, "Twin-Action" type in rear.

more staying power!

Now, heavier, stronger, more durable frames increase rigidity, add to ruggedness and give more stamina than ever to all 1953 Chevrolet trucks.

more economy!

The new stamina of Chevrolet trucks, plus extra gasoline economy in heavy-duty models with improved Loadmaster engine, reduces hauling costs per ton-mile.

MORE CHEVROLET TRUCKS IN USE THAN ANY OTHER MAKE!

(Continuation of standard equipment and trim illustrated is dependent on availability of material.)

KENTUCKY

I received a letter from Hugh Arnold, who most of you know, has been sick, but is improving—he wants to thank all of you for the cards and letters he received—send him more, because he is not able to work yet—Hugh, like all other people who move away from Kentucky, likes to hear what we are doing back here. Kentucky is a great state, maybe some of you do not realize it is such a wonderful place to live—you may make more money in other states but there is always a catch to it. We may be called briar hoppers or hill billy, but I am proud to be these, aren't you?

We received, today, three more rubber tired wagons, two Cile fertilizer drills, one Campbell corn and fertilizer drill, and one Vulcan hillside plow. We have a horse-drawn 12-16 inch disc harrow—a Roderick-Lean make and a good one. Mrs. Florence Woods, down at Richmond, bought a new lift pump to put on her cistern. John Adams was in town today but didn't stay long. Russell Sparks bought a bull ring. Tom McCormick from Sherman, stopped for three boxes of hog rings and some stove bolts. Bernard Ryan came after a Synocase plow plant. Chick sold several gallons of Balce Interior Gloss paint, but I didn't know who and never found out.

We have people come in here and call for Balce paint that we never saw before—said their neighbor used Balce paint and it made a wonderful job. I have found in fact 17 years that any paint with Balce label on it is the best paint you can buy for the money—we very seldom ever have any trouble, if so, Balce always satisfies my customer. Just today, I called Balce and told him I was having some trouble with some paint he was selling for another manufacturer—he said send it all back for full credit—now that is the kind of people you are dealing with when you buy Balce paint.

Red Belcher, who operates Woodland Inn, asked if I still sold Balce paint—he wanted to paint all of his buildings early this year—he really likes Balce paint. Herman Simmons' wife called for a gallon of Balce Interior Gloss to paint her kitchen—the base is waisted with linowall in blue and she painted the walls and ceiling canyon yellow, a very beautiful kitchen. Raymond Baker called for a 36 inch turnbuckle which I did not have—he said I had better put it in the paper that this was one thing I did not have in stock.

Mrs. Ralph Vest, a good customer of mine, was in for tobacco canvas—she already bought a Bemis setter and a rubber tired wagon from me. Hotdog came in for tobacco canvas, in a hurry. Gaynelle Flynn also hurried in for tobacco seed—all were trying to get those plant beds sowed before the rain. Mark Meadows bought his wife a Sunbeam Deep Fryer—they are just wonderful to cook so many different foods in—it tells on the name plate what all you can cook and how long. Anna Mae Simpson must have heard Malcolm talk about the Sunbeam Deep Fryer, because she came in and bought one—now the whole newspaper force can have food cooked in a Sunbeam Deep Fryer.

Mr. Houston, over on Taylor Mill Road, brought his Betty Crocker electric iron in for repair—he said ever since his wife read my ad, how wonderful it was at Hot Springs and what that water could do for you, she had all kinds of aches and pains—so nothing to do but take her to Hot Springs now, so she can get in condition to raise a big garden this year. Mr. Katie Hudson just came in for fence staples. Hester Guard needed more tea cups and a vinegar bottle.

Mrs. Lindsey Brasher and Mrs. Robert Webster were in today buying a few articles and got the electric clock I sent in for repair. Mrs. Beulah Stephenson bought a paint roller—she is going to do the painting at house cleaning time—with these rollers most anyone can become a painter. That Ralph Sparks is a bird—he bought a mule collar, then he decided to buy a tractor, sold the mule, brought the collar back, and traded for an oil drum and of course $4.50 to boot.

Mrs. Emma Flynn was looking at linoleum—she is going to cover her kitchen floor. Mrs. Seagle, mother of Mrs. Ben Menke, bought two 9x12 linoleum rugs—we sell linoleum every day. We took down the old Jumbo coil heater today and put up an oil heater for the rest of the season—we sold this heater three times and had to take it back because it would not heat—take a look at it now—as I have told you before, you must have a good chimney with lots of draft for an oil heater. It has been burning three days and puts out plenty of heat.

Mrs. Alfred Hume was in today, bought a lot of Balce paint and enough Armstrong linoleum for her kitchen—she is a real housekeeper—keeps everything shining. Mrs. Solia Day had me deliver her five steel fence posts. J. C. Kennedy sent over for two rolls of field fence. Clarence Struve just came in for tobacco canvas. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Whaley are moving to Union—she bought window shades, curtain rods, nails, staples and a garden rake. Helen Stephenson bought four plastic window shades. Rev. T. C. Crume came up for harness—I sold him bridles, halters, home straps and made him four rope halters and rope lines. Tom Carr and Bob Hoffman bought a lot of wiring material to put up some outdoor lights at Tom's farm. Come to CONRAD HARDWARE, we have the largest stock ever in this store.

Half-Way Mark Reached In TV All-Star Show

Readers of the Advertiser have a lot of good ideas on what they would like to see on the all-star one-hour television show to be produced by the WLW-TV station.

With the half-way mark reached in the contest, sponsored by this paper and WLW-TV, practically every star has his or her names on the list.

The contest closes on April 4, and the winner will be announced the following week. A new clock-radio set, made by Crosley, will go to that person. In addition, WLW-TV officials will attempt to use the suggestion on the program on a date yet to be selected.

In addition to the clock-radio set, the winner of the Advertiser contest will get a chance to win a 21-inch television set at a grand prize.

In that final contest all winning entries—from this newspaper and others—will be examined and a grand prize winner selected.

Entries received by the Advertiser indicate that Dick Hageman, Russ Brown, Marion Spelman, Jane Lynn, Sally Flowers and others are popular with readers.

It is simple to get into the contest. Just write in 50 words or less the WLW-TV station or stars you would like to see on the all-star program and give your reasons. Your suggestion, in addition to winning a clock-radio set given by this newspaper, may be used on the show.

Do not send your entries to WLW-TV. Address them to this newspaper if you wish to enter the contest sponsored by the Advertiser.

Baptist Youth to Meet Saturday In Covington

The first meeting of the Northern Kentucky Baptist Youth for Christ will be held at the Southside Baptist Church, Covington, Saturday night, March 28, at 7:45 o'clock. The program is under the auspices of the Baptist Training Union of North Bend and Campbell County Association of Baptists. Bob Brown and Russell Heyne are in charge, and Chas. L. Gorringer is the host pastor.

Tentative plans are for a bi-monthly Saturday night Youth Fellowship program for the young people from the 53 co-operating Baptist churches. Boys and girls from the Junior age group through the Young Adult ages are expected. Leaders expect from 500 to 750 in attendance each week.

The program will consist of ten discussion groups from 7:45 to 8:15. The inspirational service will begin at 8:15. Tom Cole will direct the music with the Youth Choir from the Latonia Baptist Church. Joe Cantorani of Bullittsburg, Lanny Setters, 10-year-old boy soprano, and a girl's trio from Southside providing special music. Testimonies will be given by George Claiborne, head football coach at Georgetown College, and several outstanding young people from Northern Kentucky. Rowlin Armour of Louisville, will be the speaker. A dynamic young person, he will thrill the audience. At 9:15 a fellowship hour, featuring games and refreshments, will be led by Dick Carlton, Bellevue.

Everyone is invited to attend this important kick-off service of the Northern Kentucky Baptist Youth for Christ.

WILMINGTON W.M.S.

The Wilmington Baptist W. M. S. met Wednesday, March 4, at the home of Mrs. Taylor Rapp. Several items of business were presented, which was followed by the Royal Service program, led by Mrs. James Kidwell.

After a delicious covered dish dinner, the order of prayer for Home Missions was presented, led by Mrs. Marion Martin. All members participated in both programs.

The following members and visitors answered roll call with a scripture verse: Mesdames Marvin Mullins, H. W. O'Doherty, Leslie McMillan, Nick Parr, Odie Fisk, Joe Wilson, William Hagan, Marion Martin, Lewis Daniels, Frank Daniels, Newell Spegal, H. G. Bridges, James Kidwell, B. N. Spegal, Adrian Durr, Berry Cook, Dove Fisk, Taylor Rapp, Marion Collins, Sr., Harvey Corliss, and Mrs. Mae Forehan and four children.

ATTEND SCHOOL BOARD CONVENTION AT LEXINGTON

Members of the Walton-Verona Board of Education who attended the convention of the Kentucky School Boards Association held at the University of Kentucky, Lexington, March 18, were: J. O. Ward, superintendent; O. F. Young, and D. J. Roberts.

While attending the meeting, the 400 board members were assigned to small groups where they discussed their districts' plans for promoting a foundation program of education in Kentucky.

A resolution passed unanimously at the 18th annual meeting of the association stated that the organization "feels that Kentucky cannot fail to provide for her children the opportunities of an adequate program of public education."

Holy Week Services at the Christian Church

The pastor and members of the First Christian Church, Walton, have planned special Holy Week services to be held on Palm Sunday and continue until Easter. The Sunday morning sermon will be, "The Royal Reception," and the 7:30 p. m. theme will be, "I Met God Wednesday, April 1, at 7:30 p. m., a special prayer program will be presented, which is sponsored by the Christian Women's Fellowship and the Young Women's Guild. At 8 p. m., Thursday, April 2, there will be a candlelight Communion service, in which the Guild will assist the pastor in preparation. Friday, April 3, at 2 p. m., the women, under the direction of Mrs. H. F. Mann, will present a devotional and prayer program. All of these services will be presented in the sanctuary of the church.

Easter morning at 6:30 a. m., a Union Sunrise prayer service will be presented in the First Baptist Church, with Rev. Chas. A. Vaughn being the speaker. At 10 a. m., Easter morning, there will be two Bible School openings. All adults will meet in the sanctuary and all children and young people in Fellowship Hall. The Easter program will begin at 11 a. m. The goal has been set at "Just under 300" for Sunday School, Easter.

The public is cordially invited to attend any or all of these programs.

Auction Well Attended

The auction held March 13 at the Walton Sales Barn was a great success, and a huge crowd was on hand. Over $3,600 in merchandise was sold. The same man will be back in about six weeks—look for ads in this paper.

P.T.A. NAMES OFFICERS

The Walton-Verona P.T.A. met on Wednesday, March 18, at the school. Officers elected for the coming year will be announced at the next meeting, to be held in the school auditorium Friday evening, April 24 at 7:30. All fathers are especially invited to attend. Pie and coffee will be served.

At the March meeting, the P.T.A. voted to pay for first aid supplies, to be kept by each teacher for use in her own classroom.

Lake Opens Saturday

The Walton Reservoir will open to fishermen this Saturday, March 28. Anyone may buy a season ticket, or fish by the day with no club membership necessary. The lake will be stocked with new fish this spring.

Is Vocational Home Economics All Cooking and Sewing?

By Betty Borberick
Did you know that there is more to Home Economics than cooking and sewing? There are seven areas of Vocational Home Economics, only two of which relate to the use of the kitchen. The seven areas are: Child Care and Guidance, Relationships, Foods, Clothing, Health, Housing and Management. An attempt is made to fit the year's Home Economics units into the above mentioned areas. Some sample units that are taught in Home Economics are: Infant Care, Teenage Problems, The High School Girl Selects Her Food, Simple Garment Unit, Selecting a Place to Live, First Aid and Manpower. In the Infant Care unit we learn how to take proper care of infants and small children. The relationship unit, Teenage Problems, is devoted to the various problems facing teenagers of today. The High School Girl Selects Her Food is a familiar unit in the foods area. In it we learn how to plan, prepare and serve nutritious meals. Everyone who has taken home economics can identify and construct a good kitchen apron, that is explained

Kenton County Clothing Training School Is Held

Fifty-four leaders, representing 27 homemakers clubs, attended a clothing training school on Thursday, March 19, at the Covington YMCA. Miss Dorothy Threlkeld, Northern Kentucky Extension Specialist in Clothing, presented a lesson on "Planning a basic wardrobe," that would take the homemaker to all activities outside the home. She stated that a basic wardrobe should be simple in character, the clothes should have good classic lines and the fabrics the best quality the budget can afford. She also said that one should be able to wear from four to seven years any garment that is well cut and simple in design. A complete basic wardrobe was presented to illustrate the lesson. Leaders participated by modeling basic suits and dresses.

Leaders attending were: Mrs. W. N. Hoffman, Mrs. H. M. Stark, Mrs. Alfred B'Hymer, Mrs. E. H. Groger, Mrs. Gus Schaefer, Mrs. Frank Afterkirk, Mrs. Joe Becker, Mrs. Ray Scheybold, Mrs. Robt. Heilemann, Mrs. Robert Waite, Mrs. Harold Eubanks, Mrs. A. Stoot, Mrs. Marie Hagedorn, Mrs. M. T. Easter Cantata At Methodist Church April 5

An Easter Cantata, "The Song of Triumph," by Edward W. Noman, will be presented by a mixed choir at the Walton Methodist Church at 11:00 a. m., Sunday, April 5, under the direction of Mrs. Sarah J. Hudson. In addition to the group singing, there will be six solos, two duets, and one quartet.

The choir has been working faithfully for a long period of time in order to present as true a rendition as possible of this Easter Cantata.

"It will be worth your while," said the pastor, Rev. G. W. Hoffman, "to be present and be uplifted by the glorious Easter message the Cantata will proclaim."

The Easter Sunrise service will be held at the Baptist Church at 6:30 a. m., on Sunday, April 5. Music for the service is in charge of Mrs. Bryan Reator, and Rev. C. A. Vaughn will deliver the message.

IN SAFETY WORK

State Trooper Don Wright

State Trooper Don Wright, 26, Burnside, has been assigned to full time highway safety work in Boone county and 29 other Kentucky counties in central Kentucky from the Ohio River to the Tennessee border.

Wright will organize and assist school patrol, in addition to delivering safety speeches to civic organizations and schools. He also is conducting several radio programs dealing with traffic safety subjects. His headquarters will be at Richmond.

PINER W.M.S. MEETS

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Piner Baptist Church met in the church basement February 24 for the regular monthly meeting.

Those present were: Mrs. June Beigle, Mrs. Lucy Beigle, Mrs. Myrtle Bell, Mrs. Mary Elliott, Mrs. Lorena Forhan, Mrs. Ruby Linder, Mrs. Christina Oliver, Mrs. Libby Tyner, Mrs. Frances Gross, Mrs. Christine Tugate, Mrs. Cecil Belev and Miss Edith Menzies. The meeting was opened with all singing "The Churches One Foundation." Mrs. Christina Oliver read the scripture, followed by prayer by Mrs. Frances Gross. In the morning business, the kitchen committee reported $50 cups and 24 plates had been purchased by the society. The group will continue to buy dishes and utensils until the necessary items are bought. The Annie Armstrong program was held March 4 at the church, and a covered dish lunch was enjoyed. Forty-five cards were sent and 26 visits made during the month. The collection was $10.50.

After a nice lunch, the regular Royal Service program, "Winning the Marmons to the Right Way," was given. All present took part. The meeting was dismissed with prayer by Mrs. Tyner.

The next meeting will be held at the church March 31.

LOYALTY SUNDAY

March 29 is Loyalty Sunday at the Richmond Presbyterian Church. Goals are: (1) Every member present and making a pledge of financial support for current expenses, benevolences, and building fund; (2) attendance of over 100, and (3) the enlisting of others.

A pitch-in dinner will follow the morning service.

Good Friday services will be held on April 3, at 7:30 p. m. and the Easter Sunrise service at 11:00 a. m., April 5. Easter Sunrise services with Hughes Chapel are to be at 7:00 a. m. with Rev. V. V. Hill preaching.

The Future Homemakers of America

Chapter at Simon Kenton is a very active one and has a membership of 64 girls. Members of the chapter are always busy working on degrees, committees and various other activities of the organization. At the present time the local chapter is planning to entertain the Covington District Future Homemakers on April 11, for their regular spring district meeting. On April 21, the annual Mother and Daughter banquet will be held in the school cafeteria.

Simon Kenton has a cannery that is open to all local residents who wish to use it in the summer. The school agriculture and home economics teachers, Mr. John I. Gray and Mrs. Gayle McElroy, are the cannery supervisors. Last year 10,000 cans of food were processed at the cannery. The cannery is sponsored by the Kenton County Board of Education and the Division of Vocational Education at Frankfort.

It is hoped that now when you hear Vocational Home Economics you will know that there is more to it than cooking and sewing.

Many Participate In Piner Talent Program

Surviving are his widow, Virginia; three daughters, Mrs. W. P. Shinkle of Aurora, Ind., Mrs. Henry Harrod of Amelia, Ohio, and Mrs. William McCormick of Burlington; five sons, Perlin and Hubert of Ludlow, Jesse of Lawrenceburg, Ind., Thomas of Cincinnati and John Loudon of Covington; 23 grandchildren, and 15 great-grandchildren.

Joint O.E.S. Inspection Held At Williamstown

Walton Chapter, 161, O. E. S., was inspected with Williamstown and Dry Ridge at Williamstown, last Tuesday evening, March 17. The inspection was impressive and each chapter coordinated beautifully to make it so.

The school auditorium was beautifully decorated with flowers, the choice paraphernalia of each chapter was used, and the American and Christian flags occupied prominent places in the East, centered with the Worthy Grand Matron's motto for the year: "Do unto others as you would they do unto you."

Of note was the special music rendered by the Williamstown choir. A solo, "The Lord's Prayer," was rendered by Mrs. Catherine Simpson.

The Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Edith Wachman, Lexington, presented her objectives for the year: Shriners, Crippled Children, and O. E. S. Home Fund. She commended the chapters on their efficiency in the presentation of the work of the Order of Eastern Star.

After the close of the meeting, refreshments of salads, ham sandwiches, home made cakes, and cakes were served.

Clark; Hymn, congregation, and Benediction, Rev. Vaughn.

Hughes Chapel - Richwood Easter Services Planned

The congregations of Hughes Chapel Methodist and Richwood Presbyterian Churches will hold their annual Easter Sunrise service at 7:00 a. m., Sunday, April 5. Rev. V. V. Hill of Hughes Chapel will bring the message, and the public is cordially invited to attend this inspiring service, which will be held in the Presbyterian Church.

CHURCH DECORATIONS

The Willow Wood Flower Shop, Walton, will loan to the churches for their Easter decoration a decorated cross, or seven-branched candelabra, or pedestal vases. These are materials used in professional decoration and could serve to enhance the church for this occasion. Church groups are requested to call at the Flower Shop either Saturday, March 28, or Friday before Easter.

HIGHWAY CONFERENCE

County Judge C. L. Cropper, County Road Engineer Sherman Burdum, and members of Boone County Fiscal Court have been invited by Gov. Lawrence W. Wetherby to attend the Kentucky Highway Conference in Lexington, April 2-3. Some 500 county officials and others interested in Kentucky's highway program are expected to attend the conference, which will be on the campus of the University of Kentucky. The event is sponsored annually by the State Department of Highways and the University's College of Engineering.

"B" Team Tourney At New Haven Won by Hebron

By Marie Martin
The "B" team of Walton-Verona won its first game of the tournament when it defeated Burlington.

Walton was leading all the way, 8-4 first quarter; 15-14 at the half; 29-20 at the third period, and the final score 41-25. Top man was Walton's forward who scored 22 points.

The second game was also played on Monday night, Hebron defeating New Haven 52-32.

The second night of the tournament, a consolation game was played by the two losers, to determine third place, and Burlington defeated New Haven 38-35.

The second game featured Hebron and Walton-Verona in the championship tilt. Walton played good ball all the way. Hebron led 13-12 at the quarter; 21-18 at halftime. Walton had a 7-point lead at one time during the third quarter, but as the period ended led only 36-33. During the final period, Hebron took the lead again and won, 43-40. Hebron's second team went through the entire season without a defeat, winning 23 straight games.

Walton scoring: Courtney 20, Howard 6, Grubbs 5, Martin 5, Bell 3, Lay 1.

LITERARY CLUB MEETING

"History of Fashions and Fashions of Today," will be the subject of a program to be given by Mr. Fred Macklin of Coplin's for the meeting of Walton Wagon's Literary Club at the Walton Methodist Church, Wednesday, April 1, at 2:30 p. m., with Mrs. Lloyd Watson, hostess. Every member has the privilege of bringing a guest.

An election of officers will be held, with Mrs. Julia A. Rouse presiding.

FOR BOONE HIGHWAYS

Highway contracts executed last year for Boone County totaled $114,773.40 for 23.8 miles of construction and maintenance, according to a final tabulation for 1952, just completed.

Kenton Elementary P. T. A.

The guest speaker at the meeting of the Kenton Elementary School P. T. A., held recently, was Mrs. James I. Tichenor, president of the Sixth District, Kentucky Congress of Parents and Teachers Association. Mrs. Tichenor spoke on the "Guiding Principles of Parent-Teachers Association," giving an interesting outline on the purpose and principles of the P. T. A. She also stated that "A teacher is an expert with special training in a field. That punctuality and attendance of their children are the obligation of the parents. Parents should see that their children have a quiet and uninterrupted place for study." She further declared that "Parents should visit the schools to talk with teachers and meet the parents of other children. It gives you an understanding of what your school is doing and what the teachers are attempting to teach."

Miss Lucy Williams, first grade teacher, read the devotion.

It was decided that the P. T. A. sponsor a bake sale immediately following the two programs that the school will give on April 21 and May 5.

Student Aid Week will be observed the last week in March.

The following officers were elected to hold office for the next two years: Mrs. Wootson Ashcraft, president; Mrs. Robert West, secretary, and Mrs. Dwight Maddox, treasurer.

Mr. Bailey's fifth grade room won the attendance award for March. Following the meeting, the third grade mothers served refreshments in the cafeteria.

Mrs. George Riley, Mrs. George Fick, Mrs. Clarence Klump, Mrs. John Cain and Mrs. William Eger will represent the Kenton Elementary School P. T. A. at the meeting of the Sixth District P. T. A., on March 26 at the Highlands High School.

Mrs. George Riley, president, has announced that the Executive Board of the Kenton Elementary School P. T. A. will meet at 1:30 p. m., at the school, Monday, March 30.

"LITTLE SQUIRT" is a

BIG SHOT on the Southern!

OUR "LITTLE SQUIRT" is an ingenious gadget that oils car journals automatically for the first time in railroad history. And it does the job more effectively than it has ever been done before.

But the big thing about "Little Squirt" is not what it does but what it represents. For like many others we are using, this better-railroading tool, on which a patent is pending, was invented right here on the Southern as a result of our constant search for new ways to do a better job.

This policy of "constructive discontent"—of never being satisfied with things as they are—leads to answers, large and small, that help us provide continuing low-cost, dependable, ever-improving transportation service for the South we serve.

U. S. Savings Bonds

John U. Courtney, State Director, today announced that the sale of U. S. Savings Bonds in Kenton County amounted to $121,672.00 during the month of February. The 1953 sale goal for this county is $2,150,000. Sales of U. S.

Savings Bonds for the State of Kentucky during the month of February amounted to $4,923,309 of which $3,513,755 was in Series E and H bonds.

Tree Ripened Fruit

Orders are now being accepted for tree-ripened oranges and grapefruit. Since so many persons have asked about the next shipment of fruit to be ordered by the Independence Fire Department, I am suggesting you get in contact with any member of this department and your order will be submitted promptly. If a member cannot be reached, you may call Mr. William Bach, Holly 3141, and he will inform you of what the purchase price will be. All persons who orders fruit are promptly notified when shipment arrives at the Fire House. Group shipments to one designated place cuts cost of fruit and transportation charges, giving the persons who order a very nice savings on the best fruit available.

To Girl Scouts and Squeters

Butler State Park will be operated as an established camp this year. The Girl Scout Council has been fortunate to secure experienced volunteers to assume responsibilities of unit leaders, unit assistants, kitchen assistants and the many other jobs which make up a camp staff. Sometimes unalterable conditions make it impossible for people to carry out their present plans. It is the feeling of the camp committee that it would be wise to have a "reservoir" of people who might be called upon to go to Butler Park if it should prove that some of our present people find it impossible to attend. If you would be willing to have your name added to this list, please call Mrs. Joseph Bene, Beechmont 8533.

For the volunteers to see and know more about their probable jobs, they may attend the adult day of Butler State Park, Saturday, May 4—the purpose of this day is to have the volunteers see the camp site and the program possibilities the site offers. We would suggest that mothers of girls be particularly encouraged to go for this day, since this will enable them to better understand our camping program. This is not only for mothers or relatives of Girl Scouts, but also for women interested in Girl Scout work and its helpfulness toward making better future citizens.

Remember

Remember to attend the Kenton County Taxpayers League meeting scheduled at 8 p. m., Thursday, March 26, at the Independence Courthouse. The subjects under discussion for improvements will be: McMillan Drive, Green Road, and most important is the dangerous curve at Chisel Bridge.

Ambulance Runs

Over last weekend three ambulance runs were made and all were cases of serious auto accidents, two of which occurred at Chisel Bridge. The first happened early last Saturday morning, when John W. Hearne, 35, of Madison, Ind., suffered head injuries when his auto skidded and crashed into the bridge. The second occurred Saturday night at Chisel Bridge and two persons were killed, and one person injured seriously. The third accident took place on Taylor Mill Pike last Sunday, near Nicholson, involving both sons of Woody Butler. Allen Butler, driver of the car, suffered internal injuries, and John received a slight cut on his nose.

WE HONOR:

We, the members of Hickory Grove Baptist Church and Sunday School, wish to honor Bro. Walter Moffett on his regular and faithful attendance and work in our church. Bro. Moffett was 74 years old last week and he remembers attending our church 70 years. He was Sunday School superintendent for a number of years. We pray that he will be able to keep this wonderful record going for many more years. God bless you, Bro. Moffett, the prayer of all of us. We enjoyed a very nice talk he made for us last Sunday.

MEMBERS OF HICKORY GROVE

CARD OF THANKS—

We wish to thank everybody for their kindness and help during the death of our mother and sister, Pearl Brown Hall, of San Diego, Calif., who passed away March 15.

FLORENCE

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Howard of Norwood, Ohio, were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Tanner, Sunday of last week. Mrs. Paul Chaney was hostess to the Garden Club recently at her home on U. S. 42.

Mrs. Mary Wilson and Mrs. Ann Bodie of the Rabbit Hash community were doing some paperhanging in Florence recently.

Mrs. Emma Aylor was with Mrs. Clara Tanner at the home of A. E. Benthum of Mt. Auburn, during the past week. Miss Lucille Rucker attended a union service at the First Presbyterian Church, Covington, Monday evening of last week. Rev. Smith of Central Christian Church was the speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Drake and Miss Viola Fay of Erlanger, were calling in Florence, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keyer were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Carpenter, Sunday.

Mrs. Harry Tanner had as a guest from Wednesday through Sunday, her cousin, Mrs. Lizzie Harris, of Benton, Texas.

E. G. Stephenson moved recently to a location on Main St., Erlanger, just off Dixie Highway, and the P. J. Allens are now located in the home vacated by Mr. Stephenson.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert West and children of Louisville, were weekend guests of Mrs. Marie Kinman and father. Mr. and Mrs. West are seeking a location here, as Mr. West graduates from the Louisville Dental College in June, and is desirous of an office here to practice his profession of dental surgery.

Rev. C. N. Ogg, Larry Miller, Mr. Tankersley, Mrs. Robert Miller and Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Mitchell attended a called session of the Kentucky District Conference, which convened at Lexington, recently. Lunch was served at the University of Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Miller entertained at dinner Sunday of last week for Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Moss.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodward entertained very graciously Sunday with a turkey dinner, honoring Mrs. P. J. Allen on the occasion of her birthday. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Tanner and Mr. Allen. Among other delicacies which graced the table was the traditional birthday cake, decorated with candles. The party enjoyed a jolly time together and the celebrant was happy to have been a guest at this festive occasion.

Mrs. Irene Renaker has returned home from St. Elizabeth Hospital and is doing nicely. Her friends wish her a rapid recovery.

When Neighbors WORK TOGETHER ... They Find the BEST ANSWERS

Before farmers began working together in their national farm loan associations they were at the mercy of the money lenders. Interest rates were high, renewals were expensive if available at all, commissions were expensive, loans were made for short terms—everything was in favor of the lender.

Then, in 1917, farmers began working together cooperatively through their national farm loan associations and Federal Land Banks to get the BEST in farm loan service. In the years since the Federal Land Bank system was established there have been more improvements in the farm loan service available to farm families than in all the history of the United States up to that time.

It is generally recognized that every major improvement in farm mortgage loans during the past 35 years has been pioneered by the Federal Land Banks and national farm loan associations.

One of these improvements is our low 4% interest rate. Many lenders have raised their interest rates but the Federal Land Bank of Louisville still maintains its rate at the same low 4% that has been in effect since 1935. And the long-term without renewals, the privilege to prepay any amount at any time without penalty, no application fees, no appraisal fees, the future payment fund program, loans based on normal agricultural values—are other improvements.

Working together gives them an opportunity to continue pioneering in making "The BEST farm loan in America" an even better loan.

Spring Is Here!

Spring blew in last Saturday and now we can be ready for Easter and some cold rainy days along with some warm days—in Old Kentucky we have all kinds of weather, hardly two days alike unless it is in a hat, dry spell in the summer, then we may have several days of rain. The grass has already started to grow and some is about ready to mow—we have a large stock of hand and power lawn mowers, and most of them are cheaper than last year—we sell Eclipse, Reo and Mastercut in rotary and reel type mowers—look ours over before you buy.

Nell Dudgeon just bought a pair of Case Pinking Shears. John M. Baker came up for a rubber tired wheelbarrow. Mr. and Mrs. Will Hoard bought a lift pump for their dairy barn. Brewster worked Mrs. Corine Code's brooder stove over—cleaned it out and put up new pipe. Bill Piner bought three gallons of Balca Interior Gloss enamel, yellow enamel, red enamel, 5 rolls border, a point roller and pan, also shelf paper, two yo-yos and a harmonica—some assortment. Mrs. Emma Flynn is going to paint her kitchen linoleum and stiplite it, which will make a very nice floor.

C. O. Carlisle bought a Paragon sprayer and a bucket of fruit tree spray mixture. Thos. Stephenson, up Crittenden way, was in for sprayer repairs and tobacco setter repairs. John Shaw, who lives on Taylor Mill at Whites Tower, came over for a dairy type pitcher pump with sealed top. We unloaded on 8-ft. Mt. Vernon lime and fertilizer spreader today—we can sell this spreader for only $229.00 with tires. Phil Kohler just came in and sold his wife over a Maytag washer in the morning. Chuck put 4 feet of threads on a ¾-inch rod for Sammie Burns—good thing we had a threading machine.

Howard Denner came in yesterday for some gate hooks to go through the post and put nut on, to hang a gate on—called Cincinnati and had them today. T. C. Crume wanted two 17-inch mule collars—I called Cincinnati and had them today—that is what I always tell you—if we don't have it, we will try to get it. Come to CONRAD, I take great interest and pride in getting and doing things other merchants have tried and failed or just didn't want to be bothered. I have wasted many a phone call to Cincinnati, Louisville and Lexington trying to help a customer, but failed to find what he wanted, but that is part of the service you get when you are a customer of CONRAD HARDWARE.

I have a new patented poultry fountain—it is 6 ft. long with a round pole on top to keep chickens off—all you do is screw a water hose or pipe on it and attach to a faucet, turn it on and chickens have water all summer, only $14.50—it is automatically controlled.

ed with a copper float and adjustable for all sizes of chickens. We have a very good stock of chick equipment—brooders, feeders and fountains.

Ernest McCain and wife from Crittenden bought enough Armstrong linoleum for their kitchen. Mrs. Oaks Webster bought window shades. Mrs. Katie Hudson came after a pair of check lines for their tenant. Spencer Reed wanted grass seed that will grow, so I sold him 10 lbs. of Eden Park, like we sowed in front of the new fire house. If it grows like that, he had better get his lawn mower ready. Walter King was in after me. John Dorsey bought one of those grass seeders that you put on draw bar of tractor and drive off power take-off.

Saturday started the lawn mower season—Ira Thornton, over Verona way, bought a hand lawn mower. Elmer Richards bought a Reo power lawn mower. Simeon Webster of Elliston bought a hand mower. That started the season—if you need a lawn mower, I believe you can find more lawn mower for your money at CONRAD HARDWARE than any other store, because I like to sell you a lawn mower for the least possible money, that will give you service and cause the least trouble. That is hard to do, because I have had more trouble keeping my customers happy with power lawn mowers than any other thing I've ever sold.

But I believe we have the lawn mowers now that will give service—the Eclipse and Mastercut are the best two mowers we can buy—a little higher, but the best. Mrs. Wm. Lancaster was buying chicken fountains. Mrs. Clara McMillan and daughter from Falkburg were buying three pruners and pocket knife. Sally Roberts came after fruit tree spray for her peach trees. John Dorsey bought a Farmers Feeder grass seeder to put on the draw bar of tractor and run off power take-off—just ride and sow.

Bertha Jack and Helen Gatewood were looking at Maytag washers—Helen needs a new one before long—it must be Maytag, as most everyone knows, they are the best. Bill Rouse from Crittenden came down to look but he bought three cow collars, 6 eye bolts, a pair of vise-grip pliers and wanted a feed scoop, which I was out of. We sell some harness nearly every day—a bridle, halter, check lines, breast chains or most any piece of harness, we have it. I have a beautiful pony saddle for a Shetland pony, and only $32.50. Some fellow, whom I did not know, bought several chick feeders and fountains, also heat bulbs and extension cords. Henry Catlett's son had chick make him some heavy bolts threaded on both ends. Mrs. Ethel Sheppard bought poultry netting, steel fence posts and grass seed. Come to CONRAD first!

8 Injured In Three-Car Crash Early Monday

ALL THREE AUTO ARE BADLY DAMAGED ALSO

Eight persons were taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital early Monday, victims of a three-car collision on the Dixie Highway, at Bracht Station.

The injured were: Ophard Jones, of Hamilton, Ohio, driver of one of the cars; his wife, Bessie; Thomas Gross of Hamilton; Robert Davis of Richmond, Ind., driver of the second car; his wife, Virginia; Mr. Davis' parents, Edgar Davis and Rose Davis, and a brother of the driver, Danny Davis.

Jesse Kidd, of Covington, driver of the third car, was unhurt.

According to Kentucky State Trooper Ralph Child, the autos of Mr. Davis and Mr. Kidd sideswiped, Mr. Davis' car went out of control and collided head-on with the southbound car driven by Mr. Jones.

The Davis child, most seriously injured, suffered a possible skull fracture, while others suffered minor cuts and bruises.

SUSAN W. BALES

Services for Mrs. Susan Walters Bales, 71, who died Saturday, at her home in Crittenden, were held Tuesday at 1:00 p. m., in the Chambers & Grubbs Funeral Home, Walton. Burial was in the Ghent Cemetery.

Mrs. Bales, a member of Crittenden Baptist Church, is survived by her husband, E. F. Bales; two sons, Curt and W. G. Bales, both of Covington; two daughters, Mrs. Joseph Scanlon of Erlanger, and Mrs. Harold Wiens of Minneapolis, Minn.; 13 grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Irvin Rouse Is Candidate For Boone Sheriff

R. I. (Irvin) Rouse, Burlington, makes his formal announcement to the voters of Boone County for the office of sheriff in this issue of the Advertiser.

Irvin, as he is known throughout the county, was born and reared in Union, and has spent his entire life in Boone County. Mr. Rouse has been employed by the State Highway Department since his term expired as sheriff.

Mr. Rouse was united in marriage to Doretta Barlow, of Union, and is the father of two children. He is a member of the Burlington Baptist Church, Modern Woodmen Lodge of America, the Boone County Fish and Game Protective Association, and has been active in Red Cross work during the past several years, having served as chairman of this organization several times.

Irvin Rouse

He was elected sheriff of Boone County in 1945 and served from January 1946 to 1950. He also served four years as deputy sheriff, prior to his election in 1945.

In making his formal announcement, Mr. Rouse makes the following statement:

"Having served as sheriff of Boone County for a period of four years, and as deputy under J. T. Williams four years, I feel that I am well qualified to serve the people of this county again as their sheriff.

"The voters of Boone County know my record well serving them. In this capacity, and I promise, if elected to this office, to uphold the laws in the same manner as in the past.

"In past years Boone County has been free of gambling and corruption, a record for which every citizen should be justly proud. If elected, I promise to keep Boone County free of gambling and corruption in any form.

"I plan to make an active campaign throughout the county, and will make an honest effort to see every voter. However, should I fail to see you personally, remember that your support is earnestly solicited and will be highly appreciated by me at the Democratic primary, Saturday, August 1, 1953."

Cancer Crusade Meeting Set For Next Tuesday

In was announced by Mrs. W. D. Scroggin, Verona, chairman of the Cancer Crusade of Boone County, that a meeting will be held in her home, Tuesday, April 7, at 2:00 p. m. At this meeting plans will be formulated for the Cancer Crusade in Boone County. The fund-raising campaign is supported by many public spirited women leaders from each community in the county who did a remarkable job last year of raising funds to fight cancer, a disease that has taken too many lives in the past from a disinterested public. Now the general public has been alerted and each year much progress is made in both treatment and prevention research. Public funds, collected locally throughout the nation, has played a great part in this Cancer Crusade.

A complete list of names of members of the Boone County Cancer Crusade will be published at a later date.

TV Contest Extended One Week

Because the Easter holiday is taking so much time of both viewers and editors, the WLW-Television contest, "You Tell Us," has been extended one week by the Advertiser. The new deadline is midnight, April 11.

The response has been tremendous and WLW-Television officials in Cincinnati, Dayton and Columbus report that editors in all parts of the area have been swamped with entries.

The reader of the Advertiser who submits the prize winning entry will receive a brand new Crosley clock-radio which is just off the production line.

In addition to that, the winning suggestion will be forwarded to WLW-Television.

$5,218 Taken From Union Bank Monday, Recovered In Few Hours

ONE BOONE MAN AND TWO NEWPORT MEN INVOLVED IN ARREST

Chance observation of a Cincinnati man, who obtained the license number and description of a "get-away auto," led to the quick recovery of $5,218 taken from the Union Deposit Bank, Monday, and apprehension of three suspects charged with the bank robbery.

The loot was found hidden in a gallon jar buried in a yard in the rear of a house occupied by Swango Watts, 52, of Grange Hall Road, about 5 miles west of Union, federal, state and Boone county authorities reported.

Two men accused of actually carrying out the robbery, about noon Monday, registered as Brown Thompson, 28, and Lester Raleigh, 49, both of Newport.

Joseph Eberling, Cincinnati, was about to enter the bank when two men wearing dark glasses, overalls and striped railroad caps were leaving. The men were carrying a paper sack which contained the money taken at gunpoint from Miss Lillian Bristow, cashier, and Mrs. Mattie Utz, assistant cashier.

Mr. Eberling's notation enabled Sheriff W. H. Easton, Deputy Sheriff Bryan Kinn, Kentucky state police, and FBI agents to move at almost record speed in recovering the money.

Bond for Thompson and Raleigh was set at $10,000 and for Watts at $5,000.

FIRE ENGINE PURCHASED

Monday night, the Walton Volunteer Fire Department purchased a new Mack fire engine, which will cost about $12,300. Delivery has been assured by July 20.

This new engine is similar to the Mack which was purchased a few years ago, but it's size and capacity will be about one-third greater. This will give Walton three pieces of fire-fighting equipment, and of the best obtainable.

The Department is to be commended for this progressive move, and we trust all residents of this area will realize the efforts being made to better serve those living in this area.

BAKE SALE SATURDAY

The Ladies' Aid society of the Walton Christian Church will hold a bake sale Saturday, April 4, beginning at 10:00 a. m. at the Bracketfield Drug Store. You are invited to stop in.

Staffordburg Homemakers

The Staffordburg Homemakers will meet in the home of Mrs. John Shaw, Whitesboro, Tuesday, April 7. All members are asked to report on their "Party Mart" tickets.

Walton Runner-up In Midget Tourney At New Haven

By Maurine Elmore & Sue Gutzait

The Walton Midget basketball team played Beechwood, March 27, at New Haven. Top man for Walton, was Bobby Medley, center. The game was a thriller all the way. At the end of the first period, the score was 13-6 in Beechwood's favor. At halftime, the game looked hopeless, as the score was 20-12, still in favor of Beechwood. The Beacrats came through in the third quarter by turning their score up to 18, and Beechwood only 24. At the end of the fourth quarter, the score was tied 32-32.

In the over-time period, Medley untied the score with a hook shot, and then two more points were made by Walton, and the game ended with the Beacrats on top 36-34.

Walton scoring was as follows: Medley 21, Beach 6, Burden 5, Menke 3, Courtney 2, and Greene 1.

Walton played Hamilton the same evening and won by the count of 40-23. Two points were given Hamilton by Beach of Walton, who made a basket in the Hamilton goal.

Walton lost the game March 28, as they played Florence in the finals. The score was 36-20.

Walton scoring was as follows: Medley 7, Beach 10, Burden 11, Cook 4, Menke 1, and Courtney 3.

Members of homemakers clubs in Scott county have started 117 braided rugs, 14 of which will be room size.

Fire House

The new section of the Independence Fire House is looking better. The acoustic material for the ceiling has been applied and the steel beams and side walls are now being painted. In time, a rest room will be built in one corner, making the new section more separate from the engine room. Many of the older members who haven't attended meetings recently are again becoming interested in the community's only protection organization. Many more previous members should come to the next regular firemen's meeting and see what improvements have been made.

To you old members who haven't attended these meetings—come to the Fire House, Monday, April 6 at 7:30 p. m. New problems on the addition are arising and your 2c worth may be the answer.

Kenton County Taxpayer's Meeting

The recent meeting of the league revealed many proposals for this year in the road building projects throughout this area, bids will be received to complete road building now standing without the necessary surfacing materials on them.

Another item brought up at this meeting was the hazardous railroad crossings at Bledale or Bristow Road and at Banklick Station Road crossing. It was stated the swinging lights now in use went out with the horse and buggy and the Banklick crossing, the tinkling bell, when an auto's windows are closed, cannot be heard over the sound of the car's motor. The spokesman brought out the hazard encountered by school bus drivers in crossing the railroad with a bus loaded with children, and urged the making of safer crossings.

The main reason for this meeting was pertaining to the Chisel Bridge reverse curve and the many, many people killed at this particular spot in Kenton county. Ideas were brought up and eliminated, all but one, and that one was to widen the underpass. According to statistics this underpass can be widened to 40 feet, allowing sufficient space for motorists to see oncoming traffic on the other side; but can the height of this underpass be increased to allow loaded trucks to travel through? It has not been too many months since a transfer was wedged at this underpass.

Just A Thought: There was the woman who wanted the bank clerk to take the withdrawal out of her husband's half of the joint account.

O.E.S. 493

There will be an officers' meeting on Tuesday, April 7 of the O.E.S. chapter at the bank building. All officers are urged to attend.

Boy Scouts

The Independence Boy Scout Troop, No. 8, is making plans for an over-night camping trip to Butler State Park. It is scheduled for the weekend after Easter.

One-Sided

Nearly all benefits such as Social Security, Veteran's Pensions, and Retirement work on the basis that as soon as the Ole Man leaves this world, his wife and children will be taken care of by a life-long monthly check payment.

It is right to protect the widow and the children, but what about the Ole Man? He is entitled to some life in case he is left to hover over his off-springs and feed them. He should also be entitled to an income to help provide a baby sitter during the day while he is out making the meal ticket and board bill—that's added expense and should be considered the same as annuities, pensions or payments payable a widow.

Now days, women are considered half or nearly half of the bread-bringer-homers and their partial pays into these systems should entitle compensation to the widows too.

Look at the one sided systems this day. A man meets his match, marries and mates—now he has himself a wife and a baby. Not long after, this man dies, leaving his widow with a child and a healthy monthly payroll coming in. Now this mother is sitting pretty with no way of decrease in these payments, but more apt to increase. Now change this story slightly by having the man become a widower and having a child to raise, working for a weekly wage and having to pay out extra for someone to care for the child until he comes home from a day's work. No compensation is set aside for this extra output and he's losing from all angles—he's lost a housekeeper, mother of his kids, cook and baby sitter, when he lost his wife, plus extra bills to keep his family from falling apart. What can be done to help the Ole Man receive some extra annuity if he should become the one who stays on this good earth?

WHITES TOWER

Geo. Jones, wife and daughter of Erlanger, were guests of this writer Friday evening of this week.

We wish to extend our sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Hase of Harris Pike and Taylor Mill, in the loss of their daughter. Glad to report Skeel Richardson on the mend after a three weeks illness.

Mrs. Wm. Binder is confined to her home with tonsillitis.

Randy Gibson, Jr., spent the weekend in Independence, with his sister, Mrs. Mary Jane Petzinger, and family.

The Staffordsburg Homemakers will have a bakery sale at the Covington Market House, Saturday, April 4. Glad to hear Albin Butler is much improved at this time.

Atwood-Nicholson Homemakers

"Does every homemaker 'stop' and take a careful check of her home; are our efforts providing attractive and cheerful surroundings for our family?" was the subject of the lesson given by Mrs. John Cain and Mrs. Alf B'Hymer on "Check List for Homes," when the Atwood-Nicholson Homemakers met at the home of Mrs. H. L. Pitcher.

Accessories for the Spring of 1953 was the subject chosen by Mrs. B'Hymer when she presented the lesson on "Clothing Guide Post." Plans were formulated to have a "family" night May 4. Mrs. Ruben Hinsdale gave a book review on "The Presidents and Their Wives."

The meeting was opened by Mrs. L. S. Wagner, in the absence of the president, Mrs. John Mayhugh.

Those attending were: Mrs. Elmer Groger, Mrs. Ruben Hinsdale, Mrs. R. C. Durr, Mrs. John Butler, Mrs. S. A. Roberts, Mrs. F. D. Cooke, Mrs. L. S. Wagner, Mrs. Clifford Cornelius, Mrs. S. C. Fisk, Mrs. H. L. Pitcher, Mrs. Frank Stogman, Mrs. Vaughn, Mrs. Raymond Dickson, Mrs. Alfred B'Hymer, Mrs. John C. Cain, Mrs. Hubert Baird, and a guest, Mrs. Nell Morgan.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. S. C. Fisk on April 8.

PINER HOMEMAKERS

Mrs. Angelo Pelizzari had the Piner Homemakers at her home at Fiskburg, Thursday, March 12.

The president, Mrs. John Dwyer, presided. Roll call was answered with a "most interesting experience." The club voted a donation to the Red Cross and the Kenton County Sanatorium. Mrs. William Waterman, citizenship chairman, conducted a discussion and quiz on the Constitution and Bill of Rights. The lesson of the month, "Clothing Guideposts," was given by Mrs. Roy Linder and Mrs. Waterman. They modeled new spring clothes.

Those attending were: Mesdames Chester Mullins, Steve Rich, Otis Fisk, Roy Linder, Angelo Pelizzari, Elmer Spaulding, Charles Gross, William Waterman, John Dwyer, Dewey Fisk, J. C. Cavanaugh, Carl Justice, James Kidwell, Frank Elliott and Fred McMillan.

Mrs. Lamm received word Saturday that her granddaughter had been taken home from the hospital in Louisville. However, she is still paralyzed in one side. We hope she will soon be well again.

RYLAND HOMEMAKERS

Editorials on the United Nations' meetings, taken from various local newspapers, were read by the citizenship chairman, Mrs. W. A. Damon, at the March meeting of the Ryland Homemakers Club at which Mrs. W. P. Schwall was hostess, in her home on Highway 177, near Visalia. An interesting discussion followed the reading of the articles.

Mrs. Hermes conducted the business session and definite arrangements were made to join with the Oak Ridge Club in attending a radio program, "Penny's Pantry," May 21. Plans were also made for observing National Home Demonstration Week, in April. Mrs. Bogby, garden chairman, presented an interesting leaflet on spring care of bulbs, and planting of flower seed.

The lesson was given by Mrs. Robert Zacharias and Mrs. Harold Halfhill on "Little Things That Make A Home," and vases, pitchers and other articles were exhibited to demonstrate and stress interesting points of the lesson. During the recreational program, conducted by Mrs. W. B. Barnes, the devotional and a poem titled, "Who Makes A Garden," were read by Mrs. G. A. Damon. Included was the thought of the month, "Happiness of Thought," group singing, led by Mrs. Oliver Gee, and four prizes which were awarded to the winners of a quiz game. Plans were made for a flower and bulb exchange to be conducted at the April meeting.

The April 7 meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. G. A. Damon of Steep Creek Road, near Ryland.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Surface and son were guests Sunday afternoon of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gardner of Williamstown.

A recent card from Henry Smith, who is vacationing in Tavares, Fla., with W. L. Stephens, states he expects to visit other friends in the sunshine state.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Judge were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Verne Arnold.

We regret to report the illness of Mrs. Hattie Owens, who was removed to Booth Hospital, Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pleasant of Covington, were recent dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Arnold.

Mrs. Robert Rowland departed two weeks ago for Sulland, Md., to reside with her husband who is stationed at Andrews Air Base.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Surface and son were recently transacting business in New Orleans, La.

Verne Arnold has returned home from Jewish Hospital and is doing fine, we are happy to report.

Services will be held at the Florence Methodist Church, Good Friday evening at 7:30, also communion will be administered.

James Bristow, who was confined to Booth Hospital a few days recently for observation, has returned home. His friends wish him the best.

A card to Carl Rouse from his brother, Dr. L. E. Rouse, and wife of Clearwater, Fla., states they have been enjoying a nice time, nice weather, and the association with friends from their home town. Their son, Dr. V. L. Rouse, also of Ludlow, visited them a week or so during which time he enjoyed angling and landed a 22-inch trout. They also had another visitor from Kentucky, Mrs. Bertha Davis of Erlanger. Dr. and Mrs. Rouse are planning to leave Florida on April 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Highhouse of Ludlow, were Sunday afternoon guests of the Clyde Arnolds.

Dr. J. F. Daugherty and family of Phenixville, Pa., recently visited a few days with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Daugherty, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Arnold recently entertained in honor of their son-in-law, Walter Kirkpatrick, on the occasion of his birthday anniversary. Guests enjoying the festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Arnold and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Arnold and children, Walter Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirkpatrick and son, and the host and hostess. We join in wishing the celebrant many happy returns of the day.

Sunday dinner guests of the Geo. B. Millers were Mr. and Mrs. John Dolwick, Jr. of Mississauga, Ont.

Services for Mrs. Nell E. Noney, 88, Covington, were from the Hugenberg and Gilmeyer funeral home, Covington, on Saturday at 10 a. m., with Rev. C. N. Ogg officiating, with a short discourse from her favorite passage in the Bible.

Mrs. Noney succumbed unexpectedly at home Thursday. The deceased retired as teacher in the Hebron school ten years ago, after having taught throughout the United States since she was 14 years of age. She was a member of the Sherrburn (Ky.) Christian Church, and the Woman's Society of the First Methodist Church in Covington. Surviving are an invalid sister, Mrs. Lida H. Scott, with whom she resided, and a nephew, Maurice Graham, Park Hills. Burial was in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Erlanger. Sympathy is extended the family.

Woman's Society Meets
The Woman's Society of Christian Service of Florence Methodist Church held its regular meeting at the church March 4, with Mrs. S. J. Bradley, president, presiding. Reports were heard following the opening prayer by Mrs. C. N. Ogg, and were followed by the business discussion. After lunch at the noon hour, Mrs. Ogg conducted the devotional and Mrs. Mae Bristow presented the program. The session closed with a circle of prayer.

Those attending were Mesdames Mildred Munday, Nannie Mitchell, Harry Daugherty, S. J. Bradley, A. T. Knox, Lella Allen, C. N. Ogg, Paul Chaney, Sarah Jones, Mae Bristow, Ella Bethel, Roselle Hardin, Ida Miller, C. A. McKibben, and Eve Miller.—Pub. Chm.

MT. ZION HOMEMAKERS

The lesson, "Planning Less Expensive Meals," highlighted the March meeting of the Mt. Zion Homemakers Club.

The lesson, given by Mrs. William Miller and Mrs. Charles Hemphill, was both instructive and appetizing, and comprised the largest part of the luncheon served by the hostess, Mrs. George Otten.

After luncheon, the business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Chas. Hemphill. Then followed a Scripture reading from Colossians and an article, "Happiness of Generosity," read by Mrs. Geo. Otten, reading chairman.

An exchange of magazines and a recreation period, conducted by Mrs. Wm. Miller, closed the meeting.

In attendance were Mesdames Romer Burns, Frank Domaschko, Charles Hemphill, William Miller, Roger McGuire, George Otten and Mrs. Nancy Aylor, home demonstration agent.

When Neighbors WORK TOGETHER

... They Find the BEST ANSWERS

Before farmers began working together in their national farm loan associations they were at the mercy of the money lenders. Interest rates were high, renewals were expensive if available at all, commissions were expensive, loans were made for short terms—everything was in favor of the lender.

Then, in 1917, farmers began working together cooperatively through their national farm loan associations and Federal Land Banks to get the BEST in farm loan service. In the years since the Federal Land Bank system was established there have been more improvements in the farm loan service available to farm families than in all the history of the United States up to that time.

It is generally recognized that every major improvement in farm mortgage loans during the past 35 years has been pioneered by the Federal Land Banks and national farm loan associations.

One of these improvements is our low 4% interest rate. Many lenders have raised their interest rates but the Federal Land Bank of Louisville still maintains its rate at the same low 4% that has been in effect since 1935. And the long-term without renewals, the privilege to prepay any amount at any time without penalty, no application fees, no appraisal fees, the future payment fund program, loans based on normal agricultural values—are other improvements.

Working together gives them an opportunity to continue pioneering in making "The BEST farm loan in America" an even better loan.

CHICK TIME

April is baby chick month, when it is time to put up your brooder stove or buy a new Jamesway oil brooder or a Jamesway electric heater. Ask your neighbor about Jamesway poultry equipment. Jamesway may be a little higher, but it is cheaper, because it lasts longer. A fellow came in the store and wanted to know how often you should clean a Jamesway oil brooder—he had his 8 years and had never cleaned it. The stove went out and he could not get it to burn. Brewster took two coals out of it and cleaned the feed line and it burns like a new one.

That Jamesway water fountain, with the copper float will last a long time and cause no trouble, if you will clean them once in awhile. I also have that new automatic water fountain, six feet long—you never have to fill it, just use a hose from a water line, a drum or tank. We have a stock of thermometers, brooder pipe, heat bulbs and most all kinds of chick supplies and equipment. Sammie Burns and wife just came in and bought a baby swing—they have two fine children.

Nathan Brewster bought several white plastic window shades. Virgil Fisher was in just a few minutes—he never stays long in one place. Orin Britt, wife and daughter were in asking if I knew where they could find a sheltland pony, so if any of you have one or know of one, let me know. Brewster delivered Helen Gatewood that Maytag washer she was looking at the other day. Forest and Louise Marsh were in after two tobacco canvases and a Don cat poison.

Chas. Neumeister and wife bought an 8-gal. Jamesway water fountain on a stand—these are very nice—they hold so much water and keep it clean—he also bought a horse collar. They all say those old plugs are not worth the price of harness and every day there is someone in the store wanting to know where they can buy a horse or a team. Good horses are scarce and high. Mrs. Lena Sanders bought two large cans of Cincy wallpaper cleaner—she is going to be ready for Lee when he comes out. Mrs. Wm. Justice, Jr. bought a red, coal and line—she is going to spend her idle hours fishing.

Lassing Huey came after Blue Stone and lime for his tobacco plants—he has some already up. John Cain was looking at Bemis tobacco setters for his Ford tractor. Tracy Hume is still buying Bolce paint—he is painting every room a different color—his wife knows Tracy is a painter and she is using him—that house just shines. Stan Eichholz, over by New Haven, came after Blue Stone and lime—he also has some plants up—while he was here, he bought a gallon of transplanter solution to kill those wire worms—he used it last year and it did the work.

Nell Hunt bought enough Armstrong linoleum for her both room. William Bronum bought his wife a new Barton washer—her old Easy had served its day. Some came in and said they had tobacco plants up—Scott Lancaster said if they did, they had better build a fire around them. It sure was cold Wednesday morning. Omer Dugden and I went over to the reservoir and nearly froze. Brewster delivered Mrs. James McCubbin a Boss five-burner kerosene range—he also sold a one-burner Perfection cook stove.

Jake Stahl and Dick, his son, were up today—Jake bought some canvases, a hammer handle, and a point brush—I tried to sell him a $4 horse halter, but he said the horse wasn't worth $4, but he was just joking. Bernard Ryan came in and bought a halter for his horse—we sell some harness nearly every day. Harvey Hughes bought 80 rods of 47" field fence. We had several locusts today, as that March wind was really cold. Gilly Smith from Union, was in today—said it was too cold to fish and paint, so he was going to loaf until the weather warmed up.

Everett Bickers bought a lot of Bolce Interior paint in glass, flat and water mix, to redecorate his house inside. Lillian Powell hurried in for a tobacco canvases, trying to beat the rain. Mitch Gorbard also came in, in a hurry, for tobacco canvases. Mrs. Otis Wolfenbarger from Mt. Zion, came after Bolce Interior paint. Brewster sold Mrs. Gross a Dayton water system—you can't go wrong buying a Dayton for price and service. A fellow told me today he had a pump 10 years and it needed packing around the plunger—I went to the bin and sold him a pack of ready cut packing—that is what I mean by buying a Dayton and getting service, for I try to carry repairs for the Dayton pumps we sell.

Mrs. Joe Neumeister came in for repairs for her Jamesway oil brooder—we took care of that in a hurry. Emmett Osborne bought a new lawn mower—he will mow your yard. We sell galvanized pipe and pitings every day—they come from all parts of the counties, because we carry a large stock of both. Mrs. Lindsay Brashear brought in a milk bucket for Brewster to solder a strainer in—we do all kinds of repair jobs. Come to CONRAD HARDWARE for your Hardware and Service.

Macklin Speaks At Meeting of Literary Club

A "History of Fashions and Fashions of Today," was the topic of a talk given by Mr. Fred Macklin of Copping's Department Store, Covington, at the April meeting of the Walton Woman's Literary Club at the Walton Methodist Church.

Mrs. L. W. Layton was hostess, and the president, Mrs. Julia A. Rouse, presiding.

Mrs. Macklin told of the fashions of earlier years and down to the present time. His talk was illustrated with a display of dresses and hats.

A dress, more than a hundred years old, of black brocade silk, made with fitted waist, long sleeves, and with a long full gathered skirt was worn by Mrs. E. E. Fry. This hairloom had belonged to Mrs. Fry's relative, Mrs. William L. Roberts.

In keeping with the Easter season, Mrs. James Powers gave the devotion with a talk on the crucifixion and resurrection of our Saviour, basing her remarks on the scripture as found in Matthew 28. Mrs. Powers concluded her talk with prayer.

Mrs. Sam J. Hudson, organist, contributed much to the program by presenting the following selections: The Fifth Nocturne by Leysach, Ave Maria by Bach-Gouraud, and Nardisus by Nevin.

While in business session, the club voted for the following officers to serve for the year 1953-54: Vice President, Mrs. Alan H. Gaines; Secretary, Mrs. James S. Webster; Treasurer, Mrs. H. F. Mann. Mrs. Rouse will continue to serve as president.

Mrs. W. D. Scroggin reported that the Walton Woman's Club and the Wo-No Club together have made a contribution of $123 to the Heart Fund.

The president, Mrs. Rouse, announced the meeting of the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs would be held at the Seelbach Hotel, Louisville, May 13-14-15.

Following adjournment the group assembled in the basement dining room where tea and assorted cakes were served from a beautifully decorated table with Mrs. Rouse and Mrs. Scroggin pouring.

The hostess was assisted in dispensing hospitality by Miss Emma Jane Miller. Members and guests attending were: Mrs. James S. Webster, Mrs. Lloyd W. T. Stone, Mrs. Sam B. Sleet, Mrs. W. D. Scroggin, Mrs. W. O. Rouse, Mrs. W. Rouse, Mrs. Julia A. Rouse, Mrs. S. D. S. Ranson, Mrs. James Powers, Mrs. John Myers, Miss Emma Jane Miller, Mrs. D. L. Luby, Mrs. A. R. Johnson, Mrs. E. E. Fry, Mrs. B. W. Franks, Mrs. J. R. Can, Mrs. A. R. Carter, Mrs. A. R. Carter, Mrs. C. S. Chambers, Mrs. C. F. Blankenbaker, Mrs. John C. Bedinger, Mrs. Fred Macklin, Mrs. George Dowkins, Mrs. Sam J. Hudson, Mrs. Evan M. Hance, Mrs. Jesse Callen, Mrs. Clarence Hoffman, Mrs. J. L. Vest, Miss Marie Hudson, Mrs. J. F. Dougherty, Mrs. Roy Lutes, and the guest speaker, Mr. Fred Macklin.

JOHN ALLEN

John Allen, a retired Boone county farmer, died last Wednesday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Nannie Aklin of Crescent Springs. He was 82 years old. A native of Clay county, he had lived in this county for the past 45 years.

Survivors include another daughter, Mrs. Rose Fennell of Long Beach, Calif.; three sons, Elsie Allen of Beaver Lick, Wright Allen of Covington, and Millard Allen of Lexington; two brothers, Levi Allen of Brookville, Ind., and Geo. Allen of Owsley county; a sister, Mrs. Martha Gabbard of Metamora, Ind.; 20 grandchildren, 22 great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren.

Chambers & Grubbs, Walton, had charge of arrangements, with the funeral being held Saturday at Hughes Chapel Methodist Church, Beaver, Interment following in the church cemetery.

Boone Utopians Meet

George Corder, Agronomy Field Man, College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky, was the principal speaker at the monthly meeting of the Boone County Utopia Club. Mr. Corder pointed out that with the increase of population in the nation that our soils had to be kept fertile to produce the food and fiber to keep the nation fed and clothed.

Sterling Dickey conducted the business session of the club. Plans were made for the first annual banquet, to be held at Southern Trails, Florence, Saturday, May 23. T. R. Bryant, Associate Director, University of Kentucky, will be principal speaker.

FORREST H. BROWN

Services are to be held today at 2:00 p. m. in the Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Florence, for Forrest H. Brown, 84, a retired Boone county farmer and grocery store operator at Grant, who died Tuesday at the home of his son, William, in Petersburg. Burial will be in Bellew Cemetery.

Other survivors include two other sons, Clayton Brown of Florence, and Sidney Brown of Alexandria, Va.; a daughter, Mrs. C. P. Jacobs of Lexington; two brothers, W. D. Brown of Burlington, and E. J. Brown of New Liberty; five grandchildren, and a great-grandchild. Mr. Brown was a member of the Burlington Baptist Church.

CORA C. SCROGGIN

Mrs. Cora Cook Scroggin, wife of Austin Scroggin, a farmer of near Bullittsville, died last Thursday in St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington. She was 55 years old. She was a member of the Kenton Baptist Church, Florence.

Surviving are her husband, three daughters, Mrs. Bonnie Stamper of Bullittsville, Mrs. Delbert Dunn of Covington, and Mrs. Otwell Price of Florence; three sons, Raymond and Harry Scroggin of Burlington, and Robert Scroggin of Bullittsville; a sister, Mrs. Walter Jamison of Cincinnati; a brother, Spencer Cook of Dry Ridge, and 11 grandchildren.

Services were held Saturday at 2:00 p. m. in the Burlington Baptist Church. Burial was in Forest Lawn Memorial Park in Erlanger. The Chambers and Grubbs funeral home, Florence, completed arrangements.

Piner 4-H Club Meets

The Piner Bee 4-H Club met in the school auditorium, March 27. After a short business session, the following program was presented:

"That Doggie in the Window," Mary Godsey and Ruth Comelius; "Jingle, Jangle, Jingle," Jimmy Daniels; dance, Marianne Baker; "Till I Waltz Again With You," Alice Woods; "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows," Linda England; "Six Little Ducks," first grade students; dance by Joyce Knisel; "Hey, Good Looking," Judy Linder; "Andante," Pat Fisk and Sara Stahl; "Takes Two To Tango," Brenda Worthington; clarinet solo, Mary Spigel; "Albo Boabo Honeycomb," Deanna Polinder.

Remarks were made by Mrs. Irene Mann, after which the meeting was turned over to T. L. Riley, who gave a talk, then had a short meeting with the boys.

Paul 'Doc' Worthington, R.M.S., of the U. S. Navy, left Friday morning by plane for San Francisco, Calif., after a 21-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Worthington of Sherman, and his brother, Charles, and family of Walton. He will report for duty aboard the USS Point Cruz.

Kenton Utopia Club Plans For Banquet In May

The Kenton Utopia Club held its regular monthly meeting April 1 at the Visalia school, with Mr. and Mrs. George Fennell, hosts. The meeting was called to order by Tom Riley, assistant county agent, in the absence of President Robert Jackson, and Vice President John Carlisle. Roll call was answered by 22 members.

The state Utopia conference and a Canadian trip were discussed. It was voted that the county banquet be held around the 20th of May. No definite place has been decided on. However, a decorating committee was named for the affair.

Harry Young and Carl Jones, from U. K., gave the last of a series of talks and pictures on "Farm Management." This program was very good and was greatly enjoyed by all members.

Members in attendance were, Mr. and Mrs. William Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fennell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Galt, Mr. and Mrs. John Hetterman, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Kleintrop, Mr. and Mrs. William Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Rich, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Works, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Steinhower, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Blau.

The next meeting will be held May 13, with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Galt as hosts. Subject of the meeting will be "Textile Painting."

Garden Club to Hold Flower Sale April 23

The Kenton County Garden Club held its March meeting at the home of Mrs. John Shaw. A desert luncheon was served one o'clock.

Mrs. J. A. Keeney, vice president, presided over the business meeting, at which time articles of interest on current planting and care of flowers were read by members.

Club members will hold a flower sale on April 23. All members are urged to attend and bring plants, roots, slips, seeds, etc. If you cannot attend, please send a contribution.

Mrs. Leslie Wagner will be hostess, at her home, for the April 23 meeting. Guests are cordially invited.

Members attending the March meeting were: Mrs. Hubert Baird, Mrs. C. Northcutt, Mrs. Leslie Wagner, Mrs. Frank Stogmon, Mrs. S. C. Fisk, Mrs. H. L. Pitcher, Mrs. C. R. Hume, Mrs. H. A. Stephens, Mrs. W. A. Damon, Mrs. Bruce Allen, Mrs. J. A. Keeney, Mrs. L. Valandingham, and Mrs. John Shaw. Guests were Mrs. Cade Northcutt, Mrs. H. L. Faulkner, and Miss Sandra Stephens.

OBSERVED ATOMIC BLAST

Sgt. Paul Massey

Sgt. Paul Massey of Florence, recently arrived at Camp Desert Rock, Nev., to take part in the atomic maneuvers being staged on the Nevada Desert. During the atomic training, Massey was to observe an atomic explosion from a forward area fox-hole. Sgt. Massey, whose wife, Shirley, lives in Florence, is the son of Mrs. Elizabeth C. Massey of Bradford. A veteran of service in Korea, and holder of the Combat Infantryman Badge, the Army of Occupation Medal for service in Japan, and the UN and Korea Service Ribbons, he entered the Army in November, 1950. He is permanently assigned to the 484th Engineer Construction Battalion's Company B at Fort Knox, Ky.

MAUDE W. DEDERICH

Services for Mrs. Maude Whitehouse Dederich, 72, a former Covington resident, who died Sunday at White & Reed nursing home, Winchester, where she had been residing for the past six months, were held Sunday at 2:00 p. m. in the Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, in Florence.

She was the widow of Robert Dederich, who died recently in Winchester, after a brief illness. Her first husband, the late Joseph Whitehouse, and his brother, the late William Whitehouse, founded a jewelry manufacturing business in Cincinnati that bore their name. It is now operated by Joseph Vogelsang, who took over after the Whitehouse brothers died.

Mrs. Dederich was a member of the Trinity Episcopal Church, and the Rector, Rev. W. Bruce Weatherly, conducted the services. Pallbearers were Ted Glenn, Robert Hume, Glover Hagin and Jack Ramsey.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Harri Hagin and Jack Ramsey; two sisters, Mrs. Glover Laid and Mrs. Nell Parry, and six grandchildren.

FARM BUREAU MEETING

Stockholders of the Bi-County Farm Bureau Cooperative Association will meet at the office in Devon, Saturday, April 11, at 1:00 p. m. All stockholders are urged to be present.

SPRING CONCERT

The annual spring concert of the Simon Kenton High School music department will be presented, in the high school auditorium, Thursday, April 9, at 8 p. m.

The program includes selections by the senior band and glee club, as well as special solo numbers. Robert Roden is the director. The public is invited.

4-H's GETTING STARTED

The 527 Boone County 4-H club members are getting their projects started with the 4-H plans for the following 4-H club events:

May 16, Spring Rally, Burlington High School; June 9-13, 4-H Week, University of Kentucky; June 22-26, District 4-H Camp at Camp Brant; July, 4-H tours in the county; August 6-7-8, 4-H Fair, Burlington; August 26, District 4-H Dairy Show, Williamstown; September 11-19, Kentucky State Fair, Louisville; December 18-19, District Tobacco Show and Sale, Carrollton.

Four-H leaders and the Boone County 4-H Council are working hard to make 1953 a big year for Boone County 4-H clubs. Mrs. Nancy M. Ayler, Home Demonstration Agent, and Joe Glavin, County Agricultural Agent, are cooperating with the leaders and council in helping get this job done.

ROAD CONTRACT LET

A contract for construction on the Florence-Warson road in Boone and Gallatin counties, has been awarded the Fuller-Davies Company, Covington, according to an announcement by William P. Curfin, Commissioner of Highways, Frankfort.

The company submitted a low bid of $109,922.25. The contract calls for 17.2 miles of bituminous surfacing from the intersection of US 25 and US 42 to the Gallatin county line, and from the Boone county line to 1.8 miles west of the Boone county line.

Independence

Considering New

Fire Equipment

The Independence and Community Volunteer Fire Department met at the Fire House, Monday night, for their regular session.

Three visitors were present, one representing the Woodman of the World, a fraternal insurance company, who presented the Fire Department with a flag for the outside flag pole. He gave a short talk, partly concerning benefits of his company, and mostly about the history of our flag, which was quite interesting.

The next visitor, an honorary member of the department, was Richard Campbell, was present to sell the firemen a new pump. Pictures were shown of various types and makes, and the department members preferred the G.M.C. with a front pump, cabinet for portable pumper and light plant. The purchasing of this truck is now under discussion—another main feature of this truck is that the booster tank holds 500 gallons of water, which not only provides more water, but will reduce fire insurance rates within a 3-mile radius of the fire house.

The purchase of this new equipment will therefore, benefit the community in every way.

The other visitor, known to all in the community, was Town Marshal Robert Haley. Members of the Fire Department presented Mr. Haley with an honorary membership card, and also gave him a key to the fire house, which may be used for emergency purposes. Marshal Haley has done a wonderful job and should have the backing of, not only organizations in the area, but all residents as well.

Following the business session, the Ladies Auxiliary was invited to view the movie films shown by Bob West. He had a 40-minute reel on "Independence, Ky." and a 20-minute reel on "Simon Kenton High School," both taken in 1938. Many well known persons were shown and all present had many laughs when seeing them.

At the conclusion of the meeting, a very good lunch was served, complete with pie and coffee, and everyone enjoyed the evening very much.

Must Register

By June 2nd to Vote In Primary

June 2 is the last day to register if you wish to vote in the August 1 primary. C. D. Benson, Boone County Clerk, said yesterday.

"In order to be eligible to vote you must reside in the precinct 60 days, in the county six months, and in the state one year," Mr. Benson said.

The county clerk explained that citizens who have failed to vote during the past two years must re-register.

Those youngsters who will be 21 before the regular election which falls on the Tuesday after the first Monday—November 3, to be exact—may vote in the August 1 primary, provided they register on or before June 2.

Mr. Benson said his office in Burlington is open daily from 9:00 a. m. until 4:30 p. m., except Sunday.

Marriage Takes Place At Home of Bride

The beautiful colonial home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Yealey and Walton, was the scene, Tuesday afternoon, for the marriage of their only daughter, Mary Russell, to Mr. Truett R. DeMoisey, son of Rev. and Mrs. R. F. DeMoisey, also of Walton.

Large arrangements of white snapdragons, carnations and gladioli with candleabras holding lighted white tapers formed the improvised altar in the living room.

Preceding and during the double ring ceremony a program of organ music was played, which had been recorded especially for this occasion by Mrs. J. B. Johnson, Walton.

Nuptial vows were recited by the Rev. R. F. DeMoisey, father of the groom, before a large gathering of relatives and friends.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a gown of candleabra satin fashioned along princess lines. The mounded bodice buttoned down the back and had an off-shoulder neckline bordered with soft folds of satin edged with pleated nylon tulle. Long sleeves tapering over the hands were edged with similar tulle motifs. The bouffant ballerina length skirt was encircled with three rows of scalloped tulle detail.

A satin tiara edged in seed pearls held the finger-tip length nylon tulle veil in place. Her colonial bouquet was made of white stephanotis centered with white orchids.

Miss Marjorie Carpenter, who served as maid of honor, wore an aqua tulle ballerina length dress with a shoulder framing stole of tulle over the shoulders and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. She wore a band of matching flowers in her hair.

Mr. Frank M. DeMoisey, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and the bridesmaids were Messrs. John R. DeMoisey, Robert DeMoisey, and Gene "Fox" DeMoisey.

Mrs. Yealey selected a blue faille dress trimmed in black for her daughter's betrothal. She wore a corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. DeMoisey wore a light blue crepe, with a pink stole with which she wore a flower trimmed pink shell hat. Her corsage was of pink carnations. Mrs. Pearl Bedinger, grandmother of the bride, wore a purple crepe and a corsage of pink roses.

For the reception, which took place immediately following the ceremony, the dining room was artistically decorated with spring flowers.

Following the reception, Mr. DeMoisey and his bride left on a coveys motor trip. For traveling Mrs. DeMoisey wore a gold tulle and gabardine suit. The jacket was tulle lined with matching blouse. Her white straw hat was edged with tiny white flowers with a white veil. Her accessories were navy.

Mrs. DeMoisey is a graduate of Mount Treat College, Mt. Treat, N. C., Morinelli's School of Beauty Culture, Cincinnati, and Michael's Hair Styling, New York. She is now employed at Mobley and Carey Beauty Salon, Cincinnati.

Mr. DeMoisey graduated from the University of Louisville School of Law. He was a member of the University's basketball team for some time, and also coached freshman basketball. He served in the Marine Corps in World War II. Upon their return, they will reside at 108 North Main St., Walton.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. John R. DeMoisey and family of Lexington; Mr. and Mrs. Gene "Fox" DeMoisey of Lawrenceburg, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert DeMoisey of Norton, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allison of Louisville; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest DeMoisey of Lottsville, and Mrs. Dwight Maddox and Miss Jean Faris, Cincinnati; Dr. and Mrs. G. R. Tanner, Messrs. Kirk Gieser, Hatcher Smith, and John Maddox, all of Louisville, and Mr. John Farrell, Cliftondale.

Independence Homemakers

The Independence Homemakers Club will meet at the Independence Christian Church, Thursday, April 9, at 10 a. m.

The lesson topic will be, "A Basic Wordrobe," which will be presented by Mrs. J. C. Reynolds and Mrs. Charles Davis, clothing leaders.

Mrs. Wm. House is hostess. Members will bring flowers and bulbs for exchange.

WHITES TOWER

The following were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. E. Ryle of Bideawell Farm:

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schrader, Garnett Ryle and wife of Cincinnati, Mrs. Wm. Gower and daughter, Debby, of Erlanger.

Mrs. Mary Ward and daughter of Covington, Richard Dorsey, wife and daughter of Lexington.

One of Ralph Howard's team of horses got mired in his pond Saturday and it took the combined efforts of he and three neighbors to haul it out with ropes, none the worse for the ducking.

Allen Butler has returned home from the hospital and will soon be back in school.

Robert Brumbeck, wife and daughter, Connie, were guests of his mother here Sunday.

Note to Gardeners

The government is ready now to sell you its annual one-package assortment of spring gardening booklets, called "Spring Planting Packet."

The collection consists of seven gardening publications selected by a group of experts in the Department of Agriculture. You can order the bunch from Superintendent of Documents, Washington 25, D. C. for $1.00.

The seven titles: Growing Vegetables in Town or City; Growing Vegetables for Home Use; Growing Annual Flowering Plants; Savory Herbs, Culture and Use; Vegetable Gardener's Handbook on Insects and Diseases; How much Fertilizer shall I Use? and Hotbeds and Coldframes.

Other gardening hints published by the Department of Agriculture are: Painters on making good lawns (5c), Herbaceous perennials (25c), Transplanting and care of ornamental trees and shrubs (free).

Get the first two from Superintendent of Documents, and the third, a leaflet, from Office of Information, Agriculture Department, Washington.

And for additional information supplied by your local Agriculture Agent, C. A. Wicklund, who stated that, since this is the year for locusts, it would be best to wait until this fall to plant those young fruit trees. By then the locusts will be gone and the trees will have a better chance to live.

Sunday Guests

Mrs. Ernest Dearborn had many close relatives at her home last Sunday, and they were from many different cities and states: Her daughter, Lt. Jean Dearborn, stationed at Fitzsimmons Hospital, Colo., and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dearborn and family of Frankfort, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. Lee Holte of Maderia, Ohio, and daughter, Alice, and son, Jerry, also W. C. Holte, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dearborn of Cincinnati, Ohio, and daughters, Barbara and Deborah, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Tingley of Wyoming, Ohio.

Simon Kenton Prom

The Juniors and Seniors of Simon Kenton High School held their Prom, March 28. The theme was "Moonlight and Roses," and the event took place in the school auditorium.

The decorations were beautiful and those who helped are to be commended. The walls were decorated with all shades of pink and the ceiling was of a light blue. The throne had a blue background with a large red rose and rose bud with large green leaves. A picturesque moon spotlighted the thrones of the King and Queen. The King was Don Reynolds and the Queen was Velma Loudermilk. The Prince and Princess were David Redman and Maxine Pidcock. The attendants were Gene Bleber, Janet McGraw, Ann Redman, Roland Robinson, Vivian Mullins, Frank Penick, Donna White, David Young, Mary Jo Fuchs, Bobby Gibson, Lucy Barberick, and Renelle Hazzert. The Crown Bearers were Jimmy Cook and Linda Loudermilk.

All the work to make this such a success was provided by the Juniors, Seniors and the faculty. One of the new faculty members, Kenneth Norvell, art instructor, did a wonderful job in helping students and faculty in making this Prom a great success.

Everyone who attended had a wonderful time dancing to the music of Jimmy Jones, and this annual Simon Kenton Prom can be marked down as another successful gathering of Juniors and Seniors.

Fat People

If you are overweight, you might look into a new reducing diet developed by the School of Nutrition at Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y.

The Agriculture Department, among others, has shown interest in the Cornell diet. It is described as a method of taking off excess pounds without any great discomfort and without nutritional risks.

Here is a typical daily menu: Breakfast—Half cup tomato juice, one soft-cooked egg, a thin slice of whole wheat toast, a teaspoonful of butter, three-fourths cup of milk; lunch—a slice of pork loin roast, two-thirds cup of broccoli, cup of milk; dinner—a patty of ground beef chuck, three-fourths cup of wax beans, half a grapefruit, cup milk.

A set of about half a dozen daily menus, similar to the ones tested at Cornell, are being compiled. You can get a copy by writing to the School of Nutrition at Cornell.

farm facts

FOR KENTUCKY FOLKS
by Wm. C. Johnstone
AGRICULTURAL REPRESENTATIVE
KENTUCKY BANKERS ASSOCIATION

It's Almost Too Late—Farm management practices adopted during the next 60 days will determine, to a large extent, the farmer's influence on crop production in 1953. His contribution to high yields are made before, or soon after, planting. After that time the success or failure of the crop is determined mostly by weather conditions.

The choice of the right variety, the efficient use of fertilizers, proper seed bed preparation and planting at the right time are important factors which affect yields and profits, and which are under the control of the farmer. Mistakes, or omissions, made before planting can seldom be corrected after the crop is up.

Drought Insurance—Drought and low prices are the two great fears of Kentucky farmers, and, although we can't do much about the weather, there are several things that we can do to lessen the effects of the lack of rain. For the crop producer, they include the use of the right kind and amount of fertilizer, use of more drought resistant crops and varieties, and irrigation. For the livestock farmer the production of a small acreage of Sudan Grass, an extra supply of hay or silage, and a diversity of pasture grasses and legumes are good insurance against drought.

Sudan Grass is a hot weather crop and should not be sown until tobacco setting time. Sow 25 to 30 pounds to the acre on well prepared, fertile soil. Creek bottoms and other level areas are best locations because erosion may be serious on hillsides. Tift is the best variety.

Dormex is a new variety of soybeans adopted to the upper south. Kentucky producers of oil beans should try some small plots this year to determine their suitability for commercial planting.

"Green Pasture Tear," May 5-6-7, is one trip that will be educational, scenic and economical, and will cover many points of interest.

Oak Island Homemakers

The March meeting of the Oak Island Homemakers was opened by answering roll call. Each member told of their most interesting experience. What to plant in March was told by Miss Nell Neihoff, also landscape notes, pruning roses and shrubs and planting vines. Mrs. Martin brought the lesson on "Little Things That Make A Home," giving lots of hints on what to have and what to discard, showing samples of same. Mrs. Clara Taylor showed samples of sewing done by 4-H club girls.

Ladies present were Mesdames Clara Taylor, Margaret Rector, Carrie Northcutt, Sherman Barberick, Margaret Wainwright, Albert Martin, Clara Linville, Frank Jackson, and Miss Nell Neihoff.

Willing Workers Meet

The March meeting of the Willing Workers class of the Walton Christian Church was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Grubbs. Everyone enjoyed a covered dish supper, after which the meeting was called to order by Mrs. Julia A. Rouse, president. Russell Hall gave an interesting devotion, and Rev. Charles Vaughn led the group in prayer. It was voted to send money to the children in the Home. Two cases of eggs were collected by Mrs. Katie Ransler, to be sent to the Home before Easter.

Those present were: Mrs. Katie Ransler, Mrs. Forest Thompson, Mrs. Julia A. Rouse, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hall, Rev. and Mrs. Charles Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. Gayle McElroy, Mrs. Don Bedinger, V. D. James, Mrs. Ben Doan, Mrs. Omer Dudgeon, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rouse, Mrs. Melvin Platt, Mrs. J. M. Jack, Mrs. Ralph Carpenter, Misses Jeanette and Elizabeth Grubbs.

A delightful social hour followed the meeting.

UNUSUAL INTEREST IN FERTILIZING TOBACCO

Inquiries received at the University of Kentucky indicate more than usual interest in using fertilizer to step up tobacco yields in 1953.

Fertilizer may be used at the row or broadcast, it is explained at the Experiment Station. Fertilizer applied at the row should be in two bands, one on each side of the row, 3 to 4 inches from the plants and about 3 inches below the surface of the soil. The fertilizer should not come in direct contact with the plant roots at setting time, especially if the soil is dry.

The fertilizer should be placed deep enough so it will be in moist soil during dry periods, and it should be close enough to the plants so it will not be redistributed in cultivating the tobacco.

When more than 800 pounds of commercial fertilizer is applied on acre, all or part should be broadcast, it is stated by tobacco experts. On highly productive land, all the fertilizer may be broadcast. On less productive land it may pay to apply 400 to 500 pounds on acre at the row and the remainder broadcast.

Nitrogen or potassium deficiency symptoms appear in the growing plants, side-dressing with nitrogen or potash fertilizer is desirable. When the plants are not too large the fertilizer may be drilled on both sides of the row. A common practice is to broadcast the fertilizer between the rows and work it into the soil by cultivation.

Farmers are advised to have their tobacco soils tested, and then, without further delay, purchase the fertilizers they plan to use.

GLENCOE

Services at the Glencoe Church of Christ were well attended Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Collins entertained her son and wife from Florida, Sunday.

Mrs. James Alcorn received word last week that her sister, Mrs. Florence Ellis, of Cincinnati, had passed away. She was 92 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. James Boaz spent the weekend in Covington, with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Snow spent Easter with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stewart and daughter, Carol Ann.

The book study will be held each Thursday night. Everyone is welcome.

The farmers will soon be getting behind, if the showers continue.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas were home over the weekend.

CIRCULAR DISCUSSES BLACK SHANK DISEASE

A new circular of the University of Kentucky Colleges of Agriculture and Home Economics tells how to prevent black-shank disease losses in tobacco.

Use of clean land is stressed—land on which black shank has never been known to exist. Beds and fields should not be subject to overflow; otherwise they may be infested by contaminated water from roads or other sources.

Only clean tools should be used, for black shank can be carried on setters, tractors and cultivators, as well as on shoes of workers and on horses' feet.

Water for beds and field irrigation should come only from sources known to be free from disease. Water from creeks and rivers is not safe.

If black shank appears, affected plants should be removed and the spots drenched with 1-400 nabam solution.

Copies of the circular, No. 499, "Prevent Black Shank Losses in 1953," may be had at offices of county agents or from the UK College of Agriculture and Home Economics, Lexington.

MEDICAL AND DENTAL EXAMINATIONS GIVEN

Wednesday afternoon, March 18, medical and dental examinations were given at the Walton school for members of the first, fifth and ninth grades. The examinations were made by Dr. D. L. Maddox and Dr. H. R. Dougherty, examining physicians appointed by the State Board of Health. They were assisted by Mrs. Mary Code Kress, Boone County Health Nurse.

On the following Wednesday (March 25) children from the first through the fourth grades of All Saints school were given examinations. In addition, 57 prospective first graders for the Walton-Verona school were given vaccinations, as well as routine health examinations.

Members of the Wo-No Club were on hand to lend assistance on both of these days.

Mrs. Wilbur Florence and daughters spent Sunday with her parents at Folsom.

GOOD RETURNS HOLD FOR DAIRY FARMERS

Dairy farmers have a reasonably bright future, thinks C. C. Erwin, University of Kentucky agricultural economist. This is especially true, he said, for farmers who grow most of their feed and do a good all-around job of dairying.

Prices of dairy products have dropped some, Erwin admitted, and there may be a further drop during the first half of this year. But lower prices will be the result of increased spring production and should not be the cause for alarm, he believed. Consumer income continues high, he pointed out, and there is no reason to think that people are going to use less milk and other dairy products.

FISHING REGULATIONS BEING DISTRIBUTED

A new folder containing a digest of fishing laws and regulations for 1953 is being distributed by the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources, Frankfort.

The pamphlet contains information which fishermen should know in order to comply with State laws. It covers the fishing season, license requirements, the types of licenses, sale of fish, commercial fish guide, hoop and wing nets, seines, and creel and size limits of fish.

"LITTLE SQUIRT" is a

BIG SHOT on the Southern!

OUR "LITTLE SQUIRT" is an ingenious gadget that oils car journals automatically for the first time in railroad history. And it does the job more effectively than it has ever been done before.

But the big thing about "Little Squirr" is not what it does but what it represents. For like many others we are using, this better-railroading tool, on which a patent is pending, was invented right here on the Southern as a result of our constant search for new ways to do a better job.

This policy of "constructive discontent"—of never being satisfied with things as they are—leads to answers, large and small, that help us provide continuing low-cost, dependable, ever-improving transportation service for the South we serve.

Oldtime horse-breeders argue that the reason for the Bluegrass's success in raising race horses can be traced to the layer of limestone underneath the bluegrass turf. This limestone was formed by countless shells laid down millions of years ago when the region was an ocean floor. It gives the water and grass a high phosphorus and calcium content, which reputedly builds light, strong bones, elastic muscles, and firm tendons in the horses that feed and drink here.

A Man New-Born

Lesson for April 12, 1953

The most important convert

Christianity ever made was one of the very first ones. He was important not only for his own times but for ours too. His thinking set the pattern for Christian thought ever since. His writings, or rather the truths he brought out in his writings, have been at the heart of most of the revivals from early times to now.

Sometimes the Christian church has gone too far in admiration of this man. Because his conversion was spectacular, some have thought (mistakenly) that all true conversions are spectacular. Because he always thought like a lawyer, some have thought (again mistakenly) that all true Christian thought must be legalistic. In short, some Christians have put this man ahead of Jesus Christ. Such mistakes should not blind us to the man's real and tremendous importance. Those who plan these Dr. Foreman

Bible studies have set aside the next three months for a review of this one man's life and some of his writings.

Outside the City

His name is Paul, though the church very respectfully usually calls him "Saint" Paul. He was a famous city-born Jew, and as Providence would have it, the most important thing that ever happened to him came to pass in the open country, on a windswept road that is still traveled, the highway from the city of Jerusalem to the city of Damascus, in Syria. Born in the city, re-born in the country; it has happened since. The story of his conversion has been often told; indeed in the book of Acts it is told three separate times (chapters 9, 22, 26), once in Luke's words twice in Paul's. There was no church, no preacher, no personal workers;

no hymns were sung. There was no meeting at all, no visitation evangelism. It happened like a stroke of lightning. Inside not five minutes or less, Paul (or Saul as he was then called) had been changed from an anti-Christian to a Christian—Not to a saint! He was only, so to speak, a baby

Christian. Being new-born into the Christian life is a little like being new-born into the human life; there is a period of baby-hood first, when the newborn soul hardly knows what to do and needs much guidance and help.

But in those few minutes on the Damascus Road the whole direction of his life was changed.

In the City

Paul's conversion had some unique features, startling and extraordinary. But the story of it

(in Acts 22) reports two questions that belong in every Christian conversion. "Who are you, Lord?"

and "What shall I do, Lord?" A true conversion is a turning toward Christ. Turning away from one's old life is not the whole of it and not the most important part of it. When a driver on a country road realizes he has taken the wrong fork, and turns around to go in the other direction, which is the more important, that he now has his back to the wrong direction of his life? Conversion is from, but more importantly, conversion is to. To Christ first of all. True conversions are not produced by coming face to face with one's better self but with Jesus.

And yet, this was only a start. What next? That was what Saul went into Damascus to find out. That was what Ananias came to tell him. Saul needed what all newborn Christians need, a Christian friend, Christian fellowship.

Mrs. Hattie Owens of Girard Street, underwent a major operation at Booth Hospital, Wednesday of last week. She is convalescing rapidly, much to the delight of her many friends.

The Florence Rotary Club met in Cincinnati, last Thursday evening. Following the business session, they were guests of the Bell Telephone Company for a tour through the building, viewing the latest in telephone equipment. The tour was arranged through the courtesy of G. B. Fausch of the Consolidated Telephone Co., Florence.

Thursday evening, April 16, at 8 p. m., the Ladies Auxiliary of the Florence Volunteer Fire Department will sponsor their monthly pillow slip bingo social at the Fire Hall for the benefit of the building fund. This is a most worthy cause and should be attended by every interested party in the community. Come and enjoy the evening.

Many new families are arriving in Florence. We wish to extend a most hearty welcome to each and every one of the new arrivals. We hope your stay here in Florence will be most pleasant.

Mrs. Irene Renaker is able to be out again, following a major operation at St. Elizabeth Hospital. We wish for her continued good health.

Paul Quinn, who is now stationed with the U. S. Navy, is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Quinn, over the Easter holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Aylor were guests of Mrs. Hattie Owens at Booth Hospital, Thursday evening. She is convalescing following a recent major operation.

Mrs. Garnet Lucas, of the local post office, is enjoying a two weeks vacation from her duties.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Oliver were Easter Sunday dinner guests of relatives in Brooksville, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Aylor of Gunpowder, were Easter Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Martha Richards and son, Jerry, of Covington.

Charles Luchte and Orville Osmun attended the antique show at Music Hall in Cincinnati, last week.

Bruce Easterday and family visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Easterday, of Akron, Ohio, from Thursday through Sunday.

The Edgar Utzinger family was visiting home folks in Indiana, Easter.

Mrs. Jessie Howard of Cincinnati, was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Melvin Jones, one day last week.

Stanley Tanner was called to Memphis, Tenn., to be with his wife, who underwent surgery at the Baptist Hospital, there Monday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rose entertained with a family Easter dinner at their home on Hopeful Road. Guests included were Mrs. Ed Willis and children of the late Stella Rose Willis and Mr. Willis, Mrs. Rose's niece, Mrs. Delmonico, her husband and children of Pleasant Ridge, Ohio, Mrs. Rose's sister, Mrs. Rose, of Cincinnati, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hammond of Indiana, and Albert Rose and family of Erlanger.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Osmun had as guests through the weekend, his brother, Fay Osmun, and wife of Battle Creek, Mich.

Easter guests of Mrs. Eva Delahanty were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Eichorst, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tippetts and daughter, Mrs. Chas. Gehrbert and Mrs. Hattie Smith, all of Chicago. Mrs. Smith, who is the sister-in-law of Mrs. Delahanty, remained for an extended visit.

Mrs. Geo. Miller visited Mrs. Hattie Owens Saturday evening at Booth Hospital. Mrs. Owens recently underwent surgery and is improving nicely. May she recover rapidly.

Mrs. Barney Malloy enjoyed the Easter service with her son, Capt. Chas. Malloy and family of Craig Air Base, Alabama.

Miss Joyce Ops of Asbury College, enjoyed the Easter service with her parents, Rev. C. N. Oga, and family.

Blayne Miller of Dayton, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Miller were Easter guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Miller. Easter guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Tanner were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodward and the Perry Allens.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Carpenter had as guests Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keyer and son, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Krutz of Erlanger, and Mrs. Frank Sayre, her son, Gene, and daughter, Donna.

Evangelistic services are being held at the local Baptist church each evening through April 12, at 7:45. Rev. Bob Brown is the very interesting evangelist and it will be worth your while to come and hear him. Craton Noyes is directing the music. Everybody welcome.

Members of the Florence Methodist Church are being called together Friday evening for a special meeting. A potluck fellowship dinner will be served at 6:30. After the meal, Dr. R. R. Patton will speak and he will be followed by the showing of a picture, entitled "The Difference."

POSTMASTERS MEET

A meeting of the Northern Kentucky Branch of the National League of District Postmasters was held Saturday evening, March 28, at the Florence High School auditorium, preceded by a lovely dinner, prepared and served by the Florence Parent-Teachers Association, at 6:00 p. m.

Mrs. Emma K. Riley, Postmaster at Sparta, State Secretary for the League, sponsored the meeting, assisted by the host Postmaster, Lawrence L. Aylor, who gave the welcoming address and presented the musical portion of the program, assisted by local talent, including Dr. Nelson A. Jett, Paul Chaney, LaRoy Moore and Mrs. Phyllis Davis, who presented piano selections and also ably assisted as accompanist for the group singing.

Some nine counties were represented, consisting of Postmasters, Clerks, Rural Carriers, and their immediate families.

Guest speaker of the evening was Senator Alvin Kidwell. Other speakers were County Attorney Wm. P. McEvoy, who assisted as toastmaster for the evening; the League's State President, Hon. R. E. Doyle of Park City; T. R. Purdy, Superintendent of Postal Transportation of Cincinnati; Leo J. Brophy, representing the Florence Rotary Club; Mrs. Riley, and the principal speaker for the evening, Joseph P. Nolan, Office of the Inspector in Charge, Cincinnati, Ohio, State Representative Joe Rouse, Verona, was a special guest. Mrs. Anna Rice, Postmaster at Ghent, was in charge of registration, with Mrs. Mary Garvey, Postmaster at Sanders, assisting. Chas. R. Atkins, Postmaster at Sherman, served with the host Postmaster on the well coming committee.

Plans for the coming State Convention, to be held May 19-20, in Somerset, near Lake Cumberland, were discussed. Postmasters are urged to make plans to attend this important convention.

Have you ever watched with amusement and, sometimes, with sympathy, the struggles of a man loaded down with an armful of packages, and wondered if he would make it home all right—how would he pick up a package if he dropped one?

Are you doing the same thing with your farm credit needs? Have you been making a debt here and there, depending on one good crop to clear the board? Are YOU carrying too many packages?

Isn't it time to consolidate your debts—get them in one package—with a long-term 4 PER CENT Federal Land Bank loan?

A Land Bank loan assures you of:

LOW COST—Interest only 4%.

FAIR TREATMENT—owned by farmers; operated by farmers when understood a farmer's needs.

PAYMENTS CONVENIENTLY SPACED—semi-annual or annual installments of principal and interest that can be met from farm earnings.

REPAYMENT PRIVILEGES—can be repaid at any time—in full or in part. No waiting—no penalties.

The time to act is NOW. Interest rates, generally, are increasing! Labor and materials are higher! Net profits are lower! DON'T TAKE A CHANCE. GET A LAND BANK LOAN NOW!

Rural Mail Box Improvement Week Is Here

The Post Office Department has designated the week ending April 18, as Rural Mail Box Improvement Week. Rural mail boxes which are not properly erected or in serviceable condition retard the delivery of mail and expose it to damage from the weather.

It is desired that patrons of Rural Delivery Service be encouraged to provide suitable mail receptacles and to erect them so they will be readily accessible to the carrier and present a neat appearance.

Names of the box owners should be visible to the carrier as he approaches them, and boxes and their supports should be kept painted. Any boxes not of the present standard type, which are of such design that they cannot be properly served by the carrier from his vehicle or are in such condition as not to protect the mail, should be replaced with boxes of approved type.

Proper height of the box should be four feet above the surface of the ground. The approach to the box should be filled and properly graded and kept unobstructed at all times.

An observance on the part of patrons of the noted regulations is most essential to an expeditious and efficient service, thus facilitating the work of the carrier and avoiding any interruption in the delivery and collection of mail.

Independence Baptist Church Sets A Record

Easter Sunday, at the Independence Baptist Church, set a new record for attendance—there were 308 in Sunday school, and every pew in the auditorium and the new balcony filled for the worship service. In Training Union, there were 146, and 126 in the following mid-week prayer service.

The Brotherhood of the church purchased a wheel chair, to be used where there is a need for such. At present, it is in the home of Mrs. Lillian Wilson, who is recovering from serious burns. She is happy to be home, after spending 18 months in a hospital.

The W. M. S. met at the parsonage last Thursday for a business session and regular visitation. Those in attendance were: Mrs. T. Burns, Mrs. Geo. Riley, Mrs. Thos. Cain, Mrs. Chas. Milbaugh, Mrs. A. B. Hymer, Mrs. R. Dickson, Mrs. J. C. Armstrong, Mrs. G. Fisk, Mrs. C. McVey, and the hostess, Mrs. K. Jolly.

Walton Homemakers

The Walton Homemakers Club met in the home of Mrs. Forest S. Thompson, with Mrs. Ora Fry as co-hostess, for the April meeting.

The following members were present: Mrs. Stanley Allen and sons, Ronnie Ray and Paul, Mrs. J. T. Stone, Mrs. Frank Penick, Mrs. Jim Woods, Mrs. Jesse Callen, Mrs. Jos. S. Webster, Mrs. Anna Ferguson, Mrs. Pascal Bush, Mrs. Herman Newton, Mrs. H. T. Stephenson, Mrs. Daisy Jack, Mrs. Ralph Carpenter, Mrs. Fry, Mrs. Helen Roney, Mrs. Marion Marsh, Mrs. Pearl Bedinger, Mrs. Lillian Gohs, Mrs. Carrie Rouse, Mrs. Florence Ward, Mrs. Thompson, and Mrs. Nancy Aylor, Home Demonstration Agent.

Sunday School Meeting

The North Bend Association Sunday School meeting was held in the Walton Baptist Church, Monday evening, April 13, with 500 present.

Rev. R. A. Johnson presided over the meeting, and Rev. S. F. Shelton spoke on "Furthurance of the Gospel Through the Sunday School."

Independence won the attendance banner with 118 present.

"FIREMEN'S FOLLIES" PLANNED

The Walton Volunteer Fire Department is sponsoring a minstrel show, called the "Firemen's Follies," which will be presented two evenings, April 30 and May 1, at the James Theater, Walton. More complete details will be announced at a later date.

HOMEMAKERS PLAN DISTRICT MEETINGS

Dates for the 20th annual series of one-day district meetings of homemakers to be held in Kentucky have been announced as covering the period April 20 to May 2.

Guest speaker from April 20 to 25 will be Mrs. J. P. Truitt of Lexington, who spent the past year in Iran. Her subject will be, "Life in the Land of the Mosques and Caravans." Mrs. Lloyd White of Kansas City, a popular Farm and Home Convention speaker of a year ago, will speak at meetings from April 27 to May 2. Her subject will be, "What Is Under Your Hat?"

Attending all meetings will be Mrs. Wade Holt, Bloomfield, president of the Kentucky Federation of Homemakers, who will speak on "Adventures in Friendship," and Miss Myrtle Weidman, Lexington, state leader of home demonstration work, whose address will be "Fifty Years A'Growing."

POLICE COURT BUSY

Police Judge Chick Worthington had four cases in court the past week: Charles E. McVey, 3544 Colman Ave., Cincinnati, was fined $10.00 and costs suspended for being drunk in a public place. Thomas Beaumont, 42 East Holister Ave., Cincinnati, was fined $29.50 for being drunk in a public place; Walter E. Sabree of Corveth, was fined $10.00 and costs for being drunk; and John Walter, Star Route, Independence, was fined $19.50 for improper driving.

Skating Party April 24

The Young Adult Class of the Walton Methodist Church is sponsoring a skating party at the Walton Roller-drome on Friday, April 24, starting at 7:30 p. m. Tickets are to be sold by members of the class and at the door. Refreshments will be sold, including home made pies and cakes with coffee. Tickets are 40 cents each.

Community Club Meeting Postponed

The regular meeting of the Verona Community Club has been postponed until Friday, April 24, by the president, Robert K. Porter.

A real treat is promised everyone attending this meeting. A motion picture will be shown by Mr. Ollie Herrington, Conservation Officer, to be followed by some very good home talent, in charge of Miss Mary Ruth Ryan. This should be a real treat and a good attendance is expected. Remember the date—Friday, April 24, 7:30 p. m., in the Verona school. Come out—Pub. Chm.

TO RESUME SERVICES

Due to illness, there have been no services at the Pentecostal Church of God, Verona, according to A. M. Davis, but on Saturday night, April 18, regular services will resume. Everyone is invited to attend and worship with this congregation.

BLOODMOBILE COMING

The Bloodmobile is scheduled to visit Walton, for the final visit this year, on Friday, May 8. The final visit in the county will be at Burlington, June 1. Blood is still in great demand by our armed forces, so won't you keep these dates in mind, and when the day arrives, donate a pint of life-saving blood at the most convenient location.

Wilmington WMU Meets

The Women's Missionary Union of the Wilmington Baptist Church, Fiskburg, met April 1 at the Masonic Hall for its regular monthly meeting. Twenty-four members and one visitor answered roll call with a verse of scripture. The Union was delighted to have as their guest Dr. Doris Spegal of Dallas, Texas. Six children were also present.

In the morning business session, a report was made of 26 visits to the sick and 134 cards sent. The offering was $13.23. Before noon, Mrs. Ada Spegal, president of the Union, discussed two chapters in the mission study book, "The West Is Big."

A covered dish luncheon, the group again assembled for the Royal Service program about Baptist work in Mexico. Dr. Spegal gave an interesting account of her visit to Mexico last summer, and also discussed the mission work being carried on there by Southern Baptists. The Union was most fortunate to have Dr. Spegal with them at this particular time.

The next meeting will be held the first Wednesday in May at the home of Mrs. Marion Martin.

Winner Selected In WLW-TV Contest

MRS. FANNIE GROSS

Mrs. Fannie Lilly Gross, a resident of Boone county for more than 30 of her 72 years, died last Thursday at her home on North Main Street, Walton. She was a native of Gallatin county.

Mrs. Gross was a member of the Walton Christian Church.

Surviving are three sons, Raymond Gross of Independence, and James R. and Paul Gross, both of Walton; two brothers, William Lilly of Plessureville, and Frank Lilly of Warsaw; four grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services were held Saturday at 2:00 p. m., in the Chambers & Grubbs Funeral Home, Walton. Burial was in Hopeful Cemetery, Florence.

Will Receive Clock-Radio For Efforts

Readers of the Advertiser had many good ideas on what they would like to see on the all-star one-hour television show to be produced by the WLW-television stations, which was sponsored by this newspaper and WLW-TV.

The contest closed Saturday, April 11, and the local winner will receive a new Crosley clock-radio, and in addition, will have a chance to win a 21-inch television set as a grand prize, competing with entries from other newspapers.

Local judges selected the entry of Mrs. G. C. Ransom, Verona, Ky., as the best of the many entries sent the Advertiser, and entry will be turned over to WLW-TV. The program arranged by Mrs. Ransom is as follows:

Burt Farber and Cliff Lash in a two-piano arrangement; Ruth Lyons and Willie Thall in a comedy skit; Howard Chamberlin and Peter Grant, news commentators; David Hamilton, vocal soloist; Hillbillies Zeke and Red Turner, the Rangers, with Charlie Gore, the heart-throb; Esther Homan and Bert Little in organ and piano selection; vocal duet of Marion Spillman and Ron Desmond.

All entries were generally good and it was a difficult task to select the best, but, according to the judges, the above was the most well-rounded program.

Your cooperation in this contest has been splendid, and we're sorry all could not have been winners.

Staffordsburg Homemakers

Plans for a National Home Demonstration Week exhibit for formulated at the April meeting of the Staffordsburg Homemakers Club. Mrs. William Binder is chairman of the exhibit, to be held at the Staffordsburg Methodist Church, on Tuesday, April 28.

Mrs. L. J. Rapp presented the lesson on choosing a simple, yet practical wardrobe for the homemaker. She stated that to be correctly and attractively dressed for all occasions is the desire of all women. Analyze your wardrobe before you buy. Do not buy on the impulse, but on a long time plan." She also instructed the women to choose a basic color becoming to them and plan clothes and accessories from this.

The club voted on the Cancer Fund for the civic project. Mrs. Herbert Barrow gave a very informative advisory council report. Several members opted to attend the District meeting in Cincinnati.

Mrs. Chester Hill gave information on the different tours available for the club's annual summer trip. Members decided on a three-day trip to Niagara Falls via Greyhound bus. The date is to be July 20-21-22. Mrs. Hill is in charge of arrangements for the trip.

Mrs. John Shaw entertained these 26 members and four guests in her home: Mesdames Clint Henry, L. J. Rapp, J. C. Beall, L. J. DeWitt, Mrs. H. Barrow, William Goddard, Floyd Smith, Chester Hill, Mabel Vanlandingham, Hollie Carr, Ralph Howard, Ernest Ryle, Bluch Rich, Emil Stein, Siella Richardson, H. L. Faulkner, Denver Binder, J. J. Barnett, Howard Barnett, Edith Warr, Shirley Holderman, Ray Payne, J. A. Keesey, George Klein, William Binder, members, and Mrs. Swinford, Mrs. A. M. Wolf, Mrs. Russell Rector and Mrs. Minnie Rapp, guests.

Walton Homemakers, II

Walton Homemakers Club, No. 2, held its March meeting at the home of Mrs. Vernon Porterfield of Richmond. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Wm. Smith. Each member answered roll call by relating their most interesting experience. Scripture was read by Mrs. Matthew Sleet, who also read a beautiful poem, "Whoever Makes A Garden."

The lessons on foods and notes on landscaping were given by Mrs. Aylor. Also hints on fashions were given by Mrs. Aylor.

An auction will be held at the next meeting, which will be held in the home of Mrs. Almeta Jones, Walton, Friday, April 17.

Members attending the meeting were: Mrs. Walter Sleet, Mrs. Estill Sleet, Mrs. Arthur Redd, Mrs. James Riddell, Mrs. Birdie Blue, Mrs. Robert Sleet, Mrs. Matthea Sleet, Mrs. John Jones, Mrs. William Frazier, Mrs. John Jones, Mrs. Spriggs, Miss Emma Sleet and Mrs. Vernon Porterfield. There was one visitor, Mrs. John Sleet.

Beechgrove Homemakers

Mrs. Gus Shodder and Mrs. F. M. Powers gave a lesson on "Improved Practices for the Home," at the meeting of the Beechgrove Homemakers, held in the home of Mrs. Louis P. Lee, Cody Road.

Mrs. Powers, president, opened the meeting with The Lord's Prayer, and Mrs. R. B. Sterling read the 23rd Psalm, the Homemakers Creed, the Club Collect, and a poem, "The Faultless Wife."

A special week-day meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Sterling when members made 1,155 Christmas tree ornaments from discarded Christmas cards. More work days will be held later.

Mrs. R. R. Quick and Mrs. George Fennell were welcomed as guests.

Signs giving information about 4-H club work will be placed on highways in Pike county.

William Johnson, right, K.U. farm service advisor, presents a "gold emblem" certificate to Lowell Schnorr, president of the Campbell County F.F.A. chapter at the Northern F.F.A. District field day, April 3 at Cynthia. Representing the other chapters who received "gold emblem" ratings during the day-long competition are, front row, left to right, Paul Kyle, Owen County, and Don Tucker, Tallapoosa. Second row, Billy Lyman, Nicholas County; George Toadine, Hebron; Marion Sander, Dry Ridge; and David Taylor, Bracken County. Back row, Nettie Butler, Mayslick; Jack Kimbrough, Harrison County, and James Whiteaker, Simon Kenton.

Just A Thought—Many a motorist has lost control of his car because of one mistake—teaching his teen-age, youngster to drive.

Paper Drive
Now is a good time for some organization to start a paper drive—many persons have contacted me concerning the newspapers, magazines, etc. that they now have on hand and want to donate to some one who will pick them up at their homes or place of business.

The Boy Scouts or Girl Scouts would be good organizations to begin their march for acquiring funds for the summer, and I know they will receive many requests from persons all along Rural Route 1, and in Independence.

Rural Mail Boxes
The week ending April 18 (this week) is Rural Mail Box Improvement Week and all rural patrons should try to make some improvement to their mail box, if improvements are needed. Your carrier will gladly give you suggestions and information—just contact him or leave a notice in your mail box that you wish information that will help make your mail more serviceable and protect your mail better.

Honored Guest

J. A. Caywood, superintendent of the Kenton County schools, was guest of honor at a dinner in celebration of his 15th anniversary as superintendent at the county schools, last Wednesday, at the Town and Country Restaurant, Park Hills. F. D. Caton was toastmaster, and suitable gifts were presented. Mr. Caywood by Mrs. Mildred Riffe, teacher in the Dixie Heights school, and several selections were sung by Miss Louise Yancey, teacher at Simon Kenton, accompanied by Robert Roden, music director at Simon Kenton. This celebration was a complete surprise to Mr. Caywood and though he knew this was to be in honor of someone, he never realized it was for him.

Simon Kenton P.T.A. Play

"Henry's Mail Order Bride," a one-act play will be presented by the Simon

Kenton P.T.A. as the main attraction at the annual Carnival, to be given Friday evening, April 17.

Ruben Hinsdale will portray Henry. Others in the cast include Mrs. John I. Gray, William Eger and Melvin Platt, Sr., Mrs. Virginia Watson, and Mrs. Helen Collins. Mrs. John Cain will be the director.

A fish pond, games, pie and cake booth, handwork and white elephant sale, homemade candy, popcorn will be on sale in the school cafeteria.

A door prize of a table model Motorola radio, donated by Webster's Electric Shop in Walton, will be awarded.

The public is invited and all who attend will have a wonderful time.

New Business

William E. Steger of Wayman Drive, has opened a print shop, a business which will help in the progress of our community.

Building A Home?

People who are planning to build new homes this spring will find some suggestions in a new publication prepared by the government's Housing and Home Finance Agency.

One article offers some ideas on how to trim costs. Another deals with white exterior points, while a third discusses insulation.

You can order a copy from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. Title: Housing Research No. 5, price 40 cents.

Uniform Allowances

Reserve officers should check on new regulations governing allowances for uniforms. An officer recalled to active duty for more than 90 days during the Korean war period gets $100. A newly commissioned officer going on active duty gets $350. A reserve officer who averages seven days active duty training a year gets $50 every four years, beginning in 1956, as a "maintenance allowance."

Note this important point: In case of a deceased officer, who would have been entitled to an allowance, it's available to his dependents.

Across Kenton County

A number of assessments were filed for record by the Ohio Valley Electric Corporation at the county clerk's office at Independence, last week. This new line will supply electric energy from the new electric plant at Madison, Ind., to the new atomic plant at Waverly, Ohio.

Volunteer Needed

Miss Madeline Selman, leader for our Girl Scout Troop, would like for someone to volunteer their truck for one Saturday for a much-needed paper drive. The Girl Scouts have been collecting paper, magazines, and anything that will sell for some time now, and a truck is needed to haul it to town; also the girls will collect any of the above articles from persons who want to get rid of them, which will help toward the spring cleaning.

Anyone who would donate their truck and their services for one Saturday, please contact Miss Selman, Holly 3732. Anyone having papers, magazines, etc., to get rid of just call Miss Selman and the Girl Scouts will be after them.

Bike Riders

A book published by the Carlisle Tire and Rubber Division is dedicated to the youth of America and is published solely to help boys and girls more completely enjoy one of our finest and most healthful sports, bicycle riding. Just send a Post Card to "Carlisle Tire and Rubber Division, Carlisle Corp., Carlisle, Pa.," for your "Fun With Your Bike" book, and you will find that your bike will be more healthful and will always be in tip-top condition for any bike ride or picnic trip.

St. Cecilia Card Party

The monthly St. Cecilia card party will be held Wednesday afternoon, April 22 starting at 1 p. m. and continuing until 4:30 p. m., at the church basement. Everyone is invited, and a good time will be had by all attending.

Boy Scout Camping Trip

Last weekend the Independence Boy Scout Troop, 8, began their spring and summer outings by going camping at the Scout Camp at Union. Last Friday, 34 boys were loaded into two trucks, driven by Geo. Fisk and Ed Lovell, and were transferred to the camp area. Upon arrival, camp was set up inside the Boy Scout cabin, and preparations for the evening made, such as cleaning out the fireplace, carrying in logs, building the fire, cots and bunks set up and beds made, cooking utensils unpacked and made ready for Saturday's breakfast. After the setup was completed, the boys bedded down and all soon asleep.

Saturday brought games, a hike, fishing, and preparation for the evening. The camp fire was built, but rain caused the boys to spend the evening in the cabin, and with food being plentiful, they didn't mind at all.

Sunday morning, church services were conducted with other Scouts from Troop 16, Covington. After lunch, camp was broken and preparations made for the trip home, arriving here at 5:30 p. m. Another camping trip is being planned for Butler State Park in May and all the Scouts are eager to go.

Simon Kenton P.T.A.

"The general health of our Communities is everyone's responsibility," so said Miss Helen M. Young, Covington School Nurse, in her talk on "Foundations for Better Health," at a recent meeting of the Simon Kenton P.T.A., Mrs. William Eger presiding.

"Keeping our young people healthy, mentally and spiritually, is just as important as keeping them physically well," observed Miss Young.

Miss Betty Gaskin, senior, led the devotional, and Miss Elma Taylor, dean of girls, offered prayer.

Annual reports of committee chairmen were given and final plans for the annual carnival, to be given April 17, were made.

A play entitled "Henry's Mail Order Bride," will be given in connection with the carnival, with parents and teachers taking part. Mrs. John Cain is director.

It was announced that Simon Kenton will participate in Kenton County Council Day at Coney Island, June 3.

Mrs. Nelson Hoffman was installed vice president to serve a term of two years. Mrs. Wootton Ashcraft was installing officer.

Miss Mary L. Yancey's seventh grade won the attendance award.

Class to Collect Clothing

Something new and very helpful has been organized in the Young Married People's Class of the Independence Christian Church. This class has picked up as its project for 1953, helping obtain better clothing for orphans, ages 2 to 16 years, in the Covington Protestant Orphan Home, Devou Park.

Louis Lee, Jr., president of the class, along with his wife, Mrs. Randall Wagner, Mrs. John Armstrong and Mrs. Herbert Works are appealing to you to help in this wonderful project—all you have to do is sort through your children's clothes, toss aside the clothing not in use, and phone any one of the numbers listed below.

The Young Married People's Class will do the rest—they will come to your home and personally call for the clothing, take it home, clean, patch, iron, and recondition it, and deliver same to the children at the home.

It is a very good feeling, folks, to know you've helped someone who is less fortunate, and so close to home. "Your contribution is our resolution, so call a number—Mrs. Lee, Holly 9701; Mrs. Wagner, Holly 3371; Mrs. Armstrong, Holly 8202, or Mrs. Works, Holly 8661.

Kenton Elementary P.T.A.

The Kenton Elementary School P.T.A. will hold its regular meeting Thursday, April 23, instead of April 16 as was originally scheduled. The change was necessitated because of conflict with the K. E. A. meeting.

WHITES TOWER NEWS

A very quiet week at Bide-A-Wee farm and news is very scarce in the Tower—

Pat Donovan and Donald Williams were involved in an auto accident at Ridge Road and Taylor Mill. Pat has a possible skull fracture, while Williams was less seriously injured.

Someone stole a half dozen fat hens from Jess Webster's hen house one night last week.

Little Tommy Schadler fell off a fence Monday and broke his arm, near the elbow.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Gibson entertained their daughter and husband, Richard Petzinger and wife, Thursday, in honor of Mrs. Petzinger's birthday. Judy and Patsy Brumback are visiting their father in Cleveland, Ohio.

E. C. Moore of Southern Madison county got more than 80 percent production from 500 Berea Bar pullets in December.

Piner W.M.S.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Piner Baptist Church met in the church basement, Wednesday, March 25. The morning session opened with the singing of "I Surrender All," followed with prayer by Mrs. Tyner. The devotion was given by Mrs. Mary Elliott. 48 cards were reported sent to the ill in the community and 20 visits were made. The collection for the day was $10.20.

The following ladies answered roll call with a memory verse: Mrs. Lucy Beighle, Mrs. Blanche Elliott, Mrs. Mary Elliott, Mrs. Lorna Fithian, Mrs. Nettie Mann, Mrs. Agnes McMillan, Mrs. Christine Oliver, Mrs. Hazel Spaulding, Mrs. Libby Tyner, Mrs. Georgia Cornelius, Mrs. Cecil Belew and Mrs. Kathryn Perry.

The community Missions committee reported a bowl of fruit taken to Mrs. Nettie Mann during her recent illness. Some of the ladies plan to visit the Good Will Center and help. The society will pay for refreshments whenever it is convenient for the ladies to go. It was decided to send the Good Will Center $2 to be spent for library books. An assortment of jellies and other sweets is to be sent the Newport Old Folks Home. After completing the business session, the group adjourned and enjoyed a delicious lunch.

In the afternoon, all present took part in the discussion of the regular Royal Service program. Mrs. Agnes McMillan was in charge.

The society will meet at the church on Wednesday, April 29 for the next regular monthly meeting. Mrs. Ruby Linder will be in charge of the program.

VERONA HOMEMAKERS

Mrs. Flannice Edgington and Mrs. Pearl Lamm were hostesses for the Verona Homemakers at the home of Mrs. Lamm. After the usual business session, Mrs. Nancy Aylar gave the lesson on how to make the most of your own frozen foods and gave some recipes for same.

A delicious covered-dish dinner was enjoyed by all. The covered plates spoke for themselves.

In the afternoon, Mrs. Irene Scott had charge of the devotional, and Mrs. Patty Waller offered prayer, remembering Good Friday, and the sick of our community.

Mrs. Edgington had charge of the recreational program. Several projects were introduced for the future.

Those who enjoyed the day were: Mrs. Ura Roberts, Mrs. Lizzie Noel, Mrs. Frances McCormick, Mrs. Mae Wilson, Mrs. Ethel Fooks, Mrs. Nancy Aylar, Mrs. Virgie Adams, Mrs. Edith Hamilton, Mrs. Iolene Scott, Mrs. Iva Vest, and Mrs. Patty Waller. Visitors were Mrs. James Elliott, Mrs. Corrie Sturgeon, Mrs. Sophronia Mills, Mrs. Eli. Crowe.

ATWOOD-NICHOLSON HOMEMAKERS

A very interesting display of articles was on exhibit at the home of Mrs. S. C. Fisk when the Atwood-Nicholson Homemakers met for their monthly meeting recently. Mrs. Leslie Wagner, vice president, opened the business meeting, followed by scripture reading by Mrs. Alfred B'Hymer. A book review was given by Mrs. John Cain, on the "Life of Andrew Jackson," former president.

"Planning a Basic Wardrobe," was the lesson, given by Mrs. Elmer Groger and Mrs. Alfred B'Hymer. Mrs. Ruben Hinsdale continued a book review on "Presidents and Their Wives."

Attending were Mesdames Clifford Cornelius, Orle Young, R. C. Durr, Alfred B'Hymer, Frank Stogman, Clifford Vaughn, Ruben Hinsdale, John Cain, Raymond Dickson, H. L. Pitcher, S. C. Fisk, John Butler, Hubert Baird, Leslie Wagner, Elmer Groger and a guest, Mrs. Lloyd Watson, president of the Kenton County Homemakers.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Clifford Cornelius, May 13.

Mrs. Clarence Mattingly of Bullitt Lick Homemakers Club in Bullitt county is making a 9x12 hooked rug.

Eighty-nine clothing kits were made and equipped with cleaning supplies by the members of the Negro homemakers clubs in Christian and Todd counties.

Lee county farmers who grew 26 tobacco as a demonstration in 1952 are planning to grow it as their main crop this year.

Higher yields than last season boosted incomes of many Anderson county tobacco growers to around $1,200 an acre.

LOOK SOUTH LOOK AHEAD

Growing like Jack's Beanstalk!

FOR YEARS, the Southern Railway System and many other organizations and individuals in the Southland have been saying to all America—"Come South, to find spectacular new opportunities in industry, agriculture and commerce." And our voices have been heard!

In the past decade, the South's rate of economic growth has far exceeded the national average in practically every category. In new construction, now at an all-time high. In expanded manufacturing output. In farm income, which has quadrupled. In per capita income and consumer sales.

Look back—and see how far we have come. Look ahead—and see the certainty of still greater progress and growth. Because all of us in the modern Southland are determined that it will continue to grow. And all of us will benefit.

Reaching Out

Lesson for April 19, 1953

If you had asked any one in Illinois about Abraham Lincoln, about the year 1858, they might well have told you he had been a failure. At that time very few persons saw in him his true greatness because so many of his ventures had either failed or not been notable successes. So with many great men. Their towers of success were built on rubble-heaps of failures. So it was with the great apostle Paul. He was sincere, earnest, energetic, from his very first week as a Christian. But he was not successful from the first week. He had tried to preach in Damascus, only to be sneaked out of that city in a basket. In Jerusalem also he had tried, but the brethren tactfully took him to a seaport and put him on a boat for home. In his home town Tarsus no doubt he tried too (we can't imagine Paul sitting around doing nothing), but if he ever had a grain of success there we never heard of it, and Paul was not one to be silent about his successful efforts.

Home Base
If it had not been for Barnabas there is no telling what might have happened. He was a sort of pastor-at-large for the growing church in the important city of Antioch, then one of the finest cities of the Empire. Barnabas knew his own limitations. He took a trip to Tarsus, located Paul, brought him back as co-pastor at Antioch. Between them they made a great team. The church grew, everybody seemed to be happy; for a whole year Barnabas and Paul must have been the talk of the church. Then one day in a prayer-meeting it came to the hearts of those present that the two associate ministers of that big church should resign; it was God's will that they should. There was something else for them to do. Now that was the beginning of what we now call "foreign missions." But suppose people in the Antioch church had taken the line that some church members take now when foreign missions are being discussed? They could have said, "What? Send Barnabas and Paul as foreign missionaries? Why, they have all they can do here. Why bury their talents in some out-of-the-way place? People in Lystra and Iconium have their own religions, why not leave 'em alone? Let's wait till we get the heathen in Antioch converted before we start on the heathen in Cyprus!" But the church in Antioch (bless them!) did not talk that way, though there may have been a few members who did. As a church they gave their tried-and-true pastors a God-speed and then off on the boat for the wide west. It always takes more to a missionary to make foreign missions successful. There has to be a praying, obedient, mission-minded home church.

Expeditionary Force
Barnabas and Paul, on the other hand, were not like young chaps just out of seminary. They were seasoned mature men, tested workers, known and successful leaders. The church in sending them sent its best. It is a thundering mistake to fancy that you can send to the foreign mission field the poor fellows who couldn't hold down a church in America. It takes a lot more character and ability to make Christ known in a totally indifferent or hostile atmosphere than where there is already a partly Christian atmosphere and where the church is a going and often powerful institution. Whether it's home missions or foreign missions it is the same story. The string line, the front line, calls for the best. By and large, too, the church has seen this (when it has "seen" missions at all).

If Not Missions, then—?
Suppose the church never sent missionaries, never did any evangelistic work, quit pioneering everywhere. Then what? Well, that would happen to a firm that never went after new business? What would happen to a newspaper that never wanted new subscribers? What happens to a herd of cattle that never admits new blood? An inbred family is like any inbred family. But the most important question is: What will Christ say of a church that pays no attention to his order: "Go into all the world—?"

FLORENCE

Sorry to report Tommy Easton as having been confined to his home several days the past week with an attack of flu.

Henry Smith has concluded his vacation in Florida, and arrived home Tuesday of last week. He reports having had a nice time visiting with friends and fishing. Enroute he paused to visit Mr. and Mrs. Alanzo Whitson of Dalton, Ga., who are approaching the ripe old ages of 84 and 82, respectively, and are in good health. W. L. Stephens, who spent the winter in the sunshine state, accompanied Mr. Smith home.

Mrs. S. J. Bradley attended the WSCS and WSG annual conference, which convened at Winchester, the past week. Sympathy is extended the family of Forrest H. Brown, for whom services were held Thursday from the Chambers and Grubbs funeral home, with Rev. Roy A. Johnson, officiating.

Mrs. E. G. Stephenson of Main Street, Elmore, was calling on Mrs. W. R. Miller on Tuesday of last week.

James Bristow of Bristow Road, Kenton county, has returned from Booth Hospital, is up and about and doing very well. His friends wish him the best.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dolwick, Jr. and family were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Miller, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Chaney were the guests Sunday afternoon of his brother, Frank Chaney.

Sorry to report the illness of Dr. Joe Northcutt, who was removed to a hospital Saturday, due to a heart attack.

The district "Day Apart" service of the Women's Society of Christian Service was held at the local Methodist Church, Wednesday, April 1. A nice program had been arranged, including solos by Mrs. George Trautwein and Mrs. Ruby Kellogg. Mrs. L. M. Ackman gave "Moments of Memory." Other interesting speakers were Mrs. Clara Conway of Covington and Mrs. Major Cleson Richardson, a missionary to Korea for the Salvation Army, who is here on vacation. Ministers present were Rev. W. S. Mitchell, Rev. H. B. Holland, Rev. G. B. Traynor, Rev. C.

N. Ogg, Rev. S. J. Bradley and Dr. R. R. Patton. Lunch was served at the noon hour and communion was administered at the close of the program.

Guests of the Eldridge Carpenters during the past week were Mrs. Helen Scott and Kay, Gene Sayre, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kurz and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keyer and son.

The Woman's Society of the local Methodist Church met Monday afternoon of last week. Mrs. S. J. Bradley, president, presided. Reports were heard and the major part of the time was taken up with business discussion. Some of the group are planning to attend the annual district W.S.C.S. conference at the Erlanger church, May 15. Attending were: Mesdames S. J. Bradley, A. Knox, L. Allen, O. Bethel, S. Jones, R. Miller, H. Barnett, C. Miller, C. McKibben, C. Stephens, R. Mitchell and C. Ogg.

Mrs. George Miller visited Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Graham of Park Hills, on Tuesday.

GLENCOE

Sadness has covered the entire little town of Glencoe. One of the finest women, noted for her kindness to each and every one she could aid. She was Mrs. Bertha Noel, wife of Martin Noel of Glencoe, who was found in the cistern at the Dr. Yager place. She leaves her husband, Martin; a son, James Noel, of Cincinnati; a grandson, and an aged mother, Addie Webster; two brothers, Walter Noel and Thurman Noel; one sister, Nannie Chapman. Deepest sympathy is extended the family.

The many friends were sorry to hear of the death of Fanny Gross, as she formerly was a resident of this place. Sympathy is extended the family.

James Boaz is expected to move to Warsaw soon. We wish them the best of luck.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Chandler and daughter, LaVerne, and Ronny Vest spent Sunday with friends in Dayton, Ohio.

Mesdames Susie Glare, Arsolia Hayden, Fannie Edgington, Iolene Scott attended the 50th anniversary session of the Woman's Missionary Union of Kentucky at Immanuel Baptist Church in Lexington, last Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rosenstiel and children entertained Sunday, Rev. and Mrs. Kelly Kennedy and sons and Carolyn Hayden.

Iris Hughes was calling on her parents Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Boss, Dell and Greg, and Mrs. Florian Armstrong of Covington; Mr. and Mrs. James Littrell, Carolyn Sue and Jimmy, of Erlanger, were recent callers in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Littrell.

Mrs. Pearl Lamm returned home Friday from Louisville, where she had been a few days helping care for her granddaughter, who is a little better, but not able to use her arm yet, but can move her limb a little. We hope to hear of her soon being well again.

Mr. and Mrs. Lendis Perry of Dayton, Ohio, were visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Chipman, and family, Sunday.

Mrs. Vevie Webster was calling on Mr. and Mrs. Omer Elliston of Latonia, Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Blocker and Ricky of Dayton, Ohio, visited her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Littrell, recently.

Have you ever watched with amusement and, sometimes, with sympathy, the struggles of a man loaded down with an armful of packages, and wondered if he would make it home all right—how would he pick up a package if he dropped one?

Are you doing the same thing with your farm credit needs? Have you been making a debt here and there, depending on one good crop to clear the board? Are YOU carrying too many packages?

Isn't it time to consolidate your debts—get them in one package with a long-term 4 PER CENT Federal Land Bank loan?

A Land Bank loan assures you of:

LOW COST—interest only 4%.

FAIR TREATMENT—owned by farmers; operated by farmers when understand a farmer's needs.

PAYMENTS CONVENIENTLY SPACED—semi-annual or annual installments of principal and interest that can be met from farm earnings.

REPAYMENT PRIVILEGES—can be repaid at any time—in full or in part. No waiting—no penalties.

The time to act is NOW. Interest rates, generally, are increasing! Labor and materials are higher! Net profits are lower! DON'T TAKE A CHANCE. GET A LAND BANK LOAN NOW!

CONCORD

The Concord Homemakers met with Mrs. Harvey Hughes, April 9, with seven members answering roll call. One visitor was present, Mrs. Warren from the Heeling club of Williamstown. Mrs. Hughes gave the devotional, and Miss Wilson gave the lesson on putting in zippers and making belts. The Concord and Napi-eon clubs made $31.66 at the sale held at the home of the late Miss Belle Breeze and the money was turned over to the Community Club house. Our club voted to give $5.00 to the Cancer drive. The next meeting will be held the second Thursday in May with Mrs. C. Hudson. Miss Elva Speagle and Mrs. Mae Brown spent Thursday with their sister, Mrs. Sarah Webster.

Mr. and Mrs. John Noel of Latonia, called on Mr. and Mrs. Hobert Speagle, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morgan called on Mrs. Dorothy Cheatman and children, Sunday afternoon at Glencoe.

LAWN MOWERS

Cameron Brakefield bought an Eclipse Rocket lawn mower—these mowers are no trouble to sell, the trouble I have is getting them. Still Hudson's wife sent him over after two quarts of Bolce Quick Drying Primrose Enamel and two quarts of undercoat—this enamel coats like porcelain and lasts for years. Now is the time to buy a Perfection electric range, and be ready for that hot weather—at the price of coal, kerosene and gas, you can now cook on a Perfection electric range cheaper than anything else—you can cook on a Perfection electric range for ten cents a day or less.

Mrs. Forest Marsh, who has had a Perfection electric range for 18 months, tells me her range cost her an average of $2.60 per month with a family of four, and she does a lot of baking. Any farmer who has a deep freezer, milking machine and all other electric appliances, can add a Perfection electric range, which will probably use enough to lower your cost per kilowatt, which will make your electric very cheap; also another appliance you can add, which everyone needs who has a water system is a Hoffman electric water heater—all the hot water you want for ten to fifteen cents per day. Electricity is the cheapest, cleanest and safest utility anyone can use.

Mrs. Powers, over at Simon Kenton school, bought a Sunbeam electric iron—it is funny, when you show six different electric irons, and nearly every time they pick Sunbeam. We received some G. E. steam irons today to retail at $18.95, as we have had several calls for this iron. We also received some lawn rollers and steel clothes posts—these posts sell for $7.90 per pair, complete with fittings. Joe Woods bought one of the dairy pumps and pipe—Brewster checked the pump over and then delivered it to Joe.

Groger backed up to the side door and filled the side room full of Armstrong linoleum—we have more rugs and linoleum to select from than ever before. We have some 12x12 and 12x15 with no border, that you can cut any way for any size room. We received another shipment of Bolce paint and enamel. We must sell some because we get two or three shipments a week. We have more people come in and want some of that Bolce paint like they got last year or some like their neighbor used. Mabel Campbell bought Betty Sue a new girl's bicycle.

Mr. Jones, Mr. Jones, who lives on Piner Road, close to Harry Johnson, bought a one-horse sled. We received another shipment of rubber tire wagons and an 8-ft. Mt. Vernon line spreader. We sure sell these wagons—I don't know where they all go. This line spreader is a lot better than most spreaders—you can take the agitators out and clean them by removing of 9-ft. wide linoleum, and Mrs. John Romes bought three screws—it is very easy to regulate, also easy to throw out of gear when moving from one field to another. Compare these wagons, complete with tires and set up, with any other wagon for $135.00—it is cheap. Huey Express brought in a shipment of Mastercut rotary lawn mowers for $127.50—this is the best buy I have found in rotary mowers, with a four-cycle engine. You can buy a cheaper mower with a two-cycle engine, but what have you got, nothing but trouble. Wayne Rice has a new one over at the Walton center—he is cutting everything from tombstones, bottles, rocks, steel pegs, weeds and grass; also a few bushes—Wayne says you have to back up now and then but it will go right on through—they are great for smooth or rough mowing—try one!

We sold more tobacco canvas today—they are still burning planed. We extend sincere sympathy to the Gross family in the death of their mother, Mrs. Fanny Gross; also sorry to hear Uncle Bill Lancaster is very sick and in the hospital—he is 82 years old. Every year I lose a few old customers and gain a few new ones, but that is one thing we all have to do and we never know when. Mrs. John Romes just bought two 12x12 Armstrong rugs in the hoop rug design. We sure sell a lot of galvanized pipe—I cut up enough to lay to run to Bracht.

Wiring material is another thing we sell lots of—that is the reason we carry a large stock. We sure sold the Armstrong linoleum Saturday—John Sharon bought a 9x12 rug; Robert Cheesman bought 20 ft. 2x12 Armstrong rug; Mrs. Alfred Hume selected a 9x12 rug to be delivered later. We have a large stock and beautiful patterns to select from. Miss Ott Riley, out on Nicholson Road, bought a Mastercut rotary power lawn mower. A lady from over on Riggs Road, Kenton county, bought an Eclipse hand mower—this is the best hand mower anyone can buy.

Harold (L. G. Hertzog) over Verona way, has a disc plow to sell—it will fit a Ford or Ferguson tractor, right off hydraulic lift, and it is a very new—it sells for $230 now and he will sell it for $150—only plowed about 20 acres and is in A-1 condition. Mr. Winburn, who lives close to Cabindale, bought a 12-ft. American farm gate. We have another one of those Mt. Vernon line and fertilizer spreaders. They sure spread it even and don't waste or let it blow over in the other field. Alvin Elliott, who bought the Earl Souder farm out on Green Road, came after wire fence and staples. Brewster went over and repaired Stanley Fooks' water pump today. Orin Britt stopped in and bought 32 ft. of three yards wide Armstrong linoleum for his wife. Grandma Clifton and Sarah Hodges were in buying hinges, and Shelby Acra needed Bolce enamel.

Tax Books Are Now Open For Inspection

Boone County taxpayers have an opportunity to inspect the tax assessment roll again this year, according to Wilton E. Stephens, Boone County Tax Commissioner.

As provided by Kentucky law, the property tax roll is open for inspection from April 15 to May 1. Mr. Stephens said that any taxpayer may visit his office and check his or her assessment.

"I strongly urge every taxpayer who possibly can to take advantage of the inspection period," Mr. Stephens said. "This is the only way to be sure the assessment is correct. There is so much property being transferred and subdivided, new buildings being constructed, automobiles being bought and sold, that it is most difficult to complete a correct assessment at the present time," Mr. Stephens continued.

Any property owner who believes his assessment is out of line may appeal to the board of supervisors. The appeal must be filed in writing with C. D. Benson, County Clerk, before May 1. Appeal for a review may also be made by the tax commission, Department of Revenue, county judge, chief finance officer of any city using the county assessment, or the superintendent of any school district in which the property is located. The board of supervisors may raise or lower individual assessments on which appeals have been made in order to equalize them.

The Boone County Board of Tax Supervisors, appointed by County Judge Carroll L. Cropper, is composed of the following: John Crigler, Helton, first magisterial district; Lloyd Ayler, Florence, second magisterial district; and Hugh Stephens, Carlton, third magisterial district. The board will convene in the Tax Commissioner's office, on Monday, May 4.

Oak Island Homemakers

The April meeting of the Oak Island Homemakers Club was held at the community house. The meeting was called to order by the president. Projects for next year were discussed, and care of the sick was favored by most. It was decided to have a tea party, May 2, at the community house, in honor of National Home Demonstration Week. A motion was made to send $5.00 to the civic fund for Mentally Retarded Children's School, Covington.

The reading chairman, Mrs. Robert Wainwright, read Proverbs 18:24, and an article on "The Happiness of Friendship." Mrs. C. C. Northcutt brought a very interesting talk on "Planning A Basic Wardrobe."

Those present were Mesdames Claude Taylor, Albert Martin, Walter Linnville, C. C. Northcutt, Sherman Barberick, Frank Jackson, and Miss Nell Nelhoff. Two visitors were present: Mrs. Calvin Fennell and Mrs. Lloyd Watson, County President.

Local PTA to Meet Friday Night Apr. 24

The Walton-Verona P. T. A. will meet Friday, April 24, at 7:30 p. m., in the school auditorium. All members are urged to be present.

An interesting program will be presented after the business session. Next year's officers will be introduced.

This meeting is being held in the evening to give the fathers and mothers who cannot attend afternoon meetings an opportunity to take part in P. T. A. activities. Come out Friday evening and bring someone with you!

Teachers and parents work together in the P. T. A. with one aim—the welfare of the children in our schools.—Pub. Chm.

May Be Blue Mold Season

The possibility of blue mold disease appearing in tobacco plant beds is brought out by Dr. W. D. Valleau, plant pathologist at the University of Kentucky Experiment Station. The early sowing of many beds will mean more time for blue mold spores to be blown into Kentucky, he said. Serious outbreaks of blue mold occurred in Kentucky in 1937 and 1945.

Dr. Valleau advised farmers to have ferbam or zineb on hand to use on plant beds immediately upon the appearance of blue mold.

ROBERT T. WARD

Robert T. Ward, 86, a former Walton resident, passed away at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Lee Marksberry, near Crittenden, Sunday, April 12. Burial was in Richmond Cemetery, with the Tallero funeral home, Erlanger, completing arrangements.

Besides Mrs. Marksberry, Mr. Ward leaves another daughter, Mrs. W. M. Justice, of Covington; five sons, Everett and Russell Ward of Covington, Andy Ward of Florence, Lyle Ward of Erlanger, and Thomas Ward of Independence; 31 grandchildren, and 45 great-grandchildren.

BLOODMOBILE HERE MAY 8

The bloodmobile will make a visit to Walton, Friday, May 8, under the auspices of the Boone County Red Cross. Don't forget to make a pledge of blood to save a life. Call your Red Cross and make a date to save a life. You may contribute if you are in good health, weigh 110 pounds or more, and are between 21 and 59 years of age. If you are between 18 and 20, you must have the written consent of your parents. At least a small cut of time alone, you will have given the gift of life. Call Florence 84 or Walton 33 and make your pledge.

Free Typhoid Immunization Program On

There will be a county-wide typhoid fever immunization program this year, and it is starting this week.

Mrs. Mary C. Cress, R. N., Boone County Health Department, will go to each school and give the shots free of charge to every child who has a permission slip signed by their parents.

Children should be immunized against typhoid fever at six months and booster shots should be given to young and old alike.

Summertime often brings an increase in typhoid. Vaccinations in areas where the purity of water and milk supplies is questionable lead the way for additional typhoid victims. Last year, in Kentucky, there were 121 cases of typhoid, with four deaths.

The Health Department urges each parent to see that their children have this protection—IT'S FREE!

MT. ZION HOMEMAKERS

The lovely dinner served by Mrs. William Miller, hostess to the Mt. Zion Homemakers Club for the April meeting, certainly highlighted the day. She was assisted by Mrs. Charles Hopfinger. The lesson for the day was the use of frozen foods and the meat thermometer, which was certainly most ably demonstrated. Two Easter cakes, baked by the hostess, decorated the table and gave the meal a festive touch.

The business meeting began with the reading of the Club Collect, and was followed by the reading of an excerpt from Proverbs, and an article, "Happiness of Friendship," by the reading chairman, Mrs. George Otten.

The afternoon was spent planning the trip to Cincinnati for the District meeting, and enjoying the games conducted by Mrs. Miller, recreation chairman. An exchange of magazines closed the meeting.

The club was happy to welcome seven guests and, possibly, prospective members, which included Mrs. Roy Lambert, Mrs. John Buetel, Mrs. Clyde Howell, Mrs. George Baker, Mrs. Millard Owens, Mrs. E. Dickman and Miss Jo Ann Miller. Also in attendance were members: Mrs. Romer Burns, Mrs. Frank Demachio, Mrs. Charles Hopfinger, Mrs. William Miller, Mrs. George Otten, Mrs. Roger McGuire and Mrs. Nancy Ayler, Home Demonstration Agent.

SOCIAL SECURITY NOTES

When a person insured under Social Security dies, his nearest relative should go to the Social Security office as soon as possible.

Now not only employees in stores and factories, but also most self-employed persons, regularly employed farm and domestic workers, the employees of some churches, charitable agencies and political subdivisions, many railroad workers, and even some World War veterans who have never even had a Social Security number, have an insured status when they die. Often their survivors do not realize this, said Joseph T. Ware, manager of the Covington Social Security office, and fail to come in and file claims. The Covington office, which serves all of Northern Kentucky, is located at 7th and Scott Streets.

County Attorney McEvoy Seeks Re-election

William P. "Bill" McEvoy, County Attorney of Boone County, announced that he is seeking re-election to the office of County Attorney, subject to the Democratic Primary, August 1, 1953.

Mr. McEvoy, who lives in Florence, is married and has one child. He has been active in Democratic affairs for the past 15 years; a veteran of World War II, having served with the armed forces from 1942 to 1946, and saw service with the 7th Air Force in the Pacific Theater of Operations. He was educated at St. Paul's Parochial School, Florence, Lloyd High School, Erlanger, Centre College at Danville, Ky., and received his law degree from Chase College of Law in Cincinnati, Ohio. He is a member of the American League, Boone Post No. 4, and a Vulture 694 of the 40-8 of Kentucky. He is a member of St. Paul's Catholic Church, Florence.

Mr. McEvoy, in making his formal announcement, stated, "It is my desire to have the privilege of serving the people of Boone County as County Attorney for the next four years. In the past four years my office has cooperated with federal, state, county and local law enforcement officers in the performance of their duties and if re-elected to the office, shall continue to do so in the past. It is the constant vigilance of law enforcement officers that has materially aided in the keeping of criminal activity in Boone County at a minimum."

"I will make an active campaign for the office, but I will not permit this campaign to interfere with the performance of my duties as county attorney. "I am grateful to the people of Boone County for the office they entrusted with me our own age, and I have made every effort to live up to such faith and trust, and, if re-elected, will continue to serve to the best of my ability."

Needy People In County Get $16,320 Aid

Needy residents of Boone County drew $16,320 in public assistance payments during the first three months of 1953, the Department of Economic Security's Division of Public Assistance reported today in Frankfort. The Division administers three programs: Old Age Assistance, Aid to Dependent Children, and Aid to Needy Blind.

Division Director Aaron Paul listed distribution of the total among the three programs: Old Age Assistance, $14,748; Aid to Dependent Children, $1,021; and Aid to Needy Blind, $551.

A statewide total of $9,967,203 went to needy Kentuckians during the three months, with old age payments totaling $5,847,807; dependent children, $3,845,894; and needy blind, $273,500.

SERVING IN KOREA

Pvt. John W. Rich, son of Mrs. John W. Rich, Walton, recently arrived in Korea for duty with the 25th Infantry Division. Now the senior American in vision on the peninsula, the 25th landed in July, 1950, shortly after the Communists attacked the Republic of South Korea.

Private Rich, in the Army since January, 1952, was last stationed at Ft. Hood, Texas.

The Farm Bureau in Trimble county contributed $25 to further 4-H club work in the county.

STATE POLICE SPEND

Kentucky State Police troopers spent 26,764 hours in traffic patrol last month, driving 418,384 miles, according to the March report issued by the Department of State Police, Frankfort.

There were 1,535 hours spent in accident investigation and 2,709 hours were spent in court. Troopers made 3,938 traffic arrests and issued warnings to 8,195 motorists. There were 3,074 convictions and fines of $73,130.28 were levied. Court costs totaled $26,319.81. There were 919 dismissals. There were 158 accident arrests as a result of 850 accident investigations. The report also showed 175 criminal arrests made during the month.

HAPPY HELPERS MEET

The Happy Helpers Class of the Walton Methodist Church held the April meeting in the church basement with Mr. and Mrs. William Brown as hosts.

Rev. and Mrs. Valls Hill of Hughes Chapel Methodist Church, were guests and had charge of the program. Others present were: Mrs. Mrs. Charlie Carlisle, Miss Louise Conrad, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Fooks, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hudson and son, Marvin, Mrs. George Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hall, Mrs. Herman Newton, Mrs. Viola Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Welsh, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Watson, Miss Emma Jane Miller, Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Hoffman, and Mr. and Mrs. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Puett will be hosts for the May meeting.

D.A.R. BAKE SALE

The Boone County D.A.R. Chapter will sponsor a bakery sale and also a table in the Florence Hardware, Saturday, April 25, beginning at 10:00 a. m.

There will be cookies, cakes, pies and many other items for sale. Visit the sale and take home your weekend bakery needs. Mrs. Davis Gainer is chairman and Mrs. Sam Denham, Jr., co-chairman.

RYLAND HOMEMAKERS

An interesting article, taken from one of the local newspapers on "Dependent Aid in the Home for Prevention of Child Abuse," was read by Mrs. G. A. Damon, hostess for the April meeting of the Ryland Homemakers Club, held in her home on Steep Creek Road. Included was the Scripture reading from Proverbs 18, verse 24, and a poem, "Being Hard Up."

The report on the advisory committee meeting was given by Mrs. F. B. Hermes, president. Members discussed the project lessons for the next year. Arrangements were also made for the observance of Home Demonstration Week and International Day. Mrs. W. A. Damon is planning to attend the April 23 meeting of the Northern Kentucky Federation of Homemakers, to be held in Cincinnati.

Following a delightful luncheon served at noon, flower plants and bulbs were exchanged. Mrs. W. B. Barnes, program chairman, conducted a quiz game and an interesting narration on letters and a picture folder received from a pen pal in Scotland.

Mrs. O. J. Williams and Mrs. W. P. Schwall gave the lesson on planning a "Basic Wardrobe." Pictures and samples of material were used to illustrate the lesson.

A guest, Mrs. Ruth Smith, was welcomed to the meeting. Others present were Mrs. Oliver Gee and Mrs. Robert Zacharias.

The May 5 meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. W. B. Barnes, Kenton, near the end of the Visalia bus line.

SPECIALIST ADVISES ON SUMMER COTTONS

Summer fabrics have never been lovelier than those which are available this year in both yard goods and ready-to-wear, notes Mrs. Dorothy Threlkeld, specialist in clothing at the University of Kentucky. However, if the original finish on many of them is to be retained, care must be taken in washing. Mrs. Threlkeld warns: Directions on the label should be carefully followed.

The popular cottons with an embossed or raised design should be hand-washed in warm water, then dip-rinsed. Wringing or twisting may make wrinkles that won't come out. If pressing is necessary, use a warm iron when the fabric is thoroughly dry, then press lightly on the wrong side with a lifting motion, rather than back and forth. Once removed, the embossed design cannot be replaced.

FIDELIS CLASS TO MEET

The Fidelis Class of the Walton Baptist Church will meet Thursday, April 23, at the church. You are invited to be present.

Fire Fighters Follies Set for April 30-May 1

LAY - COYLE WEDDING

Miss Betty Jean Lay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lay of High School Court, and Mr. Robert "Shorty" Coyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Coyle of Verona, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents on Saturday, April 11, the groom's birthday.

William Foster was best man and Elizabeth Coyle served as matron of honor.

Music for the wedding was recorded by Mrs. Bryan Rector and Mr. Mark M. Meadows.

Mr. Coyle attended Walton-Verona High School, and is now a member of the U.S. Airforce, stationed at Camp Stoneman, Calif. However, he will leave April 26, with orders to report to the Far East Command. Mrs. Coyle is a senior at Walton-Verona High and will be graduated in May.

Fair Association Meeting Held At Dry Ridge

The Northern Kentucky County Fair Association met at the Kentucky State Fair Association, Wednesday, April 15, at the Caribbea Hotel, Dry Ridge. The Grant County Fair Board made arrangements for the meeting, and county fair officials throughout the state were present.

A. F. Gilliland, Grant County, called the meeting to order and introduced "Doc" Cassidy, President of the Kentucky Association of Fairs, and John E. Crigler, Boone County, President of the Northern Kentucky Association.

Mr. Cassidy discussed relation of the county fair to the state fair, and state aid to county fairs from the Kentucky State Fair Board of Directors. Mr. Cassidy stated there were 84 county fairs in Kentucky and two-thirds of the people in the state would attend fairs in 1953.

A banquet was held and afterwards, public relations and problems of county fairs were discussed. The following are dates on which the Northern Kentucky fairs will be held:

Owen County, Owen, July 22-23-24-25.
Grant County, Williamstown, July 29-30-31 and August 1.
Kenton County, Independence, August 5-6.
Boone County, Burlington, August 6-7-8.
Carroll County, Carrollton, August 12-13-14-15.
Pendleton County, Falmouth, August 19-20-21-22.
Gallatin County, Warsaw, August 27-28-29.

PINER HOMEMAKERS

Mrs. Frank Elliott had the Piner Homemakers at her home near Moming View, for the April meeting. Mrs. Lloyd Watson, County President, was a guest. She spoke to the members on the necessity of being alert to world events and urged attendance at the district meeting at Cincinnati, April 23.

Mrs. John Dwyer presided, and Mrs. Dewey Fisk conducted the program. Mrs. Fred McMillan gave the devotional, and Mrs. Robert Bell read the poem, "Being Hard Up." Mrs. J. C. Cavanaugh reviewed the book, "The Sojourner."

The lesson of the month, "Basic Clothes," was given by Mrs. Ray Lindner. Members exchanged flower slips and bulbs.

Those attending were: Mesdames Robert Elliott, William Waterman, Angelo Pelizzari, J. C. Cavanaugh, Otis Fisk, Owen Flynn, Charles Ray Lindner, Dewey Fisk, Steve Rich, Robert Bell, Fred McMillan, Frank Elliott, Marion Martin, Cor Justice, John Dwyer, and guests, Mrs. Lloyd Watson, Mrs. Roy Tomlin, Mrs. William Baldwin and Mrs. Otis Miller.

New Conservation Agent

O. V. Steger has been named Soil Conservation Technician for Kenton County, according to reports. Mr. Steger, who has been employed in Eastern Kentucky, is a native of Grant County. He stated he would be glad to give every assistance possible whenever called upon. His phone number is HOLLY 8581.

Elliott county's state champion 4-H poultry judging team demonstrated on television culling hens, grading eggs, and classifying poultry.

At James Theater; All Seats Reserved

The big minstrel show, "The Fire Fighters Follies," and sponsored by the Walton Volunteer Fire Department, is scheduled for presentation two nights—Thursday, April 30, and Friday, May 1, at 8:00 p. m., in the James Theater.

All seats in the theater are to be reserved, and tickets are now on sale by members of the Department. They may also be obtained at the ticket window nights of the show. Admission prices for adults is $1.00 each, and for children, 12 years and under, 50 cents each.

Interlocutor for the "Follies" is to be James S. Webster, and Jimmy Spencer is pianist. Firemen scheduled for usher duty are: Russell Groger, Jess Thornton, William Sulley, Guy Carlisle, Paul Beagle, and Ellye Venable.

The show is to be presented in two acts. The first will go something like this: Welcome, Russell Groger; opening chorus, entire cast; Bones, Margan Campbell, and Interlocutor; special number by Steve Vaughn and the Overgriffins; song by Sugarfoot, "Dude"; Simpson; Harfoot, "Buddy"; Grubbs, and Interlocutor; tap dance; Pauline Gross; pantomime by Cannonball, Paul Simpson; Rastur, Clarence Patrick, and Interlocutor; reading, "How to Reduce," Louise Rouse; song by Washington, Dale Stephens; Tambo, "Ab"; Ryan, and Interlocutor; special music by Ralph Scott and Eugene Sizemore; song by Catfish, Mark Bumpus; piano melody by Harley Holliday.

In act II, you will see and hear, a song by Alvie Faye Works; Jughead, Harold Campbell, and Interlocutor; banjo and song by Bill Scroggin; pantomime by Elijah, Sammy Burns, Soapstone, Billy Smith, and Interlocutor; tap dance by Pat Worthington; Waddles, Tommy Cook, and Interlocutor; song by B. Worthington; an "Intermission" by Queenie Webster; song by Egghed, Jack Rouse; Simpson, Chester Armstrong, and Interlocutor; and grand finale by the entire company.

Florence Over The Top In Red Cross Fund Drive

The Florence precinct, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Virginia Goodridge, has gone over the top in the current Red Cross Fund Drive. The quota for Florence was $850 and to date, Mrs. Goodridge and her solicitors have collected $903. The chairman would like to extend much thanks and appreciation to the fine work of the solicitors and the splendid cooperation of the people of the Florence area, who made the success of the drive possible.

Solicitation is still under way over much of the County due to the late start of the drive because of the illness of the Fund Chairman, V. D. James, and it is expected that final reports will soon be available.

Mission Night Observance

"Mission Night," in the Independence Baptist Church will be observed Monday evening, April 27, at 7:30.

After the Brotherhood, W. M. S., G. A. S., R. A. S., and Sunday School individual programs on Mexican Missions, Bro. Everett Moore, pastor of the Newborn Baptist Church, Newton, Ohio, will bring an inspirational message. The Brotherhood and other organizations of this church will be guests. The Newborn church recently joined the Southern Baptist Convention.

Seventeen men of the Independence church accompanied Bro. K. Jolly, pastor, to the Covington Jail Sunday afternoon for a service with the men in jail. Bro. Jolly delivered a simple message on the conversion of the Philippian Jailer and seven men accepted Jesus as their savior.

INTERMEDIATES TO MEET

The Intermediate Bible Class of Mrs. Melvin Jones will meet at her home, 29 Edwards Avenue, this evening at April 23 for a social and get-together. All members are urged to be present and bring a visitor.

Personal Interest and Sick List

Cloretta Requaard has been ill. She had a slight stroke and her doctor ordered her home from work for a complete rest.

Clem Bromlage of Banklick Station Road, is in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Lipscomb of the LLL Highway, were in an auto accident last week. They were run off the road near Sandfordtown by another driver taking more than his share of the road.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Durr of Main Street, have returned from their trip to Nassau, in the Bahama Island group. They had a very nice time, but were glad to return to Kentucky.

Mrs. Vernon Scaif is feeling much better, but is still under the care of a doctor.

Patriman R. C. Richardson, on his first time on duty by himself, had a wreck that just about broke every rule in the book of traffic violations. He's glad that it is over and is now ready for any emergency call.

Bob West's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Hutton, are making their home in Independence, at their son's home. They are former residents of McMillan Drive, and have many friends in this area.

Mrs. Emma Petty has been on the sick list for some time, due to heart trouble.

Military Obligations

Thousands of draftees are returning home now and their families and employers need to know exactly what reserve obligations they face. For the official explanation, ask for a new bulletin, "Security." It is free on request to Office for Reserve and ROTC, Army Department, Washington 25, D. C. A special kit, "Here Are the Facts," is being prepared to answer employers' questions about reserve duties of younger workers.

Local Jobs

Now is the time to line up summer jobs for young people. Jobs may be scarce this year, competition keen. Here are some possibilities for ambitious boys: Lawn care and gardening, non-union jobs in construction (outside cities, ordinarily), farm work, camp and playground jobs, seasonal employment in drug stores, neighborhood shops, and service stations. Caution: If your son or daughter earns $600 or more in a year, you lose a dependent for tax purposes.

Kenton Elementary P.T.A. A musical program by students has been arranged by Mrs. Clarence Klump, program chairman, for the regular meeting at the Kenton Elementary School P. T. A., to be held Thursday, April 23, at 7:30 p. m., in the school.

Independence Homemakers

Mrs. William House was hostess at the April meeting of the Independence Homemakers Club. The meeting was held in the Christian church, with Mrs. John Leslie, presiding. During the morning session, reports were given by the various federation chairmen. Mrs. Leslie gave a report on the County Advisory Council meeting and read the object of the Homemakers Association.

Parchment and plastic lamp shades and weaving were selected as material for lessons, to be given as extra projects next year. "Ten Ways to Build a Home-makers Club," was read by Mrs. Charles Davis, publicity chairman. The cutting of grass, care of iris bulbs, and trees were discussed by the landscape leader, Mrs. Logan Wayman.

"Picture of A Cow," was the title of a poem read by Mrs. Aaron Nienhaus, the reading chairman. Seventy-seven magazines and 11 books were reported read. Mrs. J. C. Reynolds, assisted by Mrs. Chas. Davis, gave the lesson, "A Basic Wardrobe." Mrs. Frank Cox and Mrs. Walter Moser led the recreational period. Flowers, bulbs and seeds were exchanged at the close of the meeting.

Others attending were Mesdames H. L. Witte, Carl Fortner, Foster Armstrong, G. H. Houston, Cleo Snelson, and William Summey, who recently returned from Arizona.

Draft Deferments

There's growing confusion about the rights of 19-year-olds who get draft-induction orders. Some are leaving high school or college before they need to. Here is the rule:

The law guarantees deferment to a full-time high school student making satisfactory grades until he graduates, or reaches the age of 20. To get this I-S deferment, a student must show his draft board a letter from his principal saying that he is doing satisfactory work. Note: A draft board cannot give a student this deferment until he receives his first order for induction.

A I-S deferment is available to college freshmen, too, after he's ordered for induction, assuming he's never been deferred before. He needs a letter from his dean to qualify. The I-S status protects him from call until the end of his current academic year.

Northern Kentucky Firemen

The next regular meeting of the Northern Kentucky Firemen will be held at Melbourne, April 28, at 8 p. m.

Any fireman desiring to attend this meeting should be at the Independence Firehouse at approximately 7:15 p. m. and transportation can be had. Many firemen attended the last meeting and all had a very good evening. All firemen are urged to attend this session.

We were glad to have a good attendance out to Sunday School at Staffordsburg, Sunday, also a goodly number at church service. Glad to receive Mr. and Mrs. Charles Watson into the church by letter.

"Old Man Winter" seems to have returned the past few days—perhaps he has his dates mixed.

Mrs. J. J. Barnett spent a couple of days the past week with her daughter, Mrs. Ray Martin, and family of Boone county.

Mrs. Fay Johnson and children spent the past week at Wilmore, Ky.

The Young Married Class of Staffordsburg Sunday School is giving a bake sale at the Market House in Covington, May 9. Try to go in as they will have good homemade cakes, fresh eggs and country butter.

Mrs. J. A. Keeney and son, Donald, spent the day Sunday with Mrs. Keeney's daughter, Mrs. Morris Wharton, and husband of Dayton, Ohio.

OAK RIDGE

Sorry to report that Walter Robertson, Jr., one of Simon Kenton's seniors, has been ill the past few days.

Glad to see Miss Emma Kelly, a sophomore at Georgetown College, home for the weekend.

Walter Perry was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Perry of Hands Pike, recently.

Glad to hear that the Brotherhood of the Oak Ridge Baptist Church has purchased a church bus.

Friends of Mrs. Gene Kelly are glad to hear that she is recovering from a tonsillotomy.

Miss Gertrude Dorman, a polio victim, from our community, has improved to the extent she is able to be transferred from St. Elizabeth Hospital to Warm Springs, Ga. We understand that Gertrude will be leaving June 11.

The W. M. S. of Oak Ridge Baptist Church had as their guest speaker, Mrs. Bryan Rector of Walton. Those present were: Mrs. Nina Harris, Mrs. Chester Talbot, Mrs. Amos Perry, Mrs. Russell Yates, Mrs. John F. Mullins, Mrs. Earl Spanton and Mrs. Eugene Tomlin.

Anyone in the Oak Ridge area who has news items to be reported, please call Calvin Perry, Holly 9845.

STAFFORDSBURG

As a guest at our Fellowship supper recently, we had Mr. Samuel Park, a Korean student from Asbury Theological Seminary, Wilmore, Ky. Everyone seemed to enjoy his sermon and stories of his life in Korea, and also in America. He spoke here Saturday evening and Sunday morning, at Visalia, Sunday morning, and at Trinity church, Lorton, to the young people. You missed a treat if you didn't hear him. Our prayers will go with him as he finishes his work in the seminary and returns to his homeland. Such contacts strengthen our ties with distant lands.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rees were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Rich.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barnett were guests last week of relatives and friends in Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Thomas Barkers celebrated his 81st birthday, April 12. We wish him many returns of the day.

Mrs. Johnson and children spent last week at Wilmore with Rev. Johnson.

We were so glad to have with us at our Fellowship supper Mrs. Maya Smith of near Louisville. Mr. Smith and daughter, Miss Noel Smith, spent the evening with Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw.

The homemakers club met with Mrs. John Shaw for the April meeting, and an almost perfect attendance record was made. We also had as visitors, Mrs. R. Rector and Mrs. Bertie Wolf. Plans were made for a hat sale at the next regular meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubble Hughes and Stanley Powers of Rising Sun, Ind., were calling on their aunt, Mrs. Lula Roberts, Wednesday.

Mrs. Ed Chipman had the misfortune to lose her brooder house and 18 little chickens, four weeks old, by fire Monday night. She was at the brooder at 11:30 and at 12:30 it was afire inside. They don't know how it caught fire, unless it was from the electric bulb she had in with the chicks, which was the only means of heat in the brooder.

Mrs. Flannie Edgington was calling on Mrs. Bessie Webster, Friday.

Mrs. Lizzie Noel and Mrs. Susie Gore were calling on Mrs. Garrett, Thursday.

Freddy Reffitt of Erlanger, spent from Wednesday until Friday with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lamm.

Mrs. Carrie Coleman and son, Woody, of Cincinnati, were calling on her father, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Glone, Sunday for a while. They were going to Ft. Thomas Veterans Hospital to see her son, J. B. Coleman, who is a patient there. He has been in a serious condition, but is now better.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Yates were called to Pennsylvania, Tuesday night to see his step-father who was not expected to last but a few days.

Mrs. Harry Edgington was calling on her sister-in-law, Mrs. Vevie Webster, Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Rasor were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Golden Dyer, Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Glenn Martin and Mr. and Mrs.

Earl Scudder and children and Mr. Scudder's mother were entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lamm, Sunday, from the South Fork Christian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Sturdivent returned to their home here Thursday from California and Colorado, where they had been visiting their children and other relatives, since Christmas.

Your kitchen stays cool and clean... when you cook with an ELECTRIC RANGE!

Two important points to remember, with summer not far off. COOL and CLEAN! Of course, there are other factors that make ELECTRIC COOKING a real joy... such as automatic controls, to insure accuracy and eliminate food waste,—to give you leisure hours away from the kitchen... and the wonderful speed and safety of electric cooking. Everything about ELECTRIC COOKING is tops—including the fact that it is the least expensive way to cook, if you live out beyond the city gas mains.

Don't wait another day to enjoy ELECTRIC COOKING... See your appliance dealer NOW and select your new ELECTRIC RANGE.

Devotional Reading: Psalm 81.

A Saint

Lesson for April 26, 1953

A SAINT: what picture does that word call up? A haggard figure in a loud-colored robe, sitting in a stained glass window? A hermit in a lonely cell, praying incessantly to God? All wrong. Saints have pretty stormy lives, as a matter of fact, and it often happens that the people who boarded with them did not realize they were saints at the time. Our famed St. Paul is no exception. He was, as we remember, a missionary; and missionaries have their troubles. They are something like salesmen; and like most salesmen, they are not selling in a vacuum. They are selling against some pretty keen opposition and competition. The story of Paul's work is like a series of fights. Dr. Foreman indeed at the end of his life he summed it all up by saying, "I have fought the good fight."

Big Cities Are Bad

Paul was up against it all the time, one way or another. A good sample of the sort of thing that made his work hard was his stay in Corinth, not to mention his troubles with the Corinthians ever after. Corinth was one of the great cities of the Roman Empire at that time. It was a transfer-point for cargoes bound from the east to the empire's capital, Rome. It was a center for professional athletes. Everybody in the place had the idea of getting rich as fast as possible. It was not noted for culture or for religion or morals. Indeed it was so bad that its morals would make a Roman policeman blush. When Paul wrote Roman 1 he was living in Corinth, and the horrible picture he draws is no more than he could see, so to speak, looking out of his window. Now big cities contain much good. They are the centers of world-wide Christian activities, in many cases today. But big cities are bad too, as everybody knows, and for much the same reason that Corinth was bad. The one god worshipped there, by the majority of its citizens, is Mammon. Money. Why do people crowd into big cities? Most of them are there, directly or indirectly, because they hope to make money faster than they could back home. What chance has the gospel of love in such a place? A real chance; but it has to fight.

Half-Religion

Paul stuck to cities for his missionary work because he was, after all, a city man and understood city people. But still it was a fight. Besides the indifference of people who cared for no god but themselves, there was bitter opposition from people who already had a religion, and a right good one. Paul suffered sharper attacks from the Jews than he ever did from downright pagans. People who already have something good are more likely to be fanatical against what is better than are people who have nothing. For instance, nowadays the great new revision of the Bible is getting more bitter opposition from people who have a good but old translation—the King James—than from people who don't have Bible at all.

Highbrows

In Acts 17 there is told at some length what is only hinted at in Acts 18—the kind of trouble Paul had with the Greeks. In dealing with Greeks he was up against the true highbrows of his time. The Jew had a very practical mind; but the Greek mind was always worrying with very difficult questions, to which the answers have not all been given even down to this present day. Paul had to argue with these people—he couldn't just knock them over the head with Bible texts; the Greek mind didn't bask in easily. And Paul won some of them. Indeed he was more successful with them than he was with his own people, somewhat to his own astonishment. But that is one hurdle that Christianity meets everywhere: the opposition of people who want to have all their questions answered before they will consent to believe. There is surely nothing wrong in having a bright mind, and nothing at all wrong in having the best education one can absorb. But any person who insists on God's explaining himself to him before he, the man, will give his heart to God, is demanding the wrong thing. God's grace is for the humble.

THE CURE FOR CRIME

High walls, barred windows, armed guards — is this the cure for crime?

When a disease epidemic breaks out in America, we stop at nothing to find the source of trouble. Millions are spent each year on research for infantile paralysis, tuberculosis, heart disease, cancer.

But what is our cure for crime? Our government spends millions annually for law enforcement, for the building of jails and penitentiaries, but it does little to prevent crime. Legal punishment is costly and ineffective. It is not a cure!

"Overcome evil with good." This is the only cure for the disease of crime. This is the spirit of Christ that we must nurture in the hearts of our youth. This is our hope for tomorrow—that men will learn to live by understanding and love, not by law and punishment. A better world will come only with better people.

You and your children will find the true way of life taught in the churches and church schools of America. It is the privilege and duty of all to attend church services regularly.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of a character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should support the Church. They are: (1) children's souls. (2) For his of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

FLORENCE

Mrs. Sarah Markesbery recently received a letter from a friend, Mrs. Raymond Kelso, who, with Mr. Kelso and their family are residents of St. Cloud, Fla. The letter states that they are well pleased with their location in the sunshine state. Mr. Kelso's mother, Mrs. Fannie Foster Kelso, a native of Boone county, is with her son, Wirth, of Detroit, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Smith were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Tanner.

Mrs. James Tonner and daughter, Mrs. Nick Furnish, and daughter, and Miss Pauline Kirkpatrick were recent guests of Mrs. Walter Kirkpatrick at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Arnold.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Blythe of LaJolla, Calif., who are vacationing with friends and relatives here, were calling on Mrs. Jane Utz, Sunday afternoon.

H. B. Simpson of Dayton, Ohio, was a brief visitor in the Geo. B. Miller home, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Arnold and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Rogers of Bellevue, Sunday of last week.

Miss Kay Jones, 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Jones of Burlington Road, underwent an appendectomy at Booth Hospital, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Utz are the center of felicitations because of their little daughter, Deborah Sue, who checked in at Christ Hospital, April 16. Mother and baby are doing nicely. Also elated over the event is the paternal grandmother, Mrs. Jane Utz.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Markesbery and sons, Harold and Billy, were entertained at dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Baker of Russell Street, Sunday of last week.

Mrs. E. O. Osborn was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Arnold, Monday night of last week.

Mrs. Pauline Worthington and sons, Tommy and Johnny, of Louisville, were weekend guests of her father, Dr. T. C.

Crume, and wife and other homefakes, Dr. Rowland Hudson, teacher of Philosophy and Religion at Asbury College, will be guest speaker at the local Methodist church Sunday, April 26, at 11:00 a. m. Dr. Hudson is an excellent speaker who you will want to hear.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Markesbery and son, Harold, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Baker, Friday evening. Callers, who joined the party, were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Houston.

Relatives and friends of Mrs. Sophia Jones joined her Sunday for the celebration of her 91st birthday. Mrs. Jones and her family first attended services at the local Methodist church, where she was especially honored with the song, "In the Garden," rendered by the choir. Following the service, a delicious dinner of many delicacies was served buffet style at Mrs. Jones' home, including the traditional birthday cake, bedecked with candles. Those enjoying the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Jesse C. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Wiester and Pottie, and Mrs. Donald Herring, all of Indiana; Mr. and Mrs. John L. Jones, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John W. Aylor, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Aylor and Rita and Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Wichard and Johnny and Cindy, Mrs. Anne Townsend and Duane, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Moore, Jr. and Elaine and Gary, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Jones and James and Michael, Mr. and Mrs. Roy McMillan, Mrs. Geo. B. Miller, Mrs. Bess Pierce and Mrs. Jones Stephens. Mrs. Jones and the guests enjoyed a happy time together and the wish of the community is that they may be together on many more such occasions.

Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Rouse of Ludlow, who spent the winter in Florida, arrived home Saturday in time to get a taste of the snow, sleet and cold we have been experiencing the past few days.

LITTLE SOUTH FORK

There will be an all-day meeting at South Fork Christian Church, Sunday, April 26. A covered dish dinner at noon and a guest speaker in the afternoon, also special music. Come and bring your lunch and enjoy the day with us. All are welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Reo Scudder of Warsaw, were after church guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Sutton.

Mr. and Mrs. Sutton and granddaughter, Shirley Sutton, went on the Cherry Blossom Special to Washington, D. C., over the weekend with others from New Haven and Warsaw. All enjoyed the trip very much. Mrs. Harry Baker spent Friday and Saturday night with her mother, Mrs. Charlie R. Sutton.

Miss Sally Baker spent the weekend at home with her parents.

THANK YOU!

During my recent illness many blessings came to me from many sources. I wish to thank everyone for your prayers, cards, gifts and love. This gives all of us a sense of belonging to God and being brothers. Thank each and every one of you.

Have you ever watched with amusement and, sometimes, with sympathy, the struggles of a man loaded down with an armful of packages, and wondered if he would make it home all right—how would he pick up a package if he dropped one?

Are you doing the same thing with your farm credit needs? Have you been making a debt here and there, depending on an good crop to clear the board? Are YOU carrying too many packages?

Isn't it time to consolidate your debts—get them in one package with a long-term 4 PER CENT Federal Land Bank loan?

A Land Bank loan assures you of:
LOW COST—interest only 4%.

FAIR TREATMENT—owned by farmers; operated by farmers when understood a farmer's needs.

PAYMENTS CONVENIENTLY SPACED—semi-annual or annual installments of principal and interest that can be met from farm earnings.

REPAYMENT PRIVILEGES—can be repaid at any time—in full or in part. No waiting—no penalties.

The time to act is NOW. Interest rates, generally, are increasing! Labor and materials are higher! Net profits are lower! DON'T TAKE A CHANCE. GET A LAND BANK LOAN NOW!

GLENCOE

The 75th anniversary of the Glencoe Church of Christ will be celebrated Sunday, April 26. Bro. Pearl Willis of the Chase Avenue Church of Christ, Cincinnati, Ohio, will be the speaker in the afternoon. Come and enjoy the day with us.

Mrs. Lizo Stone is very low at this writing. James Noel and family were visiting their father, Martin Noel, over the weekend.

Walter Noel called to see his doctor in Covington, the past week.

Sorry to hear about Ab House falling and breaking his hip. Hope he soon recovers.

Several from Warsaw High school spent the weekend in Washington, D. C.

The new roof has just been completed on the Church of Christ here, and thanks to everyone who had a part in it.

TRUCK USERS BUY MORE CHEVROLET TRUCKS

than any other make!

No matter the size or type of truck you need—what better proof could there be that a Chevrolet truck is your best buy!

MORE CHEVROLET TRUCKS IN USE THAN ANY OTHER MAKE!

Recently published official registration figures for the last full year show that truck users in every single State bought more Chevrolets than any other make!

It is difficult to imagine more convincing proof of Chevrolet's superiority, for such clear-cut and overwhelming preference can lead to but one conclusion: Chevrolet trucks must be better, must enjoy solid advantages over other trucks. Such preference must rest on a firm foundation of good, sound value. And, of course, it does—as owners of Chevrolet trucks can testify.

So before you buy any truck, see how much more Chevrolet trucks offer you. Stop in and see us soon. Continuation of standard equipment and trim illustrated is dependent on availability of material.

Winter has appeared again, with wind, snow, hail and sleet. Mike Ryan came home Friday from Camp Lee, Va., for a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ryan. On the 28th, he goes to Washington, D. C., for five days, and from there he will go to Ft. Churchill, Canada. We are sorry to report that John C. Kennedy, who has been confined to his home for some time, was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington, last Friday, and is still there at this time. Sunday, his children, Joe, Ben, Bert and Mildred, visited him. The community congratulates Mr. and Mrs. "Shorty" Coyle, who were married last week, and wish them a life of happiness.

APRIL SNOW

You have heard the song, "June in January"—what would you call last Saturday, January in April? That snow sure fell in a hurry and caused more wrecks. Brewster got caught over in Kenton county, and when he came in, he said there were six cars off the road out on Nicholson Road. Another car had a wreck at the bridge in the South end of town. Every wrecker in town was busy, Sunday we also had snow and Monday we had snow, but the weather man said it should be over tonight. We hope the tobacco plants are not hurt—leaves on trees look pretty bad. Grandma Clifton came in for a pair of cattle de-horners—she had them ready for use. John Adams was in telling us some stories about Bracht Station, where he is mayor. Clyde Morton of Verona-Mud Lick road bought PTZ worm powder for his sheep—he has already given the PTZ capsules. Walton lost another old timer when Rev. A. K. Johnson passed away last week—he was a great preacher and had a host of friends. Pete Poe was in today paying his account and bought one of those sickle grinders he mount on a board with an electric motor, ready to plug in. Chas. Stenius from up Keeler way bought a Mastercut rotary power mower—these rotary mowers seem to be taking the mower sales—we have four Eclipsa rotary mowers on the way—should be in this week. John Kennedy has been on the sick list—we hope he will be out soon—this April weather would make any one sick or even worse, if they were ailing. We received that shipment of paint we have been waiting for a long time—it is a rubber base flat wall paint, all new beautiful colors, ready mixed, just roll it on or brush it and only $4.95 per gallon. Clyde Morton was in today looking for a large steel ring, so I found him one—he has about 100 locust fence posts to sell and he lives at the top of Houston Hill off U.S. 42. James Bomar and Louise were in looking for Armstrong linoleum—they had to go home and decide. Mr. Davis, who bought the farm Bert Parker had at Richmond, came after worn wire stretchers, black snare wagon whip, fence pliers, mule bridle and saw blades. L. B. Stephenson called me from Erlanger that he had an Anchor Hot Blast coal heater, used one year—now they have a furnace—I bought it and Brewster brought it in—this stove is in good condition—Anchor does not make any more heaters, but repairs are available—this is a bargain, if you want an Anchor coal heater for next year. We have that new shipment of rubber base flat wall paint in the most beautiful colors—give this paint a try, it is wonderful and does it over any surface—$4.95 per gallon. I have an old style Perfection all heater with shutters on each side—I have, in the past, had several calls for one of these oil heaters—this one looks like new, because it has a porcelain finish. Mrs. Beulah Stephenson was in for more Bole paint. Roger Arnold and his daughter-in-law came after two gallons of Bole Interior Gloss—this is the finest enamel finish and covers extra well—Bole, himself, has always told me that they put the advertising cost in the paint and it will advertise itself—I never have a complaint about Bole interior or exterior paint—compare my price on interior and exterior paint for $4.95 per gallon, with anyone else and this is the best paint you can buy. We received a two and three burner Perfection all cook stove—several have been asking about these. Mrs. Wendell Downing bought an Arvin electric heater to help drive that cool wind away. Arnold Maxwell bought his wife a new Maytag washer—it is no trouble to sell Maytag washers, because everyone who uses one tells someone else what a good washer it is and is very little trouble, if any. B. Witty made several trips after galvanized pipe and fittings—he is putting in a new sink. James Alphin is making a boat trailer—he and Chick have been cutting iron and drilling holes for a couple days—Jim is a real mechanic and he has the tools to work with. Ben Dixon was back after more Bole paint—he is painting the whole house inside. J. A. Darrington sent after 5 gallons of aluminum paint for a boat roof. Mrs. Carpenter, over on Alta Vista bought plastic window shades. Chick sold some lady, today, a new lawn mower just as that big snow storm was at its peak—she wants to be ready to mow that lawn when the snow leaves. Monday was some day—we had lots of losers, also several buyers—we sold lots of paint. R. T. Heizer's tenant bought Bole interior gloss to paint her kitchen. Basil Lunsford and wife also bought paint. Mrs. F. A. Decker at Richmond, bought paint, aluminum roaster, pad for stove top and bucket, and Mr. Decker a pair of gloves. Roy Kenney bought blue stone for plantbeds and sheep shearing knives and combs for shearing his sheep. Robt. Benton and wife were in buying paint, floor wax and lamp cord. Got a card from J. C. Benton—he and his wife are in Hot Springs, Ark. C. is getting younger, or that is the way the card read. Robt. Behrmer from Elliston, bought a complete electric fence outfit—I hooked it up to show him it would work, but he would not try it. Fred Shorn sent up for a lot of Bole interior gloss and plastic window shades. Roy Eason and wife bought the best Maytag washer I had—they live on High School Court—it is already delivered and Mrs. Eason can wash—never go wrong when you buy Maytag—ask your neighbor. Simon Kenton FHA Honors It's Mothers

The members of Simon Kenton Chapter of F. H. A. were proud to honor their mothers at the eighth annual Mother-Daughter banquet, April 21.

The banquet got off to a good start with a welcome, given by Sylvia Brown. The response was given by Sylvia's mother, Mrs. James Brown. The invocation was given by Mrs. Ben Stambaugh, after which the delicious dinner, prepared by Mrs. Kearney and her staff, was served. The meal consisted of roast beef, jello salad, mixed vegetables, wild salad, hot rolls, and ice cream and cake.

After dinner, all guests were introduced and the chapter mother honored, Mrs. Vily Riddell, mother of President Gayle Riddell.

Next on the program was an impressive candlelight installation service for all new officers, who are: President, Gayle Riddell; Vice President, Betty Robertson; Secretary, Deloris Rider; Corresponding Secretary, Betty Barberick; Treasurer, Sylvia Brown; Reporter, Elaine Guttridge; Recreation Leader, Patti Mingschlag; Song Leader, Patsy Bell; and Historian, Dale Webster and Phyllis Culbertson.

After the installation, special music was given by the Glee Club, accompanied by Mr. Roden. A report on chapter activities was followed by group singing. Each girl then presented her mother with a beautiful red rose, the F. H. A. flower. The chapter president presented a lovely corsage to the advisor, Mrs. Gayle McElroy. The evening was closed with the F. H. A. prayer—Reporter.

Willing Workers Meet

The Willing Workers class met in the Christian Church basement, April 23, and an enjoyable meeting was enjoyed by: Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hall, Mrs. Katie Ransler, Miss Mary Rensler, Gayle McElroy, Vern James, Mrs. Forest Thompson, Mrs. Daisy Jack Charles Ransler and son, Mrs. Charles Ransler, Ralph Carpenter, and Mrs. Julia Rouse. The president, Mrs. Julia A. Rouse, opened the meeting, with Vern James having the devotional. Roll was called, with a quiz by Mrs. Lucio Doan.

The class sent 60 dozen eggs to the orphans' home.

District CWF Meeting Held At Local Church

Wednesday, a District meeting of the Christian Women's Fellowship was held in the local church. Miss LaRue, state worker from the office in Lexington, was the leader. The program began at 10:30 a. m. and lasted until 4 p. m. Lunch was served by the women of the local church. The purpose of the C. W. F. Leaders Conference was to help leaders of women in Christian Churches of Northern Kentucky to understand and promote God's work through the entire state.

Sunday at 3:00 p. m., there will be a District Convention of Christian Churches of Northern Kentucky, at the Ft. Thomas Christian Church. Rev. A. C. Young is the host pastor. A large delegation of members will attend from the local church. Rev. Charles A. Vaughn, V. D. James and Morgan Campbell will head the delegates.

Tuesday, May 5, a District Men's Rally will be held at 6:30 p. m. at the Madison Avenue Christian Church, Covington. Bill Pearce, national leader of men's work, of Shreveport, La., will be the main speaker. Billy Adams, president of the C. M. F., and Rev. Vaughn will head the large delegation of men. Dinner will be served for $1.25.

The Fellowship Guild will serve a "Come as you are" breakfast between May 9 and 20. The purpose for "free only." On May 7 at 8:00 p. m., the young people will present a film, "In His Name" and a comedy. The entire community is invited. Admission for adults will be 35 cents, and for children, 20c.

Dixie Bank to Close Thursday Afternoons

According to J. W. Spencer, cashier, the Dixie State Bank, Walton, will close each Thursday at 12:00 noon, during the months of May, June, July, and August. This change will go into effect on Thursday, May 7. Keep this in mind.

TAKING AF BASIC

James W. Willis, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Willis, Verona, is completing his AF basic airman indoctrination course at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas. Lackland is the world's largest air force base.

ALBERT HOUSE

Albert House, 88, of Sparto, Route 1, died at Booth Hospital, Covington, on April 20. He was a farmer and a life-long resident of the community. He was a member of Oakland Baptist Church.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Annie House; three sons, Lawrence, Raymond and Clarence House, all of Glenwood; a brother, Robert House, Anderson, Ind.; and 10 grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, April 22, at 2 p. m., in the Oakland Baptist Church, with Rev. Stephenson officiating. Burial was in Oakland Cemetery.

Hamilton Funeral Home, Verona, had charge of arrangements.

BANNISTER-McNAMEE

Mrs. Tillie Bannister and Mr. Melvin McNamee of Bryan, Ohio, were united in marriage Friday, April 24, in the home of Rev. C. A. Vaughn. Mrs. J. E. and Mr. Richard McNamee, a brother and the groom, witnessed the ceremony. In the presence of Mrs. E. M. Johnson, Rev. Albert Rose of Newport, Rev. Blackwell, Mrs. Vaughn and son, Miss Becky Hucklestone, Miss Sally McNamee, and Mike McNamee.

A reception was held in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Johnson, served by the sister of the bride, Mrs. Orville Loomis.

The happy couple left for a honeymoon in Michigan, and upon their return will reside in their new home in Bryan, Ohio.

Aboard the USS Oriskany

Serving aboard the aircraft carrier USS Oriskany is Thomas W. Curley, fireman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Curley of Dayton, Ohio.

The Oriskany is back in Korean waters after a short period of rest and relaxation. The ship recently stopped at the fourth largest Japanese city, Nagoya, on a good will visit.

Attend Annual Meeting

Mrs. Stanley Fooks and Mrs. George Hamilton attended the annual District meeting of the Federation of Homemakers from the Verona club, which met in Cincinnati, recently. The theme was, "The Home Is the Strength of Our Nation." The Christian church was packed to capacity, about 600 being present.

Boone County Women Launch Cancer Crusade; Mrs. W. D. Scroggin, Verona, County Chairman

About this time last year, there appeared an article in this paper announcing the beginning of the Cancer Crusade in Boone County, and listed the names of persons willing to "Take Time Out" and help solicit funds for scientific research, education, and cancer clinics. Since that time 216,800 persons perished from cancer, in spite of all that was done to fight this dreaded disease that strikes down both young and old alike. There are no words that could describe all the broken hearts of loved ones and the terrible knowledge that cancer took those 216,800 people away from our land. This is one of the toughest fights our scientists have had to combat, and only through the generous giving of both funds and time by our people, are we able to keep other thousands away from a cancer grave.

Junior Class to Present Play On Tuesday, May 5

The Junior class of Walton-Verona High School will present a hilarious laugh-show, "The Eager Miss Beaver," on Tuesday, May 5, 1953. The play is directed by Miss Lucy Ann Yancy, and is produced by special arrangement with Baker's Plays, Boston, Mass.

Included in the cast are: Gzellia Upshaw, a dominating mother; June Howard; Doreen, her attractive 18-year-old daughter; Janetta Chapman; Harland, her handsome 21-year-old son; Billy Smith; Tillie Toothache, the English housekeeper; Laura Chipman; Canasta Brown, the cook, allergic to spoons; Janice Cook; Hank Peters, the gardener; allergic to lunatics; Wayne Marsh; Bernice Beaver, Bunny, the Eager Miss Beaver; Kay Green; Beasley Scudder, the middle-aged widower next door; Richard Courtney; Miss Verbena Van Wack, the social director of Birch Hills; Nona Perkins; Dickie yvonne Van Wack; her long suffering brother; Edward Levi; Pratts Prouty, a mad barber with the polsy—and a razor; Charles Roberts; The Faceless Fiend, man or ghost???

General admission for the play is 50 cents; reserved seats, 60 cents. For an evening of fun, see "The Eager Miss Beaver."

Former Simon Kenton Youth Killed In Korea

Pfc. Donald V. Maus, 20, senior class president at Simon Kenton High School, Independence, three years ago, was killed in action in Korea, about 10 days ago. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Maus, Sr., of Stephens Road, near Independence, received a telegram from the Department of Defense late last Monday informing them of their son's death. No details were included.

Pfc. Maus, who enlisted February 27, 1952, had received a light wound in January, but returned to duty after treatment. He went to Korea in October after taking basic training at Indianapolis, Ga. He was a member of Company A, 17th Infantry Regiment. Besides his parents, Pfc. Maus leaves three brothers, Joseph R. Maus, Jr., of near Independence, Francis Maus, of a Franciscan Monastery, Detroit, and Jos. B. Maus, at home, and a sister, Miss Katherine Maus, at home.

Hughes Chapel W.S.C.S.

The W. S. C. S. of Hughes Chapel Methodist Church, Beaver, held its regular monthly meeting April 15, at the home of Mrs. Charles Baker, Jr. The program of the day was, "Have Thine Own Way Lord." The officers were elected for the year 1953-1954. A covered dish luncheon was served at noon, which was enjoyed by all.

Those present were: Mrs. Allie Hughes, Mrs. Cecil Sargent, Mrs. Valls Hill and daughter, Mrs. Joe Woods, Mrs. Charles Baker, Jr., and daughter, Mrs. Roger Arnold, and Mrs. J. L. Arnold and daughter.

Bureau, Devon; General Store at Idlewild, and Leonard Caldwell's at Mudlick Bridge.

Chairmen for each town in the county are as follows: Walton, Mrs. Clayton B. Jones; Verona, Mrs. John Scott; Beaver, Mrs. Fanny Howard; Burlington, Mrs. F. H. Rouse; Florence, Mrs. Paul Flickenger; Bullittsville, Mrs. S. B. Nunnally; Grant, Mrs. James Robinson; Petersburg, Mrs. Robert Christy; Hebron, Mrs. Omer Delwick, and Constance, Mrs. Ida Herbst. All of these ladies are well known throughout the county for their interest in civic organizations and all assistance given them will be kindly appreciated in this worthwhile effort to do whatever we can to wipe out cancer from our land. Just remember that no contribution is too small. The quota for Boone County is $1500, set by the Kentucky Division of the American Cancer Society. May 10 is the closing date for the Crusade in this county.

FIRE FIGHTERS FOLLIES

Don't forget the Fire Fighters Follies, to be presented at the James Theater, Walton, Thursday, April 30 and Friday, May 1, starting at 8:00 p. m. If you haven't purchased your tickets, do so at once—of course you may buy them the nights of the show at the ticket window, but the choice may not be so good. You know, all seats are reserved. Children, 12 and under, get in for 50 cents, and for adults, the fee is $1.00 each.

"Chick" Worthington has asked that all persons holding tickets, which they have not sold by Thursday afternoon, please turn them in to him, in order that they may be available at the ticket window that evening.

The show is for the benefit of the Walton Volunteer Fire Department, and will be used to purchase new equipment. Let's go!

KIDWELL ANNOUNCES FOR STATE SENATOR

Alvin Kidwell, Gallatin County, who has served since 1941 in the State Senate, announced this week that he is a candidate for re-election as Senator from the 26th Senatorial District, which includes Boone County, subject to action of the Democratic primary, August 1.

Senator Kidwell, in making his announcement, stated that the 12 years of serving this area in the State Senate, had given him an abundant background for future service, and asks everyone to examine his record and judge accordingly.

The 26th Senatorial District includes Boone, Gallatin, Grant, Owen, Corroll, Trimble and Henry counties.

BODY OF YOUTH FOUND IN RIVER

The body of William T. Daulton, 17, of Florence, who drowned February 15, at the junction of Big Bone creek and the Ohio river, was found floating in the river Tuesday, near Warsaw.

The youth was fishing with two companions near Big Bone island when a tug boat caused the boys' boat to capsize. Two of the boys swam ashore, but Daulton did not make it.

He leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Daulton, three brothers and three sisters.

Daughter Born to Daniels'

A daughter was born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Elaine Daniels, 43 Clover Ave., Erlanger, named Beverly Carol. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Chapman of Williamstown, and the paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Daniels of Verona Road.

Wool Sacks Available

H. E. White, president of the Boone County Wool Pool, urges all sheepmen to pool their wool. He stated that wool sacks are on sale at the following places: Walton—Conrad Hardware; Florence—Glenney Feed Store; Burlington—Fluor & Pettit Store; Hebron—Goodridge Store.

Woman's Club To Be Guests of Wa-Na Club

Members of the Walton Woman's Club are invited to be guests of the Wa-Na Club at their regular meeting Monday, May 4, at 8:00 p. m., in the Walton Christian Church. The guest speaker is to be Mrs. John J. Conney.

Mrs. Clifford Ryan and Mrs. Clayton Jones will be hostesses for this meeting.

Bids Total $201,654 For Walton School

GEORGE I. RECTOR

Services for George I. Rector, 45, of Waterloo, Ky., were held Sunday at 2:30 p. m. in the Bellevue Baptist Church. Burial was in the Bellevue Cemetery.

Mr. Rector, who died last Thursday, was formerly employed at the Newport Steel Company.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. LaVerne Rector; two sons, Oliver and William E. Rector; three daughters, Mrs. Sheryl Dean, Margie Ann and Ella Rose Rector; two brothers, Dallas Rector of Elmore, and Elliston Rector of Burlington.

Chambers & Nabbs Funeral Home, Florence, completed arrangements.

Rostetter Co., Louisville, Low on Construction

Bids totaling $201,654 were received and opened last Friday morning for the construction of a new school building, to be located at the end of Alta Vista Drive.

Bids, submitted to the Walton-Verona Independent School District, were opened in the school gymnasium.

Plans for the school were revised and trimmed after two earlier bids for the original plan exceeded $350,000.

Low bids received Friday included Rostetter Construction Co., Louisville, general construction, $164,500; Nick Blau, Covington, heating, $15,768; Heacock Inc., Cincinnati, plumbing, $11,711; and William Heppner, Lexington, electrical work, $9,665.

Work is expected to get under way shortly after contracts are awarded. H. Richard Elliston & Associates, Cincinnati, are the architects.

O. Ward, school superintendent, said most of the money will be saved by erecting a two-story building instead of a larger one-story structure. Since about $300,000 was available for the new grade and high school building, the balance will be spent for equipment.

JOE GLENN DISCHARGED

Joe W. Glenn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rostetter Glenn, has returned home from Puerto Rico, where he spent 17 months with the Army Signal Corps. Joe was an employee of U.H.L.P. before entering service and will resume his duties with this company in the near future.

Col. Gilbert (Red-Wee) Glenn, brother of Joe, is now stationed in Korea, with the 3rd Division, in the Motor Vehicle Corps, after finishing school in Japan.

Beechgrove Homemakers

The April meeting of the Beechgrove Homemakers will be held in the home of Mrs. Roger Robinson, Dixie Highway, today (April 30), when a time tour will be discussed. Mrs. Wm. P. Meyer will speak about the blood bank.

Home Demons'tn Week Set For May 2 to 9

Ninety-eight counties in Kentucky will abate National Home Demonstration week May 2-9, when attention will be directed to the work done the past year by approximately 32,250 members of 1,621 homemakers clubs.

Leading in the program for better living in those counties are 114 home agents and their assistants. They, with representatives of local homemakers clubs will arrange tours, radio interviews, special programs, teas and window exhibits, in order that people generally may learn of the accomplishments of rural women in the Commonwealth.

Home demonstration work in the state is carried on under the guidance of Miss Myrtle Weiden, state leader at the University of Kentucky, and six supervisors. Nine specialists in home economics conduct training schools for homemakers-leaders. They, in turn, pass on the information they learn to members of their clubs.

A survey of some of the 92,000 practices adopted the past year, as a result of this statewide program, shows the following: Homemakers in 77 counties reported freezing 2,737,226 pounds of food; 11,869 families canned or stored 10,431 families used the approved amount of milk, and 9,438 practiced the rule of an egg a day per family member.

Good grooming, wise selection of fabrics and patterns, and construction of clothing were stressed in 47 counties; 125,175 garments were made and 31,254 fitted or altered.

More than 41,280 families improved their homes through better lighting, papering or painting, refinishing floors, making draperies and curtains and hooking or braiding rugs.

Major improvements were made in 5,825 kitchens; 4,133 homes were remodeled and 1,143 homes planned, and 14,123 families were helped in the selection of new equipment.

Simon Kenton Baseball Team

The Simon Kenton baseball team won their first game this year, when they defeated Dixie Heights 5-3. The game was umpired by Tom Ellis of Holmes.

Boy Scouts

The Independence Boy Scout Troop, 8, are wanting to have a minstrel show in which they and probably the Girl Scouts will participate. They reported that they could have plenty of time to practice forming a show that people will enjoy, but their biggest problem is obtaining someone who knows how to form a minstrel show, obtaining necessary performers and such. Anyone interested in this undertaking? If so, contact Jim Roberts, Scoutmaster, Independence, R-1—your help is sincerely needed and any and all cooperation will be had, at your beck and call.

Low-Cost Trees

Owners of farms or country estates might profitably investigate the Federal-State tree program. It offers seedlings of common trees to individuals at nominal cost—$2.50 per thousand for some southern pine seedlings. Seedlings are for use in reforestation and shelter-belt planting, not for strictly ornamental landscaping. Call on your County Agent or State Forester. Demand exceeds supply, so order early.

May

This is the month for many changes and some of these changes will be in converting your homes from winter living to summer, getting prepared for a three months of living with your children and finding what interests they have found during the last semester of school which will interest them throughout the summer, and basing your vacation for their benefit and knowledge for the coming school year; also, this month, workers will place their date for their desired vacation time—repair equipment, and get into full swing planting gardens and beautifying property. May is the month that summer camps, picnic areas and Coney Island will open for the season; fishing will become a weekly plan, and careful consideration will be given toward getting the family car to run like a new sewing machine. Yes, folks, this is the month we will make a change-over and will come out of our hibernation.

Spring Safety Note

It's kite-flying time for children, and there's a common, but often danger involved. A wet or damp kite string is an excellent conductor of electricity, so if a kite hits a power line, the child holding the cord may get a fatal shock. The Rural Electrification Administration warns that the only safe thing to do about a kite that blows into a power line is to leave it alone. Report it promptly to the power company, so a line man can remove it.

Simon Kenton P.T.A.

"Foundations for Good Citizenship" will be the topic of a talk to be given by Raymond Rouse, Monday, May 4, at the Simon Kenton P.T.A. meeting. Mr. Rouse is a teacher at Dayton High School. Mrs. James Crouch and Mrs. Wootson Ashcraft represented Simon Kenton P. T. A. at Kenton County Council, recently. Mrs. John Cain will represent the P. T. A. at the State Convention in Cincinnati.

All departed at a very late hour wishing Charley many more happy birthdays.

"THE TALL KENTUCKIAN" IN LOUISVILLE, JUNE 15-JULY 5

Alvin Colt, originally of Louisville, and now of New York, will design the sets and costumes for "The Tall Kentuckian," the Barbara Anderson play, with music by Norman Della Joia, which stars Royal Dano and Louisa Horton in the roles of Abraham Lincoln and Mary Todd Lincoln, respectively. Norris Houghton will direct the historical drama which will be presented at the Iroquois Amphitheater, June 15-July 5. "The Tall Kentuckian" is a feature of the "Month of Thrills" program planned in celebration of the 175th anniversary of the founding of the city of Louisville, and is sponsored by University Festival, Inc.

Mr. Colt is a graduate of the George Peck School of Drama of Yale University. His early experience in stage design was gained at summer theaters in New York State and Rhode Island. Following these engagements he went to Elitch Gardens, Denver, Colo., where Houghton was then director. He has also been associated with Della Joia, as he executed the costumes for Michael Kidd's ballet, "On Stage," for which Della Joia composed the score. Colt's debut as a Broadway designer was with the successful musical, "On the Town." He created both sets and costumes for Heissard Short's production of "Music in My Heart." His most recent undertaking was the costumes for "Guys and Dolls," recently seen at the Memorial Auditorium. Other assignments to his credits include costumes for "Top Banana," "Glutterbug," and "Orson Wells' "Around the World."

WALTON, KY.

Miss Marguerite Tanner attended the W.S.C.S. conference, which convened at Winchester, Ky., recently. She represented the W.S.G. of the local Methodist church, a delegate.

Mrs. Geo. Miller was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Graham of Park Hills, Wednesday night and Thursday.

C. H. Quinn and family of Atlanta, Ga., are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Quinn. He is a pilot with Delta Airlines.

Recent guests of Mrs. W. R. Miller were a sister, Mrs. J. K. Ammerman, and her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Kennard, and children of Cynthia.

The Geo. B. Millers had as guests during the weekend, their son, Blayne, and H. B. Simpson of Dayton, Ohio. The former's mother accompanied them to their apartment in Dayton, Sunday, from which they will make the week, to a suburban location. Mrs. Miller expects to return during the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal De Weese of Georgetown, enjoyed the weekend with Mrs. Emma Acra of Shelby Street.

Mrs. Ralph Jones, who recently underwent surgery at St. Elizabeth Hospital, has returned home and is convalescent. Mr. Jones' mother, Mrs. Melvin Jones, was with her several days the past week. Her friends wish her a rapid recovery.

Miss Lucille Rucker is enjoying a 10-day southern trip via Atlanta, Ga., Charleston, S. C., and other points.

ETC Ralph Quinn of the US Navy, in a recent letter to his mother, stated that he was united in marriage a month ago to a young lady at Norfolk, Va., where he was stationed. He has now been transferred to the Mediterranean area.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Miller had as guests Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Miller, Mrs. Allie Markesbery, H. B. Simpson and Blayne Miller.

Sorry to report Tom McHenry as not being so well again.

IRRIGATION PLANNED

One large and one small outfit have been purchased for irrigation on the J. H. Perry farms in Owen county. Crops to be irrigated include tobacco, corn, meadows and pastures. County Agent J. C. Feltner and Earl G. Welch, University of Kentucky farm engineer, assisted in making the irrigation plans for the farms.

Highest-powered ENGINE in the low-price field plus all these other buyer benefits that only the New Chevrolet offers you!

Entirely new Styling

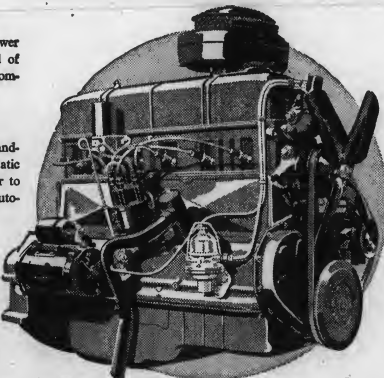

Strikingly new—with longer, lower lines that set a new standard of beauty for low-priced cars. Roomier, richer interiors, too.

Entirely new Powerglide®

Faster acceleration from a standing start with new automatic starting range . . . new power to pass in city traffic with new automatic passing range.

Entirely new Economy

The most important gain in economy in Chevrolet's history! Two great engines now offer even more economy than you have enjoyed with Chevrolet in the past.

Entirely new Safety

New one-piece curved windshield for greater visibility. New, sturdier construction. New, easier brake action and new Foot-Form brake pedal.

Entirely new Durability

Chevrolet's new Body by Fisher is strengthened throughout. New heavier door-posts and sills. New bracing in roof and framing.

Entirely new Power Steering®

Exclusive to Chevrolet in the low-price field! It permits you to park with finger-tip ease. You turn the wheel and the power unit does the work.

Pictured above, you see the great new 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" engine—one of the most important advances in engine design in many and many a year. New high compression! The 7.5 to 1 compression ratio is among the highest in the industry. Free-breathing carburetion, new aluminum pistons and many other features also play an important role in making this the most powerful engine in its field. Yet, both the "Blue-Flame" engine (teamed with the new Powerglide automatic transmission*) and the advanced "Thrill-King" engine (in gearshift models) offer a wonderful gain in economy, too. Why not come in and take the wheel on a demonstration drive? Why not make it soon?

*Optional at extra cost. Combination of Powerglide automatic transmission and 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" engine available on "Two-Ten" and Bel Air models only. Power Steering available on all models. (Continuation of standard equipment and trim illustrated is dependent on availability of materials.)

A Minister
 Lesson for May 3, 1953

GOING up in a canal-boat to the interior of China or somewhere, stopping now and then to preach a sermon and distribute some Testaments and then shoving along to the next stop—this is some people's idea of foreign missions, but it won't do. It isn't the way the best work has been done. And it most certainly is not the New Testament way of spreading the Gospel. St. Paul, for instance, traveled many a mile, and he is known for his "missionary journeys." But an examination of the New Testament story shows that his journeys were mostly stops, some of them right long ones. Paul believed not only in preaching the Good News but in establishing churches. He stayed in Corinth a year and a half, and in Ephesus two whole years. He left going congregations behind him at both places, and he kept up with them for years.

Minister
 All sorts of names are given to ministers. Some call them "Reverend," a title hanging over from the Middle Ages and one that most ministers, to tell the truth, would just as soon not have. Some call them "Preacher," and they do preach; but few ministers preach for more than two or three hours out of the 168 hours in the week. A bigger word and a better word is just "Minister." This is a word St. Paul used about himself, and it was not original with him. Our Lord used it of himself. Our English language rather conceals the fact that the word means "One who serves," for in the Greek that Paul used, the word "serve" and the word "minister" are almost the same. Minister does not mean "servant" in the cap-and-apron, hired-man sense of the word. It does mean one who is of service. There is one country minister in North Carolina, much loved by his people, who not only preaches and cares for the souls of his people but who has shown them how to raise strawberries better than were ever grown in those parts before. He spells Service in letters that spread over all of life.

Teacher
 If all you get out of church is a "good feeling," you don't get what was intended, or else your minister isn't quite up to his job. The minister who takes St. Paul for his model will be a teacher and not simply a preacher. We know that Paul at Ephesus taught in the lecture-hall of Tyrannus every weekday, perhaps Sunday too. The good minister's sermons will be a kind of education; but he does not stop there. The minister can't teach all the classes in Sunday School but he can see to it that the Sunday school selects good teachers. He can oversee the whole business of religious education in his church, check on what is being done, help to plan with the teachers and other workers, see that the teachers have a chance to attend training classes, help build up the Sunday school library. . . . there is hardly any end to what the minister can do as a teacher, if he has half a mind in that direction. Above all, the minister is the Bible teacher.

Pastor
 When all is said and done, however, there is no finer word than Pastor, and no higher work than what he does. There simply is not anywhere any institution except the Christian church that has anything like the place and work of the pastor. An old-fashioned name for this is the "cure of souls" and that never meant just the cure of sick souls, but also the care of souls to keep them from being sick. Paul, when he was reviewing his work in the church at Ephesus, could have mentioned some of the startling and sensational events which Luke mentions in chapter 19. Instead, Paul describes his own day-to-day, door-to-door work as pastor of his people. To put it as simply as possible, the pastor brings God into the lives of his people, and brings his people to God. While the minister may have a salary, as in most churches he does, he can never be paid for what he does as pastor. How can we pay a man in money for comfort and warning and faith and strength, that we would not have known without his help?

What does Water mean to You?

 Are you a fisherman? Then a rippling, tree-lined stream like this beckons you to drop in your line.
 But perhaps you're the athletic type. Then you would like to swim. Or you're interested in boats and paddling a canoe would appeal. A weary traveler would long to bathe his face and hands.
 A farmer visions fertile acres fed by its life-giving flow. The scientist contemplates the living minutiae in its depths. The engineer calculates its hidden power.
 Water is all things to all people. Without it there could be no life.
 God is like water. Without Him there can be no life. Without His refreshing invigoration, your soul would shrivel and die. Without His strength and power there would be little good in the world. Without His cleansing love, life would be sordid and unpleasant.
 And through the Church you can find Him.
THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH
 The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Independence Fire Department

The next regular meeting of the Independence Fire Department will be held at 8:00 p. m., Monday, May 4. All regular members are urged to attend.

Personal Interest and Sick List

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Humphrey, Apco, Ohio, are visiting Bob West and family, this week. Mrs. Humphrey is a sister of Bob.

Richard B. Cain of Ft. Benning, Ga., will be home for a weekend the first of May. Richard is serving with the Air Force at the Lawson Fir Base. His brother, T. J. Cain, is also with the Air Force, stationed in Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. Clea Snelson of McMillan Drive, have completed their outside grill—it is one that shows what time and effort can do to beautify a yard. Helen West has a bad cold and is under the doctor's care.

Ruby Stith of Independence, suffered eye injuries caused from fumes from her oven.

Dick, Leta and Sarah Lynn Dorsey were home from Lexington, Ky., over the past weekend. Dick will graduate from UK on June 5.

Mrs. C. T. Walters is suffering with severe shoulder pains.

"GG" Riley's family has been on the sick list for a week, and we all hope for their speedy recovery.

Mildred Auton has returned home from her mother's where she has been ill for some time.

Rebecca Daugherty spent the weekend at Charlie Millbough's on Pelly Pike.

Kenton Elementary P.T.A.

A poem, "The World Is Mine," was read by Mrs. Dwight Maddox, who also gave the devotional at a recent meeting of the Kenton Elementary School P.T.A. Mrs. Watson Ashcraft led the meeting in the absence of Mrs. George Riley, president, and requested that all committee chairmen and officers have reports ready at the next meeting.

The "Student Aid Fund" committee reported very favorably. It was decided that the president and delegates attend the convention of the Kentucky Congress of Parents and Teachers in Louisville, also that a footlocker or file be purchased, in which to keep the records of the P.T.A.

F. D. Caton, principal of the school, gave an enlightening talk on the 1866 amendment. Mrs. John Cain, Mrs. Carl Fortner, Mrs. Clarence Klump and Mrs. Wootson Ashcraft were named as a committee to contact members regarding stocks to be donated to the rhythm band.

Marion Klump announced the following program: Poem by Cheryl Meyer, entitled "Two Little Kittens"; Betty Cain played a xylophone solo, "The Lord Is My Shepherd"; "Hungarian Rhapsody," was the piano solo played by Jackie Cain; a saxophone quartet, Rodney Cain, Robert Carlisle, Billy Dixon and Floyd B. Hymer, students at Simon Kenton, played "The Torch Dance."

Mr. Bond's fifth grade room won the attendance award for April.

The executive committee will meet at 1:30 p. m., Wednesday, May 6, in the faculty room at the school.

A bake sale, sponsored by the Kenton Elementary School P.T.A., will be held immediately following the operetta, to be presented by the school May 12.

O. E. S. Chapter, 493, Bradford Star Chapter, 493, will have its officers meeting Tuesday, May 5, and all officers should attend to practice for Initiatory work the following Tuesday.

Parents of Girl Scouts

Miss Madeline Selman and Mrs. Bertha Moon would like for the parents of Girl Scouts Troop, 140, to please come to a meeting at the Independence Courthouse, Friday, May 1, at 8 p. m. to discuss the building of a cabin. For the past five years the Scouts have saved money from their oyster supper and now have enough to build their cabin.

Any friends of the troop members who are interested in helping in the building of the cabin are cordially invited to attend also.

WHITES TOWER NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Barrane were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Howard.

Bob Mathis of Taylor Mill Pike, entertained the following at dinner, Sunday: Paul Brumback, wife and son of Chicago; Ervin Brumback and wife of Mobile, and Mrs. Maude Brumback and children of Whites Tower.

Ralph Johnson of Georgia, was a guest over the weekend of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Webster.

Richard Dorsey, wife and daughter were weekend visitors in Independence and the Tower.

Tragedy struck our community again last week when four-year-old Brenda Preston was killed when struck by an auto driven by H. Carr of Staffordburg Road. According to witnesses, the accident was unavoidable.

We have never been able to decide whether television is a blessing or a bane, but whichever it is, most of us have decided that it's a pretty nice one.

Too much rain is creating quite a problem for the farmers and a scarcity of help does not aid in the situation.

16th Annual Dinner

We'll folks, it's that time again—the knock on your door will not be the gas man nor the telephone man, but will probably be your local fireman making his rounds in asking you for a donation toward the Independence and Community Volunteer Department's annual chicken dinner, to be held at Simon Kenton High School's cafeteria.

Everyone who has attend previous suppers should inform his neighbors and friends what a supper it is, and why we have an annual supper, because your neighbors are probably new and moved from town, where this is all new to them.

They can be guaranteed three things: The food is clean and it is good, being prepared and served by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Fire Department—in fact anyone can look in on these ladies cooking the meal on the afternoon before the evening of the supper at the school; second, they won't go away hungry, and third, your friends and neighbors will be there, so you can talk of old times—you probably haven't seen them since the last annual supper.

So, instead of asking the local firemen what donation he wants—ask him what he needs to make his supper complete—give and attend—tickets are $1.25—seems awfully high, but figure up what your supper will cost—besides, no dishes to wash and dry.

Savings Bonds

Quite a few people are suddenly worried about the value of their U. S. saving bonds. They've been reading newspapers that "Government prices are down sharply." This is true only for open-market bonds, not for the Savings Bonds that many individuals buy.

The weather is better now and we are selling more paint, lawn mowers, garden fertilizer, grass seed, hoses, rakes and linoleum. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Massie were getting some of that good Balce interior glass for their bath room and kitchen. Helen Stephenson and Mrs. Clifford Mann were buying more paint and border—they are still painting. William Parker bought a Mestral rotary lawn mower—he bought the house from his brother, Tam, down on Plum Street. Harlow Smith from Mt. Zion bought an Eclipse hand mower, the best one I had. We just received the first shipment of the new rotary Eclipse lower lawn mowers, and are something, with a big Briggs-Stratton motor and large wheels, so it will push easy. Look this mower over before you buy.

Frank Knight from Flingsville came after a lot of galvanized pipe and fittings. Brewster made up a lot of fence anchor rods after Roy Kenney welded on eye in one end—we have lots of them now. John Doney bought one of those patent anchors you screw in the ground—they are fine where there is no rock—once in a while one breaks, but the company will replace them free. We are selling a lot of electric fence chargers, knobs, and several are buying the ½-inch rods, complete with knobs and brackets, to just drive in the ground and you can move them from place to place—only 60 cents each, complete with knobs and brackets.

You never know what you are going to sell when that door opens—a fellow bought a training chair for a child, the next one bought a Perfection portable oil heater, the next a water-cooled cream separator, the next lady more Balce paint, the next man galvanized pipe, the next one poultry netting, then Vigoro fertilizer—just then a lady wanted some dishes, then another wanted her electric iron repaired—a gentleman wanted two log chains made up with a hook on each end, then Chick had to repair a Perfection pump, then Floyd Seebie wanted a 14-ft. American wire gate. James Bonar and Louise wanted 26 ft. of linoleum. Cecil Dickerson wanted galvanized pipe to put through a pond dam. Clarence Patrick needed pipe and fittings—he is putting water in his house.

A fellow stopped to buy a Maytag washer, who I did not know—first he wanted to know if he could pay when he sold his tobacco, and if I even planted yet, then he wanted to know how much off for cash, then he wanted to know how much I would give him for his old washer—he finally told me he had been offered $35 for his old washer in a trade, and I told him that was the man to trade with, and went on to wait on a customer who wanted to buy two coping saw blades for a time—that is what gives me gray hair—I stood up there and talked to him for a long time, when I could have sold those blades and a kite to a boy, and made 4 cents, which was more than I had made in the past 30 minutes.

Another fellow walks in and says, how much is that washer, and I tell him, he says, you deliver it—he pays for it, gets his receipt, we deliver the washer, and everyone is happy. John Slett bought on 8-ft. Mt. Vernon lime spreader—John is one of my best customers and we try to give him the best service possible. Brewster delivered Ed Elmore 80 rods of fence, 50 steel posts and 2 rolls barb wire—he is another good customer—I have lots of them and I try to give all of them their money's worth and they know I have to have a fair profit to stay in business. I was in the city today and I looked at the same hand lawn mower marked $19.50 that I am selling for $14.50, also a better hand mower for $36.50 that I am selling for $34.50, and a power lawn mower for $159 that I sell for $154 so when you check Conrad's prices with anyone else, he is not too far out. I am selling Balce's best grade of outside white paint for $4.95 per gallon and you can price other brands for $5.29 to $6.25 per gallon. Give that Balce paint a try, if it is not good, we make it good—it is white as snow, not blue-white like some other brands.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Winn from Crittenden, were down after more Balce paint—they bought some of that new rubber base flat wall with satin finish. Clay Nix from Elliston, came in to buy screen wire but he bought screen doors and hardware for them, then a Reo power lawn mower. Then in came Mrs. Ethel Sheppard and bought a Suburban power mower—she takes good care of her husband—said she looked out the window and Mr. Sheppard was working too hard pushing that hand mower, so the came right over and bought him a power mower—so all you women take a tip and save that man of yours, so he will last longer and you won't be left to mow your yard. Most women just work a man to death—that is the reason men don't last long in Walton, and we have 60 widows.

Mrs. Alfred Hume called for a new 9x12 Armstrong rug and some glass for her corner cupboard—the last bought; also some Balce varnish stain to varnish it with. Mrs. Luile Grimes came for 2 gallons of undercoat to paint her woodwork.

Saturday was lawn mower day. We sold mowers of all kinds: Will Hoard bought the best Eclipse hand mower; Tracy Hume bought an Eclipse hand mower; Edward Bumpus bought a Mestral rotary power mower; Harve Vest bought an Eclipse rotary power mower; Mr. U. B. Cass from Gallatin county, bought an Eclipse rotary power mower; E. Engle, out of my Church Street Road, bought an Eclipse rotary power mower.

Geo. Riley New Partner In Dixie Chevrolet Sales

George Riley, of Independence, has purchased an interest in Dixie Chevrolet Sales, in Walton, and will actively participate in the operation of the dealership with E. L. Steinhilber, who has operated the business for the past few years. Mr. Riley bought the share from R. C. Durr, subject to approval by General Motors Dealership organization.

Mr. Riley has been acting as sales manager for Kenton County Motors for some eight years, is married, and has two children, Richard Gordon, 8 years old, and Janice Rose, 10 years. He lives in Independence, is a member of Independence Baptist Church, serving as Sunday School superintendent and deacon.

Walton welcomes George as one of its business associates.

SUCCESSFUL AUCTIONS

The auction, held Saturday, at Sandfordtown, was a huge success, with a large crowd and beautiful day. The real estate brought $14,300. Mr. and Mrs. Schuster, Covington, bought the 40-acre farm.

The cattle auction, Monday, May 4, at the Duvenum farm in Grant county, was also an outstanding sale, with cows bringing as much as $270 each.

The above auctions were conducted by R. C. Wayman & Sons, Real Estate and Auction Brokers, Covington.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Eckler were visiting in Walton, Saturday.

CPL. ATHA HONORED

Mrs. Agnes Atha and daughter, Glenora, entertained at dinner Sunday, honoring her son, Cpl. George T. "Tommy" Atha, who has just returned from Germany, where he has spent the past 18 months with the U. S. Army Engineers. Others who enjoyed this family affair were, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Atha of Erlanger, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Robbins and three daughters of Union, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Beagle and daughter and Miss Mary Beagle, all of Florence. M. C. Carroll was a late afternoon caller.

PREBYTERIAN SERVICES

Next Sunday, May 10, at 11 a. m. the church will observe the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, and the rite of infant baptism. Members should make a special effort to attend this communion service, to be conducted by the Rev. E. N. Rock, Stated Clerk of Louisville Presbytery.

PINER 4-H CLUB

The Busy Bee 4-H Club of Piner school will hold its annual Achievement Exercises in connection with the P. T. A. meeting, Thursday evening, May 14, at eight o'clock.

There will be an interesting program, a style show by the 4-H girls, and exhibits by the boys of the club. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Firemen Thank All Who Aided In Minstrel Show

The Walton Volunteer Fire Department wishes to take this means to express their thanks and appreciation to all the people who helped make their minstrel, "Fire Fighters Follows," a success.

Especially do they thank Rev. Charles A. Vaughn for the inspiration and knowledge he gladly gave toward getting the show organized and under way, to Mr. James Webster for "taking over" when Rev. Vaughn became ill and had to let the directorship fall into his hands; Mr. James Spencer for the splendid way in which he helped Mr. Webster direct the show, and his musical ability he so gladly rendered to the show; Miss Pauline Gross, Miss Pat Worthington and Miss Betsy Jones for the dance interpretations; Miss Alice Faye Works and Miss Brenda Worthington for their lovely voices, which added so very much to the show; Mrs. James Webster for her "Interpretation" act; Mr. Harley Holliday and Mr. William Scroggins for the musical numbers for the performance; Mr. L. B. Hall for the use of his sound equipment; Mr. Harry Johnson for the time and effort given in advertising around the communities; and Mr. J. E. Falls for renting his show building to the Department.

The firemen were well pleased with the response from the folk of this and surrounding communities in the way they "turned out" for the minstrel. It was a pleasure and a privilege to bring this minstrel to you, and we have taken this means to tell you of our appreciation.—Pub. Chm.

Independence Homemakers

The Independence Homemakers Club will meet Thursday, May 14, at the home of Mrs. Walter Moser, located on the Walton-Nicholson Pike. Mrs. Will Sumter will act as co-hostess.

The lesson will be on "Accessories." Members are asked to bring gloves, scarves, flowers, etc. Members will answer roll with "The Most Important Think to Happiness in the Home."

SKATING PARTY MAY 11

The Grader class of the Walton Christian Church will sponsor a skating party at the Walton Rollermeads, Monday, May 11, starting at 7:30 p. m.

A door prize will be awarded to the lucky ticket holder. Tickets are available from any class member or may be purchased at the door Monday night.

You'll have a good time—That's not confidential. Just buckle a pillow On your differential.

Miss Marie Armstrong has returned home after a pleasant visit with relatives in Richmond, Ind.

Bloodmobile Visit Cancelled

The scheduled visit of the Bloodmobile Unit to Walton, Friday, May 8, has been cancelled, due to a lack of donors. This is a rather serious thing, but if you do not care to give blood, it is your business. However, it may come to Walton again, but if it doesn't, you may still make your contribution. The Bloodmobile Unit will be at Burlington, Monday, June 1, and at Florence, Monday, July 13. Blood is still needed by the Armed Forces of this country, especially for the fighting men in Korea.

BRIDGET FITZHARRIS

Miss Bridget (Biddle) Fitzharris, age 87, of Verona, passed away April 27, at her home. She was a life-time member of the community and a member of St. Patrick's church, Verona.

She leaves two nieces, Mrs. Howard Feldhaus of Walton, and Miss Katie McCabe of Verona, and a nephew, John McCabe of Verona.

Services were held Thursday, April 30, at 10:00 a. m. in St. Patrick's Church, Verona, with Rev. Henry Busemeyer officiating. Burial was in the Carr Cemetery, Verona.

Morton Funeral Home, Verona, had charge of arrangements.

Boone County Health Department Completes First Year of Existence

The Boone County Health Department, a dream of Boone County Judge Carroll L. Cropper for over four years, has just completed its first year of existence.

Offices of the Health Department are located in Florence, in the same building which houses the Post Office and the Florence Building & Loan Assn. Personnel of the Health Department consists of Mrs. Mary Code, Registered Nurse; Donald Brown, Sanitarian, and Mrs. M. McArthur, Clerk. H. R. Daugherty, Florence physician, is medical consultant. The Boone County Board of Health is composed of Judge Cropper, Charles H. E. White, member of the Fiscal Court; Dr. S. B. Nunally, Hebron; Dr. M. A. Yelton, Burlington, and Dr. Daugherty.

Judge Cropper said that few persons have any real idea of the functions of the county Health Department. Information obtained at the office in Florence revealed that approximately 7,500 birth records have been given to 2,500 Boone county school children entirely free of charge. Health Department records also show that 210 kidney tests were given in line with Kentucky's endeavor to stamp out venereal disease.

A total of 25 throat cultures were given and 18 sputum tests were made, with four persons being sent to the operated TB sanitarium located at Paris. Health Department records revealed that 232 persons had free chest X-rays during the past year.

Approximately 250 home visits were made by Mrs. Cress, the registered nurse of the department.

Telephone Co. Improvements Well Under Way In County

STATE TOURIST REQUESTS TOTAL 117,121 IN YEAR

Kentucky's 1953 tourist season will be the largest ever, is requests for tourist information coming into the State Division of Publicity are any indication.

Requests that are directly attributable to advertising placed by the division are currently averaging more than 1,000 a day, and requests from all sources total 117,121 in the year ending April 15.

There have been 26,417 answers to advertisements since January 1, with some 12,500 coming during the first half of April. The total for 1952 was 58,391. Total requests for the first three and one-half months of this year were 50,116.

Coupons from ads placed by the division have been received from every state and many foreign countries. The largest number from a single state have come from Illinois, with Ohio, Indiana and Michigan next in line.

FLOWER SALE MAY 7-8-9

A flower sale will be held on the lawn of Mrs. Virginia Goodridge, Florence, on May 7-8-9. This flower sale will be sponsored by the Boone County D.A.R. Mrs. Denham, Sr., is chairman.

B.M.C. TO MEET

The Business Women's Circle of the Walton Baptist Church will meet tonight, May 7, at 7:45, in the church. All members are urged to be present at this meeting, and visitors are always welcome.

KENTON UTOPIA CLUB

The next regular meeting of the Kenton Utopia Club will be held at the Visalia school, May 13, at the usual hour.

The host and hostess for this meeting will be Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gall, and all members are urged to be present for the discussion of important matters.

Consumers Help Pay

At the beginning of this year, the cost of marketing beef was about a third of the price paid by consumers, according to Dr. C. D. Phillips, University of Kentucky farm economist. When cattle prices are low, a relatively larger share of the consumer's dollar goes for processing and distribution (marketing), he said.

All restaurants in Boone county were given health ratings after a survey made last December. A total of 240 inspections of food handling establishments also was made. Routine inspections of school lunchrooms also form a part of the department's functions. The Health Department also handles nuisance complaints with respect to drainage, offensive odors and garbage disposal. Ninety water samples were taken, 37 of which were found to be contaminated.

Statistics supplied by the Health Department revealed the following contagious diseases occurring in this county during the Health Department's first year of inception, as reported by local physicians: Chicken pox, 39; influenza, 641; measles, 17; mumps, 25; scarlet fever, 4; and whooping cough, 2. Total official mileage traveled the first year was 11,853 miles.

Members of the Boone County Citizens' Health Committee are: Mrs. Roy Lutes, Florence, chairman; Dr. D. L. Maddox, Walton; Dr. L. C. Hafer, Hebron; John Comer, Hebron; Edwin H. Walton, Burlington; Mrs. Howard Ryle, Petersburg; Mrs. Helen Rogers, Belleview; Mrs. Warren Miller, Union; Fred Hamilton, Verona; Rev. Henry Busemeyer, Walton; Mrs. Vernon Pope, Burlington; Mrs. Ruth Kautzner, Covington; Mrs. Bruce Ryle, Hamilton; Mrs. Frank Trego, Florence, and Mrs. A. L. Pfalzgraff, Bullittville.

Funds for the operation of the Health Department are obtained through appropriations of the Fiscal Court, Boone County Board of Education, Walton-Verona Independent School District, and the State.

MOTHERS DAY SUNDAY AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Rev. Charles A. Vaughn, pastor, will deliver a Mothers Day sermon on the subject, "Mary and Martha, Mothers," at the 11 a. m. service, Sunday, at the First Christian Church, Walton. The evening service will begin at 8 p. m., after which a baptismal service will be conducted.

The Bible School goal of 200 is the challenge of the Religious Education Department.

Monday night, the Crusaders Class will sponsor a skating party. The choir will meet each Sunday night to practice. Prayer meeting will begin at 8 p. m. The study will begin in the Gospel of Matthew, chapter one. Tonight the young people will present a picture, "In His Name," and a comedy. This is an outstanding picture and the public is cordially invited. Donation 20 and 35 cents.

Cabin Raising Planned for Girl Scouts of Indep'ce

By Robert X. West

Last Sunday, a meeting was held at the site of the Girl Scout cabin, to be erected on Banklick Road (sometimes known as "Meadow Lane"), to promote the location of the cabin. The Girl Scouts mean to know what a "cabin raising" means, but you older folks know—probably attended many such gatherings years ago. It consists of a large group of people working together on one project, the men doing the building and the women supplying food and refreshments right at the building site, which, in this case, will be in the woods. The site was donated by Mr. John Cain of Union, who is an ideal place for a camp, picnic and the Girl Scout cabin, now in the progressive stage.

It was learned at this meeting that sufficient funds have been obtained by the profits from Scout supper and Scout paper drives, to carry out this project, which has been in the making for five years. Bids are now being received for the lumber, after which the building program will begin immediately. It was learned that the girls and boys skilled at the building trade will be needed to begin this structure, allowing the others, not skilled, to be able to carry on.

These skilled carpenters are you, who are now working at this trade, and for your donation of skill and time, your pay will be, not in money but that your children may and will learn the better ways of living through the knowledge and skill of the community Scout leaders. As you know, the Scouting program teaches the children to prepare themselves for the responsible years ahead, teaches them to live in a country free of any obstructions in speaking, writing and worshipping in their own way, and most important, Scouts learn to think and do for themselves. The age limits—from the eligible time a girl or boy may become a Scout, to the age when the Scouting program cannot sufficiently aid them—is the period that the girls and boys become young men and young women. The time when outside help and teachings are necessary.

The above is sufficient reason and pay that you should help in starting this project—your services and the limited to a minimum, because we know that you have your time laid out for work, rest and recreation, and we, as you, value all three.

At this meeting, the building program chairman was elected by the group attending, and they chose Mr. Robert N. Knox of McCullum Road. Others who were present were: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gobbard, Connie Gobbard, Earlene Tuttle, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Cain, and Jackie and Betty Cain, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kunkel and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fisk and family, and Mr. George Knorr. From time to time articles will be printed on the progress and anyone interested in helping out, or anyone in need of help, may contact Mr. Knox by phone—Holly 8712, or by mail, addressing it to P. O. Box 537, Independence, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Pennington and daughter of Dayton, Ohio, were weekend guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Pennington.

Construction Work at Florence and Union

Construction work on the new Florence administration and telephone exchange building has progressed to a point where it is safe to anticipate that the structure will be ready for occupancy by September 1. G. B. Fouse, Jr., general manager of the Consolidated Telephone Co., said this week.

Mr. Fouse said that his company, cognizant of the rapid development of Boone county, already had increased its circuits from Florence to Cincinnati, from 13 to 18, nine of these being one-way. Dial trunks from Florence to Cincinnati will be in full operation when the new exchange building is occupied. Fouse said. The dial trunks of the Florence exchange will be Atlantic.

A new steel and concrete exchange building at Union is virtually completed, Mr. Fouse reported. This new structure, completely air-conditioned, with electric dehumidifiers and cross-ventilation, has been designed to maintain a constant temperature of 50 to 55 degrees Fahrenheit. Mr. Fouse explained this was necessary to facilitate trouble-free operation of the intricate dial mechanism, which will be housed in the new office. Dial letters for Union will be DUnion.

The new DUnion dial exchange will make necessary the replacement of more than 800 telephones, Fouse stated. "In fact," he said, "the new telephone system, including wire and poles. Next week we begin installation of 31,000 feet of new 26-pair cable. This cable was shipped from Perth Amboy, N. J., April 20. Where the cable stops and the open wire system begins, it was necessary to replace the old iron wire, installed many years ago, with new steel cable. Already we have installed 535 new poles. These new poles are pressure creosote-treated, with a guaranteed retention of eight pounds of creosote preservative to each cubic foot of pole. All cross arms are pressure creosote-treated. It will. All screws and steel braces are galvanized. With all this new outside equipment, we anticipate very little trouble from sleet and ice storms."

Mr. Fouse called attention to the fact that some stretches or road in the Big Bone-Hamilton area, "it was necessary to cut out an extremely heavy growth of brush and trees. In many cases the brush was higher than the old poles, he said.

Mr. Fouse added that he expected to convert the Union area over to the dial system about January of next year. Work will be started in other sections of the county when the present improvements have been completed.

New Haven Sr. Class Play Friday, May 8

The senior class of New Haven High School will present a three-act comedy, "The Campbells Are Coming," Friday, May 8, at 8:00 p. m., in the school auditorium. Admission prices are 25c for students, 50c for adults, and 60c for reserved seats.

Included in the cast are: Ma Branigan, the grandmother, who resorts to carrying a shotgun and drinking moonshine; her play, and her hilarious son Wilson; Billed Tapp, the hillbilly, who has eight children and a still (Randall Rhodes); Catalpa Tapp, Billed's daughter, who is an old maid at sixteen, (Pauline Wells). There are seven more characters in the play, and one hilarious as the other, and the situations they get into are even funnier. The seniors are looking forward to seeing you all on Friday, May 8.

TO WED SATURDAY

Mrs. Frances Eloise Amett and Mr. Bobby Ray Acree are to be married in the Walton Christian Church, Saturday, May 9, at 3:30 p. m. The public is invited to attend.

Miss Amett is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cosar Amett of Verona, and Mr. Acree is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Acree of South Main Street.

A reception will be held at the church immediately following the ceremony.

Personal Interest and Sick List

"Pappy" Richard Blick reports that little Rose Marie had a tooth last week and another one is on the way.

Mr. and Mrs. William Eger are the proud parents of a baby boy, born last week at Booth Hospital.

Bob West has been nursing a wind and sun burned face and arms.

Thomas Trinker of Bowman Road had a slight stroke and is confined to his home, under a doctor's care.

Lydia Wilson of Wilson Road, who was released from the hospital, got too long ago, caused from severe burns received nearly two years ago, is again on the sick list from a fall from her wheel chair.

Willie Blanton of the LLL Highway, was called to Painsville, Ky., to attend his brother's funeral, who was killed in an auto accident.

Fire Call

Firemen were called to the William Bach place, near Nicholson, where a brush fire ignited a nearby field. The Independence Fire Department quickly had the blaze extinguished and no damage was reported.

Summer Vacations

This is to remind people that are planning summer vacations that popular resort places, many of them, already are booked up weeks ahead. You'll do well to act promptly, decide where you want to go, and make your reservations—otherwise, you may be in for a disappointment. Some people are being turned down, even now. Others are being offered accommodations for Monday through Thursday only, nothing available over weekends. This is to be, by all odds, a record year for the vacation business. That goes both in the United States and abroad.

Another point you shouldn't overlook—don't wait too long to make reservations if you plan to send the youngsters to camp this summer. Camps, like resort places, are to do a record business—up an estimated 15% above 1952. Be prepared to pay about 10% more than last year. In general, rates for the two-month season are $400 to $500.

ROTC Graduates

Boys graduating from college this spring with Army commissions in the Reserve Officer's Training Corps, can choose the month in which to go on active duty. They are required to start serving by June 30, 1954.

Deferment for Students

If your college son failed to take the College Qualification Test for draft deferment on April 23, he will get another chance May 21. Applications for the new test must be postmarked not later than midnight May 11. A blank can be had from any local draft board.

Parcel Post

It's easier now to mail sealed parcels containing merchandise. Just write on the package: "Contents: Merchandise. May be opened for postal inspection." Printed labels bearing the inscription aren't required any more.

Termites

This is a season when many homeowners mistake swarms of flying ants for termites, and get frightened. The Agriculture Department offers some tips on how to tell the two apart: If they have "hourglass figures," with pinched-in waists, they are ants. Termites have thick, almost straight bodies. Both have two sets of wings. If one set is shorter than the other, it's an ant, if the two sets are about the same length, it's a termite.

Bowman and Riggs Roads

The folks who reside on these roads will have a fellow coming around to their doors asking for their donations for the Firemen's annual dinner. That fellow will be me—Bob West. Sure hope you people will help me in completing my route in a hurry. The main items I will be asking for will be: First, a baked chicken; second, pies or cakes; and third, whatever you want to give in the line of canned foods or fresh vegetables, dairy products, also whether you will take the donated articles to Simon Kenton High School's cafeteria the afternoon of the dinner or if you want me to pick it up; also I will happen to have tickets for this dinner with me, so you may purchase your tickets without going out of your homes. I'll be seeing you folks next week.

O. E. S. Chapter, 493

The next regular meeting of the Order of Eastern Star, Chapter 493, will be held May 12 at 8 p. m. at the Independence Bank Building. At this meeting "initiation" of new members will be conducted and all members of the order are cordially invited. Mrs. Dorothy Finney, Worthy Matron, and Mr. Robert West, Worthy Patron, will preside.

Changed Jobs

George (GG) Riley is now associated with Dixie Chevrolet Sales, Walton, and since it is to a better position, we of Independence, are all hoping for his quick establishment and further success in his new mission, new position and more commission.

WHITES TOWER

The weather is beautiful, but we are keeping our fingers crossed, knowing what has gone before. Sure would like to see some garden planted.

The Bell family is making to Independence, this week.

Quite a number from here attended the Frazier sale. The Staffordburg Homemakers helped serve lunch to the crowd.

No accidents over the weekend!

STAFFORDSBURG

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Deuser were surprised when their son, Wm. Tleman, and family arrived from Houston, Texas, Saturday afternoon for a week's visit. The children have grown so, one would hardly know them.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Richardson visited their daughter, Mrs. R. Marshall, of Nicholasville, Ky., Saturday, who recently underwent a tonsillectomy. They called on Mrs. Clyde Richardson, who is also recuperating from an operation. Mrs. Richardson and son are expecting to leave May 8 for Africa, where Mr. Richardson is employed under the Point IV program.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hanna had as guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hanna and sons of Latonia.

Mrs. Daisy Richardson and Miss Helen Richardson were callers on Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ballinger, Saturday evening.

Little Miss Judith Rapp is recovering from a tonsillectomy, performed last Friday. Hope to see her at Sunday School, next Sunday.

The fellowship supper, usually enjoyed the first Saturday of each month, will be held on May 9, instead. We are hoping to have an interesting program, so make plans to be there, with one of your most delectable dishes.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Deuser entertained Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Deuser, Monday evening in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Chas. Deuser. We wish her many returns.

Sympathy of the community goes out to the family of little Brenda Preston, who was killed when struck by an automobile in front of her home Friday afternoon, and also to Harry Carr, who was the driver of the car. According to witnesses, Mr. Carr was not in any way blamed, since the little girl darted into the path of the car, too close to be missed.

BEAVER LICK

Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Richardson had as dinner guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Begley and William Hillhorst of Tyler, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Estill Begley and sons, Jerry and Eugene, and Miss Judy Price of Cincinnati; W. R. Stidham of Hazard, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hutcherson and daughters, Donna Sue and Sally Lou, and Miss Montana Stidham, Misses Dewey, Adelle Steele, Carol Penn, Martha Hallard and Dorothy Bean, all of Beaver Lick.

VERONA NEWS

Mrs. Ura Gordon received a bunch of red roses, last week, from New York. They had a paper wrapped with them which said, "Happy Mothers Day, Mother." They think they are from their son, Paul, who has been missing in Korea for over two years. They don't know where he is or anything about him, but his nickname was "Seed," and it was at the end of mother. That is why they think the roses were from him. He has been in service over five years. We just ask the prayers of all the good Christians who may read this that he be returned to the States before long. The correspondent is Paul's cousin.

Heard Dyer and Jonett Crase had their car wrecked Saturday. It tore the car up but didn't hurt either of them, but they were pretty sore from the jar.

Mr. and Mrs. Golden Dyer entertained Mrs. Dyer's sister from the mountains over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Steele and children of Covington, were visiting Mrs. Steele's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Roberts, Sunday afternoon.

Susie Glone and Arvilla Hayden attended the funeral of Mr. Lillard at Florence, Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wiley of Sherman attended church here Sunday and visited Mr. and Mrs. Forest Marsh and children after church.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Chipman visited her parents at Sherman, Sunday, it being her father's birthday.

Mrs. Martha Hayden and Mrs. Lloyd Wefford of Owenton, were calling on Mrs. Hayden's son, Mr. and Mrs. Mayra Hayden and Carolyn, Saturday afternoon.

Freddy Riffitt spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lamm. They took him home Sunday and found their other grandson, Ronnie, sick. The doctor put him to bed for several days for a rest. We hope it is nothing serious and that he will soon be able to return to work.

We are glad to hear Mrs. Don Murry got home from the hospital last week. Sorry to hear John Kennedy is not doing very well at the hospital, and we hope for his early recovery.

Mrs. Elenora Hamilton and two sons and Mrs. Fannie Edgington were calling in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Doll Gordon of Sherman, Sunday afternoon.

The Verona Homemakers will meet with Florence Florence, Friday, May 8. Sally Mrs. Joe Rouse was ill Sunday and unable to attend Sunday school and church.

Mrs. Guy Crase and Miss Frieda Dyer celebrated their birthdays together at the home of Mrs. Crase, Sunday, it being Frieda's ninth. Mrs. Blanche Ransom presented Frieda with a lovely birthday cake, which she had baked. They had all the good things to eat which go with birthday dinners and both received several nice gifts and cards. All left wishing them many more happy birthdays.

Mission Week was well attended at Bethel church. We had an average attendance of 75. Quite a few of our women attended the all-day Mission in Covington, Friday. Everyone enjoyed the speakers.

Mrs. Pearl Alphin was visiting friends in Verona, over the weekend.

Susie Glone, Bertha Littrell, Pearl Lamm, Ura Roberts, Etta McVana, Pearl Alphin, Mae Wilson, Virginia Edgington, Arvilla Hayden and Virginia Adams attended the quarterly W.M.S. at Burlington Baptist Church, last Thursday.

W. N. McCrander and Miss Ethel Marcus of Florence, were visiting their cousins, Mrs. Lizzie Noel and Mrs. Pearl Lamm, one afternoon last week.

Mrs. Lenabelle Harris is back home after spending two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Kemper. We are glad to hear Elizabeth is getting along nicely since her operation.

John Kennedy still remains ill in St. Elizabeth Hospital. We hope for his early recovery.

We were all glad to see Marion Arch Waller at Sunday school and church, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lundy Perry of Dayton, Ohio, were visiting her parents over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Chandler of Cincinnati, Ohio, were visiting his brother, Morgan Chandler, and Mrs. Chandler, Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. Kelly Kennedy and sons and Rev. Tucker of Louisville, were entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamilton and sons, Sunday.

Cloyton Percival of Walton, was calling on the Lamm and Lizzie Noel one afternoon last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hughes were calling on her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Edgington, Saturday afternoon.

Spring has at last arrived after so much cold, windy weather.

John C. Cannady, who is in St. Elizabeth Hospital, remains about the same. In recent letters from the Rensselaer boys, they report they are getting along fine. Roger is in Florida, and Rodney is in Colorado. We wish them the best.

Ed Webster, who has been in St. Elizabeth Hospital, has returned to his home and is some better.

Walter Elam, who has been spending a month with his parents and friends, returns to service this week.

Mrs. Pearl Lamm visited Mrs. Chapman, Saturday.

Freddie Riffitt visited his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lamm, Saturday and went fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Margolin and sons visited her mother, Mrs. J. C. Cannady, and Ben, Sunday.

Pvt. Marion March Waller came home April 25 for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Waller and friends. He returned to Ft. Monmouth, on Sunday, April 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Troy Meyer and children spent the weekend of April 25 with her aunt, Mrs. W. E. Waller, and Mr. Waller.

The Mission Week at the Baptist church here, last week, was well attended and everyone received much good from the many sermons.

Mrs. Etta Mac is enjoying her return home after spending the winter with Mr. Good at English.

Pete Chapman has been sick again at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Porter and son, Bobbie, spent Friday in Covington and Cincinnati, shopping.

Mrs. Pierlana Kannady and Mrs. Rod McNeely were visiting John C. Kannady in St. Elizabeth Hospital, Friday. Mrs. W. E. Waller returned home with them.

CRITTENDEN

Mrs. Ellenora Rouse was taken to Good Samaritan Hospital, Monday for an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Doud entertained their children Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Ethelbert Carlisle, Mrs. Joe White and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Doud and children, all of Independence.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Dalley entertained Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. David Mann and Mrs. Nannie Mann of Flingville.

Mr. and Mrs. Olan Piner have moved from the Claude Beatty apartment to Mrs. Kate Noel's apartment in the north end of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Roberts and two children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Allie Slater of Unity.

Alfred Alphin of Marietta, Ohio, returned home last week after spending several weeks with his twin brother, Alvin Alphin, and wife.

Brent Delamette, who has been in St. Elizabeth Hospital for several months, is at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. J. Marshall, and Dr. Marshall.

Mrs. Ruby Vollandingham visited her husband, Sterling Vollandingham, who is stationed at Ft. Knox, Sunday.

ABUNDANT BEEF LOWER PRICED

Consumers are being told that beef is abundant, reasonable in price and the top item in the list of foods. Record numbers of cattle are going to market at lower prices, resulting in cheaper meat for consumers.

A Production and Marketing report says: "When buying fresh beef, it should be stored, loosely covered, in the coldest part of the refrigerator and should be used within a few days. Variety meats such as liver are especially perishable and should be used within two days, while ground beef, unless frozen, should be held only one day."

Life Boats - Fire Escapes - Insurance

Nane of them seem to do much good except in an emergency, but no thinking man would care to take a chance without them.

Did you ever wake up in the night and wonder how your family would get along if you were not at to go to work the next morning because of a serious illness or accident? It isn't a pleasant thought, is it? Without insurance you are trapped like a man on a leaking ship with no lifeboat, or in a burning building without fire-escapes.

Think it over—it's common sense and a lot more! It may be vital! Better to have protection and not need it—than need it and not have it.

Announcement!

I am beginning a new Insurance Agency in Walton, to be known as the Dan J. Roberts Agency. For a time my only location will be at my home, 162 North Main Street, Walton, Kentucky—phone Walton 66.

I am now in a position to serve you with any Insurance problem you may have. All companies I represent are Old Reliable Stock Companies, which assures you the very best service at the time you may suffer loss.

I am in a position to secure for you the very best Hospitalization contract, which will pay all emergency expenses when you are hospitalized.

"INCOME REPLACEMENT" Insurance—your income replaced to you when you suffer disability, either from sickness or injury.

"MORTGAGE REDEMPTION" Insurance—contract that will enable your widow to inherit a home instead of a Mortgage Monster. The low cost of this protection will amaze you. The small cost amounts to less than 1/2% of your debt in most cases.

"FARM INSURANCE"—these contracts replace any loss you may suffer, including livestock.

"FIRE INSURANCE"—5-year renewable plan gives you this protection at a very low cost.

"AUTO INSURANCE"—this protection, in many cases, saves your lifetime savings. You cannot afford to be without it.

We have many other contracts to fit your every need. Please feel free to call upon me at any time to discuss any problem you may have.

I am giving 100% of my time to this business, enabling me to give you the very best possible service.

OAK RIDGE

Sorry to report Amos Perry, a deacon in the Oak Ridge Baptist Church, is on the sick list.
Miss Emma Kelly, a student at Georgetown College, was home for the weekend.
Everyone in the Oak Ridge area is all excited about the senior class play at Simon Kenton High School, April 30 and May 1, 1953.

The Oak Ridge Baptist Church is having Mission Emphasis Week, April 26 through May 1, 1953. Everyone is invited to attend these services, which start at 7:30 p. m. Missionaries from all parts of the world will speak.
Glad to hear that Walter Robinson, Jr., is getting along better, and hope to see him at school before long.

A Flame In Chains

Lesson for May 10, 1953

YOU can keep a dog on a leash but not a flame. Passing a hand-cuff over a fire is no way to keep it where you want it. Now the man Paul was more like a flame than most men are. Some men are like lumps of clay. They stay where they are put and they never give trouble—and never amount to anything. Others are like fire. They have a life of their own, they can be terribly dangerous or wonderfully helpful. Paul was like this; he had been a kind of devil when he was persecuting good Christians. Now he was a missionary, an extremely successful one; but still a man of fire. He had got into trouble with the authorities; had been through a series of trials; had appealed to the Imperial court, highest in the Empire; and had been sent as a prisoner to Rome. For at least two years (some say for three) Dr. Foreman rest of his life he never was a free man in Rome. And still all the time he was preaching, satisfying, just winning friends for Jesus. You can't chain a living flame.

Strange Answers

The story of Paul and how he got to Rome has at least three messages for us today. One is this: God sometimes answers our prayers in strange ways. As we know from Paul's letters, he had had a visit to Rome in mind for a long time (Romans 15:23). It was the capital of the great Empire; the church founded there was destined to have great influence. Paul went to the Christians there the most careful and complete letter he ever wrote. God answered Paul's prayers and hopes, and so Paul in time reached Rome; but not at all as he had hoped. He was a prisoner; the outcome of his trial in Rome was uncertain, and if he lost his case, it meant death. You would have thought Paul's mind would be shadowed by foreboding; but it was not. He realized that his prayers had been answered, and he did not grumble that they had not been answered as he might have expected. So when we think our prayers have not even been heard, we might look around us; perhaps they are already answered in some way altogether a surprise.

No Prison for the Word

Tradition says that Paul was acquitted at his Roman trial, but was arrested again some years later. At any rate, from a Roman prison he wrote his young friend Timothy (as Moffatt translates it) "There is no prison for the Word of God." (1 Tim. 2:9) That is the second message from Paul's experiences as a prisoner. Men can be imprisoned, tortured, killed; but the Word of God goes on and on. If the Christian religion had been no more than a set of notions, it would have died a natural death centuries ago. That Christianity has lived is one of the evidences that it is true. It is a comfort to remember this today. People get discouraged about the church in China, in Poland, in Hungary and Bulgaria and Russia. It is certainly a fact that Christians have a hard time in those places; but it is also a fact that there are Christians there and some of them will not give up their faith.

Nothing Need Shut Our Mouths

When Martin Niemöller was a prisoner, absolutely not allowed to walk in the yard even, nor to associate with other prisoners, because as a Christian minister he had dared to say "No!" to Hitler, he used to sit at his cell window which was near the yard, and listen to the men as they went by. One of these used to repeat a verse of Scripture aloud every day and Niemöller would hear it and take it as a message from his friends and from God. There is another story about a Japanese guard in charge of American prisoners, some of whom sang Christian hymns. He knew one English word: Jesus. Whispering this name, he used to bring the men medicines and things they needed even at risk to his own life. If it is impossible for a prisoner or for a guard in a war-prison, surely the most unlikely of all places, to let himself be known as a Christian, is it likely that anything need shut our mouths? To speak a good word for Jesus is not always easy; but it is never impossible.

BABY-COACH

Customs may differ among the races and may change with the times, but certain institutions in human life have remained constant through the centuries. One of these is Motherhood.
Progress has given Mother new methods and new equipment for her age-old responsibilities. But the love and understanding which are the heart of Motherhood have never depended on science for their expression.
One unchanging sphere of material responsibility has been the religious development of children. From primitive tribal religions up to Christianity, mothers have guided and encouraged the growth of each successive generation in spiritual faith.
The Christian Church salutes all faithful mothers. They have led their families to an ever deepening realization of the sacred bond which unites the Church and the Home in a common devotion to Jesus Christ.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of a character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without it, no Church, no democracy, no civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Mrs. Gerlie Jones of Erlanger, suffered a head injury in a recent fall at her home. She is improved, however.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Arnold had as recent guests, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lowe, friends from Detroit. During their stay, the Lowes and Arnolds enjoyed a motor trip to Natural Bridge and Cumberland Falls, returning via Wolf Creek Dam and other places of interest.

Mrs. Sophia Jones has not been so well recently, we regret to report.

Sympathy is extended the family of Robert Lillard of Hopeful Road, for whom services were held Sunday at 2:00 p. m., from the Fifth funeral home. Rev. Taylor of the Madison Avenue Baptist church officiated, assisted by Rev. R. A. Johnson of the Florence Baptist Church. The Lillard family has been residents of the community about two years. Burial was in Warsaw Cemetery.

Mrs. Carl Kurtz of Erlanger, was the luncheon guest Wednesday of Mrs. Richard Keyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Woodward of Devon, entertained at dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Carpenter, and Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Woodward.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Arnold were Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Pee-no and Misses Patsy and Carol First, all of North College Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Art Center and twins of Erlanger, and Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Arnold and daughter.

Bob Miller, who is quite a fisherman, has taken a number of bass out of Gunpowder Creek during the past month. His latest catch included some four-pounders.

The annual District W.S.C.S. meeting will be held May 15, at the Erlanger Methodist Church, beginning at 9:45 a. m. Plan now to attend.

Major Clara Conway, Missionary to Korea, from the Salvation Army, who is on vacation here, will be the guest speaker at the Adult Class meeting on May 13, at the Florence Methodist Church. Everyone invited. Come and bring your family.

Monday evening of last week, the Clyde Arnolds had as guests, Mr. and Mrs. John Robt. Darby and family and Mrs. Eva Osborn.

Services for William T. Daulton, 17, who drowned in the Ohio river Feb. 15, were from the Fifth funeral home last Wednesday, with Rev. Roy Johnson officiating. Burial was in Hopeful cemetery. The unfortunate victim was fishing with two companions near Big Bone island, Boone county, when rollers from a tug boat capsized their boat. The two companions swam to shore but the Daulton youth could not make it. Sympathy is extended the family.

Month of May

This is the busiest month of the year—house cleaning time, lawn mowing, garden planting, painting inside and out, tobacco setting, sheep shearing, plowing, and house building. We sometimes sell twice as much merchandise in May as we do in two other months. Today, we sold lawn mowers, both hand and power—we have some good mowers now—Eclipse and Mastercut are the best trouble-free mowers we have found. Look our mowers over before you buy, compare price and quality with anyone.

Mrs. Nan Ranson bought three gallons of Bolce Flozotone water mix wall paint, a gallon of Chief rubber base wall paint and a gallon of Bolce outside white paint—she, Stanley, Miss Jean and all of them are Bolce paint users, and have been for years. Mrs. McMillan and daughter from Fiskburg, came in for a quart of Bolce quick drying white enamel. Mildred Vest bought a quart of Bolce interior gloss—they have used Bolce paint for years. Mrs. Lindsay Brashear bought a quart of dark oak floor enamel. Lula Mae McCubbin came after two quarts of Chief rubber base soot wall paint—this does a wonderful job over any kind of surface.

I believe our paint business has increased more than any other part of this store—we sell the best paint at a reasonable price and try to tell our customers the truth about it. I would rather miss a sale than to sell a paint for a purpose I knew would not be right. The ladies are really getting fancy with these paint rollers—they can paint a room in no time and not worn out when they finish—pan and roller for only $1.98, extra cover for 98c, and this is a good quality item.

Mrs. McHugh, over in Kenton, came in and bought a Red Mountain coal range. Mrs. O. P. Monn bought a beautiful 12x15 Armstrong floral pattern rug. Irvin Carter bought two quarts of Bolce casine paint to go over wallpaper—he also bought a drop-in electric water heater—I often wonder where all these water heaters go—we sell lots and lots of them every year for $2.75 and $4.95 each. A stranger came in for a lay-off shovel for a push plow—said he had been to three hardware stores, and all I did was to go to the bin and took his 65c, and he was happy.

What has happened to the chicken raising—no one seems to be growing any, only for their own use. We have sold very little equipment and we still have that Jamesway equipment, which my customers, who use it, say is the best. We have fence anchor rods now—we just had 125 made. We also have the wool bags and twine. I made out a repair list today for Bemis setters. We are going to try to have those repairs for Bemis setters. Another rainy day, but several customers came to town.

Brewster sold another rubber tired wagon to some fellow from Grant county—that makes four that has gone up there to farmers, all neighbors—that must be a good wagon or they would not keep coming after another one. We received another shipment of Maytag washers—I sometimes wonder where they all go. This is lawn mower season and after several years experience with power lawn mowers, we have culled them down to Eclipse, Mastercut and Sunbanette—these give service and that is what you want.

I have a disc plow to fit a Ford tractor—it is nearly new, plowed about 20 acres, will sell cheap. Chas. Vest stopped in and bought a garden push plow—he got hot with that. Brewster went down and repaired Tom Percival's Maytag washer—the hose was busted. I have another 8-ft. Mt. Vernon lime and fertilizer spreader, all set up and ready to go. Tobacco setters are moving—we sell a Memis every day or so. I ordered 50 Perfection hand setters last night, and the man brought them down today—we sell about this many every year.

Saturday was a whirlwind, we sold a little bit of everything. Mrs. Bessie Webster, from Zion Station, bought a Maytag washer; Lindsay Brashear bought his wife an Eclipse rotary lawnmower; Mrs. Beckham Shields bought a beautiful 12x15 inoleum rug; Virgil Henley bought his wife a 12x12 inoleum rug; Junior Simmons bought a 9x12 inoleum rug; Annie Powell also bought a inoleum rug—this must have been inoleum day. We also sold gallons of Bolce paint, inside and outside.

Ray Eason bought two screen doors and the hardware for them. Noel Walton stopped in and bought a Langley reel. John Eckler, the undertaker at Dry Ridge, bought two plugs to catch bass. Mr. Heffer, who has the farm across from Frank Penick on High Street road, bought four rolls of field fence. Mrs. Clifford Farwell came after a gallon of Bolce white interior glass—it is just wonderful to paint your walls and woodwork. We also sold a lot of rubber base wall paint—it is really selling and it is beautiful.

Mrs. Herman Simmons bought a lot of Bolce interior paint and an Armstrong 9x12 rug in the hooped rug design. Ray Dickey bought a lot of Armstrong inoleum for the kitchen and bathroom of his new house. Chick made Mrs. Wendell Downing a pair of clothes post out of 1 1/2-inch galvanized pipe. My Kenton county customers are growing—I have more all the time, and do they like Bolce paint, also those Dayton water systems, which are almost trouble free, just a little service once in a while. Merchandise and Service is the Motto of Conrad Hardware.

"Good Citizens" Visit State Capitol

Boone County DAR Is Sponsor of Trip

On Saturday, Mary Florence Ryan, Jennie Lee Tanner, Barbara Scherler, Ann Wilson and Janice Kinnman, the five senior students selected by the student body and faculty of the five Boone County High Schools as the "Good Citizens" in the Good Citizenship Pilgrimage contest, sponsored by the Boone County Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, were entertained with a trip to Frankfort, and points of interest.

Mrs. Roy C. Nestor, Regent of the local D.A.R. Chapter, and Mrs. Davis Gaines, Good Citizenship chairman, were chaperones on the trip, and Byron Kinnman acted as escort.

The day opened in Frankfort with Good Citizenship Certificates being presented to the girls in the House of Representatives, Capitol Building, by Mrs. Bacon Rochester Moore, Honorary State Regent for the D.A.R. Following a tour of the new Capitol building, old State House and Historical Society, luncheon at the Episcopal Parish House, Liberty Hall (designed by Thomas Jefferson), Frankfort Cemetery, and grave of Daniel Boone, a reception was held at the Governor's Mansion by Mrs. Lawrence Weatherby and her two daughters.

This contest will be sponsored each year in Boone County schools by the Boone County D. A. R. Chapter.

GARDEN CLUB MEETING

The seventh annual meeting of the Blue Grass Region of the Garden Clubs of Kentucky will be held in the Alms Hotel, Victory Parkway and McMillan Street, Cincinnati, on May 22. An interesting program has been planned, which will include reports from other clubs, and a discussion of "Gardening With Bulbs," by Charles McCullough, Jr., of the McCullough Seed Company, Cincinnati.

Luncheon will be served in the Alms Ballroom at a cost of $2.30 per person, and registration is $1.00. A visit is also planned to the Garden Center in Cincinnati, and a tour of the gardens of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hauck.

It is hoped all members of the Kenton County Garden Club will find it possible to attend, since this is the first time this meeting has been held North of Frankfort.

4-H Rally Day At Burlington, On Saturday

Boone County 4-H Rally Day will be held Saturday, May 16, starting at 10 a. m., at the Burlington High School.

John Crigler, president of the Boone County 4-H Council, will call the meeting to order. The program will consist of group singing, seed identification contest, which will be held in the morning.

In the afternoon, there will be a style review and 4-H demonstrations. Della Bee of the Union Light, Heat & Power Co., will give a talk on the use of electricity in the home and at the farm. A movie, "Share the Fun Breakfast," will be shown. This is a 4-H Club film made of 4-H Club members at the National 4-H Conference. After the afternoon program, there will be organized games for all members.

Real Estate Transfers

Forest S. Thompson, proprietor of The Mutual Realty Co., Walton, reports the following sales:

A 21-acre, well improved tractor farm, of Mrs. C. A. Coyle, near Verona, was sold to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Johnson, Lexington. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are moving to their new home this week.

Mr. Johnson has been operating a 300-acre stock farm near Lexington.

A five-room modern frame dwelling of Elizabeth A. Hughes, Philadelphia St., Covington, was sold to Mrs. C. A. Coyle, Verona. She is moving this week.

A five-room modern frame home belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Bughner, Erlanger, was sold to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kennedy of Covington. The Kennedys have already moved.

Mr. Thompson sold his 4-room modern frame home in Dry Ridge, to Mr. and Mrs. Colvin Bughner, who have also moved in.

GRADUATION EXERCISES

The 1953 graduating class of Walton-Verona High School will begin their graduating exercises with Baccalaureate services, Sunday night, in the Walton Methodist Church, with Rev. Charles A. Vaughn delivering the sermon.

Class night exercises will be held on Tuesday, May 19, at the school gym. Robert Porter is valedictorian, and Miss Shirley Brooks, salutatorian.

Commencement will be held Thursday, May 21, in the gym, with W. L. Matthews, president of the Bowling Green Business University, as principal speaker.

The Junior-Senior banquet will be held at Town & Country, Friday, May 15. All programs start at 8:00 p. m.

C. N. Taylor Called as Pastor At Baptist Church

Rev. C. N. Taylor has accepted the call as pastor of the First Baptist Church, Walton, having preached his sermon here last Sunday. The Walton Baptist Church is the church in which Rev. Taylor was converted six years ago.

Rev. C. N. Taylor

He is a graduate of Somerset High School, Somerset, Ky., and of The Tennessee Temple Bible School, Chattanooga, Tenn., and did some seminary work in Southeastern Baptist Seminary, Chattanooga, Tenn.

For the past two years, Bro. Taylor has been in full time evangelistic work, having held revivals in Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, Texas, Oklahoma, Missouri, and Ohio. He also conducted a daily radio program over station WFCS, Somerset, Ky.

Walton welcomes this outstanding young minister to the community and all wish him the greatest success.

Rev. and Mrs. Taylor and their two small children are now residing in the parsonage on North Main Street.

BAPTIST W. M. S.

The W. M. S. will meet at the Walton Baptist Church, Thursday, May 21, for the regular monthly meeting. Hostesses are Mrs. Katharine Winkler, Mrs. Julia Acree and Mrs. Mary Margaret Allen.

SCOTTISH RITE CLUB

A regular meeting of the Wilford Scott Rite Club will be held in the Willington Hall, Fiskburg, on Monday, May 18. The speaker will be Allie Allnut, and the stewards, Woodrow Worthington and Art Steele.

GEORGE H. BURKETT

Services were held at 10 a. m., Saturday at the Swindler Funeral Home, Walton, for George H. Burkett, 67, retired fireman for the L. & N. Railroad, who died last Wednesday at his home in Latonia. Burial was in Dallas, Texas.

Mr. Burkett, a member of Latonia Baptist Church, was the father of Rev. William G. Burkett, Enore, S. C., formerly pastor of the Walton Baptist Church. He also leaves his widow, Mrs. Cora May Mason Burkett; a daughter, Mrs. Wayne Bobb of Dallas; a sister, Mrs. Harry Richards of England, and four grandchildren.

ABOARD ASHTABULA

Serving off Korea aboard the fleet after USS Ashtabula, are James R. Kiser, storekeeper seaman, USN, husband of Mrs. Wanda W. Kiser, 3721 Decourey Ave., Covington, and Robert L. Kiser, fireman, USN, both sons of Mr. and Mrs. Russell L. Kiser of Walton, Route 1.

CARR ANNOUNCES

This week, Tom Carr, Verona, announced his candidacy for re-election as Magistrate from the third district of Boone County.

Mr. Carr has served as a member of the Boone County Fiscal Court for a number of years, and in making his announcement he states that he feels that he is familiar with the fiscal affairs of the county. Many noted improvements have been made in the road system in recent years, and the Fiscal Court contemplates making many more as soon as funds are available.

"If re-elected," Mr. Carr said, "I will continue to serve the county as a whole to the best of my ability. Your support will be appreciated."

FOR TEEN - AGERS

The Walton Lions Club is sponsoring a Spring Festival for the teen-agers of this community, Saturday, May 16, 1953 from 8:00 p. m. until 11:30 p. m., at the Walton-Verona High School gymnasium. The admission is 25 cents for each person. Come one, come all, and enjoy yourselves. Come formal or informal, as the dress is optional. Dance music is to be furnished by Lion Leon Hall.—Pub. Com.

ANNUAL SUPPER

The Independence and Community Volunteer Fire Department is having a chicken dinner, May 16, beginning at 5:00 p. m., at the Simon Kenton High School cafeteria. This is a large place and there should be no waiting for tables or your meal.

To the housewife, it is always a pleasure to leave the dishes set after a large meal—just up and leave. And, incidentally, Moon Bros. Post, 275, American Legion, is having it's dance the same evening at the Legion Hall, Latonia—what is better than to spruce up at home, attend the Firemen's supper and on to the dance—no fuss, no muss, and dining and dancing with your neighbors and friends.—Pub. Chm.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Boone County Historical Society will meet in the Florence Town Hall on Friday, May 15, at 8:00 p. m.

Mrs. Mary Huey will present a paper on "The Ohio River." Anyone interested in invited to attend meetings of the society.

Aylor-Stogner Nuptials Held In Russell, Ky.

Mrs. Mabel Aylor and Mr. Lea Stogner, both of Ashland, Ky., were united in marriage Thursday night at 8 o'clock in the residence of Rev. and Mrs. John R. Gilpin, Sr., of Russell.

Rev. Gilpin performed the ceremony, which was preceded by a half-hour of nuptial music.

Vocal selections were rendered by Mrs. Stogner's grandchildren, James and Beverly Aylor of Ashland, Rhonda, Ruth, and John R. Gilpin, Jr., of Russell.

The bride was attired in a gray suit and arched and black accessories. She wore an arched corsage.

A member of the Russell Baptist Church, Mrs. Stogner is the mother of Mrs. John R. Gilpin, Sr., of Russell, and Wilbur R. Aylor of Ashland.

Mr. Stogner, a retired locomotive, is a member of the Greenup Baptist Church. A reception at the Gilpin residence followed the ceremony, with approximately forty-five attending. Hostesses were Misses Vivian Miller and Hazel Hutchinson of Huntington, W. Va., Mrs. Woodrow Brumfield, Mrs. Phola Woodell and Mrs. John R. Gilpin, Jr., of Russell.

Out of town guests were Elder and Mrs. Robert Guelich of Whitesville, W. Va., Mr. and Mrs. Angus MacDonald of Marmet, W. Va., Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Gillespie of Ashland, and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Anderson of Ashland.

The couple will return next week from a wedding trip and will reside at 2300 Bath Ave., Ashland.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

"The Measure of Home," will be the sermon subject Sunday morning at 11:00, at the Walton Christian Church. Rev. Charles A. Vaughn said this message would conclude National Family Week. Special recognition will be given to all high school graduates from the Christian church.

There will be no services Sunday night at the Christian Church. All will go to the Methodist Church to worship in the Baccalaureate services, the sermon subject being, "A Sure Thing." This church, Rev. Vaughn said, "wishes God's greatest blessings upon all seniors."

R. M. Hall Is Candidate For Representative

R. M. Hall, Walton, announced this week that he is a candidate for State Representative from the 54th District, comprising Boone and Gallatin Counties, and subject to action of the Democratic primary, August 1, 1953. In making his intention known through the Advertiser, Mr. Hall points out that he served in this capacity in the 1944 and 1946 Sessions of the General Assembly of Kentucky.

Since that time he has served the city of Walton as Councilman and Mayor, and at present holding the latter position.

Mr. Hall is 46 years of age, and has been a resident of Walton precinct for nearly 25 years. He was born and reared in Grant County, graduated from Willettsville High School in the class of 1924. He continued his studies at the University of Kentucky and at the Cincinnati Y. M. C. A. School of Business, before starting to work in the Construction Department of the Community Public Service Company. He worked his way up through the various jobs assigned him until he was appointed State Manager of this concern in 1947. When the properties of Community Public Service were sold in 1950, Mr. Hall elected to remain in Northern Kentucky, and is now in charge of Construction and Maintenance of all the Electric Distribution System of The Union Light, Heat & Power Co., with offices in Walton and Covington.

Mr. Hall is a property owner and very much interested in the continued growth and development of Northern Kentucky. He is a charter member and past president of the Rotary Club in Walton.

Mr. Hall feels that he is well qualified to serve the people of Boone and Gallatin Counties in the office he is seeking and solicits the support of all the citizens of the two counties on August first.

JAMES W. PHILLIPS

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Phillips were called to Chattanooga, Tenn., Tuesday due to the death of his brother, James W. Phillips, 42 years old. Mr. Phillips was a veteran of World War II, serving 32 months in the Aleutian Islands, and 10 months with the Japanese occupation. He is survived by his wife, Alice, four sisters, Carrie Garner, Bessie Bomer, Opal Stives and Ruby Phillips of Chattanooga, Tenn., three brothers, Marvin, of Chattanooga, and George and Gordon Phillips, both of Walton.

MRS. ADDIE BAILEY

Mrs. Addie Bailey, age 83 years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lillian Elliott, Chambers Ave., Walton, May 7. She is survived by three other children, Louis and Lawrence Bailey of Pendleton County, and Mrs. Sylvia Works of Gardnersville.

Services were conducted Saturday at 2:00 p. m. in the Gardnersville Christian Church by Rev. Volis Hill and Rev. S. R. Mann, with Harry J. Eckler, Dry Ridge, having charge of arrangements. Burial was in Gardnersville Cemetery.

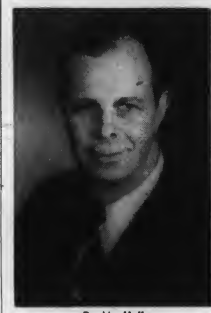

New Voting Precincts In Kenton County

Six new voting precincts in Kenton County were established last week in an order issued by Judge William Wehman of Kenton County Court.

Judge Wehman said he was creating the new precincts for the convenience of voters who were forced to wait in line to vote in several sections of the county at the last election.

Boundaries of the new precincts were made by L. E. McCort, county engineer. Included in the expansion, was the Independence Precinct, which is being divided into two precincts. Precinct A will be that part of the original precinct East of Madison Pike, and Independence B, the part of the old precinct West of Madison Pike.

The new precincts raise the total of voting places in the entire county to 146.

C. D. Benson Is Candidate For Re-election

C. D. "Dewey" Benson, of Burlington, announces his candidacy for County Court Clerk in this issue of the Advertiser, subject to action of the Democratic primary Saturday, August 1, 1953.

"Dewey," as he is known throughout Boone County, has served as Boone County Clerk for the past 20 years, taking office the first time in January, 1934.

He was born and reared in Boone County and was educated in the Walton grammar and high school. He is a member of the Burlington Baptist Church, and is Vice President of the Dixie State Bank, Walton.

C. D. Benson

Mr. Benson has been active in organization of baseball leagues throughout Northern Kentucky, and no doubt is responsible for the large number of outstanding baseball players produced in this section.

In making his formal bow to the voters of Boone County, Mr. Benson issued the following statement:

"In making my announcement for re-election to office of County Court Clerk, first, I want to thank you people, each and every one of you, for your kindness and support during campaigns of previous elections, permitting me to serve as your County Clerk for almost twenty years.

"Your support and kindness has not only been of much encouragement to me, but the many friends I now have, made possible only by being your Clerk, mean more than anything that could possibly have happened to me during my lifetime.

"The only thing I ask of you on election day, August 1, 1953, is to do as well as you have in the past.

"We, C. D. Benson, Clerk, and Alberto O. Greene, D. C., thank you for everything, and if re-elected will try to serve you the best we know how.

"Don't forget to register! Go to the polls and vote, for this is the freedom for which our boys are fighting."

METHODIST AD TO MEET

The Ladies Aid Society of the Walton Methodist Church will meet Saturday, May 16, at 11:00 a. m., in the church. All members are urged to be present.

Delivery Expected About Christmas

At a recent meeting of the Independence and Community Volunteer Fire Department, members purchased from Richard Campbell a new Ford (F-800) fire truck.

Among the more advance and modern features, the purchased fire truck has to offer are: An automatic re-wind for 2-inch hose, a pump mounted on the front bumper which has all the necessary controls at hand and one man can do the work where two were previously needed, the truck is powered by a 155-horsepower engine, and will put out more water with less revolution of the engine. This truck will carry 500 gallons of water (200 more than the old truck), and a lighting system and portable pump will be carried in separate compartments, within easy reach for emergency use.

All the above features are but a few of the many more that have been devised since the purchase of the fire trucks now in use.

The expected date of arrival of the new truck, according to Robert X. West, publicity chairman, will be some time in December, and will be a grand Christmas present for the town and surrounding community of Independence, one that will be wanted immediately when a fire hazard is within the territory of the Independence and Community Volunteer Fire Department.

MRS. BELLE GUNNOE

Mrs. Belle Gunnoe passed away at St. Elizabeth Hospital last Thursday. She had been ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. H. Shanklin, of South Main Street, for several years. She was taken to Hinton, W. Va., by Messrs. Chambers & Grubbs, funeral directors, and buried last Sunday.

Literary Club Sees Films At May Meeting

A film showing Bellingarth Garden, near Mobile, Ala., Sunken Garden, St. Petersburg, Fla., Cypress Garden at Winter Haven, personal scenes at Bok Tower, other gardens of the South, and interesting local scenes provided an excellent program, presented by Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Wallace, for the May meeting of the Walton Women's Literary Club, which was held in Fellowship Hall of the Walton Christian Church, with Mrs. J. T. Stone as hostess.

Mrs. Forest Thompson contributed much to the program with an interesting and informative talk on gardening.

The devotional was given by Mrs. J. C. Bedinger, using Psalm 91 as the basis of a spiritual talk, closing with a prayer.

With Mrs. Julia A. Rouse presiding, the meeting opened with the pledge to the flag, led by Miss Jean Chambers, followed by the club cheer.

Mrs. W. D. Scroggin and Mrs. H. F. Mann were named delegates to the annual convention of the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs, to be held in Louisville, May 13-14-15.

Members responded to roll call with garden suggestions.

Following adjournment, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Leo Flynn, served refreshments.

Members and guests in attendance were: Mrs. J. C. Bedinger, Miss Emma Jane Miller, Mrs. C. F. Blankenbaker, Mrs. John Myers, Mrs. C. S. Chambers, Mrs. James Powers, Miss Jean Chambers, Mrs. A. R. Conner, Mrs. C. W. Ransler, Mrs. J. R. Conrad, Mrs. G. C. Ransom, Mrs. B. W. Franks, Mrs. S. D. S. Ransom, Mrs. A. H. Gaines, Mrs. Julia A. Rouse, Mrs. J. L. Hamilton, Mrs. W. O. Rouse, Mrs. A. R. Johnson, Mrs. S. W. Rouse, Mrs. W. D. Scroggin, Mrs. B. S. Sleat, Mrs. Clayton Jones, Mrs. J. T. Stone, Mrs. H. F. Mann, Mrs. Forest Thompson, Mrs. J. E. McCabe, Mrs. James Webster, Mrs. E. B. Wallace, Miss Marie Chambers, Mrs. Hugh Arnold, Mrs. J. W. Isley, Miss Mary Ransler, Mrs. Frances Berkshire, Mrs. G. W. Hoffman, and Mrs. Leo Flynn.

The June meeting will be held at the Phoenix Restaurant, Walton, with Mrs. Mattie Griffith, hostess.

Fishing

Now is a good time for the folks interested in fishing to go to the nearby lakes, nearly all in this vicinity. They have been stocked with fish, especially channel cat, and the fish are biting.

Wreck May 9

The Independence Life Squad and Fire Department was called to Nicholson last Saturday for probable emergency reasons when an auto overturned at the intersection of Route 17 and 16. No one was injured and no fire, so the two departments returned.

Garden Club Plant Sale

The Kenton County Garden Club was entertained April 23 by Mrs. Leslie Wagner at her home. Following a desert luncheon, a plant sale was featured.

Members attending: Mesdames S. C. Fisk, Hubert Baird, John C. Cain, Frank Cook, Lewis Gabriel, J. A. Keeney, Clifford Northcutt, Henry L. Pitcher, Frank Stogmon, Orie S. Ware, Leslie Wagner, and S. S. Rich.

Mrs. Lydia Vallandigham will be hostess for the May 28 meeting at her home. Exhibit: "Spring Arrangements."

Moon Bros. Past, 275

The Moon Bros. Past, 275, American Legion is sponsoring their annual dance at the American Legion Hall, Latonia, May 16, starting at 8:30 p. m. The public is invited and all American Legion members should attend this affair. A good time will be had by all.

Personal Interest and Sick List

Ray Baldwin of Pelly Road, has taken his physical for induction into the Armed Forces.

William Meyers of McMillan Drive, is home on leave from Boot training in the Navy.

Richard Cain of Station Road, was home over last weekend from the Fort Benning (Ga.) Air Base.

Lee Giles is in the hospital, convalescing from rheumatic fever. It is not known just when he will get home.

Donny Wilcoxson was taken to the hospital last Monday, May 11.

Harvey Reed and Gayle England bumped fenders with their autos last Sunday evening in Independence. Harvey should go back to his bicycle—safety and the traveling cost is so little.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dorsey took a trip to Lexington, Ky., last Sunday, to see their granddaughter, Sarah Lynn, the daughter of Dickie and Lola Walters.

There are two reasons why some people don't mind their own business. Either they haven't any mind or they haven't any business.

Money doesn't always bring happiness. A man with ten million dollars is no happier than a man with nine million dollars.

WHITES TOWER

This community was shocked Sunday by the sudden death of Harry Kendig, one of the proprietors of Kendig's Lake and farm on Taylor Mill Pike. Neighbors like Harry are scarce in any community and all who knew him share the grief and extend sympathy to the family in his untimely demise.

Chas. Dorsey and wife visited their son, Richard, wife and daughter in Lexington, Sunday.

Beautiful weather has put all the farmers on the move. Gardening and corn planting is the order of the day.

Dr. Samuel Brown, pioneer in small-pox vaccination, founded the Transylvania College of Medicine in 1799. In its first 60 years, the school graduated more than 2,000 physicians.

The present site of Keeneland Race Course, near Lexington, occupies approximately 150 acres of an 8,000 acre tract granted Francis Keene by Patrick Henry, then Governor of Virginia.

TOBACCO YIELDS UP

Tobacco yields in Grant county last year averaged 1,660 pounds an acre, or more than double yields in the early '30's, says Robert Howe, county agent for the University of Kentucky. Farmers have learned to fertilize heavily, Howe said. They use soil tests as a guide to grow good crops of wheat and vetch to turn under as green manure. They also keep tobacco on land which is not subject to erosion.

BIBLE SPEAKS

International Union
Sunday School Lessons
BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN
Scripture: I and II Thessalonians.
Special Reading: Revelation 3:14-22.

End Of The World

Lesson for May 17, 1953

THE first part of the New Testament to be put into writing was not any one of the gospels; it was an epistle. Which one, is not absolutely certain; but it may very well have been the pair of letters Paul wrote to the Thessalonians. There is much too much in them for all of it to be put into one Sunday school lesson. One thing certainly seems very modern: the Thessalonians, and perhaps Paul too, were under the impression that their times were the last times. The end of the world seemed to be right around the corner. That was nearly 2,000 years ago. But what with the A-bomb and now the H-bomb, it looks as if this ancient fear might not be off-center at all nowadays. It is worth while to think—What if this year 1953 really is the last chapter in history?

God Has His Plans

One thing does seem clear from the Bible, whatever else people may quarrel about: The end of the world will be brought about by God, not man. It is quite possible, as the most distinguished scientists tell us, that any one H-bomb will totally and instantly destroy life in a circle of 300 square miles. But this earth is a large one, and there aren't enough H-bombs to carpet the whole place. The civilized nations, so-called, may blow each other off the map; but there will be a lot of uncivilized ones left that don't have money for H-bombs and couldn't even spell the word. "Civilization as we know it" can be destroyed by man; but not the heavens and the earth. This is not to call the H-bomb a trifle; its use would be the most colossal evil ever devised at one stroke by mankind. But while the use of it might well be the last chapter for readers of this paper, there are people who can't read (in Palagonia for instance) who would scarcely know the thing had been dropped. When God is ready to bring the whole story of man to an end, he will do it. Men will not.

Suppose This Is It?

St. Francis of Assisi, such a universal Christian that both the Roman Catholic church and the Salvation Army have claimed him for their own, was once asked, while he was hoeing in the garden, "What would you do if you knew the world was coming to an end this afternoon?" His answer was: "I would go on and finish this hoeing." Paul had to deal with this problem in the Thessalonian church. His first letter to them got them to thinking the end of all things must be right around the corner. So a good many of them decided there wasn't any use in working any more. They quit their jobs, they sat around or visited one another's homes and all they talked about was, "When will it be?" Paul's advice (besides telling them the end was not as near as they thought) was to get jobs and stay on them. It was to these people that he made his famous remark, "If any one will not work, let him not eat." (II Thess. 3:10). Suppose the end of all things is really near? Suppose Christ came in glory to your town before Sunday? Which would be better to be found just sitting around, or steadily doing whatever duty might be yours at the time?

The End of the World

After all, what does the "end of the world" mean, practically? It means that you and the world part company; it vanishes before your eyes. Whatever world you exist in from that moment on, it will not be this one. Now it makes small difference whether the world folds up and leaves you, or whether you fold up and leave the world. One thing is sure; whichever way it is, you and this world, this world of day and night, of sin and suffering and subtilties, this world of animals, vegetables and minerals—you and this world are going to part company, and you are going to live long enough to see that day. The big question is not the nearness or the farness of that day. The question is: What are you going to put into the time between now and then? If you will look around you, you will see many evidences that those who went before you made wise plans and did good deeds not only for their own time but for yours as well.

ARE THE CLOUDS BREAKING?

No one doubts that we are living in troubled times. Few generations have faced such a constant threat of war; none has known such widespread response of destruction. A storm of terror threatens to engulf the world. Yet, there are some who see signs that the clouds may be breaking. They point to crowded churches... Sunday Schools with record enrollment... tremendous demand for the new translation of the Bible. They reason that such concern for the spiritual realities of life is certain to have effect on the course of our history.

Whether we share their optimism or not, there is no denying the premise on which it is based. Though we cannot read the future, we can read the past. Man's hope of peace and happiness, in national and in personal life, has always rested upon spiritual foundations.

People who want the peace of God must turn to God to find it!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

City Ordinance 224

rect, and acknowledges receipt of the amount above certified.

By _____, Contractor

The City Treasurer is hereby authorized to execute such checks from time to time in the necessary amounts upon the aforesaid voucher or "Authorization for Payment" being executed by the architect or engineer and presented to the City Treasurer without any further meetings, authorizations, ordinances or resolutions of this City Council.

Such checks, so long as the authenticating voucher (Authorization for Payment) shall remain attached thereto, shall be fully negotiable and a bank shall be authorized to honor and pay the same providing it assumes the responsibility for the propriety of all endorsements or all endorsements to it are guaranteed by a bank. Upon the payment of each such check, the authenticating voucher attached thereto, shall be retained by said bank and surrendered to the City Treasurer at the time of the final accounting as between the treasurer and the bank. After the architect certifies that the construction has been completed and paid for, any surplus remaining in the Construction Account may be transferred to the Bond Fund.

14. If for any reason the funds obtained by the sale of said bond issue are not properly allocated, or if there is any misapplication of the proceeds, such improper allocation or misapplication shall not affect the validity of any bonds issued in accordance with this ordinance.

15. If any section, paragraph or clause of this ordinance shall be held invalid, the invalidity of such section, paragraph or clause shall not affect any of the remaining provisions of the ordinance.

All ordinances, resolutions, and parts thereof in conflict herewith are hereby repealed and this ordinance shall take effect and be in force at once.

No doubt about it...

Chevrolet trucks must be the best buy!

This year—for the 12th straight production year—truck users are buying more Chevrolet trucks than any other make. That couldn't be true unless Chevrolet trucks offered more of what you want.

Already, 1953's official sales figures tell a remarkable story of clear-cut and decisive preference for Chevrolet trucks. But, this is not surprising, for truck users everywhere are discovering how far ahead of all others Chevrolet trucks really are.

They are discovering things like the tremendous new power in advanced Loadmaster engines in heavy-duty models... the remarkable gasoline economy... the extra ruggedness and strength of heavier, more rigid frame construction. And, in addition to all these advantages, the Chevrolet line lists for less than any other trucks of comparable size and capacity. So, before you buy any truck, stop in and see us.

FLORENCE

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Drake and Miss Viola Fay of Erlanger, were calling on the P. J. Allens, Sunday.

Mrs. Jane Stephens of Dorothy Ave., had as guests recently, a group of friends from the Pleasant Ridge Methodist Church, Cincinnati, where she and Mr. Stephens worshiped during their time of residence in the Queen City. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Chester Schnell, W. E. Packhouse, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Laney and Mr. and Mrs. James Workman.

Pvt. Billy Noel, who is stationed at Camp Breckinridge, Ky., is enjoying several days leave here with homefolks.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Tanner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodward and the P. J. Allens enjoyed Mothers Day together at the home of the latter.

Unintentionally, the names of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Moore, Sr., were omitted from the list of guests at the birthday celebration of Mrs. Sophia Jones. They presented Mrs. Jones with a lovely orchid corsage.

Wallace Craddock and family moved the past week to the Dr. Bickler property on U.S. 42.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Miller were Mrs. John Dolwick, Jr., Mrs. Maude Graham, Mrs. Frank Hogan, Blayne Miller and H. B. Simpson.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keyer had as dinner guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Keyer and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Carpenter.

T. C. Crume, Jr., and wife of Charleston, Ind., were visiting relatives here over the weekend.

Robert Woodward recently made a business trip to Indianapolis, Ind. He reports the farm work progressing nicely in that section, with the major part of the flowing dale and the sheep all shored.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Choney are now occupying the new home they recently purchased in Clutterbuck subdivision on Burlington Pike.

Friends here of Otto Lindner regret to learn that he has been confined to Christ Hospital due to surgery. However, he expected to return to his home in Bond Hill, Sunday. Mrs. Lindner was the former Effie Daugherty.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Westermeyer of Erlanger, are being congratulated over the arrival of a son, Thomas Anthony, born May 1 at St. Elizabeth Hospital. Mrs. Westermeyer was the former Mary Knox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Knox of U.S. 42.

Rev. C. N. Ogg has recently returned from Georgia, where he held a successful revival. Rev. Tilton of the Erlanger Methodist Church, has also concluded a revival in Tennessee.

Mrs. H. T. Barnett entered St. Elizabeth Hospital, Monday, and will submit to surgery Wednesday. Her friends wish her the best.

The many friends of Mrs. Minnie Daugherty regret that she suffered a fractured hip bone in a fall recently. She is the mother of Dr. Harry Daugherty. The best of luck to her.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Abbott are proud parents of a baby girl, born recently at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Mrs. Lida Hood of Locust Street, is confined to St. Elizabeth Hospital, due to eye surgery.

The best of luck to Mrs. Tony Howard, who suffered a fractured ankle bone when she slipped on a rock and fell recently at her home on Uri Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keyer had as recent callers, Mr. and Mrs. McLaney of Burlington.

Woman's Society Meets

The final meeting of the year for the Woman's Society of the Florence Methodist Church was held May 6 at the church, Mrs. S. J. Bradley presiding. Following the opening prayer by Mrs. C. A. McKibben, a period of business discussion was engaged in prior to the hearing of reports. The group enjoyed lunch and a fellowship hour, preceding the afternoon session. A guest, Mrs. C. R. Marshall, District President, performed the installation service for new officers, who are to serve during the next year, which begins in June. Mrs. Jane Stephens gave the devotional, which included the song "More Love to Thee," and a prayer in poetry by Mrs. W. R. Miller. Mrs. Mildred Munday presented the program, her subject being, "We Cannot Love Without Sharing." Two new members, Miss Mae Siningar and Mrs. Marian Lucas, were welcomed into the society. Attending were: Mesdames Bradley, H. Knox, L. Allen, J. Stephens, Ida and Eva Miller, C. McKibben, C. West, M. Lucas, H. Barnett, N. Mitchell, M. Munday, P. Choney, H. Daugherty, and Miss Mae Siningar.

MAGIC IN MODERN HEATING!

Coleman

Blend-Air

NEWEST, FINEST IN AUTOMATIC CENTRAL HEATING COMFORT

Here's low-cost heating magic that gives amazing even-heat distribution. Individual heat regulation in every room with over-all thermostat control. Pre-engineered and prefabricated, simple and easy to install. Small 3 1/2-inch warm air ducts save up to $100 on installation. Install Blend-Air for a better heated home.

THE DUCTS

THE MAGIC BLENDER

THE WARM AIR FURNACE for Gas or Oil

This simple, small 3 1/2-inch prefabricated pipe fits any construction. A revolutionary new achievement that simplifies installation, reduces its cost. Flexible elbows bend around obstacles easily. Save costly metalwork on the job, speed installation.

Each room has its own individual blender. It receives (through the 3 1/2-inch ducts) the warm air from the furnace. This pulls in room air and blends it with the freshly heated furnace air; circulates the blended air through the room, giving even, moving warmth for healthful comfort.

Here is the powerful modumatic-comfort Coleman furnace that forces warm air through individual ducts leading to each room. Compact, space-saving, a powerful heating plant.

Inspect Blend-Air before you put any heat in your home!

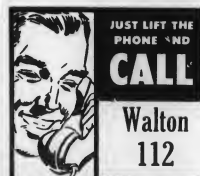

If you have not seen Blend-Air in operation, you cannot know how this new, modern development in the heating industry heats evenly for whole-house warmth. It's backed by Coleman's national reputation for precision manufacture and economy performance. Lowers the cost of installing central heating - puts it within reach of thousands more American home owners!

Let us show you the new revolutionary Blend-Air. Let us show you why "Comfort costs so little with a Coleman!"
